MCBEE STRATEGIC LLC — OHIO STATE TRUSTEES CONTRACTING SCANDAL

(UPDATE, AUG. 15, 2014)—Investigation into the bizarre firing of Ohio State's beloved Marching Band Director, JON WATERS, has uncovered shocking conduct by Ohio State's Board of Trustees. See Ohio State band Director Jon Waters in action in this 2014 YouTube trailer. Compare that to Michael V. Drake's prior experience with the Stanford band at the 2013 Rose Bowl. The contrast in professionalism is stark.

Incoming President MICHAEL V. DRAKE was supported in that decision to fire Waters without even a hearing by JEFFREY WADSWORTH, President of the OSU Trustees.

Wadsworth is the CEO of BATTELLE MEMORIAL INSTITUTE. He preceded Drake's move to Ohio, having moved from California where he was employed by Drake's alma mater, the UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA TRUSTEES, at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory (LLNL). Curiously, Wadsworth's move to Ohio was at the same time as the theft of Leader Technologies' source code by The Eclipse Foundation / IBM, and Leader's research projects with Battelle and LLNL. Hmmm. It is now evident that Eclipse simply gave Leader's invention to Facebook as it was coming off of Leader's engineering drawing board and was being secretly shuffled to them by Leader's Washington D.C. and Silicon Valley attorneys (Read: cronies of Drake and Wadsworth.)

MCBEE STRATEGIC—BATTELLE'S TOP LOBBYIST

Washington lobby databases show that Wadsworth employs MCBEE STRATEGIC, a lobbying firm that "aligned" with Facebook's COOLEY GODWARD LLP in April 2009 to help dole out the Administration's

FIG. A—JEFFREY WADSWORTH, President, The Ohio State University Board of Trustees; CEO, Battelle Memorial Institute. Wadsworth's lobbyist, McBee Strategic, has at least 12 contracts with Ohio State. Before coming to Battelle, Wadsworth had no prior ties to Ohio, Ohio State or the Big 10; neither did Michael V. Drake. Their ties are all in California, LLNL, Univ. of Calif., Stanford.

energy stimulus funds. Congressional testimony revealed that most of the $31 billion in taxpayer funds went to political cronies, and almost all of the projects have failed. Cooley Godward is the law firm at the center of the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption scandal, where OSU graduate MICHAEL MCKIBBEN'S invention of social networking was confiscated by the federal government with Cooley's now evident assistance. See sidebar Request for Congressional Intervention.

Ohio State has contracts with at least 12 MCBEE STRATEGIC clients. Four of those McBee clients are represented legally by ARENT FOX LLP who has been appointed by Drake to the ongoing Waters affair. Jump to the McBee investigation results below.

WADSWORTH'S DOUBLE-DEALING

Wadsworth's McBee Strategic ties are gargantuan conflicts of interest for the OSU Board of Trustees. The double-dealing by Wadsworth, and the evident collusion by others, corrupts all trustee proceedings, including the "unanimous" decision to fire Jon Waters. How or if the Waters affair and Wadsworth's McBee Strategic double-dealing are related remains a mystery. However, the facts are what they are.

Clearly, if the OSU Trustees are willing to cheat on contract awards, they are willing to cheat on the Waters firing too.

(AUG. 13, 2014)—A regular AFI commenter provided a heads up about the Massive Open Online Course (MOOC) initiative. That investigation has opened Pandora's Box. Readers will be surprised at the path those facts have taken. Strap on your seatbelts.

MOOC is a heavily promoted education initiative of The Eclipse Foundation. Eclipse is also the source of the theft of Leader Technologies' source code as AFI has only recently discovered. Eclipse illegally gave Leader's code to Mark Zuckerberg and Facebook, among others. See previous post.

Eclipse was founded by IBM in late 2001 while Leader was perfecting its invention and sharing the progress with their attorneys. Hindsight shows those attorneys were untrustworthy. IBM's attorneys included Leader's attorney, James P. Chandler, III, and David J. Kappos, later Obama's Patent Office director. According to Leader, Chandler did not disclose his conflict of interest which now appears to be the genesis of Eclipse... and therefore, MOOC.

As a parting act, Kappos secretly ordered Leader's patent invalidated last year, even though Leader proved in federal court that Facebook is guilty of infringing this patent on 11 of 11 counts. Kappos was obviously under orders from his former employer. See previous post.

As we reported in the previous post, Eclipse promotes "The Internet of Things" whereby Eclipse members control all digital communications globally, right down to your toaster.

ECLIPSE WANTS CONTROL OF GLOBAL EDUCATION VIA MOOC

MOOC surrogates have been moved into prominent academic positions to facilitate Eclipse hegemony.

Take Ohio State University for example. MOOC advocates have targeted Ohio State and Columbus-based Battelle Memorial Institute. Battelle has $6.2 billion in annual revenue, FIG. 1—MICHAEL V. DRAKE, President, The Ohio State University fired beloved OSU Band Director, Jon Waters, in one of his first acts as the new president of the university. The decision was unanimously supported by the OSU Trustees. The study used as justification relies on much fabricated data and half truths about an alleged "highly sexualized culture." More than half of the eight women cited refute the findings and the use of their names as a misrepresentation of their words. Those women support Waters' reinstatement.

The topic of sexual assault has exploded onto the national scene in the mainstream media in recent weeks. After all, who can argue that it is not a worthy topic at any time, anywhere? However, the overemphasis appears to be yet another distraction from analysis of the Obama Administration's mounting policy failures. The fact that OSU's Drake is playing that hand triggered AFI researchers to investigate his past. The skeletons were not hard to find.

Drake's arrogant disregard for the public outcry against this decision will likely get him run out of Ohio on rails, according to sources close to the situation. Photo: Ohio State.

much of it from government contracts. Ohio State's budget for 2014 is $5.2 billion.

OHIO STATE'S PROVOST JOSEPH E. STEINMETZ PITCHES MOOC

In May 2013, Ohio State's current Provost, Joseph E. Steinmetz, heavily promoted MOOC in his farewell Observer article as outgoing President of the Association for Psychological Science.

In the article Steinmetz sang the praises of "Big Data" and Internet-based education. He wrote "The Internet is changing this world" and singled out MOOCs. Four months later, Google announced its commitment to MOOC. Oracle followed in lockstep.

JEFFREY WADSWORTH, OSU TRUSTEE PRESIDENT, GIVES CONTRACTS TO GOOGLE AND ORACLE, WHO ARE CLIENTS OF HIS BATTELLE LOBBYIST, MCBEE STRATEGIC

The President of the Ohio State Board of Trustees is Jeffrey Wadsworth. Wadsworth has been the CEO and President of Battelle since December 2008, and an OSU trustee since June 2010. Between 1992 to 2002 Wadsworth was Deputy Director of Science and Technology at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory (LLNL) managed by the University of California trustees.

One of Wadsworth/Battelle's Washington DC lobbyists is McBee Strategic LLC. McBee lists at least twelve (12) current clients with Ohio State contracts and relationships, including Oracle and Google. Other relationships include Alcoa, Babcock & Wilcox, Boeing, Charter Communications, Enterprise Community Partners, GE Energy, Honeywell, JPMorgan, Praxair and Time Warner Cable.

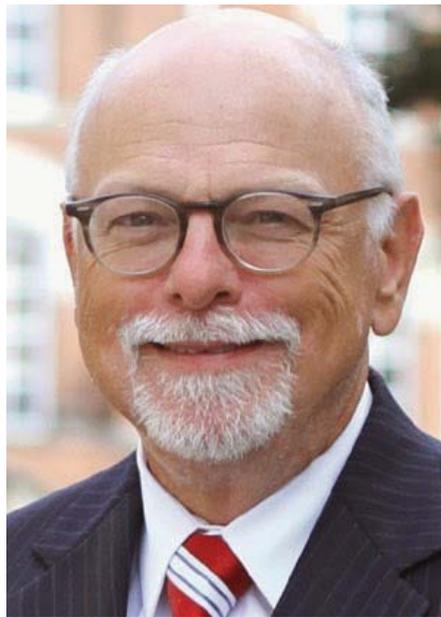

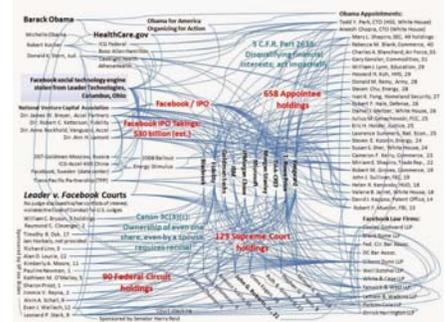

FIG. 2—JOSEPH E. STEINMETZ, Ohio State Provost, sang the praises of MOOC in his final editorial as president of the Association for Psychological Sciences. A few months later, OSU vendors Google and Oracle announced MOOC initiatives to which Ohio State has joined. Steinmetz failed to disclose that OSU Trustee President, Jeffrey Wadsworth's lobbying firm, McBee Strategic, benefits from OSU decisions favorable to Oracle, Google and MOOC. Photo: OBS.

FIG. 3—JEFFREY WADSWORTH, President, The Ohio State University Board of Trustees; CEO, Battelle Memorial Institute. Wadsworth employs McBee Strategic as a Washington D.C. lobbyist. At least 12 of McBee Strategic's clients have key contracts and relationships with Ohio State University. Decisions favorable to these firms benefit Wadsworth personally, as well as Battelle. W LL HUMANKIND EVER LEARN? Facebook's Orwellian doublespeak about property and privacy (theft) merely repeats the eventual dehumanization of the individual under MAO's Red Star, Stalin's SOVIET Hammer & Cycle and Hitler's NAZI Swastika. Respect for the inalienable rights of each individual is a bedrock value of democracy. The members of the Facebook Cabal abuse this principle at every opportunity. They evidently believe that they deserve special privileges and are willing to lie, cheat and steal in order to treat themselves to these privileges.

OSU DECISIONS THAT BENEFIT GOOGLE, ORACLE AND 10 OTHER FIRMS ALSO BENEFIT MCBEE STRATEGIC, WADSWORTH'S LOBBYIST—CLASSIC CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

By promoting MOOC and McBee's dozen Ohio State clients, Steinmetz and Wadsworth are benefiting Wadsworth personally. Such conduct is a classical conflict of interest.

As AFI readers know, McBee Strategic plays prominently in the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption. Facebook's trial attorney in Leader v. Facebook, Cooley Godward LLP, is partners with McBee, and those two firms are believed to have directed much of the cronyism of the failed energy stimulus in which tens of billions of dollars of taxpayer dollars were shuffled to political hacks of the current Administration.

IRONY: OHIO STATE STEALS VALUABLE INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY FROM AN OHIO STATE GRAD—MICHAEL MCKIBBEN

Ironically, since MOOC relies on Eclipse source code originally stolen from Columbus, Ohio-based Leader Technologies, Inc., Ohio State is promoting the stolen property of one of its own—Leader's inventor, Michael McKibben, who is a '73 Ohio State civil engineering graduate and 4-year member as well as squad leader of the famed OSU band. We asked him for his reaction to these new developments regarding MOOC and OSU. He said, "I am not surprised, but I am saddened that the ethical standards among the OSU leadership are simply following the herd."

McKibben continued, "That's probably why they are attacking the band. The OSU band is where I first encountered a culture that worked hard, strived for excellence, knew how to have fun in working hard, and took the high ground. The Animal House innuendo is so not who we were, or who the current band is. It's an insulting, nasty smear campaign."

MICHAEL V. DRAKE'S CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

OSU Trustee President Wadsworth's University of California ties to Ohio State's new president, Dr. Michael V. Drake, have come under scrutiny in recent weeks. Drake was director of policy for the UC medical schools and was chancellor at UC Irvine. Wadsworth worked at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory which was managed by the UC Trustees. Neither man had prior ties to Ohio or Ohio State.

MICHAEL DRAKE "KNEW OR SHOULD HAVE KNOWN" ABOUT A POLITICAL DONATION MADE TO BETTY MONTGOMERY BY HIS STANFORD COLLEAGUE, WOODROW A. MYERS

Using Drake's argument for firing OSU Marching Band Director Jon Waters, Drake "knew or should have known" that Betty Montgomery had taken political money from his Stanford colleague Woodrow A. Myers.

FIG. 5—BETTY D. MONTGOMERY, former Ohio Attorney General, was selected by President Michael V. Drake to lead a continuing investigation into allegations of a "culture of sexualization" within the Ohio State University Marching Band. Drake fired the band director, Jon Waters, prior to this investigation. Montgomery has failed to disclose that she took political contributions from Drake's friend and Stanford colleague, Woodrow A. Myers, in 2006 when he was Chief Medical Officer at WellPoint, Inc. Photo: DiverseEducation.com.

MICHAEL DRAKE "KNEW OR SHOULD HAVE KNOWN" THAT HIS FRIEND WOODROW A. MYERS' ASSOCIATION WITH ANTHEM BLUE CROSS BLUE SHIELD IS IN CONFLICT WITH OSU TRUSTEE ERIN P. HOEFLINGER, ON ALL MATTERS SHE ADVOCATES

Myers was also corporate medical director at Anthem Blue Cross Blue Shield. OSU Trustee Erin P. Hoeflinger is the current president of Anthem Blue Cross Blue Shield in Ohio. This conflict of interest casts a cloud of bias over Drake's and Hoeflinger's association on the OSU Trustees, especially on healthcare-related matters.

FIG. 6—WOODROW A. MYERS, former Chief Medical Officer of Wellpoint, Inc. During that time, Wellpoint made at least one political contribution to Betty Montgomery. Myers is a fellow recipient, with Michael V. Drake, of the Stanford Black Alumni Hall of Fame Community Service Award. Myers was also the Chief Medical Director at Anthem Blue Cross Blue Shield. OSU Trustee Erin P. Hoeflinger, is President of Anthem Blue Cross Blue Shield of Ohio. The bottom line there are multiple conflicts of interest among Drake's friend Myers and Ohio State trustees. BIZARRE LINKAGE—CULTURE OF UNDISCLOSED CONFLICTS

The conflicts of interest among Drake, Steinmetz, MOOC, Oracle, Google, The Eclipse Foundation, Myers, Montgomery, Vaughn, Arent Fox, UC, Stanford, McBee Strategic, Wadsworth and Battelle, and this bizarre set of linkages among the Jon Waters affair, the theft of Leader Technologies' code, and the global MOOC initiative, are puzzling facts.

MOOC certainly figures prominently into the misconduct of the OSU leadership. But, how did Director Jon Waters and the OSU Marching Band threaten that collusion?

Regardless of the marching band connection, OSU's leaders have much to answer for regarding their "Culture of Undisclosed Conflicts."

Perhaps it is all just coincidental. However, the coincidences in the Leader v. Facebook matter are now piled so high and deep that they are starting to block out the sun... can anyone say "eclipse?"

FIG. 7—MCBEE STRATEGIC is a Battelle Memorial Institute lobbyist in Washington D.C. OUR MISSION

American citizens must fight abuse of the constitutional right for authors and inventors to enjoy the fruits of their inventions, as a matter of matter of basic property rights and sound public policy. Otherwise, instead of innovation, creativity, genius, ideas, vision, courage, entrepreneurship, respect, property, rejuvenation, morals, ethics, values, renewal, truth, facts, rights, privacy, solutions and judicial faithfulness,

. . . our society and economy will be dragged down (and eventually destroyed) by copying, infringement, thievery, counterfeiting, hacking, greed, misinformation, exploitation, abuse, waste, disrespect, falsity, corruption, bribery, coercion, intimidation, doublespeak, misconduct, lies, deception, attorney "dark arts," destruction, confusion, dishonesty, judicial chicanery and lawlessness.

If we do not speak up, impeach derelict judges and imprison corrupt attorneys, we cannot possibly hope to start fixing the current ills in our society. Without justice and respect for private property, democracy has no sure foundation.

Just the facts maam. Taking bets Ohio State sees a new president and provost shortly, not to mention a shakeup in the trustees. These conflicts make Tressel's tattoo-gate, Gee's joke-gate and Waters' ramp-gate look absolutely juvenile. We are an opinion blog that advocates for strong intellectual property rights. We welcome commenters and contributors. The Leader v. Facebook patent infringement case first came to our attention after learning that the trial judge, Leonard P. The judicial misconduct has deteriorated from there, replete with two of the three judges on the Federal Circuit appeal panel, Judges Alan D. Lourie and Kimberly A. This would be the newly-minted "David Vaughn Consulting Group?"

Vaughn has spent his whole career as a federal prosecutor. He seems to be trying very hard to hide this fact. His California background with Michael Drake, the Arent Fox LLP law firm, and Ernst & Young need to be investigated. This is getting smellier by the moment.

For those of us who follow the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption scandal, this Ohio State scandal seems quite familiar. It reads like the same perpetrators. It is certainly a similar pattern of behavior by the bad guys. Similar university backgrounds. etc. etc. etc. etc. Gag.

Dear Dr Drake,

Petty tough start at OSU, huh? After looking at your past experiences and track record, including your hiring, firing, and re-hiring (in about 30 minutes) of left wing loon , radical lawyer Erwin Chemerinsky in 2007 as Dean of UC Irvine law school, I must say that you are an enigma. I sincerely hope that you have become engaged with the Eclipse group by innocent mistake rather than by greedy design. They will use you, eat you up, and spit you out. (Oops, probably shouldn't have used that phrase since Jeffrey Dahmer was an OSU grad).

Back to your opening salvo.....firing a beloved band leader. I have a couple of questions for you. Are you aware that your new Harvard cohorts , albeit indirect, have a long tradition of getting naked and running around screaming like a bunch of ninnies on the night before they start their final exams? I have seen some of those people clothed....not that attractive. And, are you aware that your alma mater, Stanford, has naked things daily? Do you recall"full moon on the Quad"? How about " frolicking around three virgins"? Or, how about " Columbae" at the library? Did you ever get curious and frolicking with them? Heck, the Stanford band is the biggest bunch of goofballs on the planet.

I proffer the following.....rehire the beloved band director. Then spend your time on providing your students with a "full " education rather than imposing the "MOOC" agenda that the serial Facebook thieves are providing. If the core of the fruit is rotten then it is only a matter of time that the fruit becomes rotten throughout. Let's teach them about drives of 2003-2004 evidence from Leader Technologies that could prove actual theft (and therefore claims even more serious than infringement). In addition, Facebook's appeal attorney, Thomas G. Hungar of Gibson Dunn LLP, has close personal ties to just about every judicial player in this story. The misconduct appears to reach into the U.S. Patent Office through abuse of the reexamination process by Facebook. We will stay focused on Leader v. Facebook until justice is served, but we also welcome news and analysis of intellectual property abuse in other cases as well.

how good America is... not how bad it is. Let's teach them about the beautiful design of our Constitutional republic rather than the benefits of central control and socialism. Let's teach them that socializing should include respectful one on one conversation and not just texting and face booking. Let's teach them that getting naked and groping each other is unacceptable, and that respect for others begins with respecting oneself. And let's remind them that naked tuba players are not attractive to the cute flutist.

Well, it's been great visiting with you, Dr Drake.

Sincerely, TEX

This is a very sweet and short (1 min. 40 sec.) video that shows the Ohio State band for those unfamiliar with their traditions. Several readers have sent it today. It features fired Director Jon Waters. What the heck is going on in Ohio? They eat their own apparently.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR U.S. JUDGES

"CANON 2: A JUDGE SHOULD AVOID IMPROPRIETY AND THE APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY IN ALL ACTIVITIES"

GALLERY OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Judge Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, trial judge in Leader Techs, Inc. v. Facebook, Inc., 770 F. Supp. 2d 686 (D.Del. 2011). Judge Stark heard his jury foreman admit that the jury made the on-sale bar decision without any evidence other than speculation, and yet he supported that verdict anyway. Just months before trial, Judge Stark allowed Facebook to add the on-sale bar claim after the close of all fact discovery and blocked Leader from preparing its defenses to this new claim. Judge Stark allowed the claims despite Leader's prophetic argument that the action would confuse the jury and prejudice Leader. (Read Leader's May 20, 2010 motion here.) He also permitted the jury to ignore the Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar, even after instructing the jury to use it. (See that Jury Instruction No. 4.7 here.) He also contradicted his own instruction to Leader to answer

Email comment by Huh?

THE OHIO STATE TRUSTEES ARE TOTAL HYPOCRITES, AND THEREFORE PROBABLY EARNED THEIR IMAGE AS THUGS.

For grins I just read through their allegedly unbiased report about the "Midnight Ramp." They said "She also stated that female members have gone shopping together at Victoria's Secret to buy underwear for the event."

What a bunch of flaming hypocrites!!!! Some of the most prominent buildings at Ohio State are now named after the FOUNDER of Victoria's Secret ----- LESLIE WEXNER----- Wexner Center for the Arts, Wexner Medical Center, The Les Wexner Football Complex... I wonder if Wexner gave $30 million for the three? Jon Waters generated $30million real dollars last year for the university in the Apple iPad commercial and I don't see Waters' name going up on any buildings. Instead, these b____s fire him!!

The trustees like WEXNER'S money, but they don't like his product that makes his money???? Huh. You can tell this was written by a male outsider. First, if he was from Ohio he would have known this was a horribly contradictory statement, and if he was a woman he'd know that most of us buy product (and support Ohio State) from that store. So what's the big deal? Oh my goodness, the OSU band girls buy underwear!!!! This situation just gets more ignorant every time I think about it.

Logic now says if the Trustees are going to fire Waters because his female band members buy from Victoria's Secret, then WEXNER'S name should be pulled down from every building at the University immediately.

These Trustees must be fired by the Ohio legislature immediately. They are a disgrace.

[Editors' Note]

Huh! and other Readers should realize that this OSU Trustee Cartel has been forming for a long time. In fact, Michael V. Drake's Stanford Black Alumni crony Woodrow A. Myers has been spreading Ohio campaign donations around liberally since the 2006 election cycle through his company, WELLPOINT, INC.

Our investigators had gathered this information for this post, but focused initially only on Betty Montgomery's tie to Michael Drake and Jeff Wadsworth. However, since Huh! has proposed the possibility that the Ohio legislature step in and sanction the OSU Trustees, you should realize that I-OWE-YOU'S going back to 2006 and Betty Montgomery will be called in to stop that, we believe.

We know this crowd. They have been patiently building to this point for many years. We are still baffled why they have singled out the OSU Band and Jon Waters, but that question mark aside, will loyal Buckeyes hear more crickets when they march to the statehouse? We believe only if they, metaphorically speaking, tuck their tails between their legs and walk away when they encounter more abusive conduct. This OSU Trustee Cartel is a beast that must be taught to sit. They work for the citizens of Ohio, at their pleasure, not the other way around.

Here's proof that the OSU Trustee Cartel may have bought off many Ohio legislators:

OHIO LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION TO REINSTATE JON WATERS

I just took a look at the Ohio Joint Legislative Code of Ethics. It's pretty much the same in my state on "Voting Abstention." If a motion to reinstate Jon Waters comes before The Ohio General Assembly, first they'd be obliged as Buckeyes to play the official state rock song, Hang On Sloop, by the Ohio State Marching Band, LOL. Ouch.

Then, any Ohio legislator with conflicts would be obliged to abstain from the vote. That would include anyone who took a donation from WELLPOINT, INC., BETTY MONTGOMERY, MICHAEL V. DRAKE, WOODROW A. MEYER, BATTELLE, STANFORD, UC, LIVERMORE LABS, DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY, OAK RIDGE LABS, BLUE CROSS BLUE SHIELD, ORACLE, MOOC, ECLIPSE FOUNDATION, ET. or was associated with or benefited from MCBEE STRATEGIC, or any of McBee Strategic's clients. Given the probable compromise of the OSU Board of Trustees, any legislator with a relationship, including family members and employers, to any of the OSU TRUSTEES, should also abstain....oh what a mess this is.

Once the group of legislators eligible to vote is determined, however, small, only then could a vote be taken.

The general ethical principle is that the legislator should "avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety." The OSU Trustee president and the other trustees appear to have ignored this fundamental ethical principle. What nefarious agenda is afoot? My guess: Get the MOOC/IBM/THE ECLIPSE FOUNDATION/NSA pipelines laid at Ohio State University before Obama leaves office. There, I said it.

secretcy of chambers to support Facebook and prevent the on-sale bar verdict from being overturned—a clear breach of constitutional due process.

Judge Evan J. Wallach, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, member of the three-judge panel in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Wallach is not a patent attorney. This begs the question as to why a judge with no knowledge of patent law was assigned to the case. Would anyone ask a dentist to perform brain surgery? The Federal Circuit was specially formed to appoint patent-knowledgeable judges to patent cases. There is no evidence so far in the judicial disclosures that Judge Wallach holds stock in Facebook, although when he was asked on a motion to disclose potential Facebook holdings and other conflicts of interest, he refused along with the other judges. See Motion to Disclose Conflicts of Interest.

Judge Wallach continued in silence even after Clerk of Court Horbaly failed to provide him with Dr. Lakshmi Arunachalam's motions (according to his Federal Circuit staffer Valeri White), and yet the Clerk signed an order regarding that motion on Judge Wallach's behalf. See a full analysis of these events at Donna Kline Now! Judge Wallach also failed to police his court's violation of Leader's Fifth and 14th Amendment constitutional right to due process when he participated in the fabrication of new arguments and evidence for Facebook in the secrecy of judge's chambers after he had just invalidated Facebook's sole remaining item of evidence (using disbelieved testimony as ostensible evidence of an opposite). Judge Wallach also failed to police his court when he failed to apply the Supreme Court's Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar evidence, which included even the Federal Circuit's own Group One v. Hallmark Cards, Inc. test—a test which Judge Lourie should have advised Judge Wallach to follow since Judge Lourie helped write that opinion. Group One test omission analysis.

Clerk of Court Jan Horbaly, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, clerk who signed all the opinions in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Clerk Horbaly and his staff obfuscated when the court's ruling was challenged by an amicus curiae brief revealing clear mistakes of law and new evidence. See analysis of the misconduct and misrepresentations within the Federal Circuit Clerk of Court in Leader v. Facebook. Mr. Horbaly failed to disclose his conflicts of interest and close associations with numerous Facebook attorneys and law firms, as well as

shareholders, Microsoft, who is a Director of The Federal Circuit Bar Association where Mr. Horbaly is an ex officio officer. Additionally, the DC Bar revealed in a written statement that Clerk Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in the District of Columbia. [Editorial: What does that make the Federal Circuit with its location within in a stone's throw of the White House? A self-governing state?]

Judge Randall R. Rader, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, chief judge responsible for the (mis)conduct of his judges and Clerk of Court in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Rader failed to manage his court resulting in a likely situation where his judges never even received briefs that they allegedly ruled on in favor of Facebook. Judge Rader also failed to disclose his conflicting relationships with a Leader principle with whom he may have had deep professional differences during his time at the Senate Judiciary Committee—his former professor of law at George Washington University Law Center, former Leader director Professor James

P. Chandler. See analysis of Judge Rader's undisclosed conflicts of interest in Leader v. Facebook.

Judge Rader also did not stop his judges from creating new arguments and evidence for Facebook in the secrecy of chambers—after they had debunked all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, which is a clear breach of constitutional due process.
