FIRING OF OSU BAND LEADER EXPOSES CORRUPTION AT BATTELLE LABS, PATENT OFFICE, NSA

JEFFREY WADSWORTH, BATTELLE CEO AND OSU TRUSTEE PRESIDENT, DOLES OUT OSU CONTRACTS TO FACEBOOK CARTEL THRU HIS MCBEE STRATEGIC LLC LOBBYIST

CONTRIBUTING WRITERS | OPINION | AMERICANS FOR INNOVATION | OCT. 10, 2014, UPDATED OCT. 14 | PDF

(OCT. 14, 2014)—NEWS UPDATE

BETTY MONTGOMERY HIDES INVESTMENTS IN OSU- WADSWORTH-MCBEE STRATEGIC CLIENTS INSIDE HER MUTUAL FUNDS—LEGALIZED PAYOLA?

On Mar. 19, 2014, former Ohio Attorney General, Betty Montgomery, filed her required 2014 financial disclosure with the Ohio Ethics Commission. Montgomery was appointed by OSU President MICHAEL V. DRAKE to head an inquiry into the OSU Marching Band culture after he fired director Jon Waters on a Title IX pretext. This inquiry appears to be a fishing expedition. Fishing expeditions (trolling for evidence to build a case for which one does not have the evidence) are illegal in Ohio. Montgomery surely knows this as former Ohio attorney general. Nonetheless, she disclosed holdings in BlackRock mutual funds.

SEC records reveal that the fund holds stock in 14 OF THE 16 OSU CONTRACTORS who are also clients of MCBEE STRATEGIC, BARACK OBAMA'S conduit for green energy stimulus funds to political cronies and the lobbyist for OSU Trustee President JEFFREY WADSWORTH and his company, BATTELLE LABS. Those stocks include prominent players in the M.O.O.C. (Massive Open Online Course) initiative to centralize higher education under federal control. JPMORGAN figures prominently in Montgomery's and Wadsworth's crony relationships. Such conflicts of interest taint the task force with evident bias. Montgomery agreed to be removed by the governor "if it is found that [s]he has used his[her] office corruptly." Ohio Revise Code 3.04. OSU President MICHAEL V. DRAKE signed the same statement. Click here to read "Mutual Funds and Conflicts Concealment among Public Officials at Ohio State—Betty Montgomery Case Study"

It appears time for Ohio Governor JOHN KASICH to step in before his inaction destroys the band's storied 136-year tradition at the hands of Drake and Wadsworth, who are creating a caustic organizational environment at OSU. Montgomery's and Drake's financial nondisclosures give Kasich a good reason to step in.

(OCT. 10, 2014)—AFI has just received a copy of a new Congressional Briefing. See Fig. 2 below. Click here to download PDF. It exposes a global agenda to control American elections in perpetuity. It fleshes out what Dick Morris has exposed in his runaway bestseller, Power Grab—Obama's Dangerous Plan for a One-Party Nation.

The Facebook Cartel may have overreached when they fired Jon Waters, the Ohio State Marching Band director. Up until that point, the Cartel's global Common Core-like M.O.O.C. university strategy to centralize control of university education (Massive Open Online Course) was largely unknown.

MOOC appears to be the higher education version of Common Core. It is yet another attempt by the "progressive" Facebook Cartel to move higher education under tight federal control—all in the name of "increased social engagement."

At the same time, the Cartel has been busy taking control of the underlying technical infrastructure of America at the IRS, HHS, SEC, FEC, Commerce, HealthCare.gov and now the FCC with their push to abolish net neutrality without submitting the matter to Congress.

OHIO STATE'S MOOC STALLED BY TITLE IX—OSU BAND'S 136-YEAR TRADITION SACRIFICED BY HAPLESS CALIFORNIANS

FIG. 1—JEFFREY WADSWORTH, OSU Trustee President; CEO, Battelle Memorial Institute. Wadsworth appears to have been ordered by the Facebook Cartel to get the Common Core-like MOOC initiative (Massive Open Online Course) moving at Ohio State. So, he sacrificed the Marching Band as the pretext to get out of the university's Title IX investigations. This action exposed Wadsworth's prior association with Columbus innovator, Michael McKibben, chairman and founder, Leader Technologies, and McKibben's invention of social networking, which he shared confidentially (he thought) with Battelle back in 2001. This included proposing a project with Harvard and IBM. Facebook started 18 months later.

UPDATE OCT. 12 2014

OSU PRESIDENT MICHAEL V. DRAKE FAILED TO DISCLOSE HIS INVESTMENTS

On Sep. 29, 2014, OSU president MICHAEL V. DRAKE filed a required financial disclosure with the Ohio Ethics Commission.

This was two months after he fired OSU Marching Band director, Jon Waters, on a Title IX pretext. Click here to read Drake's disclosure.

Shockingly, Drake disclosed his broker's name rather than his financial holdings. The broker, "Bank of the West Investment/Mutual Funds," has no mutual fund, but rather, they broker "an extensive list of no-load mutual funds from a variety of fund families." In fact, they represent over 100 funds. We highlighted some of the known members of the Ohio State is the 3rd largest university in the country and a critical component in the MOOC roll out. That roll out was stalled by an ongoing Title IX investigation.

Jeffrey Wadsworth, OSU's Trustee president, appears to have been under orders from the Cartel to get MOOC rolling at Ohio State. Wadsworth and provost Joseph A. Steinmetz chose to sacrifice the OSU band.

Wadsworth and new OSU President Michael V. Drake had matriculated from California to Ohio and haven't a clue about the OSU band's 136-year tradition.

Not surprisingly, the pretext worked like magic. Within a few short weeks, the Department of Education in Washington, D.C. closed the multi-year investigation. A few weeks after that, Steinmetz announced his 12-university "University Innovation Alliance."

WADSWORTH'S DIRTY LITTLE SECRET

Wadsworth's attack on Jon Waters highlighted his prior association with another OSU Band alum, Michael McKibben. McKibben holds the patents on social networking.

In 2002, Wadsworth had signed a technology agreement with McKibben while Wadsworth was a technology director at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory (LLNL). LLNL

UPDATE MAR. 25, 2014

FOUR CRITICAL AFI POSTS ON JUDICIAL COMPROMISE

Fully updated Mar. 25, 2014 in the wake of the Scribd censorship:

1. WAS CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS BLACKMAILED into supporting Obamacare by his ethical compromises in Leader v. Facebook?
2. JUSTICE ROBERTS MENTORED Facebook Gibson Dunn LLP attorneys.
3. JUSTICE ROBERTS HOLDS substantial Facebook financial interests.
4. JUDGE LEONARD STARK FAILED to disclose his Facebook financial interests and his reliance on Facebook's Cooley Godward LLP attorneys for his appointment.

Drake also disclosed he is a director of the bank. Therefore, he has no excuse for failing to disclose materially significant information in a public disclosure. The fact that Drake listed a broker's name rather than his actual financial holdings is appears to be an intentional act to mislead the public.

The Drake disclosure hides his actual financial holdings. For example, JPMorgan is one of the mutual funds brokered by the bank. Numerous of those funds hold JPMorgan stocks. JPMorgan is also an Ohio State donor and vendor. JPMorgan is also a client of Jeffrey Wadsworth's Battelle lobbyist, McBee Strategic LLC.

Drake acknowledged in his disclosure that "DRAKE: filing a false statement may be grounds for removal from public office or dismissal from public employment."

Drake's deceptive financial disclosure is a corrupt calling card.

WADSWORTH REAPPEARED AT BATTELLE

Shortly after the LLNL agreement with McKibben and Leader, Wadsworth took over at Battelle and was off to the races with McKibben's invention, unbeknownst to McKibben . . . until the firing of Jon Waters.

In 2010, McKibben proved that Facebook is infringing his social networking invention and patent on 11 of 11 claims, yet the federal courts (all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court) protected Facebook on an unfounded legal pretext, easily proven so. Tellingly, all the judges in the case held massive amounts of stock in Facebook interests. They were also chummy with Facebook's attorneys. The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges requires judges in such circumstances to disqualify themselves from the case. These judges hammered down anyway, very evidently to protect their Facebook holdings in the coming IPO.

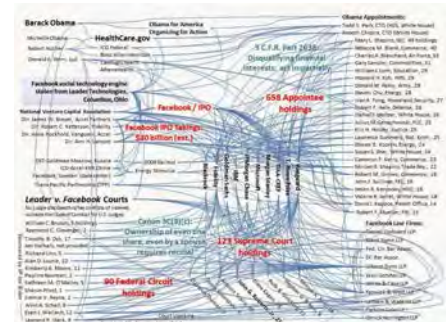

AFI investigations into the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption were the first to identify the Cartel and its tangle of Byzantine relationships. We have observed in these relationships the old adage: “You can fool most of the people most of the time. But, you cannot fool all the people all the time.”

THE FACEBOOK CARTEL—TAKEN DOWN BY A MARCHING BAND?

Thanks to the mistreatment of Jon Waters and the Ohio State University Marching Band, we have discovered the Facebook's Cartel's likely demise—JEFFREY WADSWORTH AND BATTELLE MEMORIAL INSTITUTE.

STOP FACEBOOK PROPERTY THEFT

W LL HUMANKIND EVER LEARN? Facebook's Orwellian doublespeak about property and privacy (theft) merely repeats the eventual dehumanization of the individual under MAO's Red Star, Stalin's SOVIET Hammer & Cycle and Hitler's NAZI Swastika. Respect for the inalienable rights of each individual is a bedrock value of democracy. The members of the Facebook Cabal abuse this principle at every opportunity. They evidently believe that they deserve special privileges and are willing to lie, cheat and steal in order to treat themselves to these privileges.

ASK CONGRESS: PASS THE INVENTOR PROTECTION ACT!

We'll stop here. You can read the briefing for yourself below.

Let us hope the Cartel's overreach and abuse of The Ohio State University Marching Band will be their undoing. That would be poetic justice, to have the mighty Facebook Cartel taken down by a dedicated band of musicians.

Holder announced he will resign. Under a scrupulously non-corrupt presidential administration, Holder could have been the greatest Attorney General this country ever had. But Holder's tragic misperception of his duty caused him to prioritize shielding the chief executive from all legitimate Congressional oversight into alleged criminal violations of law and civil rights violations which were alleged to have been ordered by President Obama for purely partisan motives.

Government can only expand at the expense of the governed and only if the governed accepts it. In today's staggering expansion, the folks paying for it may not be alive yet. It is unimaginable that I would go to the bank and sign an IOU that my grandchildren will be forced to pay so that I can live beyond my current means. That's what we are doing. All of us are complicit.

The primary reason posited for this theft is that "we can not ignore the weak, the minorities, and the suffering". It sounds so good but very few real dollars reach the folks in need and their plight gets worse every year. So what's the solution? The elitists will tell you that we should create more government, more tiers of corruptness, more taxes, more regulations. If the government needs more money or power, then it's ok to use non constitutional means to get it. The perpetrators of this "for the greater good" fraud now blame the successful, hard working citizen for the growing gap between the rich

GIBSON DUNN LLP exposed as one of the most corrupt law firms in America

Investigative Reporter Julia Davis investigates Facebook's Leader v. Facebook attorney Gibson Dunn LLP. She credits this firm with the reason why not a single Wall Street banker has gone to jail since 2008. Click here to read her article "Everybody hates whistleblowers." Examiner.com, Apr. 10, 2012. Here's an excerpt:

"Skillful manipulation of the firm's extensive media connections allows Gibson Dunn to promote their causes, while simultaneously smearing their opponents and silencing embarrassing news coverage."

This statement followed right after Davis cited Facebook's chief inside counsel in the Leader v. Facebook case, Theodore Ullyot, who appears to have helped lead the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption. Interesting word choices associated with Gibson Dunn LLP: manipulation, smear. Attorneys swear a and the poor. If the truth be known , it is exactly the opposite. The hard working family man with a home and a car is literally a "sharecropper" with the government. He doesn't really own his income stream , he only owns 45% of it after all fees,taxes ,surcharges ,tolls ,etc. That would be OK if the use of those funds was not for the destruction and transformation of our free way of life. Through taxes and regulations, like it or not, we are indentured. The folks illegally coming across our borders consume our future. The people who could work but don't , consume our future. The people that falsely receive assistance, consume our future. The duplicity , fraud, and corruption of government bureaucracy consumes our future. And , sadly, the strong armed tactics of EricHolder (Dept of Revenge) , the IRS, the EPA, the NLRB, the NSA, and so on have demonstrated without a doubt, that the agenda is to dismantle a free America.

This recent post on AFI presents the most frightening example of how the elitists plan to complete the task of " transformation " of America. If they want something , they just take it. No problem if it violates the law, the courts and the government agencies stifle enforcement of our laws.....for the greater good. And to make it worse, the Leader theft is mostly about creating personal wealth for the fortunate insiders that took a blood oath of silence and complicity.

Progressives chose many years ago to take the slow train of transformation by controlling our minds.....media, comedy, movies, art, and education. But the platform for social media changed everything.....it sped up the process. Information could flow around the world in seconds rather than weeks or months. The progressives knew that control of social media could greatly enhance the "fundamental transformation of America" and do it quickly. And Barack was their man. He despised our country's history so much that he was willing to sacrifice it all to change the monster previously known as America. Social media was the determining factor in his rise to power.

What was done to Jon Waters was just terrible. However, in the big picture it's almost insignificant. What this incident did do, however, was stoke the small emotional burning embers into a flame. What happened to Leader Technology and Michael McKibben is , however, most significant for the reasons noted above. That theft of patents and know-how set the transformation on a fast track. It allowed for instant riches beyond imagination and the enduring power of mind control of the citizens. If Obama, Biden, Holder, Lerner, Hillary, Michelle, and my neighbor, Larry the liberal, are what we get through this new , less free, America.....no thank you, very much.

By the way, a big ten gallon hat tip to Rep Jim Jordan. You , sir, are a brave man facing a voracious enemy. With officials like you , we have a chance . Without you, we are toast.

Have a great day, TEX

Email comment by TEX:

Don't know about you folks that follow this AFI blog site, but I am tired of people bashing Obama and challenging his competency level. Some say that this administration is not protecting us. Hey, what's the big deal ? I feel safe. Flavia and Mavis feel safe. Let me explain.

They have given us a very secure border. I would think that not one illegal interloper has crossed into America in years. They claimed that Ebola would not come to a city near me (like Dallas) and it hasn't. They are stopping all flights from Ebola laden Liberia, Sierra Leone , and Nigeria. They have stopped ISIS , ISIL, Schmizel, Syria, Iran, Russia, and Chicago in their tracks. They all fear and respect Obama. No one has jumped the White House fence, violated five straight security points, and run rampant in the Green Room. Obama has not had to stand next to a fake sign language person, or been next to a felon with a loaded pistol in an elevator. I know that he wouldn't do a selfie with a blonde Danish Prime Minister at Nelson Mandela's funeral. And I am positive that golf would be secondary to our national issues and his two daughters. Why wouldn't we feel safe?

It looks like the IRS is a fair agency in terms of its politics and goals. Although the NSA has great power, they seem to use it sparingly when spying on us. And, boy, our soldiers, and Ambassadors know that this President has their back. I know that not one American will be beheaded on his watch, and if that happened, he would retaliate with massive fury. He will always shoulder the blame for problems and would never throw someone under the bus. And , most importantly, Obama loves this country and would give his own life in order to enforce our Constitution and laws.

Oh wait.....never mind.

Have a great day, unless you have other plans.....TEX

OUR MISSION

American citizens must fight abuse of the constitutional right for authors and inventors to enjoy the fruits of their inventions, as a matter of matter of basic property rights and sound public policy. Otherwise, instead of innovation, creativity, genius, ideas, vision, courage, entrepreneurship, respect, property, rejuvenation, morals, ethics, values, renewal, truth, facts, rights, privacy, solutions and judicial faithfulness,

... our society and economy will be dragged down (and eventually destroyed) by copying, infringement, thievery, counterfeiting, hacking, greed, misinformation, exploitation, abuse, waste, disrespect, falsity, corruption, bribery, coercion, intimidation, doublespeak, misconduct, lies, deception, attorney "dark arts," destruction, confusion, dishonesty, judicial chicanery and lawlessness.

If we do not speak up, impeach derelict judges and imprison corrupt attorneys, we cannot possibly hope to start fixing the current ills in our society. Without justice and respect for private property, democracy has no sure foundation.

CURRENT EDITORIAL FOCUS

We are an opinion blog that advocates for strong intellectual property rights. We welcome commenters and contributors. The Leader v. Facebook patent infringement case first came to our attention after learning that the trial judge, Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, ignored his jury's admission that they had no evidence to support their on-sale bar verdict, but the judge supported it anyway.

The judicial misconduct has deteriorated from there, replete with two of the three judges on the Federal Circuit appeal panel, Judges Alan D. Lourie and Kimberly A. Moore, holding Facebook stock that they did not disclose to the litigants, and later tried to excuse through a quick motion slipped in at the last minute by the Clerk of Court, Jan Horbaly, and his close friends at The Federal Circuit Bar Association. (The DC Bar subsequently revealed that Mr. Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in Washington D.C.)

The judges ignored shocking new evidence that Mark Zuckerberg withheld 28 hard drives of 2003-2004 evidence from Leader Technologies that could prove actual theft (and therefore claims even more serious than infringement). In addition, Facebook's appeal attorney, Thomas G. Hungar of Gibson Dunn LLP, has close personal ties to just about every judicial player in this story. The misconduct appears to reach into the U.S. Patent Office through abuse of the reexamination process by Facebook. We will stay focused on Leader v. Facebook until justice is served, but we also welcome news and analysis of intellectual property abuse in other cases as well.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR U.S. JUDGES

"CANON 2: A JUDGE SHOULD AVOID IMPROPRIETY AND THE APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY IN ALL ACTIVITIES"

GALLERY OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Judge Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, trial judge in Leader Techs, Inc. v. Facebook, Inc., 770 F. Supp. 2d 686 (D.Del. 2011). Judge Stark heard his jury foreman admit that the jury made the on-sale bar decision without any evidence other than speculation, and yet he supported that verdict anyway. Just months before trial, Judge Stark allowed Facebook to add the on-sale bar claim after the close of all fact discovery and blocked Leader from preparing its defenses to this new claim. Judge Stark allowed the claims despite Leader's prophetic argument that the action would confuse the jury and prejudice Leader. (Read Leader's May 20, 2010 motion here.) He also permitted the jury to ignore the Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar, even after instructing the jury to use it. (See that Jury Instruction No. 4.7 here.) He also contradicted his own instruction to Leader to answer Interrogatory No. 9 in the present tense (2009), then permitted the jury to interpret it as a 2002 admission as well. See his Sep. 14, 2009 Order. Facebook's entire on-sale bar case is based upon this interrogatory. (Editorial: Hardly sufficient to meet the "heavy burden" of the clear and convincing evidence standard.)

Judge Alan D. Lourie, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, panel judge in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Lourie stood to benefit financially from undisclosed holdings in Facebook. See analysis of Judge Lourie's T. Rowe Price holdings re. the Facebook IPO.

Judge Lourie also failed to apply his own law-test in Group One v. Hallmark Cards to the evidence. After debunking all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, Judge Lourie created new argument in the secrecy of chambers to support Facebook and prevent the on-sale bar verdict from being overturned—a clear breach of constitutional due process.

Judge Kimberly A. Moore, U.S.

Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, panel judge in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Moore stood to benefit financially from undisclosed holdings in Facebook.

See disclosure of substantial holdings in Facebook and Facebook-related stocks. Judge

Moore failed to follow the long-held precedent for testing on-sale bar evidence in Pfaff v. Wells

Electronics, Inc.—an evident and intentional omission coming from a former patent law professor. After debunking all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, Judge Moore created new argument in the secrecy of chambers to support Facebook and prevent the on-sale bar verdict from being overturned—a clear breach of constitutional due process.

Judge Evan J. Wallach, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, member of the three-judge panel in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012).

Judge Wallach is not a patent attorney. This begs the question as to why a judge with no knowledge of patent law was assigned to the case. Would anyone ask a dentist to perform brain surgery? The Federal Circuit was specially formed to appoint patent-knowledgeable judges to patent cases. There is no evidence so far in the judicial disclosures that Judge Wallach holds stock in Facebook, although when he was asked on a motion to disclose potential Facebook holdings and other conflicts of interest, he refused along with the other judges. See Motion to Disclose Conflicts of Interest.

Judge Wallach continued in silence even after Clerk of Court

Horbaly failed to provide him with Dr. Lakshmi Arunachalam's motions (according to his Federal Circuit staffer Valeri White), and yet the Clerk signed an order regarding that motion on Judge Wallach's behalf. See a full analysis of these events at Donna Kline Now! Judge Wallach also failed to police his court's violation of Leader's Fifth and 14th Amendment constitutional right to due process when he participated in the fabrication of new arguments and evidence for Facebook in the secrecy of judge's chambers after he had just invalidated Facebook's sole remaining item of evidence (using disbelieved testimony as ostensible evidence of an opposite). Judge Wallach also failed to police his court when he failed to apply the Supreme Court's Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar evidence, which included even the Federal Circuit's own Group One v. Hallmark Cards, Inc. test—a test which Judge Lourie should have advised Judge Wallach to follow since Judge Lourie helped write that opinion. Group One test omission analysis.

Clerk of Court Jan Horbaly, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, clerk who signed all the opinions in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Clerk Horbaly and his staff obfuscated when the court's ruling was challenged by an amicus curiae brief revealing clear mistakes of law and new evidence. See analysis of the misconduct and misrepresentations within the Federal Circuit Clerk of Court in Leader v. Facebook. Mr. Horbaly failed to disclose his conflicts of interest and close associations with numerous Facebook attorneys and law firms, as well as his close association with one of Facebook's largest shareholders, Microsoft, who is a Director of The Federal Circuit Bar Association where Mr. Horbaly is an ex officio officer. Additionally, the DC Bar revealed in a written statement that Clerk Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in the District of Columbia. [Editorial: What does that make the Federal Circuit with its location within in a stone's throw of the White House? A self-governing state?]

Judge Randall R. Rader, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, chief judge responsible for the (mis)conduct of his judges and Clerk of Court in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Rader failed to manage his court resulting in a likely situation where his judges never even received briefs that they allegedly ruled on in favor of Facebook. Judge Rader also failed to disclose his conflicting relationships with a Leader principle with whom he may have had deep professional differences during his time at the Senate Judiciary Committee—his former professor of law at George Washington University Law Center, former Leader director Professor James P. Chandler. See analysis of Judge Rader's undisclosed conflicts of interest in Leader v. Facebook.

Judge Rader also did not stop his judges from creating new arguments and evidence for Facebook in the secrecy of chambers—after they had debunked all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, which is a clear breach of constitutional due process.

HOW TO FILE A FRAUD COMPLAINT AGAINST A UNIVERSITY

The following universities were announced as participants in Ohio State Provost Joseph A. Steinmetz's corrupt MOOC education initiative named "University Innovation Alliance" (UIA). We have identified the instructions and online forms you need to file a complaint with the participants. MOOC stands for "Massive Open Online Course."

You should complain about:

- (1) the intellectual property theft of social networking source code from Leader Technologies, Columbus, Ohio that is the software engine running the UIA;
- (2) the corruption at Ohio State University and OSU's collusion with Battelle Memorial Institute which helped steal the software being used by UIA; and
- (3) the mistreatment of OSU Marching Band Director Jon Waters regarding fabricated Title IX charges that were used to pave the way for Steinmetz to announce UIA.

Universities pride themselves on protection of intellectual property.

Therefore, these universities cannot participate in this abuse of inventor copyrights, patents and trade secrets by The Ohio State Trustees and Administration. If these universities participate knowingly with Ohio State in its theft of intellectual property, then they are aiding and abetting the theft of intellectual property on a "massive" scale... Massive Open Online Course (MOOC) also known as The Eclipse Foundation.
