"POPE JOHN PAUL II IS THE REAL DEAL"

LEADER CEO MICHAEL MCKIBBEN TALKS ABOUT HIS FRIEND

CONTRIBUTING WRITERS | OPINION | AMERICANS FOR INNOVATION | APR. 26, 2014, UPDATED MAY 7, 2014 | PDF

(APR. 26, 2014) —A cool YouTube video titled We Can't Live Without Each Other appeared about a year ago. It was produced by Leader Technologies' CEO, Michael McKibben, and some former colleagues. It chronicled the work of a spunky Gospel group named "Living Sound." Comprised of four different music "teams," they performed around the world, including the former Soviet Union. That's right, back when militant atheism was communist government policy. Remarkably, this Christian group even performed on Soviet TV and on the official 1980 Moscow Summer Olympic film. McKibben was their European Director between 1997 and 1982.

Full citation: We Can't Live Without Each Other \(Нам не жит ь друг без д друга\); music video, A. Pakhmutova (A. Пахмутова), N. Dobronravov (Н. Добронравов) , N. McKibben, Living Sound, 1980, Melodiya Records / Mosfilm / Evgeny Ginzburg-CT USSR.

Living Sound achieved many firsts, including organizing the first integrated concert tour in Apartheid South Africa with Andrea Crouch and the Disciples. They were also the first (and probably only) American Gospel group to perform on national Soviet TV during the height of the Cold War.

On the eve of Pope John Paul II's canonization, we thought readers would appreciate knowing a bit more about Michael McKibben, the real inventor of social networking. It appears he has a saint in his camp—the man who helped bring down communism behind the Iron Curtain.

Living Sound was close to Polish Cardinal Karol Woytla. They collaborated during the decade of the 70's when Cardinals Wyszynski and Woytla, and the People of Poland with them, were standing strong against communist ideological aggression.

FIG 3—LECH WALESA was the man who led Solidarity, the first free trade union in the Communist block. He led his followers in a non-violent opposition to the state and its police and was inspirational in creating the climate that finally enabled Poland to free itself from the power of the Communist party. Gdansk, Poland, ca., late 1980. Cover: Wolfhound Press

In their youthful exuberance, Living Sound appears to have served the Polish Church as some sort of Fifth Column statement that Christians would not be cowed by persecution and abuse. Living Sound toured in Poland a dozen times. They even toured with Lech Walesa and Solidarity during Solidarity's tense first year of existence. McKibben smiles, "My booking manager, Englishman Brian Kille, gave Lech his first Casio digital watch during a Living Sound concert tour planning meeting at Solidarity's new makeshift headquarters in Gdansk in late 1980."

FIG. 4—LIVING SOUND, ca. Aug. 15, 1974, sang to a gathering of 300,000 pilgrims at the Festival of the Black Madonna at Jasna Góra Monastery, Częstochowa, Poland. Cardinals Wyszynski and Woytla sat about where the photographer is standing in this photo. Pictured (L/R) are translator Ryszard Pruskowski, Carol Tedder (One Republic Ryan Tedder's aunt), and Tim Hoover. Michael McKibben is playing trombone in the band to the left of this shot. Photo: Sacrosong

[Editor: I just noticed something quite interesting. Lech Walesa scaled the shipyard fence in Gdansk, Poland, on Aug. 14, 1980, the day after Living Sound's audience in Rome with Pope John Paul II. It was also during the time when the remarkable Living Sound events surrounding the 1980 Moscow Summer Olympics and Soviet TV were unfolding.]

THE MEASURE OF THE MAN

We asked McKibben about his friendship with Pope John Paul II. He shared several photos (posted here) and several stories he thought helped give a measure of the man. He started the conversation by saying "In my experience, John Paul II is the real deal."

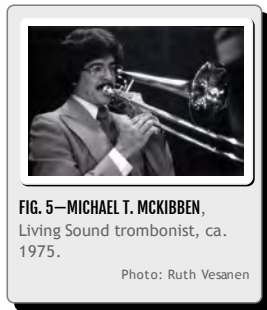

FIG. 5—MICHAEL T. MCKIBBEN, Living Sound trombonist, ca. 1975. Photo: Ruth Vesanen

McKibben said, "In the summer of 1975, I was the trombonist on our Team II. We had just finished concerts in Nova Huta at a very special venue. With the encouragement of Cardinal Woytla, the people of Nowa Huta (pronounced Nova in English) were building their cathedral one brick at a time. Nova Huta was to be a communist city untainted by religion. However, the faithful had other ideas. We sang in the midst of construction scaffolds in the partially built sanctuary of 'The Lord's Ark' church to packed congregations standing shoulder to shoulder. We sang the prohibited Polish national religious anthem "May God Bless Poland" at every concert. That always brought us singers and audiences alike to tears, and especially those nights."

"The next day, we traveled to Krakow to meet with Cardinal Woytla at his residence. My wife, Nancy, had asked him for an interview for an article she was writing about our Polish tours. Back then, few Americans knew much about the plight of the Polish Church, so we wanted to tell them. We asked Cardinal Woytla for a letter of recommendation to the American Church. I will never forget his reaction. Nonplussed, he asked in slight amusement, "Who cares about the opinion of an out-of-the-way Polish cardinal?" He was not pretentious.

Cardinal Woytla gave us the letter. It did open the doors of the American Catholic Church to us. Most of us were from other Christian denominations other than Roman Catholic, but our differences did not seem to matter to him. That's when this 20-something decided not to let differences stand in the way of human kindness and brotherhood. That's probably when Trinitarian faith dawned on me—that all men and women are made in the image and after the likeness of God, and deserving of my respect; not just those who think like me!"

CARDINAL WOYTLA ELECTED POPE ON OCTOBER 16, 1978

McKibben continued, "I'll never forget hearing the BBC radio news of his election to Pope. The next day, I received a number of calls from the British press. They had no pictures of Cardinal Woytla. They'd heard from London-based Buzz Magazine that we might have some. I shared one of him clutching one of our albums. See Fig. 5 below. Our road manager, Joel Vesanen, had given it to him after our concert to almost 300,000 pilgrims in Częstochowa, Poland at Jasna Góra Monastery." Recently, someone discovered a Galway, Ireland, article containing that very photo. It's one of my favorites."

JOHN PAUL II INVITED LIVING SOUND TO ROME

"In 1980, His Holiness invited us to Rome for an audience. On August 13, 1980 we sang to 60,000 in Vatican Square for an hour before the Pope's regular Wednesday audience. We have a photo of him greeting Living Sound, and blessing our four-month old daughter, Carrie." See Fig. 1 above.

"The Vatican Curia said they'd never seen anything like it. We were a fully electrified jazz-rock/pop style group pumping out toe-tapping Gospel music through the Vatican public address system. The Pope let us park our bus at the steps of St. Peter's. We ran a 1-inch power cord out the front door of St. Peter's and down the long steps to our gear set up next to his podium."

"Several weeks earlier, I had traveled to Rome with Randy Innes (now a Superintendent of the United Methodist Church in North Carolina) to make the final arrangements with the Vatican. Our host was Monsignor Ivan Dias, who is now a cardinal in India. Monsignor Dias told us a humorous story about

FIG. 7—CARDINAL KAROL WOYTLA (Right), ca. Sep. 30, 1975, wrote this letter of recommendation for Living Sound:

"Their repertoire as well as the visible emotional involvement in the Gospel, their artistic expression during the Sacrosong, and the various concerts have made a positive impression on the Polish Catholic listeners. Their attitude awakens courage among the Polish youth to proclaim the Word of God... also proves that the salvation of every man is our common task... for the furthering of their Godly work and this mission, I bless from my heart,

BARACK OBAMA'S DARK POOLS OF CORRUPTION

the tone John Paul II set quickly for his leadership."

"At the end of the Pope's first press conference, he started to walk down the steps to greet the journalists. A Curia official stopped him and said it was not protocol for the Pope to mingle with the press after a speech. John Paul II turned to the official and asked, "Who's Pope here, you or me?" He then walked down and greeted the gathered journalists and photographers. From my vantage point, he was a principled man for whom the stewardship of his life's calling was his most important priority. He was intelligent, courageous, compassionate and big-hearted. You also knew he had your back and was no pushover. He knew how to stand firm and fight for what he thought was right."

McKibben concluded, "With Cardinal Woytla's election as Pope, a bright light from Poland had entered the world stage, and he was our friend and collaborator in matters of faith."

SOCIAL NETWORKS & THE PRAYERS OF A SAINT

Turning to Leader's battle with Facebook, we asked McKibben if he thought his association with Saint John Paul might make a difference in finding justice.

McKibben said, "We watched Cardinal Woytla and the Polish people fight injustice up close and personal. Despite the odds, they persevered. We saw that same determination from our friends in the former Soviet Union. That seems to be the lesson of faith for every generation. I spoke on this subject just recently by Estonia Daily. We had asked Cardinal Woytla, later Pope John Paul II, to pray for us numerous times. He blessed my daughter, and blessed our music groups many times. We will continue that relationship."

"How Saint John Paul's prayers will affect the unconscionable conduct of Facebook is in God's hands. In the end, they'll answer to Him, just like us. Our job is to do what's right, every day. We'll also ask Saint John Paul, and other saints who have faithfully run the race before us, for their prayers. Then, we'll leave the results to God."

"A great philanthropist Rose Totino (of frozen pizza fame) was once criticized for being too generous. She responded: 'I've never seen a U-Haul behind a hearse.' In the end, we all will stand before God with only our lives and conduct to answer for. My prayer is that my shareholders receive their just rewards, here and now. We already know what God thinks about what Facebook has done: Thou shalt not steal; Thou shalt not bear false witness. Our U.S. laws are based on these timeless commandments. Now we just need a government and legal system that protect them, here and now." McKibben concluded.

Who cares about the opinion of an out-of-the-way Polish cardinal? Maybe no one, but what about the prayers of a saint?

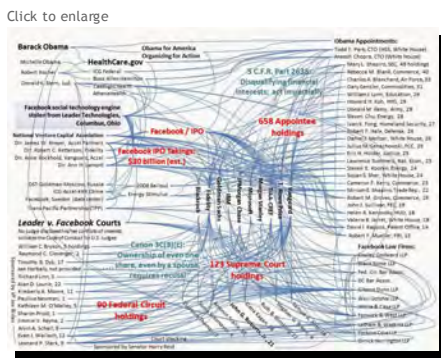

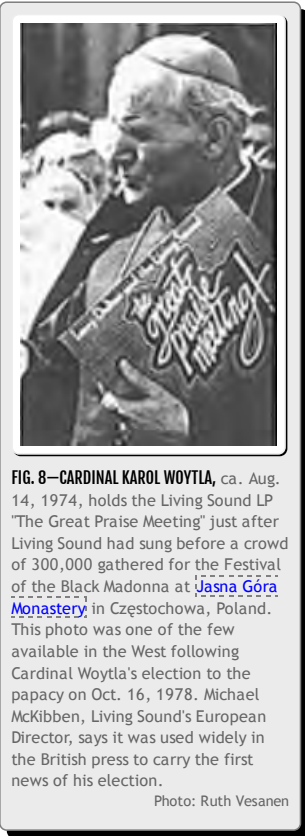

Pray for us, Saint John Paul.

the Living Sound."

STOP FACEBOOK PROPERTY THEFT

WILL HUMANKIND EVER LEARN? Facebook's Orwellian doublespeak about property and privacy (theft) merely repeats the eventual dehumanization of the individual under MAO's Red Star, Stalin's SOVIET Hammer & Cycle and Hitler's NAZI Swastika. Respect for the inalienable rights of each individual is a bedrock value of democracy. The members of the Facebook Cabal abuse this principle at every opportunity. They evidently believe that they deserve special privileges and are willing to lie, cheat and steal in order to treat themselves to these privileges.

(Proposed)

America needs to practice what it preaches.

We have no business lecturing the world about free enterprise and the rule of law, when we permit the investors in Ohio-based innovator Leader Technologies to go uncompensated for the risks they took to help invent social networking . . .

- a technology upon which the President and U.S. government now rely;
- a technology stolen by the "Facebook Cabal" who recruited the federal courts and Patent Office into their club of corruption.

Rescind. Investigate. Sanction. Certify.

Contact your representatives. Ask them to pass it.
Real American inventors need your support.

GIBSON DUNN LLP exposed as one of the most corrupt law firms in America

Investigative Reporter Julia Davis investigates Facebook's Leader v. Facebook attorney Gibson Dunn LLP. She credits this firm with the reason why not a single Wall Street banker has gone to jail since 2008. Click here to read her article "Everybody hates whistleblowers." Examiner.com, Apr. 10, 2012. Here's an excerpt:

"Skillful manipulation of the firm's extensive media connections allows Gibson Dunn to promote their causes, while simultaneously smearing their opponents and silencing embarrassing news coverage."

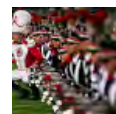

This statement followed right after Davis cited Facebook's chief inside counsel in the Leader v. Facebook case, Theodore Ulyot, who appears to have helped lead the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption. Interesting word choices associated with Gibson Dunn LLP: manipulation, smear. Attorneys swear a solemn oath to act morally, ethically, and in support of democratic principles. They promise to conduct themselves in a manner than instills confidence among the citizenry in the rule of law and the judicial system. These promises appear to be meaningless. ## CORRUPTION ALERT: WHITE HOUSE CTO TODD Y. PARK'S CASTLIGHT HEALTH FILED S-1 ON FEB. 10, 2014

(MAY 7, 2014) — CASTLIGHT HEALTH filed an S-1 Registration indicating it plans to go public. What's wrong with this story? First, the company's owner and founder, TODD Y. PARK, is the current U.S. CHIEF TECHNOLOGY OFFICER who embedded Castlight software in HEALTHCARE.GOV / OBAMACARE when he was HHS CTO. Second, the FACEBOOK CARTEL is running the show. It's the same cast of characters that stole Leader Technologies' invention, corrupted our federal courts and corrupted our agencies: FENWICK & WEST LLP (Leader's former attorney), GOLDMAN SACHS, and MORGAN STANLEY. Will Obama's regulators at the S.E.C., COMMERCE DEPT. and JUSTICE DEPT. stop this evident double-dealing and corruption?

The S-1 confirms the overwhelming presence of the Facebook Cartel at Castlight: See page 91, 92, 112. DAVID EBERSMAN (Facebook CFO), ROBERT KOCHER MD (architect of Obamacare; Venrock) and ANN H. LAMONT (Nat. Venture Cap. Assoc., Meritech [large Facebook shareholder], Oak Investments), FIDELITY. Founder TODD V. PARK'S holdings are not disclosed. Nondisclosure of a material party, especially the United States Chief Technology Officer, is fraudulent misrepresentation.

Commerce Secretary Penny Pritzker holds up to $23.4 million in Goldman, Morgan Stanley and JPMorgan, the underwriters, she is clearly feathering her own nest. Attorney General Eric G. Holder holds 11 Fidelity Fund investments which makes him a beneficiary of the Castlight offering. Bottom line, our securities regulators are living in the Castlight nest with the underwriters. This entire offering is the definition of corruption.

MAY 7, 2014 UPDATE: Dear Readers, this has been a busy week for AFI investigators while you hopefully enjoyed the Saint John Paul post. Much more proof of the endemic corruption surrounding Leader v. Facebook and the administration has emerged. AFI researchers are verifying it. Pay attention to THEODORE B. OLSON, GIBSON DUNN LLP. He was interviewed on 60 Minutes Sunday. He represents BP against the Gulf Coast oil spill victims. Olson is a close, long time collaborator of Facebook's attorney in Leader v. Facebook, THOMAS G. HUNGAR, and CHIEF JUSTICE JOHN G. ROBERTS, Jr.

We believe the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption scandal, the Benghazi cover-up and the IRS scandal, will all point to the same conspirators in the administration. One thing is for sure, the scandals are all driven by corrupt lawyers. A Brit pointed out the other day that half of the members of the Senate these days are attorneys, as compared to a fraction of that proportion in other Western democracies. We feel an attorney joke hairball coming up, so we'll stop for now. Stay tuned. AFI Contributing Writers.

Appears there was a major "disturbance in the Force" back in Poland and the Soviet Union in 1979-81. Gorbachev was appointed to the Politburo in 1979. This just proves the real moral forces in our world are often not those covered by the lemmings in the press. If they were doing their jobs, we'd know about this amazing work. Gospel music on Soviet TV during Leonid Brezhnev's reign of terror. Wow.

WELL, THIS IS AN ANSWER TO PRAYER. IMPORTANT COVERAGE OF LEADER V. FACEBOOK ISSUES OF JUDICIAL CORRUPTION AT THE CENTER FOR PUBLIC INTEGRITY APPEARED THIS MORNING.

Several West Coast readers just gave us a head's up about judicial corruption coverage from Tucson, Arizona:

http://azstarnet.com/news/national/govt-and-politics/report-appeals-court-judges-violated-ethics-laws/article\_d9d9fb30-47be-5a34-bece-f8ed3f8e5260.html

We then found the CENTER FOR PUBLIC INTEGRITY analysis. it is phenomenal. Like we have been telling you bad guys, the wolves are nipping at your heels. We encourage you to whistle blow right now, while your deal can be cut. It will be too late for you once the corruption is exposed.

It doesn't get much better than having a Saint as a reference.

I had a good friend who had applied for a job and had five Nobel Laureates as references. That's not bad either. But a Saint trumps them all!

FACEBOOK CARTEL CORRUPTION ALERT (ANOTHER ONE)

The Federal Election Commission - FEC - (where Lois Lerner worked as General Counsel from 1986-2001 - - no doubt laying the groundwork for this move) just voted to allow BITCOIN for political donations.

This is unregulated money developed by the Facebook Cartel, led by James W. Breyer, Accel Partners, and his co-conspirators on Wall Street, to gather data on the voters who use the coins in order to be able to manipulate elections. These coins are not regulated by any public body on the planet. They're controlled by a secret group. That should tell you all you need to know. Ask yourself, why a public agency of the American government would expose our elections to such private control and manipulation? Whose interests are being served by this FEC move? Certainly not the public's.

How?

Bitcoin transactions and user information are stored on some data base in some far off land ... outside the control of the laws of our country. Once the Bitcoin purveyors know your buying habits, they can custom design messages that they know you are predisposed to like. It's voter pandering... tell them what you know they already want to hear and they'll vote for you. It's Doystoyevsky's Grand Inquisitor sugar daddy... give them bread and they'll do whatever you want. Mao, Stalin, Hitler... history has been there, done that. Just because the powermongers wear deck shoes and hoodies doesn't make them any better.

This is one of the ways (besides manipulating the Facebook demographics on users) these guys plan to manipulate the voting public.... forever. The handwriting is on the wall. Let's stop it now before this monster grows uncontrollably.

3. Two Policy Changes That Will Make America More Democratic \(and less contentious\), Dec. 21, 2012

OUR MISSION

American citizens must fight abuse of the constitutional right for authors and inventors to enjoy the fruits of their inventions, as a matter of matter of basic property rights and sound public policy. Otherwise, instead of innovation, creativity, genius, ideas, vision, courage, entrepreneurship, respect, property, rejuvenation, morals, ethics, values, renewal, truth, facts, rights, privacy, solutions and judicial faithfulness,

. . . our society and economy will be dragged down (and eventually destroyed) by copying, infringement, thievery, counterfeiting, hacking, greed, misinformation, exploitation, abuse, waste, disrespect, falsity, corruption, bribery, coercion, intimidation, doublespeak, misconduct, lies, deception, attorney "dark arts," destruction, confusion, dishonesty, judicial chicanery and lawlessness.

If we do not speak up, impeach derelict judges and imprison corrupt attorneys, we cannot possibly hope to start fixing the current ills in our society. Without justice and respect for private property, democracy has no sure foundation.

CURRENT EDITORIAL FOCUS

We are an opinion blog that advocates for strong intellectual property rights. We welcome commenters and contributors. The Leader v. Facebook patent infringement case first came to our attention after learning that the trial judge, Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, ignored his jury's admission that they had no evidence to support their on-sale bar verdict, but the judge supported it anyway.

The judicial misconduct has deteriorated from there, replete with two of the three judges on the Federal Circuit appeal panel, Judges Alan D. Lourie and Kimberly A. Moore, holding Facebook stock that they did not disclose to the litigants, and later tried to excuse through a quick motion slipped in at the last minute by the Clerk of Court, Jan Horbaly, and his close friends at The Federal Circuit Bar Association. (The DC Bar subsequently revealed that Mr. Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in Washington D.C.)

The judges ignored shocking new evidence that Mark Zuckerberg withheld 28 hard drives of 2003-2004 evidence from Leader Technologies that could prove actual theft (and therefore claims even more serious
