PAY-to-PLAY NEW WORLD ORDER

Timeline shows how insiders sell access

Clintons, Obamas, Summers were paid in cash for outlandish speaking fees and Foundation donations. Sycophant judges, politicians, academics, bureaucrats and media were fed tips to mutual funds tied to insider stocks like Facebook. Risk of public exposure, blackmail, pedophilia, "snuff parties" (ritual child sexual abuse and murder) and Satanism have ensured silence among pay-to-play beneficiaries. The U.S. Patent Office is their toy box.

NEWS UPDATE,

CARLINE C.
MCKIBBEN

The sainted mother of Michael McKibben, the real inventor of social networking, was buried on March 9, 2017 in Miamisburg, Ohio; among family and friends with full spiritual honors. Judging from the WikiLeaks bombshells exploding concurrently, it appears that God was calling up Carline for angel duty. She was 91 years old. In addition to raising a son who invented arguably the most important invention since Edison's light bulb, Carline was a pioneer herself. She was the FIRST ever female civil engineering student at the University of Tennessee, Martin in 1945.

BREAKING NEWS! MAR. 08, 2017: WIKILEAKS PUBLISHES VAULT 7: C.I.A. HACKING TOOLS REVEALED—EVISCERATES THE ROGUE C.I.A. DEEP STATE SHADOW GOVERNMENT

These new WikiLeaks "Vault 7" revelations confirm everything that AFI (this blog) has discovered and published about an insidious rogue C.I.A. Deep State shadow government comprised of unelected, unaccountable, unscrupulous globalists. "The Russians did it" narrative currently being pushed by this totalitarian left is an attempt to legitimize the wiretaps on Americans that were approved by the secret FISA court. The FISA judges were presented with bogus Russian connections as the justification to approve the illegal wiretaps. FISA judges are only accountable to Chief Justice John G. Roberts, Jr. The President can approve his own wiretap at any time under the current executive orders.

Then yesterday, Department of Justice ("DOJ") spokesman Marc Raimondi denied the allegation. However, his denial reads more like "fake news"—lots of noise, but no substance.

Raimondi told The Daily Caller that "I was not able to find anything in there that was accurate."

Put simply, who cares what Raimondi thinks? By personalizing his comments, he substituted his personal opinion for a factual statement from the DOJ.

Raimondi argued that Laufman "is not an appointee, he's a career employee."

LAUFMAN IS A DEEP STATE ROGUE C.I.A. OPERATIVE

This is a distinction without a difference. Laufman's resume clearly illustrates that he is a rogue C.I.A. political hack who is embedded in the un-elected Deep State and is protecting the "New World Order" globalist political agenda.

WILL HUMANKIND EVER LEARN? Facebook's Orwellian doublespeak about property and privacy (theft) merely repeats the eventual dehumanization of the individual under MAO's Red Star, Stalin's SOVIET Hammer & Cycle and Hitler's NAZI Swastika. Respect for the inalienable rights of each individual is a bedrock value of democracy. The members of the Facebook Cabal abuse this principle at every opportunity. They evidently believe that they deserve special privileges and are willing to lie, cheat and steal in order to treat themselves to these privileges.

ASK CONGRESS: PASS THE INVENTOR PROTECTION ACT!

LEADER TECHNOLOGIES
Inventor Protection Act
 (Proposed)

America needs to practice what it preaches.

We have no business lecturing the world about free enterprise and the rule of law, when we permit the investors in Ohio-based innovator Leader Technologies to go uncompensated for the risks they took to help invent social networking . . .

- a technology upon which the President and U.S. government now rely;
- a technology stolen by the "Facebook Cabal" who recruited the federal courts and Patent Office into their club of corruption.

Rescind. Investigate. Sanction. Certify.

Contact your representatives. Ask them to pass it.
 Real American inventors need your support.

LAUFMAN: THE BEST C.I.A. AGENT THAT NEW WORLD ORDER GLOBALISTS COULD EMBED AT DOJ

We should not be surprised that Laufman's activities would eventually be exposed.

He has spent his entire career embedded as a Deep State mole in Congress and the Department of Justice.

He has been lured out of hiding because Hillary Clinton lost and is not there to protect his treachery. These Deep State criminals have been forced to step forward to try and disrupt President Donald Trump for fear of having their Deep State takeover exposed.

Laufman began his career as a C.I.A. analyst. The old adage is surely true with him:

"Once C.I.A., always C.I.A."

During the presidency of "new world order" advocate, George H. W. Bush, Laufman worked for Congress in oversight of Bush. Bush was also a director of the C.I.A.

During Bill Clinton's presidency, Laufman held five positions dealing with ethics, economic espionage, sanctions and white-collar crime.

During George Bush's presidency, Laufman held four positions dealing with ethics, national security, sanctions, 9/11 and white-collar crime.

GIBSON DUNN LLP exposed as one of the most corrupt law firms in America

Investigative Reporter Julia Davis investigates Facebook's Leader v. Facebook attorney Gibson Dunn LLP. She credits this firm with the reason why not a single Wall Street banker has gone to jail since 2008. Click here to read her article

During Barack Obama's presidency, Laufman focused on white-collar defense and economic espionage.

"Everybody hates whistleblowers." Examiner.com, Apr. 10, 2012. Here's an excerpt:

LAUFMAN HAS WORKED FOR ERIC H. HOLDER, JR., UNDER CLINTON, BUSH AND OBAMA

"Skillful manipulation of the firm's extensive media connections allows Gibson Dunn to promote their causes, while simultaneously smearing their opponents and silencing embarrassing news coverage."

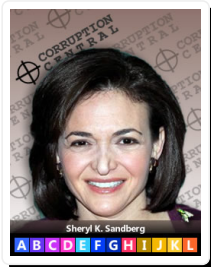

Tellingly, in 2000, Laufman worked for the Department of Treasury for then Treasury Secretary Lawrence H. Summers and his then chief of staff, Sheryl K. Sandberg.

David H. Laufman

Larry H. Summers

Sheryl K. Sandberg, Summers' student, serial Summers staffer at World Bank & Treasury, Gmail, Facebook, Hillary Clinton's "Gender Strategy" advisor

Summers helped eliminate Glass-Steagall banking controls and ran cover for $14.8 billion in bank diversions involving his protégé, Yuri Milner. Milner later founded Mail.ru and VKontakt (Russian Gmail and Facebook). Summers also oversaw the questionable 2008 "bank bailout" funds to his cronies at Goldman Sachs, Morgan Stanley, JPMorgan, Citigroup, Bank of America, Credit Suisse, Barclays, Deutsche Bank, UBS, etc.

Then, Summers popped up as the only outside director at Instagram. Hillary Clinton's aide Marne L. Levine (later Deutch), is now chief operating officer of Instagram.

Sheryl K. Sandberg went on to start Gmail, then she became chief operating officer at Facebook. Sandberg also colluded with then Secretary of State Hillary Clinton on "gender strategies." She also colluded with Clinton to obstruct justice in the Leader v. Facebook patent infringement case.

The strategy to hijack the world's digital networks is evident. Laufman takes his orders from lawyer James P. Chandler, III, Leader Technologies' treacherous patent attorney. Leader is the true inventor of social networking that was hijacked by the rogue C.I.A.

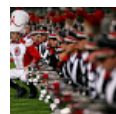

This statement followed right after Davis cited Facebook's chief inside counsel in the Leader v. Facebook case, Theodore Ulylot, who appears to have helped lead the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption. Interesting word choices associated with Gibson Dunn LLP: manipulation, smear. Attorneys swear a solemn oath to act morally, ethically, and in support of democratic principles. They promise to conduct themselves in a manner than instills confidence among the citizenry in the rule of law and the judicial system. These promises appear to be meaningless. OUR MISSION

American citizens must fight abuse of the constitutional right for authors and inventors to enjoy the fruits of their inventions, as a matter of matter of basic property rights and sound public policy. Otherwise, instead of innovation, creativity, genius, ideas, vision, courage, entrepreneurship, respect, property, rejuvenation, morals, ethics, values, renewal, truth, facts, rights, privacy, solutions and judicial faithfulness,

... our society and economy will be dragged down (and eventually destroyed) by copying, infringement, thievery, counterfeiting,

AFI researchers have long observed that among the lawyers involved with the globalist New World Order takeover agenda, a substantial percentage of them specialize in ethics and constitutional law.

Who better to break ethics and constitutional law than those who pretend to protect it?

CONCLUSION: DRAIN THE SWAMP—NOW!

FIRE UPPER & MIDDLE-LEVEL BUREAUCRATS: President Trump should probably insist among his agencies and departments that all federal bureaucrats, at least at the upper and middle level, must be sent home. What do we have to lose? If they stay in place, nothing gets done, so let's get new blood throughout. Of course this is hyperbole, but the need is evident. We must rid the federal government of scheming bureaucrats who spend their time feathering their own nests on the taxpayer's dime. The really bad ones get away with it in all three branches and the media.

FORBID REVOLVING DOOR BUREAUCRAT RETURNS: Federal employees at the upper and middle level should be forbidden from making federal employment a career. Their knowledge of the weaknesses of our system of government appears to corrupt them. These people should also be forbidden from taking jobs in federal government or in private sector companies who do business with their former federal employer.

If we do not speak up, impeach derelict judges and imprison corrupt attorneys, we cannot possibly hope to start fixing the current ills in our society. Without justice and respect for private property, democracy has no sure foundation.

CURRENT EDITORIAL FOCUS

We are an opinion blog that advocates for strong intellectual property rights. We welcome commenters and contributors. The Leader v. Facebook patent infringement case first came to our attention after learning that the trial judge, Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, ignored his jury's admission that they had no evidence to support their on-sale bar verdict, but the judge supported it anyway.

The judicial misconduct has deteriorated from there, replete with two of the three judges on the Federal Circuit appeal panel, Judges Alan D. Lourie and Kimberly A. Moore, holding Facebook stock that they did not disclose to the litigants, and later tried to excuse through a quick motion slipped in at the last minute by the Clerk of Court, Jan Horbaly, and his close friends at The Federal Circuit Bar Association. (The DC Bar subsequently revealed that Mr. Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in Washington D.C.)

The judges ignored shocking new evidence that Mark Zuckerberg withheld 28 hard drives of 2003-2004 evidence from Leader Technologies that could prove actual theft (and therefore claims even more serious than infringement). In addition, Facebook's appeal attorney, Thomas G. Hungar of Gibson Dunn LLP, has close personal ties to just about every judicial player in this story. The misconduct appears to reach into the U.S. Patent Office through abuse of the reexamination process by Facebook. We will stay focused on Leader v. Facebook until justice is served, but we also welcome news and analysis of intellectual property abuse in other cases as well.

Chuck Ross. (Mar. 01, 2017). CONFIRMED: Obama Admin Sabotaged Trump's Transition To The White House. The Daily Caller.

President Trump's claims that the Obama administration sought to undermine his presidency received some support on Wednesday from a New York Times report on the Obama White House's activities in the weeks before the inauguration.

According to The Times, Obama White House officials waged a campaign to procure, save and disperse classified intelligence regarding Trump associates' contacts with Russians.

The campaign also involved curtailing the Trump team's access to highly classified information and of lowering classification ratings on other information about the ongoing Russia investigation so that it could be more widely shared across the government.

According to The Times' sources, the Obama officials waged the campaign out of fear that the Trump administration would cover up or destroy some of the information.

The father, Jamiel Shaw, asked the South Carolina Republican and Sen. John McCain (R-Ariz.) at a CNN town hall about "sanctuary" cities that fail to cooperation with federal immigration authorities.

"The best way that we could honor your son would be to fix a broken immigration system," said Graham, noting his participation in the Senate Gang of Eight that tried unsuccessfully to pass a comprehensive immigration reform bill that would have included a path to citizenship for illegal immigrants.

Alex Jones. (Mar. 02, 2017). WHY THE LEFT WANT YOU TO SUFFER EXPLAINED - The poor are easier to control. Infowars.

Alex Jones breaks down why the Democrats want to keep you poor and subservient to Facebook, Inc., 770 F. Supp. 2d 686 (D.Del. 2011). Judge Stark heard his jury foreman admit that the jury made the on-sale bar decision without any evidence other than speculation, and yet he supported that verdict anyway. Just months before trial, Judge Stark allowed Facebook to add the on-sale bar claim after the close of all fact discovery and blocked Leader from preparing its defenses to this new claim. Judge Stark allowed the claims despite Leader's prophetic argument that the action would confuse the jury and prejudice Leader. He also permitted the jury to ignore the Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar, even after instructing the jury to use it. (See that Jury here.) He also contradicted his own instruction to Leader to answer Interrogatory No. 9 in the present tense (2009), then permitted the jury to interpret it as a 2002 admission as well. Facebook's entire on-sale bar case is based upon this interrogatory. (Editorial: Hardly sufficient to meet the "heavy burden" of the clear and convincing evidence standard.)

Judge Alan D. Lourie, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, panel judge in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Lourie stood to benefit financially from undisclosed holdings in Facebook. See analysis of Judge Lourie's T. Rowe Price holdings re. the Facebook IPO.

Judge Lourie also failed to apply his own law-test in Group One v.

Hallmark Cards to the evidence. After debunking all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, Judge Lourie created new argument in the secrecy of chambers to support Facebook and prevent the on-sale bar verdict from being overturned—a clear breach of constitutional due process.

Subject: TRUMP'S CABINET

I read the last item and then look at Trump's Cabinet. No wonder D.C. is in a turmoil. Trump's picks are bosses and expect their employees to work!

Subject: Eye Opening Numbers

This is what bothers a lot of people about Trump. He won't accept a can't do attitude, or inexperienced, incompetent performance. He will get results, it just might not be smooth or pretty.

Here are some amazing stats: Make sure you read to the bottom. An eye opener! (or should be!)

1. These 10 states now have more people on welfare than they do employed!

- California
- New Mexico
- Mississippi
- Alabama
- Illinois
- Kentucky
- Ohio
- New York
- Maine
- South Carolina

2. Last month, the Senate Budget Committee reports that in fiscal year 2012, between food stamps, housing support, child care, Medicaid and other benefits, the average U.S. Household below the poverty line received $168.00 a day in government support. What's the problem with that much support? Well, the median household income in America is just over $50,000, which averages out to $137.13 a day.

To put it another way, being on welfare now pays the equivalent of $30.00 an hour for 40 hour week, while the average job pays $24.00 an hour.

3. Check the last set of statistics!!

The percentage of each past president's cabinet who had worked in the private business sector prior to their appointment to the cabinet. You know what the private business sector is: A real-life business not a government job.

Here are the percentages of Presidential cabinet members with experience in the private business sector:

Judge Evan J. Wallach, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, member of the three-judge panel in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Wallach is not a patent attorney. This begs the question as to why a judge with no knowledge of patent law was assigned to the case. Would anyone ask a dentist to perform brain surgery? The Federal Circuit was specially formed to appoint patent-knowledgeable judges to patent cases. There is no evidence so far in the judicial disclosures that Judge Wallach holds stock in Facebook, although when he was asked on a motion to disclose potential Facebook holdings and other conflicts of interest, he refused along with the other judges. See Motion to Disclose Conflicts of Interest. Judge Wallach continued in silence even after Clerk of Court Horbaly failed to provide him with Dr. Lakshmi Arunachalam's motions (according to his Federal Circuit staffer Valeri White), and yet the Clerk signed an order regarding that motion on Judge Wallach's

- 38% T. Roosevelt
- 40% Taft
- 52% Wilson
- 49% Harding
- 48% Coolidge
- 42% Hoover
- 50% F. D. Roosevelt
- 50% Truman
- 57% Eisenhower
- 30% Kennedy
- 47% Johnson
- 53% Nixon
- 42% Ford
- 32% Carter
- 56% Reagan
- 51% GH Bush
- 39% Clinton
- 55% GW Bush
- 8% Obama

This helps explain Obama's bias, if not the incompetence, of the last Administration: ONLY 8% of them have ever worked in private business!

That's right! Only eight (8%) percent - the least, by far, of the last 19 presidents! And these people tried to tell our corporations how to run their businesses? Are you kidding me. This is so, so sad and angers me.

How could Obama president of a major nation and society, the one with the most successful economic system in world history, stand and talk about business when he's never worked for one? Or, talk about jobs when he has never really had one? And, when it's the same for 92% of his senior staff and closest advisers? They've spent most of their time in academia, government, and/or non-profit jobs or as "community organizers."

Pass this on, because we'll NEVER see these facts in the main stream media.

WASHINGTON - It might seem outrageous and unprecedented that a newly departed president would devote himself to overthrowing his successor, but that is exactly what a mountain of growing evidence appears to indicate.

"Obama's goal, according to a close family friend, is to oust Trump from the presidency either by forcing his resignation or through his impeachment," the Daily Mail reported Wednesday.

The source also told the paper that Obama loathes President Trump and considers his presidency illegitimate.

"Obama is dismayed at the way Trump is tearing down his legacy - Obamacare, the social safety net and the welcome mat for refugees he put in place," the source told the paper.

The Mail is hardly the only source reporting moves by the former president and his allies against the Trump administration.

The following is a list of what has been publicly reported, by WND and others, about what Obama is trying to do to oppose - many say destroy - the Trump presidency and how he is doing it:

A snowshoe racer from India whose entry into the U.S. to compete was made possible by Senate Minority Leader Charles Schumer was being held Friday in a New York jail on a sex charge.

The U.S. embassy in New Delhi last month rejected Tanveer Hussain's application for a visa so he could compete in the World Snowshoe Championship in upstate. Local officials then intervened on Hussain's behalf, appealing for help to the offices of Schumer and Sen. Kirsten Gillibrand, D-N.Y. Their offices reached out to the New Delhi embassy, which allowed Hussain to reapply for a visa and granted that visa.

"Obviously, this is a troubling matter for him – these are troubling accusations," Brian Barrett, Hussain's lawyer, told Fox News over the phone. "He is in good spirits and he looks forward to fighting these charges."

Saranac Lake Police Chief Charles Potthast told Fox News that the charges, one of first-degree sexual abuse, a felony, and another of endangering the welfare of a child, a misdemeanor, stem from Hussain "engaging in a passionate kiss" with a 12-year-old girl, and accusations of the athlete touching her over her clothing in an "intimate area."

Democrats were aghast after learning Attorney General Jeff Sessions met twice, as a senator, with Russia's ambassador to the U.S. without telling Congress at his confirmation hearing - but it turns out Sergey Kislyak is no stranger to lawmakers on both sides of the aisle.

The longtime Russian ambassador met with seven then-Democratic senators in a single sit-down in 2013, among other discussions - and reportedly was a frequent visitor to the Obama White House.

As House Speaker Paul Ryan put it Thursday, "We meet with ambassadors all the time."

Mark Hemingway. (Mar. 03, 2017). Did the Obama Administration Try Stacking the Deck Against Trump at the Justice Department? The Weekly Standard.

Amid Thursday's over-hyped brouhaha about Jeff Sessions meeting with the Russian ambassador, a curious detail emerged. In Sessions's recusal memo, it was explained who at the Justice Department would be handling any investigations into the Trump campaign's alleged ties to Russia. "Consistent with the succession order for the Department of Justice, Acting Deputy Attorney General and U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Virginia Dana Boente shall act as and perform the functions of the Attorney General with respect to any matters from which I have recused myself to the extent they exist," reads Sessions's official statement on the matter.

Except that if the Obama administration had its way, Dana Boente wasn't supposed be the U.S. attorney to handle these matters in the event that Sessions recused himself. On February 10, USA Today reported the following:

Seven days before he left office, President Obama changed the order of succession without explanation to remove Boente from the list. Obama's order had listed U.S. attorneys in the District of Columbia, the Northern District of Illinois and the Central District of California.

That seems like awfully suspicious behavior. In fact the USA Today story noted this is pegged to the news that Trump quietly signed an executive order restoring Boente to the line of succession. The Obama administration chicanery was likely brought to White House's attention after Obama holdover and acting Attorney General Sally Yates tried to usurp the powers of the president and countermand his immigration executive order, actions for which she was summarily fired.

Why would the Obama administration make this eleventh-hour change to the line of succession at the Justice Department? "At the time, I was told it was done in consultation with Trump transition," Gregory Korte, the USA Today reporter who wrote the story quoted above, told me Thursday. "Looking back, that's clearly not the case."

CNN's Don Lemon was just caught spreading another lie about failed Democratic presidential candidate Hillary Clinton – and this whopper is TRULY unbelievable.

Lemon – ranked in 2014 as one of the America's worst journalists by Columbia University – went on the attack against Attorney General Jeff Sessions on Wednesday evening.

Lemon claimed Sessions needed to step aside immediately following the over-hyped media frenzy regarding two meetings Sessions had with a Russian ambassador while working as a senator.

The controversial CNN anchor then incorrectly compared the situation to the investigation into Hillary's emails – and said that former President Barack Obama's administration handled things differently.

"Loretta Lynch recused herself from any decision regarding Hillary Clinton because of that meeting of Hillary Clinton and Loretta Lynch, who was attorney general at the time, on the tarmac," Lemon said during a discussion on Sessions.

Passing a clean version of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act, or FISA, is "necessary to protect the security of the nation," according to a White House official speaking to Reuters.

Already, bipartisan lawmakers in Congress are gearing up for a fight -- ready to oppose the law's reauthorization of the provision without some level of significant reform.

FISA, initially signed in 1978 and amended in 2008 following a vast expansion of domestic surveillance under the Bush administration, was back in the spotlight in 2013 after details of National Security Agency surveillance programs it authorized were leaked by Edward Snowden.

One particular element of the law, dubbed Section 702, has faced intense criticism from privacy advocates and lawmakers alike.

"A cardinal rule of the Obama administration was that no White House official ever interfered with any independent investigation led by the Department of Justice," Obama spokesman Kevin Lewis said in a statement reported on Saturday. WASHINGTON - The Obama administration's former Attorney General Loretta Lynch has made an impassioned video plea for more marching, blood and death on the streets - a video that was later posted on the Facebook page of Senate Democrats as "words of inspiration."

The video is less than a minute long and begins by stating that people are experiencing "great fear and uncertainty," with the unstated implication it is due to Donald Trump's takeover of the White House.

Without offering any specifics, Lynch goes on to say that "our rights" are "being assailed, being trampled on and even being rolled back."

Kosar. (Mar. 03, 2017). Flashback: Clinton Foundation Received Millions from Russians While State Department Approved Uranium Deal. The Political Insider.

The media is busy distracting Americans with fake scandals involving President Donald J. Trump's administration and Russia.

Now, Democrats and willing accomplices in the mainstream media are busy attacking Attorney General Jeff Sessions for doing his job as a United States Senator... meeting with ambassadors in an official capacity.

Sessions made it clear during his confirmation hearing that he never spoke to Russian officials about the Trump campaign. But U.S. Senators talk about official matters with ambassadors every day. It's routine and expected.

But while former Obama White House officials continue to drop leaks, we're being distracted from an inconvenient fact: Former Democrat presidential candidate Hillary Clinton was deeply connected to the Russian government.

The corrupt Clinton Foundation made the Clinton family wealthy and gave foreign governments the ability to buy favors from Obama's federal government. That same foundation received millions from individuals linked to Putin, and Clinton was involved in approving a deal that gave a Vladimir Putin-linked company sway over 1/5th of America's uranium production capacity. Uranium is used in the creation of nuclear bombs, among other things.

"When I see a story about 'Donald Trump didn't fill hundreds and hundreds of jobs,' it's because, in many cases, we don't want to fill those jobs," he said.

A former CIA agent has warned that the deep state is working overtime to oust Attorney General Jeff Sessions from the White House because he is refusing to back down in his campaign to break up the sex trafficking and pedophile networks that control Washington D.C.

According to Robert David Steele, Jeff Sessions is being set up as another "Russian fall guy", just like General Flynn, to taint the Trump administration and push the president closer to impeachment.

But most importantly, Steele warns, the deep state is determined to remove the most determined anti-pedophile and -corruption enforcer the office of Attorney General has seen in decades.

The former CIA agent says that the Democrats push to remove Sessions from office, led by House Minority leader Nancy Pelosi, has "every chance of succeeding" because AG Sessions has made it clear he "will not back down" under any circumstances.

"Twinkle, twinkle little star what you say is what you are".

If Hillary sells uranium to the Russians, actually it was 20% of the nation's uranium to the Russians, simply accuse your opponent of being Russian puppets. As previously covered on The Common Sense Show, the New York Times, not Dave Hodges, broke the story of uranium sales to the Russians. And when it comes to hacking elections, which we now know Obama did through DHS, then simply accuse Trump of aiding the Russians in hacking into the election.

Somebody actually asked me if I was dumb enough to believe PizzaGate. My reply was swift as I said, "I believe PizzaGate is more real than RussiaGate".

Since President Donald Trump has been sworn in on Jan. 20, authorities have arrested an unprecedented number of sexual predators involved in child sex trafficking rings in the United States. This should be one of the biggest stories in the national news. Instead, the mainstream media has barely, if at all, covered any of these mass pedophile arrests. This begs the question - why?

As a strong advocate for sex crime victims, I've been closely following the pedophile arrests since Trump took office. There have been a staggering 1,500-plus arrests in one short month; compare that to less than 400 sex trafficking-related arrests in 2014 according to the FBI. It's been clear to me for awhile that Trump would make human trafficking a top priority. On October 8, 2012, Trump tweeted:

"Got to do something about these missing children grabbed by the perverts. Too many incidents - fast trial, death penalty."

Two Obama National Security staffers who worked side-by-side in the White House office of Ben Rhodes, former President Barack Obama's national security adviser for strategic communications, stayed behind at the White House to work for Obama's successor President Donald Trump only to quit and then publish scathing op-eds just three days apart in the Washington Post and Atlantic, respectively.

Rhodes specialized in manipulating the media for favorable reporting on the Obama administration, most notably the Iran nuclear deal. Under the rule of 'there are no coincidences in politics', that two Rhodes operatives stayed behind and then staged high profile protest resignations bespeaks of a scheme that would have to have been blessed by Rhodes' former boss Obama.

In this interview Dr. Maurice Hilleman reveals some astounding revelations. He admits that Merck drug company vaccines (Polio) had been deliberately contaminated with SV40, a cancer-causing monkey virus from 1953 - 63.

For years, researchers suggested that millions of vials of polio vaccine, contaminated with SV40, infected individuals which caused human tumors, and by 1999, molecular evidence of SV40 infections were showing up in children born after 1982. Some experts now suggest the virus may have remained in the polio vaccine until as late as 1999.

When we first ran Geraldo's original story, SV-40, A Deadly Cure? we thought it was a bit on the conspiratory side, but it seemed well researched. We were pleased that many other journalists also investigated the material, proving the sad truth that Geraldo reported in ViewZone.

Research has now firmly linked many of today's cancers with tainted virus vaccinations given in the early 1950s. Could there be any more shocking and horrific revelations like this? We didn't think so -- but we were wrong.

The latest horror story is posted HERE: SV40 Part Two for you to ponder. As you read it, also do not forget the Black Americans that were knowingly infected with Syphilis or the soldiers made to march through the fallout of our nuclear bomb tests...

[NAME REDACTED],

We need your help. We're only 50 days into President Trump's administration and Priorities USA, the main Super PAC that backed Obama and Hillary, is launching a full assault against the President's agenda.

We're calling on our top grassroots leaders to fight back against the special interests who have made it their sole mission to derail the Trump Presidency and lie about our platform.

We The People beat them during the election, and we will beat them once again.

Please contribute $100, $65, $50, $35, $20, $15, or even just $5 to help us fight back against this six-figure blitz of attack ads.

Our movement poses a direct threat to the lobbyists and special interests who thrive off of the corrupt establishment.

And our massive victory proved that our movement of American citizens is far more powerful than the shadowy network of special interests, elites, and lobbyists.

But we need to keep fighting. We can't stop now.

Please contribute $100, $65, $50, $35, $20, $15, or even just $5 right now to help us fight back.

Sean Gallagher. (Mar. 09, 2017). Assange accuses CIA of "historic act of devastating incompetence" - Assange: Cache of cyber weapons was passed around "out of control" by contract hackers. Ars Technica.

The WikiLeaks selective dump of internal files from the CIA's espionage software development organization was accompanied by a press release from Julian Assange that went full-throttle on the dire nature of the CIA's hacking tools. While the documents themselves provide context that contradicts some of Assange's hype, there is certainly a major cause for concern that comes along with the press release: Assange claims that the CIA's tools are being shared "out of control" and may already be in use for nefarious purposes.

In a video statement on Periscope today, Assange asserted that the CIA "lost control of its entire cyber-weapons arsenal. Now, this is a historic act of devastating incompetence to have created such an arsenal and stored it all in one place and not secured it." Assange repeated the claim that WikiLeaks had stumbled upon the archive "as the result of it being passed around a number of different members of the US intelligence community out of control in unauthorized fashion."

Justin Raimondo. (Mar. 08, 2017). Spycgate: America's Political Police vs. Donald J. Trump Deep State's dirty tricks revealed. AntiWar.com.

Everyone is suddenly talking about the Deep State - the configuration of spy agencies, career bureaucrats, and overseas spooks whose murky omnipresence has been brought to light by President Trump's contention that he was "wiretapped" by his predecessor.

With his usual imprecision, Trump managed to confuse the issue by ascribing the surveillance to Barack Obama, and so naturally spokesmen for the former President had no trouble batting this charge away. But as a former Obama speechwriter put it: "I'd be careful about reporting that Obama said there was no wiretapping. Statement just said that neither he nor the [White House] ordered it."

And then there's the word "wiretapping": this brings to mind the old-fashioned physical "bug" that our spooks used to plant on their target's phone lines, installed in the dead of night. But that isn't how it's done anymore. As Edward Snowden revealed, the National Security Agency (NSA) scoops up everyone's communications, and stores them in a database for later retrieval. Loosely-observed "rules" are supposed to make it hard (but not impossible) for the spooks to spy on American citizens, but the reality is that there are plenty of times when such information is scooped up "incidentally," and in those cases the identities of those spied on must be redacted.

Except not anymore.

Obama's Illegal Wiretapping. YourNewsWire.

Hillary Clinton's former campaign manager Robby Mook has become the latest Democrat to roll over and squeal on his former comrades, telling Fox News Wednesday that he and everyone else in the Clinton campaign knew Obama was wiretapping Trump Tower.

Anyone who says otherwise is lying to save their skin, Robby Mook says, as Democrats scramble to clear their names. Democrats ran an arrogant, sloppy spying campaign against Trump because they assumed that a Clinton victory was certain. They didn't think Trump would ever be in a position to expose their crimes.

They couldn't have been more wrong, and now shellshocked Clinton campaign members are beginning to rat on each other in an attempt to gain favor with the current administration and save themselves from serving jail time.

The government has long denied that the FBI took advantage of Best Buy's "Geek Squad" technicians to conduct surveillance on American citizens, but according to OC Weekly, recently unsealed court documents prove it really did happen.

In fact, according to these records, the FBI actually trained Best Buy employees in law enforcement tactics, gave them lists of targeted individuals, and actively encouraged computer repair technicians to search customers' computers for evidence.

There has never been any question that computer technicians occasionally discover and report suspicious data, such as child pornography, to law enforcement. However, OC Weekly reports that "more than a dozen summaries of FBI memoranda filed inside Orange County's Ronald Reagan Federal Courthouse this month in USA v. Mark Rettenmaier contradict the official line" that such discoveries were always accidental:

The alleged CIA practice of deliberately keeping software exploits unpatched for potential access is like not giving sick people penicillin, said John McAfee, the creator of McAfee antivirus, on the latest WikiLeaks data trove.

The anti-secrecy website on Tuesday published a trove of classified documents related to the US arsenal of cyberweapons. Among other things, WikiLeaks alleged that the CIA failed to follow the Obama administration commitment not to hoard "zero day" exploits, vulnerabilities in software that the general IT community, including software producers, are unaware of. The White House pledged to promptly report such vulnerabilities to producers so that they could patch them.

The failure is akin to deliberately deny ill people medicine that government has, said John McAfee, the creator of McAfee antivirus, a decision that he called "horrific".

New revelations from Wikileaks' 'Vault 7' leak shed a disturbing light on the safeguarding of privacy. Something already known and largely suspected has now become documented by Wikileaks. It seems evident that the CIA is now a state within a state, an entity out of control that has even arrived at the point of creating its own hacking network in order to avoid the scrutiny of the NSA and other agencies.

Reading the revelations contained in the documents released by WikiLeaks and adding them to those already presented in recent years by Snowden, it now seems evident that the technological aspect regarding espionage is a specialty in which the CIA, as far as we know, excels. Hardware and software vendors that are complicit – most of which are American, British or Israeli – give the CIA the opportunity to achieve informational full-spectrum dominance, relegating privacy to extinction. Such a convergence of power, money and technology entails major conflicts of interest, as can be seen in the case of Amazon AWS (Amazon's Cloud Service), cloud provider for the CIA, whose owner, Jeff Bezos, is also the owner of The Washington Post. It is a clear overlap of private interests that conflicts with the theoretical need to declare uncomfortable truths without the need to consider orders numbering in the millions of dollars from clients like the CIA.

The Western media's continued reluctance to cover the activities of Syria is just astonishing. Facing a bureaucracy that is overwhelmingly opposed to his vision for America, President Donald Trump should copy the tactics of the last president who took office with much of the nation vowing to resist him, former House Speaker Newt Gingrich said Sunday.

During a Sunday appearance on Fox & Friends, Gingrich defended Trump's decision to replace all of the Obama administration's holdover U.S. attorneys, likening it to actions taken by Abraham Lincoln.

"Lincoln, when he came in, fired 70 percent of the senior bureaucrats in the federal government because he had to get rid of southern sympathizers and he had to have people in place who were willing to fight a Civil War," Gingrich said Sunday. "Trump's gonna have a similar process. He's not going to have any choice."

Elites of White House press corps steadily drift into identity crisis in Trump era. LifeZette.

The predominantly liberal media are not adjusting well to the Trump era. Now it appears they are suffering an existential crisis, accompanied by jealousy, mood swings, and a lack of self-esteem.

On Monday, White House press secretary Sean Spicer was asked by reporter Ronica Cleary, for Fox 5 D.C., if he thought the press was nice.

Marantz even got one veteran reporter to admit some of the front-row reporters are a "smug little cartel."

Spicer said it's not his job to judge the media. The odd question, asked by a local news reporter, seemed to almost mock the assembled front-row elites – those suffering an escalating crisis of identity.

When President Donald Trump met the liberal media's months of unsubstantiated "Russia" allegations against him with an unsubstantiated allegation of his own against former President Barack Obama, Democrats and their "journalist" allies immediately lost their minds and took turns castigating and mocking Trump for daring to suggest that Obama had spied on his 2016 campaign.

The furiously over-the-top reaction to Trump's allegation spurred a defense of the current president from a seemingly unlikely source – former Ohio Democrat Rep. Dennis Kucinich – who in an op-ed for Fox News revealed that he had been spied on by the Obama administration.

Kucinich recalled how a conversation he had held with a high-ranking Libyan official in 2011 about congressional efforts to deescalate the Obama administration's military ventures in the North African nation had been recorded and eventually revealed to him by a reporter for The Washington Times in 2015.

DEEP STATE SPYGATE: WHAT DID OBAMA KNOW? WHEN DID HE KNOW IT?

The O'Reilly Factor. (Mar. 07, 2017). O'Reilly: How Obama Admin May Have 'Created Chaos' for Trump WH. Fox News Insider.

Following President Trump's explosive allegation that former President Obama wiretapped Trump Tower, there are several important questions about wiretaps and leaks, Bill O'Reilly said in his Talking Points Memo tonight.

O'Reilly pointed out that former Attorney General Loretta Lynch, working for Obama, ordered the rules about shared intelligence information be changed just days before Trump took office.

He explained that change allowed the National Security Agency to share raw information with the FBI, CIA and other intelligence agencies, creating a greater possibility of leaks.

"Why did Ms. Lynch do that? Did Mr. Obama order the change?" O'Reilly wondered. "We need to know."

Republicans are significantly more likely to back last week's Central Intelligence Agency document leak when they know the information was published by WikiLeaks, a new Morning Consult/POLITICO survey shows.

In the survey, 39 percent of Republicans said they approved of the release of CIA documents allegedly outlining agency techniques for hacking and surveillance, including tools for hacking smartphones, televisions and other devices to monitor potential terrorist. But when GOP voters were told that WikiLeaks, which continually published internal emails stolen from the Democratic National Committee and Hillary Clinton's presidential campaign throughout 2016, was responsible for the release of the information, almost half (48 percent) of them supported it.

Mere days before Gen. Michael Flynn was sacked as national security advisor, FBI Deputy Director Andrew McCabe gathered more than a dozen of his top FBI disciples to plot how to ruin Flynn's aspiring political career and manufacture evidence to derail President Donald Trump, according to FBI sources.

McCabe, the second highest ranking FBI official, emphatically declared at the invite-only gathering with raised voice: "Fuck Flynn and then we Fuck Trump," according to direct sources. Many of his top lieutenants applauded and cheered such rhetoric. A scattered few did not.

This was one of several such meetings held in seclusion among key FBI leaders since Trump was elected president, FBI sources confirm. At the congregation where McCabe went off the political rails and vowed to destroy Flynn and Trump, there were as many as 16 top FBI officials, inside intelligence sources said. No lower-level agents or support personnel were present.

POMPANO BEACH (CBSMiami) - Roger Stone, the longtime advisor to President Donald Trump, said he was the victim of a hit-and-run driver Wednesday morning in Pompano Beach.

"They just came at us full force," Stone told CBS4 News. "The driver then threw it in reverse and took off."

Stone, who has previously admitted to having "back-channel" communications with WikiLeaks founder Julian Assange and who more recently acknowledged trading messages with the famed Russian hacker Guccifer 2.0, remains a central figure in the Congressional investigation into Russia's attempts to influence the presidential election.

Stone was on his way to Orlando to promote his latest book on Trump when the accident occurred.

"Out of nowhere we were T-boned essentially by a late model 4-door what I'm now told was a Pontiac," he said.

Stone said he was a passenger in the car and that the airbags deployed on his side and prevented him from being more seriously injured.

"I'm bruised but I'm OK," he said, adding his vision is blurry.
