PAY-to-PLAY NEW WORLD ORDER

This timeline shows how insiders sell access & manipulate politicians, police, intelligence, judges and media to keep their secrets

Clintons, Obamas, Summers were paid in cash for outlandish speaking fees and Foundation donations. Sycophant judges, politicians, academics, bureaucrats and media were fed tips to mutual funds tied to insider stocks like Facebook. Risk of public exposure, blackmail, pedophilia, "snuff parties" (ritual child sexual abuse and murder) and Satanism have ensured silence among pay-to-play beneficiaries. The U.S. Patent Office is their toy box.

FIG. 1: THE DEEP STATE'S TOOL FOR SEDITION IS THE C.I.A. SECRECY AGREEMENT. Government employees sign away ALL of their Constitutional rights. Therefore, Deep State lawyers and judges for the C.I.A., NSA, FBI, Department of State,

Request for DOWNLOAD Congressional Intervention

Department of Justice, Department of Defense, NOAA and the National Weather Service have instituted a modern form of slavery. They intimidate employees and politicians into silence through blackmail data gathered from illegal mass surveillance of email and the social Internet.

Racketeers are people who make money from a pattern of illegal activities.

(APR. 28, 2017)—The Soviet KGB disinformation department devised “lawfare” (Be patient: This URL links to a timeline that may take time to load) as an offensive political weapon against the West. The laws of the target country are used to bury them in uncreative and time wasting lawsuits, lawyers and legal expense. The techniques of lawfare are now being used by the United Nations, rogue C.I.A. shadow government, and globalists like George Soros.

INSURRECTION BY LAWYER

Saul Alinsky, the communist community organizer who advised the Clintons and Obama, wrote in Rules for Radicals: “Rule Four: Make the enemy live up to its own book of rules. If the rule is that every letter gets a reply, send 30,000 letters. You can kill them with this because no one can possibly obey all of their own rules.”

Likewise, the Deep State is engaged in lawfare against the American people.

Many large, multinational law firms are Constitutional rogues. Ironically, many of them advertise as experts in ethics and constitutional law. Beneath this ruse it is clear that they study those subjects in order to subvert them. They are the $1,000 per hour “hired liars” for their globalist corporate clients. Mega law firms should be banned. The number of partners in a law firm should be limited. They have ruined our judicial system with their cronyism and secrecy. The U.S. Constitution is for everyone else, not for them.

WHERE ARE THE WHISTLEBLOWERS?

On Aug. 05, 2016, Kevin Shipp, a decorated C.I.A. agent turned whistleblower and author of FROM THE COMPANY OF SHADOWS (2013), spoke on the subject of “Where are the whistleblowers?”

He opened his talk by saying:

“But the higher I got up in the Agency, the more I began to see illegal, unconstitutional, sometimes criminal activity that the Agency, and some other sectors of the shadow government, I call it, were doing things that were illegal and unconstitutional.”

“When the US government violates the Constitution, they are committing multiple felonies based on the foundation of our government.”

Shipp continued,

“So, as a federal agent I had to swear an oath to the Constitution, to defend the Constitution and our country against enemies foreign and domestic. The problem was there were some that were domestic. And, there were some that happened to be in our own government.”

SHIPP: WAKE UP CALL. IT'S ALMOST TOO LATE.

“It is almost too late to stop what is now a post constitutional government. The People are no longer ruling in our country. The government in a tyrannical form is not ruling people by subversion, force and fear.”

Shipp zeroed in on the “secrecy agreement” or “nondisclosure agreement” as the primary weapon used by the government against potential whistleblowers. He went on to describe his moral decision to resist the intimidation, follow the truth, and follow his oath to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution as his higher, righteous calling.

BARACK OBAMA'S DARK POOLS OF CORRUPTION

Shipp said all intelligence employees and contractors must sign Form SF312 Classified Information Nondisclosure Agreement. (Sometimes called the “Secrecy Agreement.”)

On the surface, it is a simple two-page agreement.

However, those two pages directly incorporate 1,242 pages of nested laws, directives, orders and regulations to which the person is committing! Do you think anybody has read those pages?

We just did. We actually compiled those pages below. Here are the laws, orders and regulations referred to directly in the C.I.A. Secrecy Agreement:

1. Executive Order 12356, later became 13526; (18 pgs.). National Security Information. This order binds the following laws, orders and regulations INSIDE it:
 - a. 5 USC 552: Public information; agency rules, opinions, records, and proceedings (29 pgs.)
 - b. USC Title 44: Public Printing and Documents (317 pgs.)
 - c. 42 U.S.C. §§ 2011-2021, 2022-2286i, 2296a-2297h-13: Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (543 pgs.)
2. 18 USC 641: Public money, property or records (2 pgs.)
3. 18 USC 793: Gathering, transmitting or losing defense information (3 pgs.)
4. 18 USC 794: Gathering or delivering defense information to aid foreign government (3 pgs.)
5. 18 USC 798: Disclosure of classified information (3 pgs.)
6. 18 USC 952: Diplomatic codes and correspondence (1 pg.)
7. 18 USC 1924: Unauthorized removal and retention of classified documents or material (1 pg.)
8. 50 USC 783: Communication of classified information by Government officer or employee (2 pgs.)
9. 50 USC 421-426: Protection of certain national security information (4 pgs.)
10. 5 USC 7211: Employees' right to petition Congress (1 pg.)
11. 10 USC 1034: Protected communications; prohibition of retaliatory personnel actions (4 pgs.)
12. 10 USC 1054: Defense of certain suits arising out of legal malpractice (1pg.)
13. 5 USC 2302: Prohibited personnel practices (8 pgs.)
14. 5 USC App: Inspector General Act of 1978. U.S. Federal Register (57 pgs.)
15. 50 USC 403: Director of National Intelligence (3 pgs.)
16. Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949: (6 pgs.)
17. 32 CFR 2001: Classified National Security Information, Final Rule (in 70 pgs. Fed. Reg.)
18. Classified Information SF312 Briefing Pamphlet \(65 pgs.\)

The total number became not two, but 1,242 pages!

In this environment judges rule by fiat. Perhaps he decides in one case to be decent. But then, when a globalist crony is in the docket, she rules for her crooked friends. It's pure lawyer street rule. We the People are not even in their equation.

WILL HUMANKIND EVER LEARN? Facebook's Orwellian doublespeak about property and privacy (theft) merely repeats the eventual dehumanization of the individual under MAO's Red Star, Stalin's SOVIET Hammer & Cycle and Hitler's NAZI Swastika. Respect for the inalienable rights of each individual is a bedrock value of democracy. The members of the Facebook Cabal abuse this principle at every opportunity. They evidently believe that they deserve special privileges and are willing to lie, cheat and steal in order to treat themselves to these privileges.

GIBSON DUNN LLP exposed as one of the most corrupt law firms in employees (3 pgs.).

For Postal Service employees, the term below subjects the agreement to UNSPECIFIED (open ended) "procedures established by the Postal Service."

"Applicability of laws relating to Federal employees (a)(1) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the provisions of chapter 75 of title 5 (Adverse Actions) shall apply to officers and employees of the Postal Service except to the extent of any inconsistency with (B) procedures established by the Postal Service and approved by the Civil Service Commission."

Therefore, if the C.I.A. decides to persecute a Postal Service employee, they merely need to have the Postal Service implement an "exception" to be applied only to their targeted employee. Such corrupt lawyering is an example of how the rogue C.I.A. maintains its power and intimidates whistleblowers.

Unless the C.I.A. officer overseeing the Secrecy Agreement specifically pointed this out to a prospective Postal Service employee, then this omission would nullify for fraud the Secrecy Agreement signed by Postal Service employees pursuant to the Restatement (Second) of Contracts (1981) cited at the end of this post.

In addition, the "Statute of Frauds" would also nullify the contract also since such open-ended terms, as just illustrated, must be spelled out specifically so that the applicant knows exactly the objective terms and conditions to which he or she is committing before the contract can be enforced.

Some pages will have more, others fewer nested pages. So, for the purposes of this example, we will use a conservative factor of 13 as the average number of nested regulations per page.

If this 13:1 ratio holds, that would increase the total number of pages referenced in the secrecy agreement from:

Nested layers of regulations (pages):

1. 1,242
2. 16,146
3. 209,898
4. 2,7 million
5. 35.5 million
6. 461.1 million, then
7. 6 billion

"LAW NESTING" EMPOWERS ONLY CROOKED DEEP STATE JUDGES AND ATTORNEYS

America

Investigative Reporter Julia Davis investigates Facebook's Leader v. Facebook attorney Gibson Dunn LLP. She credits this firm with the reason why not a single Wall Street banker has gone to jail since 2008. Click here to read her article "Everybody hates whistleblowers." Examiner.com, Apr. 10, 2012. Here's an excerpt:

"Skillful manipulation of the firm's extensive media connections allows Gibson Dunn to promote their causes, while simultaneously smearing their opponents and silencing embarrassing news coverage."

This statement followed right after Davis cited Facebook's chief inside counsel in the Leader v. Facebook case, Theodore Ulyot, who appears to have helped lead the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption. Interesting word choices associated with Gibson Dunn LLP: manipulation, smear. Attorneys swear a solemn oath to act morally, ethically, and in support of democratic principles. They promise to conduct themselves in a manner than instills confidence among the citizenry in the rule of law and the judicial system. These promises appear to be meaningless. Clearly, this lawfare nesting of regulations inside of regulations ad infinitum is designed to destroy our Constitution as moral standard.

Whenever judges want to rule against something to support their globalist handlers—no matter whether legal precedent constrains them or not—they’ll just rummage through these nestings until they find something to justify ruling for their globalist handlers anyway. Then, if that decision is challenged, they’ll deny appeals using the now meaningless excuse of “judicial discretion.”

For example, in the Leader v. Facebook patent infringement battle, Obama’s one-month-before-trial replacement Magistrate Judge Leonard P. Stark engaged in lawfare. He cited an 1898 criminal law to support his negation of Leader Technologies’ victory over Facebook that proved on 11 of 11 claims that the engine running Facebook is Leader’s invention. Stark ignored well-established patent law precedent. Wantonly, he excused his misconduct, saying “There is nothing impermissible about such an analysis*” in dredging up the 1898 criminal law that has NEVER been used in a patent case in the history of our Republic . . . until Judge Stark (still a Magistrate Judge at the time) overrode many decades of precedent and gave himself permission to do what was “not impermissible.” This decision appears to have been the Obama/Clinton/Soros/globalist quid pro quo for his appointment right after the trial. This illustrates how subtly and underhandedly Deep State shadow government corruption has crept in to American jurisprudence.

OUR MISSION

* STARK: "There is nothing impermissible" plays a bogus "judicial discretion" excuse. He is essentially saying: "I am a federal judge and I can interpret the law anyway I please." The fact was that nothing in law or precedent justified his opinion other than his profligate abuse of his judicial discretion for his globalist handlers. On appeal, each additional judge had a clone of Stark's financial and relationship conflicts of interest. They were all invested heavily in Facebook financial interests and attorney relationships. Chief Justice Roberts was even an admitted mentor to Facebook's attorney. See Leader Technologies' Petition for Writ of Certiorari to the U.S. Supreme Court.

If permitted to do that long enough, these globalist lawfare judges create new precedent out of thin air.

"POST CONSTITUTIONAL FORM OF GOVERNMENT"

This, we believe, is what Mr. Shipp refers to when he said we are in a "post constitutional" form of government. The rule of law has been replaced by judicial fiat where the highest bidder in the judge's chambers rules.

AFI researchers are now familiar with this Deep State modus operandi. These are the same lawyers who wrote the deceptive 1,500+ user license agreements for Google, Facebook, Instagram, What's App, Yahoo, Microsoft, etc. where users are fooled into giving up all their privacy rights and property in exchange for free stuff. The illustration below stopped at eight link layers deep into the unintelligible legal nesting.

UNCONSTITUTIONAL GOV'T FRAUD AND MISREPRESENTATION AMOUNTING TO SLAVERY

Facebook, FacebookMail, Instagram, LinkedIn, What'sApp, Google, Gmail, YouTube, Hotmail, WindowsLive, Skype, Yahoo, YahooMail, Flickr, Tumblr, Twitter, Apple, AppleTalk, PalTalk, SnapChat, IBM Websphere, Sharepoint, Lotus Notes, etc. all deploy a rogue C.I.A.-inspired end user license agreement drafted by the IBM Eclipse Foundation starting in late 2001. You give up all your information and Constitutional privacy and property rights.

(Rogue C.I.A.) social networking end user licenses all use the same nesting of terms charade employed in the C.I.A. Secrecy Agreement. The original name was the Common Public License Version 0.5 provided to Eclipse Foundation members on Aug. 29, 2002. The source code provided carried fraudulent IBM copyright claims (TIMELINE ENTRY) over the inventions of Leader Technologies, Dr. Lakshmi Arunachalam and others.

American citizens must fight abuse of the constitutional right for authors and inventors to enjoy the fruits of their inventions, as a matter of matter of basic property rights and sound public policy. Otherwise, instead of innovation, creativity, genius, ideas, vision, courage, entrepreneurship, respect, property, rejuvenation, morals, ethics, values, renewal, truth, facts, rights, privacy, solutions and judicial faithfulness,

. . . our society and economy will be dragged down (and eventually destroyed) by copying, infringement, thievery, counterfeiting, hacking, greed, misinformation, exploitation, abuse, waste, disrespect, falsity, corruption, bribery, coercion, intimidation, doublespeak, misconduct, lies, deception, attorney "dark arts," destruction, confusion, dishonesty, judicial chicanery and lawlessness.

If we do not speak up, impeach derelict judges and imprison corrupt attorneys, we cannot possibly hope to start fixing the current ills in our society. Without justice and respect for private property, democracy has no sure foundation.

CURRENT EDITORIAL FOCUS

We are an opinion blog that advocates for strong intellectual property rights. We welcome commenters and contributors. The Leader v. Facebook patent infringement case first came to our attention after learning that the trial judge, Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, ignored his jury's admission that they had no evidence to support their on-sale bar verdict, but the judge supported it anyway.

The judicial misconduct has deteriorated from there, replete with two of the three judges on the Federal Circuit appeal panel, Judges Alan D. Lourie and Kimberly A. Moore, holding Facebook stock that they did not disclose to the litigants, and later tried to excuse through a quick motion slipped in at the last minute by the Clerk of Court, Jan Horbaly, and his close friends at The Federal Circuit Bar Association. (The DC Bar subsequently revealed that Mr. Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in Washington D.C.)

The judges ignored shocking new evidence that Mark Zuckerberg withheld 28 hard drives of 2003-2004 evidence from Leader Technologies that could prove actual theft (and therefore claims even more serious than infringement). In addition, Facebook's appeal attorney, Thomas G. Hungar of Gibson Dunn LLP, has close personal ties to just about every judicial player in this story. The misconduct appears to reach into the U.S. Patent Office through abuse of the reexamination process by Facebook. We will stay focused on Leader v. Facebook until justice is served, but we also welcome news and analysis of intellectual property abuse in other cases as well.

INSTITUTIONAL SLAVERY

Then, as if the lawfare nesting is not harmful enough, these lawyers then have their government employees, numbering over 4.8 million people according to Agent Kevin Shipp, sign their life to the Agency, essentially engaging in institutional slavery:

6. I understand that the United States Government may seek any remedy available to it to enforce this Agreement including, but not limited to, application for a court order prohibiting disclosure of information in breach of this Agreement.

BOTH SIDES LIE IN SECTION 12: BUILT IN FRAUD

12. I have read this Agreement carefully and my questions, if any, have been answered. I acknowledge that the briefing officer has made available to me the Executive Order and statutes referenced in this agreement and its implementing regulation (32 CFR Part 2001 , section 2001 .80(d)(2)) so that I may read them at this time, if I so choose.

SIGNATURE

This Secrecy Agreement is clearly the binding element of the Deep State shadow government.

"4.8 million Americans (and those are just the ones we know of) hold government security clearances" and are bound by and threatened by the secrecy agreement to stay silent" Now the figure is a lot bigger than that, but that's a lot of people, and their families, and everybody that they're connected to. Do you think they're going to speak up if it means total destruction? Probably not."

Common sense says that the briefing officer did not provide 6 billion seventh layer of nested documents at the signing of the Secrecy Agreement.

But, since: (1) the C.I.A. officer misrepresented himself or herself by not providing the 6 billion nested regulation pages (or 35 million in the fifth layer; or even the 16,146 in the second layer), and (2) the applicant did not review those 6 billion pages of regulations; both sides lied and committed fraud.

Given this fundamental fraud, the law says the Secrecy Agreements are fundamentally null, void and unenforceable, since they were entered into under false pretenses.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR U.S. JUDGES

"CANON 2: A JUDGE SHOULD AVOID IMPROPRIETY AND THE APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY IN ALL ACTIVITIES"

Restatement \(Second\) of Contracts \(1981\) (numerous provisions regarding lack of good faith, fraudulent inducement, misrepresentation, threat, duress, when contract is voidable, restraint on competition, interference, recklessness, negligence, unenforceable by public policy, incl. Sec. 164 (p. 23): "If a party's manifestation of assent is induced by either a fraudulent or a material misrepresentation by the other party upon which the recipient is justified in relying, the contract is voidable by the recipient."

CONCLUSION

In conclusion, the C.I.A. Secrecy Agreement is a total fraud that has undermined the Republic.

The solution is to wipe the slate clean of this fraudulent tool of globalist Deep State shadow government threats and intimidation that has harmed so many people, and has made America less secure—the polar opposite of its stated aim. The Secrecy Agreement is clearly the shadow government's central organizing tool.

Then, use simple, straightforward, unnested, common sense law.

While we are at it, let's move our government agencies out of Washington, D.C. around the country, to more down-to-earth places with traditional values like North Platte, Nebraska, where the lawyers will have to do real work again instead of ruin our Republic.

If you think billionaire liberal George Soros is a horrible person, you're not alone.

It's not just here in America where Soros has earned himself a reputation for being corrupt, malicious, and an ever-ready opponent of liberty. Apparently, the man who has been leading the Democrat Party for the last 20 years or so, is also quite hated in Europe.

GALLERY OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Judge Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, trial judge in Leader Techs, Inc. v. Facebook, Inc., 770 F. Supp. 2d 686 (D.Del. 2011). Judge Stark heard his jury foreman admit that the jury made the on-sale bar decision without any evidence other than speculation, and yet he supported that verdict anyway. Just months before trial, Judge Stark allowed Facebook to add the on-sale bar claim after the close of all fact discovery and blocked Leader from preparing its defenses to this new claim. Judge Stark allowed the claims despite Leader's prophetic argument that the action would confuse the jury and prejudice Leader. He also permitted the jury to ignore the Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar, even after instructing the jury to use it. (See that Jury Instruction No. 4.7 here.)

He also contradicted his own instruction to Leader to answer Interrogatory No. 9 in the present tense (2009), then permitted the jury to interpret it as a 2002 admission as well. Facebook's entire on-sale bar case is based upon this interrogatory. (Editorial: Hardly sufficient to meet the "heavy burden" of the clear and convincing evidence standard.)

Judge Alan D. Lourie, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, panel judge in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). 28 April, 2017

Today, April 28th 2017, WikiLeaks publishes the documentation and source code for CIA's "Scribbles" project, a document-watermarking preprocessing system to embed "Web beacon"-style tags into documents that are likely to be copied by Insiders, Whistleblowers, Journalists or others. The released version (v1.0 RC1) is dated March, 1st 2016 and classified SECRET//ORCON/NOFORN until 2066.

Scribbles is intended for off-line preprocessing of Microsoft Office documents. For reasons of operational security the user guide demands that "[t]he Scribbles executable, parameter files, receipts and log files should not be installed on a target machine, nor left in a location where it might be collected by an adversary."

According to the documentation, "the Scribbles document watermarking tool has been successfully tested on [...] Microsoft Office 2013 (on Windows 8.1 x64), documents from Office versions 97-2016 (Office 95 documents will not work!) [and d]ocuments that are not be locked forms, encrypted, or password-protected". But this limitation to Microsoft Office documents seems to create problems: "If the targeted end-user opens them up in a different application, such as OpenOffice or LibreOffice, the watermark images and URLs may be visible to the end-user. For this reason, always make sure that the host names and URL components are logically consistent with the original content. If you are concerned that the targeted end-user may open these documents in a non-Microsoft Office application, please take some test documents and evaluate them in the likely application before deploying them."

Security researches and forensic experts will find more detailed information on how watermarks are applied to documents in the source code, which is included in this publication as a zipped archive.

The Federal Circuit was specially formed to appoint patent-knowledgeable judges to patent cases. Obama's former Secretary of Homeland Security, Janet Napolitano, provided some insight into the corruption that permeates her management style at the University of California and which was surely covered up by her equally corrupt comrades within the Obama regime.

An audit of the University of California reveals that Napolitano had a hidden "rainy day fund" stashed that nobody was supposed to find out about, to the tune of $175 million. The secret fund existed at the same time that the University system was claiming to be in dire financial straits and requesting a funding increase.

THE NSA/CIA ALWAYS "DECLINES TO COMMENT" ON ITS CRIMINALITY.

IT ALSO APPEARS THAT JAPANESE INTELLIGENCES REGULARLY INTERFERES IN MISSOURI'S ELECTION SYSTEM THROUGH A HIDDEN SUBCONTRACTOR: NTT DATA.

Ryan Gallagher. (Apr. 24, 2017). JAPAN MADE SECRET DEALS WITH THE NSA THAT EXPANDED GLOBAL SURVEILLANCE. The Intercept.

IT BEGAN AS ROUTINELY as any other passenger flight. At gate 15 of New York City's JFK Airport, more than 200 men, women, and children stood in line as they waited to board a Boeing 747. They were on their way to Seoul, South Korea's capital city. But none would ever make it to their destination. About 14 hours after its departure, the plane was cruising at around 35,000 feet not far from the north of Japan when it was shot out of the sky.

The downing of Korean Airlines Flight 007 occurred on September 1, 1983, in what was one of the Cold War's most shocking incidents. The plane had veered off course and for a short time entered Soviet airspace. At Dolinsk-Sokol military base, Soviet commanders dispatched two fighter jets and issued an order to "destroy the intruder." The plane was hit once by an air-to-air missile and plummeted into the sea, killing all passengers and crew. President Ronald Reagan declared it a "crime against humanity," marking the dawn of a volatile new chapter in relations between the United States and the Soviet Union. Soon, tensions would escalate to a level not seen since the Cuban missile crisis, which 20 years earlier had brought the world to the brink of nuclear war.

As the international confrontation between the two adversaries played out publicly, behind closed doors another problem – which has never before been revealed – was developing. The U.S. and one of its closest allies, Japan, were embroiled in a dispute involving secret surveillance. Soviet officials were flat-out denying they had any role in shooting down the jet. At a spy base on Japanese territory, however, communications had been intercepted proving the Soviet military was the perpetrator. The U.S. wanted to obtain copies of the tapes but had to first receive approval from the head of a shadowy Japanese surveillance organization known as the “G2 Annex.”

 START, THE INTERCEPT COMMENT, PART II ***

After some bureaucratic wrangling, the Japanese eventually signed off on the release and the highly sensitive recordings were sent to Washington. From there, the tapes were forwarded to New York City, where U.S. Ambassador Jeane Kirkpatrick brought them to the United Nations headquarters in Manhattan. On September 6 – just five days after the Korean Airlines jet was shot down – Kirkpatrick attended a meeting at the U.N. Security Council where she blasted the Soviet Union for telling “lies, half lies and excuses” about its involvement in the downing of the plane. She then proceeded to play the copy of the intercepted conversations, stating that the evidence was being presented in “cooperation with the government of Japan.”

The case Kirkpatrick put forward against the Soviets was irrefutable and damning. But Japan’s spying capabilities had now been exposed – and the country’s officials were not pleased about it. The G2 Annex received new orders limiting its cooperation with the U.S., which affected the NSA’s relationship with its Japanese counterparts for the better part of a decade, at least until the Cold War ended in the early 1990s.

The details about the Korean Airlines case are revealed in classified National Security Agency documents, obtained by The Intercept from the whistleblower Edward Snowden. The documents, published Monday in collaboration with Japanese news broadcaster NHK, reveal the complicated relationship the NSA has maintained with Japan over a period of more than six decades. Japan has allowed NSA to maintain at least three bases on its territory and contributed more than half a billion dollars to help finance the NSA’s facilities and operations. In return, NSA has kitted out Japanese spies with powerful surveillance tools and shared intelligence with them. However, there is a duplicitous dimension to the partnership. While the NSA has maintained friendly ties with its Japanese counterparts and benefited from their financial generosity, at the same time it has secretly spied on Japanese officials and institutions.

The NSA declined to comment for this story.

Staff. (Apr. 28, 2017). Soros caught funding anti-Trump movements WORLDWIDE. The HORN NEWS.

Billionaire liberal George Soros illegally spent $6 million to defeat candidates supported by “populists” and conservative candidates in elections in one year.

But this wasn’t in America. Soros has launched an effort to stop candidates like President Donald Trump around the world.

This $6 million in electioneering covers only one year, 2014, and only in elections for the European Parliament.

And the shadowy billionaire paid every penny of these millions from his tax-exempt “charity,” which is not supposed to dabble in politics.

Leaked documents show that Soros funneled the money in order to shut out candidates who represent the people, not the powerful. Documents marked “confidential” say the funds came through the Open Society Initiative for Europe.

“The next EU elections might also bring more populists and extremists into the European Parliament, which could undermine all our achievements to date,” the documents worried.

WASHINGTON, D.C. - President Trump can put an end to Obamacare on his own, without requiring Congress to take any action at all.

How is this possible?

All President Trump must do to "repeal" Obamacare is sign an Executive Order instructing the Solicitor General to withdraw the Obama administration's appeal in the federal district court case U.S. House of Representatives v. Burwell, (130 F. Supp. 3d 53, U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, 2016).

The result will be to immediately defund the low-income insurance company subsidies being paid by the federal government under Section 1402 of the Affordable Care Act (ACA), causing Obamacare to collapse, almost immediately.

The point is Congress never funded any taxpayer funds to pay the low-income insurance subsidies that are at the heart of making the ACA work.

Bernie Sanders is not too happy that former President Barack Obama has accepted $400,000 to speak at a conference sponsored by a Wall Street investment bank.

"I just think it does not look good," Sanders told CNN's Suzanne Malveaux, joining several people who have criticized Obama for taking the money. "I just think it is distasteful – not a good idea that he did that."

Sanders frequently railed against Hillary Clinton for accepting money for giving speeches to Wall Street banks while he campaigned for the Democratic presidential nomination last year. His comments about Obama echoed Massachusetts Sen. Elizabeth Warren, who said on Thursday that she was "troubled" by the former president's decision.

Sanders also aired his disapproval of Obama's decision in an interview with CBS's This Morning.

How can you tell a US intelligence official is lying?

Dustin Volz. (Apr. 29, 2017). U.S. spy agency abandons controversial surveillance technique. Reuters.

The U.S. National Security Agency said on Friday it had stopped a form of surveillance that allowed it to collect without a warrant the digital communications of Americans who mentioned a foreign intelligence target in their messages, marking an unexpected triumph for privacy advocates long critical of the practice.

The decision to stop the once-secret activity, which involved messages sent to or received from people believed to be living overseas, came despite the insistence of U.S. officials in recent years that it was both lawful and vital to national security.

The halt is among the most substantial changes to U.S. surveillance policy in years and comes as digital privacy remains a contentious issue across the globe following the 2013 disclosures of broad NSA spying activity by former intelligence contractor Edward Snowden.

founding editor Julian Assange.

The DOJ has been running an unprecedented and wide-ranging investigation into WikiLeaks for its publishing and sourcing work since 2010. It has involved paid informers, illegal interrogations in Europe and secret search warrants. Recently CIA Director Mike Pompeo called WikiLeaks a "hostile intelligence service".

Offences cited through the investigation, and allegedly in the charges, include conspiracy, espionage and theft of government property. Recent reports cite Cablegate, the Iraq and Afghan War Logs and Vault 7 publications as well as WikiLeaks' work in getting NSA whistleblower Edward Snowden asylum, as key to the investigation.

This is about more than one publisher. It is about press freedom more broadly and the steady erosion of the First Amendment in the United States. The Obama Administration prosecuted more whistleblowers than all presidents before combined, and ran the longest investigation into a publisher ever in the US with its WikiLeaks Grand Jury. It has continued to the point where Trump's Department of Justice has stated that charging WikiLeaks Editor, Julian Assange, is now a "priority".

Paul Bremmer. (Apr. 29, 2017). AUSTRIAN PRESIDENT SUGGESTS ALL WOMEN WEAR HIJABS - 'This is another example of the world's leaders bowing to Islam'. WND.

There may come a day when Austria will ask all women to wear an Islamic headscarf to fight Islamophobia.

So says Austrian President Alexander Van der Bellen.

Speaking before an audience of students, the left-wing former leader of Austria's Green Party stated, "It is every woman's right to dress exactly as she pleases."

But, he said, "And if things continue like this... in light of manifestly rampant Islamophobia, the day will come where we will have to ask all women to wear a headscarf - all - in solidarity with those who wear it for religious reasons."

According to the London Independent, Van der Bellen was responding to a question from a schoolgirl who argued a ban on Islamic hijabs or veils would reduce women to their appearance and shut some out of the labor market. Although the president made the comments in March, they came to light only recently after being included in an Austrian TV broadcast.

Inform and educate.

- Restore the founding principles of Christianity to our lost nation.
- To re-establish and preserve the Constitution as the law of the land.
- To provide a voice for those who are not able to do so for themselves.

My forums of expression will never represent the TMZ's, cheap, tabloid journalism which seeks to exploit the misfortunes of the rich and famous solely for the purpose of ratings.

We are facing a monolithic enemy that is well-equipped and well-funded and they are dedicated to tearing down everything my enterprise stands for. They are evil in nature and devoid of any redeeming moral or spiritual values. They do not hesitate to start wars for profit that kill millions and one day could kill billions. They use resources as a weapon (e.g. food). They hate Jesus and will not be satisfied until we live in Hell on a daily basis. I am fighting a war and do not have the time, nor desire to divert my attention away from my founding principles.

Tabloid Journalism

I am deeply disturbed by a trend I see in some Independent Media publications. I am seeing an increasing amount of sensationalism that represents what shows like TMZ and Inside Edition are trying to accomplish with their tabloid journalism.

We, in the Independent Media, have a special obligation to our profession. Our nation is lost, it has become hedonistic at best. I believe, as many do, that we are a nation under judgment. This is accompanied by the fact that many of us in the Independent Media are under intense scrutiny. We are accused of being Russian spies and purveyors of "fake news". We are being visited by the millions from people who don't know a legitimate conspiracy from a coincidence. What many do know is that CNN, Fox, ABC, et al., lie and they lie all the time. These people, in various states of ignorance, are passing by our publication sites to see if there is anything that separates us from the corporate controlled media. And when we engage in TMZ style journalism, we send the clear message that we are just as disgusting and shallow as the mainstream media.

A number of Ph.Ds have written a book chapter asserting that doubts about the theory of human-caused global warming should be considered "real science."

You know, the idea of basing hypotheses on documented evidence rather than a political agenda.

But the National Science Teachers Association wants nothing to do with such an approach.

Its executive director, David Evans, has written a letter to members insisting they must teach the agendas of the National Wildlife Federation, the North American Association for Environmental Education, the Campaign for Environmental Literacy, the Center for Climate Change Communication and other activist groups.

What they must avoid, he contends, is the information compiled by the scientists who wrote "Why Scientists Disagree About Global Warming."

The chapter, written by Craig Idso, Robert Carter and S. Fred Singer and published by the Heartland Institute, challenges common climate change and global warming agenda arguments.

Staff. (Apr. 30, 2017). THE NEW CIVIL WAR: RADICAL COMMUNISTS VS. CONSERVATIVES - Universities have set stage for violence to continue. WND.

Violent gangs of left-wing radicals known as “antifa” have been attacking Christians or conservatives whom they consider “racist” or “fascist.”

But, now, some conservatives are organizing in self-defense, and the war is erupting in the streets.

The focal point is Berkeley, California, home of the free speech movement and now the site of repeated battles between antifa and conservatives. A lawsuit was filed against the University of Berkeley to force the school to allow author and conservative columnist Ann Coulter to speak.

It came only weeks after the “Battle of Berkeley” in which a “free speech rally” featuring Lauren Southern, Brittany Pettibone and other conservative and libertarian speakers was disrupted by antifa. However, conservatives wearing helmets and protective gear routed the left-wingers in a street battle, prompting organizers to declare victory.

In the past 100 days, I have kept that promise – and more. Issue by issue, department by department, we are giving the people their country back. After decades of a shrinking middle class, open borders and the mass offshoring of American jobs and wealth, this government is working for the citizens of our country and not one else.

The same establishment media that concealed these problems – and profited from them – is obviously not going to tell this story. That is why we are taking our message directly to America.

Actor Richard Dreyfuss and Fox News host Tucker Carlson were midway through a debate Friday night over funding for sanctuary cities when Dreyfuss left Carlson all but speechless.

Dreyfuss was telling Carlson that he believed no president had the power to withhold funding, as President Donald Trump has threatened to do, because that power rests with Congress.

But that was not what was uppermost in his mind. Instead, Dreyfuss needed to get something else off his chest.

Ben Marquis. Apr. 24, 2017). Trump Discovers Obama Was Spending $300 Million on Fake Afghan Soldiers, Gives Pentagon New Orders. CT.

Millions of U.S. taxpayer dollars were being foolishly wasted paying for the salaries of non-existent "ghost" soldiers and policemen in Afghanistan under the Obama administration, but no more.

According to the special inspector general for Afghanistan reconstruction, John Sopko, who recently sat down for an interview with Sharyl Attkisson of Full Measure, the ongoing problem may have been worse than anyone realized, but was being addressed by President Donald Trump's Pentagon.

"We've been raising this concern about ghosts going back a number of years," Sopko said. "Actually I want to say we heard about it from (Afghan President) Ashraf Ghani years ago, before he became president, he warned me about 'ghosts,' so we started looking three years ago."

April 23, 2017 — John Sopko Special Inspector General for Afghanistan Reconstruction: We've been raising this concern about ghosts going back a number of years. Actually I want to say we heard about it from Ashraf Ghani years ago, before he became president, he warned me about "ghosts," so we started looking three years ago.

Sharyl: John Sopko is the Inspector General watching over the U.S. taxpayer billions spent to rebuild Afghanistan.

Sharyl: When you say "ghosts," what are you referring to?

John Sopko: What we're talking about are policemen, Afghan policemen, Afghan military, Afghan civil servants who don't exist or they have multiple identity cards and we're paying their salaries. By "we" I mean the United States and the international community. And we started finding out that we had no capacity to measure the number of soldiers, teachers, doctors, military people who we are paying their salaries.

THE WASHINGTON DC PEDOPHILIA HIGH FLYER BLACKMAIL GAME

PleadingYiff. (Nov. 6, 2016). EXTREMELY DISTURBING CONTENT - Huge Breakthrough in D.C. Pedophilia Ring. SGTReport.

The individual I have mentioned is one James Achilles Alefantis. Mr. Alefantis is the owner of the Washington DC pizza parlor Comet Ping Pong. There are disturbing indications that Mr. Alefantis is running some form of pedophile ring that involves quite a few public figures in Washington D.C. It would appear that he is the "Achilles heel" for all these people of stature.

Since the investigation began, Mr. Alefantis has deleted many of his posts and set his social media to private. We have archived the entirety of his online presence however. Links posted here are both archives and screenshots I took while helping to investigate.

First I will discuss Alefantis' links to powerful people, then outline the preponderance of evidence that he is a pedophile and uses Comet Ping Pong as a front for his sex trafficking ring.

George Soros appears to have fixed his eye on a new enemy - a proposed Article V Convention.

Operatives from Soros-funded organizations have been caught on camera lobbying state legislators in at least two states to oppose an Article V Convention resolution.

Anthony Gutierrez of Common Cause Texas, a Soros-funded group, testified against Article V Convention legislation before the Texas legislature, and Ted Boettner of the West Virginia Center on Budget & Policy, sponsored by Soros' Center on Budget and Policy Priorities, lobbied against such legislation in the Mountain State.

Common Cause and the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities have also put out policy papers attacking the effort to call an Article V Convention.

In fact, 230 left-wing organizations have organized to oppose an Article V Convention. The groups include the Brennan Center for Justice, the Center for Media and Democracy, Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington, Democracy 21, People for the American Way and the League of Women Voters. These 230 organizations, many of which are funded by Soros, put out a statement calling an Article V Convention “a threat to every American’s constitutional rights and civil liberties.”

Jacob Engels. (Apr. 30, 2017). GEORGE SOROS DEMANDS WE RETRACT AYALA STORY. Central Florida Post.

The billionaire and liberal moneymen was not happy that we connected the dots even further between him and the Orange/Osceola State Attorney.

Earlier this month we published an article “Soros Connected Groups Dominate Ayala’s Personal & Professional Life”, which received overwhelmingly positive reviews from our readers and community leaders.

In it, we demonstrated how Soros-linked groups and operatives have maintained a very close proximity to Ms. Ayala, even after her election last August. Ayala famously caught the eye of Mr. Soros, who pumped millions into a PAC that savaged her opponent, sex hound State Attorney Jeff Ashton.

While almost everyone on both sides of the political spectrum has appreciated our reporting and coverage of State Attorney Ayala, apparently one of our new readers was not amused... a Mr. George Soros.

The senator who most consistently has opposed President Donald Trump's appointees is not a famous liberal firebrand such as Bernie Sanders (I-Vt.), Elizabeth Warren (D-Mass.), Al Franken (D-Minn.), or Chuck Schumer (D-N.Y.).

Instead, it is New York's junior Democratic senator, Kirsten Gillibrand, who took office in 2009 with a reputation as a moderate after two years in the House of Representatives. With the confirmation Thursday evening of Labor Secretary Alex Acosta, Gillibrand has a nearly perfect record of opposition.

Tom Fitton. (Apr. 27, 2017). Judicial Watch: FBI Court Filing Reveals Grand Jury Targeted Hillary Clinton [Press release]. Judicial Watch.

(Washington, DC) – Judicial Watch today released new State Department documents including a declaration from FBI Special Agent E.W. Priestap, the supervisor of the agency’s investigation into Hillary Clinton’s email activities, stating that the former secretary of state was the subject of a grand jury investigation related to her BlackBerry email accounts.

The declaration was produced in response to Judicial Watch’s lawsuit seeking to force Secretary of State Rex Tillerson to take steps to “recover emails of former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton” and other U.S. Department of State employees (Judicial Watch, Inc. v. Rex Tillerson (No. 1:15-cv-00785)). The lawsuit was originally filed against then-Secretary of State John Kerry. The Trump State Department filing includes details of the agency’s continuing refusal to refer the Clinton email issue to the Justice Department, as the law requires.

In the filing Priestap declares under penalty of perjury that the FBI “obtained Grand Jury subpoenas related to the BlackBerry e-mail accounts, which produced no responsive materials, as the requested data was outside the retention time utilized by those providers.”

Quin Hiltyer. (May 01, 2017). SWAMP DRAINING EVASIVE FOR TRUMP ADMINISTRATION. Liberty Headlines.

Draining a swamp - as candidate Trump metaphorically said he wanted to do to Washington's fetid bureaucracy - requires manpower to get rid of all the muck.

But various factions on the right are increasingly concerned with the slow and/or uneven pace, and direction, of the Trump Administration's placement of personnel within executive departments to do the hard work of reform.

Politico on Monday lent credence to earlier reports that one reason for the slow pace of executive appointments - more on those numbers in a moment - is that different right-leaning factions exist, and they disagree about who is in charge.

Many, perhaps most, of Trump's Cabinet appointments were greeted with acclaim from most of the otherwise semi-warring factions on the right. Most of Trump's conservative supporters also were thrilled that Trump was so aggressive about appointing "landing teams" of mostly conservative staffers to help oversee the transition of executive agencies to new management.

Why the Obama Justice Department avoided the grand jury . . . until it had no choice

On the matter of the 2016 election, why is there an investigation into Russian meddling but no investigation of Justice Department meddling? The latter effort was more extensive. And it sure looks like it would be a lot easier to prove.

This week, courtesy of Judicial Watch, we learned that the Obama Justice Department and the FBI did, in fact, use the grand jury in the Clinton e-mails probe. Or, to be more accurate, they fleetingly used grand-jury subpoenas, which were issued to BlackBerry service providers at the tail end of the investigation - a futile attempt to recover e-mails sent to and from then-Secretary of State Hillary Clinton right before she transitioned from BlackBerry to her homebrew server.

That's a story unto itself, which we'll get to in due course.

SUSAN LINDAUER

Indicted and imprisoned on The Patriot Act

The second non-Arab American indicted.

CRIME: Speaking to staff of Sen. John McCain about Iraq and Libya

As a U.S. Intelligence Asset, Susan Lindauer covered anti-terrorism at the Iraqi Embassy in New York from 1996 up to the invasion. Independent sources have confirmed that she gave advance warning about the 9/11 attack. She also started talks for the Lockerbie Trial with Libyan diplomats. Shortly after requesting to testify before Congress about successful elements of Pre-War Intelligence, Lindauer became one of the first non-Arab Americans arrested on the Patriot Act as an "Iraqi Agent". She was accused of warning her second cousin, White House Chief of Staff Andrew Card and Secretary of State Colin Powell that War with Iraq would have catastrophic consequences. Gratis of the Patriot Act, her indictment was loaded with "secret charges" and "secret evidence." She was subjected to one year in prison on Carswell Air Force Base in Fort Worth, Texas without a trial or hearing, and threatened with indefinite detention and forcible drugging to shut her up. After five years of indictment without a conviction or guilty plea, the Justice Department dismissed all charges five days before President Obama's inauguration.

Lindauer has written a book Extreme Prejudice: The Terrifying Story of the Patriot Act and the Cover Ups of 9/11 and Iraq about her experience.

A government watchdog withheld at least 14 reports that revealed department-wide problems that allow fraud and waste at a cabinet-level agency, The Daily Caller News Foundation's (TheDCNF) Investigative Group has learned.

The reports concern issues plaguing the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), including felons illegally living in federally-funded homes, tax fraud and millions of dollars sitting in unused bank accounts for years. The department's 2017 budget is $48.9 billion and it has 8,375 employees.

The HUD Inspector General (IG) posted its systemic implication reports - documents that reveal opportunities for fraud in agency programs - to its website. A comparison between that listing and another TheDCNF previously obtained through a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request showed 14 reports from 2011 through 2014 were excluded from the IG's the website.

At least three of those reports were also kept from HUD, meaning top department officials may not even be aware of the problems and suggested remedies.

Trump accused Comey of giving Hillary Clinton a “free pass” in the investigation into whether she mishandled classified information on her private email server.

Huma Abedin forwarded Hillary Clinton’s emails, some of them classified, to her disgraced husband, Anthony Weiner, FBI Director James Comey revealed on Wednesday.

“[Weiner’s] then-spouse, Huma Abedin, appears to have had a regular practice of forwarding emails to forward to him, I think, to print out for her so she could deliver them to the secretary of state,” Comey told the Senate Judiciary Committee during an oversight hearing.

Comey reopened the FBI investigation into Clinton’s email practices in October after agents discovered that a laptop owned by Weiner and Abedin contained Clinton’s emails. The laptop was seized as part of a separate investigation into Weiner’s contacts with a 15-year-old girl.

Mark Hosenball. (May 02, 2017). NSA Collected Americans’ Phone Records Despite New Limits, Report Says. Time.

(WASHINGTON) – The U.S. National Security Agency collected more than 151 million records of Americans’ phone calls last year, even after Congress limited its ability to collect bulk phone records, according to an annual report issued on Tuesday by the top U.S. intelligence officer.

The report from the office of Director of National Intelligence Dan Coats was the first measure of the effects of the 2015 USA Freedom Act, which limited the NSA to collecting phone records and contacts of people U.S. and allied intelligence agencies suspect may have ties to terrorism.

It found that the NSA collected the 151 million records even though it had warrants from the secret Foreign Intelligence Surveillance court to spy on only 42 terrorism suspects in 2016, in addition to a handful identified the previous year.

The NSA has been gathering a vast quantity of telephone "metadata," records of callers' and recipients' phone numbers and the times and durations of the calls - but not their content - since the September 11, 2001, attacks.

Siranush Ghazanchyan. (May 03, 2017). Architects of Denial: First person account of the Armenian Genocide. Public Radio of Armenia.

Former Superman Dean Cain has produced a new film - Architects of Denial - which delves into the Armenian genocide and the denial by the Turkish government and other authoritative bodies that atrocities ever took place.

"Armenians have been persecuted for centuries. It's unreal," Cain told "Fox & Friends" recently when discussing his upcoming project. "They were the first bastion of Christianity. They were the first country to, I think, recognize Christianity, and they are the only bastion of Christianity in the Middle East."

The film shares new insight into genocide from WikiLeaks founder Julian Assange, FBI Whistleblower and journalist Sibel Edmonds, US Ambassador John Evans, Genocide Watch founder Dr. Gregory Stanton and a host of eye-witnesses and survivors who reveal how easily the world turns away from the horror of mass extermination for political and economic convenience.

"Turkey has gone around the world aggressively lobbying to make sure there are no references to the Armenian genocide," said Wikileaks editor-in-chief Julian Assange in the recently released trailer for "Architects of Denial."

"Architects of Denial" not only digs into the persecution of Armenians and Christians in the Middle East, both past and present, but also sheds light on those politicians who refuse to acknowledge an event many historians and scholars accept as a sad reality.

Arguments were heard in an appeals court on Wednesday involving a controversial government hacking case in which the FBI participated in the distribution of child pornography. This is the most recent legal test of the FBI's ability to hack any computer, anywhere.

In February 2015, the Federal Bureau of Investigation seized control of a server located in North Carolina used at the time to host a forum where thousands of dark net users traded photos and videos of children being sexually abused. The website wasn't immediately shut down. Instead, for roughly two weeks, the FBI maintained the website while it conducted a massive hacking operation, resulting in hundreds of criminal cases.

More than 23,000 sexually explicit images and videos of young children were shared on the website after the FBI seized control, according to court filings. Some of the children depicted were barely old enough to attend kindergarten, the Justice Department has said.

Suddenly, the American political left believes that a full-on resistance movement against our Commander in Chief is completely appropriate and warranted.

For some reason, the presidency of Donald J. Trump doesn't command respect from the liberal New Fascists, who have redefined the very idea of dissent in modern day America. Where our forefathers have respectfully debated, disagreed, and legislated their way through the annals of government friction, this new breed of angry leftist has instead chosen to follow a path of anger and obstruction.

In the weeks following the election of Trump, protests around the nation consistently turned violent, and they continue to do so 100-and-some days following the business mogul's inauguration. It has become unfortunately acceptable for hate and venom to spew forth during any conversation about the President, regardless of your status and stature in our great nation. Even professional orators and television hosts have turned to the profane and disgusting in order to demean and delegitimize The Donald.

Now, Hillary Clinton has retuned from under whatever rock she was hiding to begin a campaign of dissension against her former political rival.

Andrew P. Napolitano. (May 4, 2017). More Spying and More Lying. LewRockwell.

Late last week, President Donald Trump told CBS News that domestic surveillance of American citizens should be the “No. 1” topic of inquiry until we can find out “what the hell is going on” with it. Also late last week, the National Security Agency – the federal government’s 60,000-person-strong domestic spying agency – announced that it would voluntarily hold back on its more aggressive uses of Section 702 of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act.

That section permits the NSA to capture communications between foreigners and Americans without a warrant from any court, even though the NSA has its own secret court that has granted well over 99 percent of applications for spying brought to it.

Yet the NSA has convinced the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court that when it captures the communications of a foreigner and an American and those communications refer to a third person who is an American, Section 702 extends the authority for warrantless spying to that third person, as well. And it extends to any person whom the third person is talking about – and so forth, out to the sixth level of communication.

If you do the math, this NSA-concocted, Section 702-generated, secret FISA court-approved logic permits warrantless spying on nearly everyone in the United States. So why did the NSA announce that it will pull back on the way it utilizes Section 702 as the basis for its mass spying?

US intelligence agency has since 1945 succeeded in deposing or killing a string of leaders, but was forced to cut back after a Senate investigation in the 1970s

Some of the most notorious of the CIA's operations to kill world leaders were those targeting the late Cuban president, Fidel Castro. Attempts ranged from snipers to imaginative plots worthy of spy movie fantasies, such as the famous exploding cigars and a poison-lined scuba-diving suit.

But although the CIA attempts proved fruitless in the case of Castro, the US intelligence agency has since 1945 succeeded in deposing or killing a string of leaders elsewhere around the world - either directly or, more often, using sympathetic local military, locally hired criminals or pliant dissidents.

According to North Korea's ministry of state security, the CIA has not abandoned its old ways. In a statement on Friday, it accused that the CIA and South Korea's intelligence service of being behind an alleged recent an assassination attempt on its leader Kim Jong-un.

He anticipated Obama's Attorney General Loretta Lynch would intentionally close the investigation into Clinton's email server before any true crimes were able to be revealed, based on an email obtained by Russian hackers and then intercepted by the F.B.I.

Members of Congress are holding "secret conversations" about removing President Donald Trump from office following a "difficult first 100 days," according to a report from The New Yorker magazine.

"Nobody occupies the White House without criticism, but Trump is besieged by doubts of a different order, centering on the overt, specific, and, at times, bipartisan discussion of whether he will be engulfed by any one of myriad problems before he has completed even one term in office—and, if he is, how he might be removed," wrote Evan Osnos.

Osnos claims to have "interviewed several dozen people about the prospects of cutting short Trump's Presidency," including "his friends and advisers; to lawmakers and attorneys who have conducted impeachments; to physicians and historians; and to current members of the Senate, the House, and the intelligence services."

"This is a conversation that people are having around the dinner table, it's one people have at the office, members of Congress are talking about it in private and the question is very simple: is this a president who is able to do the job and is able to go the distance," Osnos said on MSNBC's The Last Word.

Critics of President Trump are actively seeking to remove him from office via impeachment or declaring him mentally or physically unfit for office under the 25th Amendment.

Todd Shepherd. (May 03, 2017). Comey: Huma Abedin regularly sent classified info to Anthony Weiner. Washington Examiner.

Huma Abedin, a long-time top aide to Hillary Clinton, regularly forwarded classified emails to her husband, Anthony Weiner, FBI Director James Comey testified Wednesday.

Sen. John Kennedy, R-La., asked Comey how classified information got on Weiner's computer, something the FBI learned last October.

"His then-spouse, Huma Abedin, appears to have had a regular practice of forwarding emails to him for him, I think, to print out for her so she could then deliver them to the Secretary of State [Clinton]," Comey replied.

Comey couldn't say definitively whether Weiner read the classified documents, believed to primarily have been emails.

"Why did you conclude that neither of them committed a crime?" Kennedy asked.

"Because with respect to Ms. Abedin in particular, we didn't have any indication that she had a sense that what she was doing was in violation of the law, couldn't prove any sort of criminal intent," Comey answered.

The Donald Trump campaign Friday announced that ABC, CBS and NBC has joined CNN in a campaign to censor its 100-day ad, "setting a chilling precedent against free speech rights."

Lara Trump, the wife of Eric Trump and daughter-in-law of President Trump, a consultant for the campaign Donald J. Trump for President Inc., said: "Apparently, the mainstream media are champions of the First Amendment only when it serves their own political views. Faced with an ad that doesn't fit their biased narrative, CNN, ABC, CBS, and NBC have now all chosen to block our ad. This is an unprecedented act of censorship in America that should concern every freedom-loving citizen."

WND reported earlier this month when CNN launched the censor-Trump effort. At that time, campaign Executive Director Michael Glassner said in a statement the action by CNN "is censorship pure and simple."

"By rejecting our ad, CNN has proven that it supports censorship, is biased and fears an opposing point of view," he charged.

Get "Stop the Presses" from the WND Superstore and get the insider story on the new media in America today, that forever changed the way Americans get their news.

"President Trump's loyal supporters know the truth: The mainstream media mislead, misguide, deceive, and distract," he continued, "CNN epitomizes the meaning of fake news and has proven it by rejecting our paid campaign ad."

The network objected to a brief screen display of the images of multiple network anchors with the word "Fake" across the image. CNN insists the "mainstream media is not fake news."
