PAY-to-PLAY NEW WORLD ORDER
This timeline shows how insiders sell access & manipulate politicians, police, intelligence, judges and media to keep their secrets

Clintons, Obamas, Summers were paid in cash for outlandish speaking fees and Foundation donations. Sycophant judges, politicians, academics, bureaucrats and media were fed tips to mutual funds tied to insider stocks like Facebook. Risk of public exposure, blackmail, pedophilia, "snuff parties" (ritual child sexual abuse and murder) and Satanism have ensured silence among pay-to-play beneficiaries. The U.S. Patent Office is their toy box.

FIG. 1 – LEADER TECHNOLOGIES FILED A MILLER ACT NOTICE. The real inventor of social networking, Leader Technologies and Michael McKibben, asked President Trump to force technology companies who provide services to the U.S. Deep State intelligence services running rogue operations out of the National Security Staff (NSS), National Infrastructure Advisory Council (NIAC) and the IBM Eclipse Foundation, to pay inventor Leader for the confiscation of their social networking invention since 2000. Bill Clinton's intelligence advisor, James P. Chandler, first learned about Leader invention in Feb. 2002, according to the Miller Act Notice. See Figs. 2, 3 below.

(JUL. 24, 2017)—Citing bombshell lawyer notes of a private conversation, U.S. intelligence insiders called their plan to use stolen social networking technology to take over the Internet a “coup.” Leader Technologies and its founder and inventor, Michael McKibben, served the federal equivalent of a lien on the US government today.

Leader CEO McKibben is the true inventor of social networking, as the timeline in the White House notice shows. See Fig. 2 below.

Leader filed a “Miller Act Notice” on the White House at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue this morning. The Miller Act, 40 USC 3131, requires prime contractors on government contracts to post bonds guaranteeing payment to suppliers. Leader has proven breach of contract and argues that technology suppliers to the the Deep State have benefited from Leader's inventions since 2000 without compensating Leader for those benefits. All this is explained in the Miller Act Notice. Likewise, when your builder doesn't pay the subcontractors, the subs can file a mechanic's lien. The Miller Act is similar, except that the federal government is exempt from having to sell its property to cover outstanding obligations. In lieu of a mechanic's lien, federal contracts require surety bonds.

The timeline also reveals disturbing long-time collusion of Leader's former patent attorney, James P. Chandler, with the White House ever since Bill Clinton's presidency, right through George Bush and Barack Obama. It also shows his collusion with rogue intelligence operatives in the NSA, CIA, FBI and with IBM, among others. Perhaps this is why former executives from these agencies are speaking out against President Trump right now? They are attempting to hide this collusion?

FIG. 4—MILLER ACT NOTICE TIMELINE contained in Leader Technologies' Miller Act Notice served on the White House on Jul. 24, 2017.

Leader shows how the U.S. government stole its social networking inventions through Chandler, who was also Bill Clinton's intelligence advisor. The timeline also reveals a disturbing pattern of collusion among rogue elements of the FBI, NSA and CIA with private industry that included former director Robert Mueller. Mueller is now leading the ever-expanding Donald Trump Russia collusion witch hunt.

LEADER DEMANDS PAYMENT FOR 17 YEARS OF GOVERNMENT THEFT

Leader says the damages are valued at least $40 billion for historical damages, which they say is not actually close to the real number, and $184 billion per year in ongoing annual license fees. It appears that these amounts will be paid by the surety bond holders who supply the federal government's intelligence apparatus, companies like IBM, Microsoft, Xerox, etc. This puts the payout in the coming years at well over one trillion dollars. The claim is after taxes, which means the government may generate $20 billion or more per year in taxes from this claim as the bond holders pay out.

Former defense secretary Robert M. Gates said in his book Duty that this rogue White House National Security Staff operation had already engulfed the White House during his tenure. He said it had grown from 50 under Clinton to 350 under Obama—a 700% increase. It appears that the primary goal of this surveillance is blackmail.

National security has only ever been the excuse to consolidate the Deep State shadow government’s power.

Leader’s lead inventor, Michael McKibben, said “many investigators from around the country have been working on this notice for a long time. He also said that “numerous prominent whistleblowers have helped fill in the pieces of the puzzle.”

McKibben said he will be making a statement in the next few days. He emphasized that President Trump had nothing to do with the theft of social networking, but his predecessors Clinton, Bush and Obama did.

“On behalf of myself and my shareholders, I ask President Trump to correct the injustices we have suffered at the hands of an un-elected, rogue shadow government that has evidently hijacked the Internet to try and maintain their power.” McKibben said all he has ever wanted was a level playing field as promised in the U.S Constitution. Instead, he has encountered only crony capitalism where the winners and losers are predetermined and the courts are rigged. “In our experience, ‘Deep State shadow government’ is an accurate description for what we have uncovered,” he said. “I am asking the President to finally do right by me, my investors, private property rights, the U.S. Constitution and the Rule of Law.”

W L L HUMANK ND EVER LEARN? Facebook's Orwellian doublespeak about property and privacy (theft) merely repeats the eventual dehumanization of the individual under MAO's Red Star, Stalin's SOV ET Hammer & Cycle and Hitler's NAZI Swastika. Respect for the inalienable rights of each individual is a bedrock value of democracy. The members of the Facebook Cabal abuse this principle at every opportunity. They evidently believe that they deserve special privileges and are willing to lie, cheat and steal in order to treat themselves to these privileges.

Inventor Protection Act
 (Proposed)

America needs to practice what it preaches.

We have no business lecturing the world about free enterprise and the rule of law, when we permit the investors in Ohio-based innovator Leader Technologies to go uncompensated for the risks they took to help invent social networking . . .

- a technology upon which the President and U.S. government now rely;
- a technology stolen by the "Facebook Cabal" who recruited the federal courts and Patent Office into their club of corruption.

Rescind. Investigate. Sanction. Certify.

Contact your representatives. Ask them to pass it.
 Real American inventors need your support.

RUSSIAN COLLUSION—YES! PROVEN FOR HILLARY, BILL, PODESTA, GOOGLE, INTEL AND CISCO

See the facts:

McKibben said, "It is too easy for Americans to simply yell 'The Russians!' because relatively few Americans go there, much less fly to the Crimea, for example, and verify the stories. So, it is safe to make up lies and never get caught. By the way, I have actually been to the Crimea. I have met families who lost their loved ones in Stalin's mass starvation of up to 10 million Ukrainian Christian farmers (as much as 25% of the population) who were resisting Communism in 1932-33 (Holodomor)."

McKibben continued, "several PROVABLE RUSSIAN FACTS are that Bill Clinton was paid $500,000 for a Renaissance Capital speech in Moscow on Jun. 29, 2010, according to Hillary Clinton 2010 financial disclosure. Another proven fact from the Massachusetts Secretary of State corporate filings is that John Podesta was a director of Joule Unlimited in Boston when Putin's company Rusnano invested $35 million." Investigative Reporter Julia Davis investigates Facebook's Leader v. Facebook attorney Gibson Dunn LLP. She credits this firm with the reason why not a single Wall Street banker has gone to jail since 2008. Click here to read her article "Everybody hates whistleblowers." Examiner.com, Apr. 10, 2012. Here's an excerpt:

"Skillful manipulation of the firm's extensive media connections allows Gibson Dunn to promote their causes, while simultaneously smearing their opponents and silencing embarrassing news coverage."

This statement followed right after Davis cited Facebook's chief inside counsel in the Leader v. Facebook case, Theodore Ullyot, who appears to have helped lead the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption. Interesting word choices associated with Gibson Dunn LLP: manipulation, smear. Attorneys swear a solemn oath to act morally, ethically, and in support of democratic principles. They promise to conduct themselves in a manner than instills confidence among the citizenry in the rule of law and the judicial system. These promises appear to be meaningless. PROOF: ROBERT MUELLER CANNOT BE IMPARTIAL IN THE RUSSIA INVESTIGATION

Mueller's Deep State relationships will politicize the FBI yet again

"Those engagements clearly broke U.S. law and showed the Russians that American values are equally as corrupt as theirs. It is utterly immoral that Obama, Clinton and their Deep State cohorts allowed this to go on with no accountability or consequence."

McKibben believes that the shadow government elitists who stole his social networking inventions are projecting their sins onto Donald Trump as a smoke screen. He says, "it's a red herring, in my opinion."

In the 70's and early 80's, McKibben, a civil engineer and former professional musician, took contemporary Gospel music groups named Living Sound into Poland and the Soviet Union at the height of the Cold War. He said, "while Leonid Brezhnev was still ruling, honest Soviet citizens sacrificed greatly to achieve some unprecedented results from that work, including organizing our Gospel music performance on national Soviet TV, our music being included on the official 1980 Moscow Summer Olympics film, and the distribution of up to one million Living Sound EPs in 1981."

McKibben says he may have even encountered a young KGB officer named Vladimir Putin at a Leningrad airport security checkpoint where he was body searched after meeting with a Christian activist in Estonia whose sole crime was the anti-Soviet organizing of Christian concerts, and had just been released from prison. Putin was in charge of monitoring foreigners in Leningrad then.

McKibben said in recent years Vladimir Putin says he has come to embrace the Christian faith that he once persecuted. "I hope and pray that is true," said McKibben, who counts John Paul II (now sainted) among his friends and patrons from his work in Poland. "In 1995, I met the late Russian Patriarch Alexy and the current Patriarch Kirill. I also participated in one of the first Church processions allowed in the streets of Moscow since 1917. It was a moving event. We stopped at Lubyanka Square (the former KGB headquarters—infamously known as the "Gateway to the Gulag" through which millions of citizens were sent to their deaths), just after the mass murderer Dzerzhinsky's statue had been toppled and a rough-hewn cross had been strapped to its base. We sang the Orthodox Christian funeral hymn 'Memory Eternal' remembering the martyrs of the Gulag. I will never forget it."

"Mr. Putin's conduct appears contradictory, but such contradictions are not unique to Russians! The closet Muslim Barack Hussein Obama told us before the 2008 election that he was a Christian too. That was evidently a heinous lie. Time will tell regarding Mr. Putin. Jesus said you will know people's real values by the fruits of their actions, not their words."

"Do I blame the Russian government for trying to engage Clinton and Podesta? No. Everyone has known for decades that is what they do. But, to demonize the whole country of Russia is absolutely ridiculous. I know scores of honest, ethical Russians. I watched some of my Russian friends serve prison terms in the U.S.S.R. for standing up for truth and against the lies in their communist society. The grandfather of one friend came out of the Gulag with tuberculosis after suffering for over five years in 10 Soviet prisons and camps. His grandpa died at age 34 from that tuberculosis. What was his grandpa's crime? Befriending American soldiers from the 69th Infantry Division who took him in off the streets after he was liberated from a German slave labor camp."

"America was called by God to set a higher ethical example for the world. We desperately need to get back to our roots."

"Do I blame Clinton and Podesta for cutting secret deals with the Russians while she was Secretary of State in order to enrich The Clinton Foundation and their globalist agenda? Yes—absolutely!"

ROGUE SPY BLACKMAIL SCHEME

"Even the FBI admitted recently that not a single terrorist has been stopped by the illegal dragnet surveillance that they set up using our social networking inventions. But it stands to reason that these bad guys have used this data for blackmail, as many whistleblowers now affirm. They evidently have the dirt on many in Congress and the Courts. We need some sort of truth and reconciliation commission to sort out this rogue spy blackmail scheme."

"God gave us a reprieve with the election of Donald J. Trump. With the funds we are demanding we will finally have an opportunity to introduce our social networking invention in the right way—a way that keeps what everyone likes about social networking, and also respects our Fourth Amendment rights to privacy from unlawful government intrusion," McKibben concluded. "We fought a revolution over this issue! Why would we give it up now?"

Dr. Jerome Corsi. (Jul. 24, 2017). PROOF POSITIVE OBAMA ADMINISTRATION STOLE DIVIDENDS FROM FANNIE AND FREDDIE SHAREHOLDERS

Documents DOJ newly released under court order reveal "Net Worth Sweep" dividend theft

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Shareholders of Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac, after years of discouraging litigation, finally have the proof positive they need to demonstrate at court exactly how the Obama administration stole from them billions of dollars of profits earned by the Government Sponsored Entities (GSEs).

Department of Justice documents newly released under a court order issued by U.S. Court of Federal Claims Judge Margaret in case involving Fairholme Funds [Fairholme v. United States, No. 13-465 (Fed. Cl.)], a company owning shares of the mortgage giants, leave no doubt the Obama administration created a false pretext that Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac were yet in financial turmoil, and lied to Congress, shareholders, and the American public, to implement the "Net Worth Sweep," on Aug. 17, 2012.

A contrived justification based on a specious argument

As Infowars.com has previously reported, an analysis of Treasury Department financial statements for 2012 and 2013 proves the "Net Worth Sweep" was a complex scheme the Obama administration concocted for Sec. Timothy Geithner's Treasury to steal without Congressional authorization all GSE earnings, in order to divert the funds unconstitutionally to keep Obamacare from going bankrupt by using Fannie and Freddie's earnings to pay the low-income insurance subsidies the House of Representatives refused to fund.

Government briefs filed in the Fairholme case before the Eight Circuit Court of Appeals repeatedly argued the "Net Worth Sweep" was necessary to make sure the financially troubled GSEs did not burn through government bailout funds provided by the Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement (PSPA) of 2008, to pay dividends.

CURRENT EDITORIAL FOCUS

We are an opinion blog that advocates for strong intellectual property rights. We welcome commenters and contributors. The Leader v. Facebook patent infringement case first came to our attention after learning that the trial judge, Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, ignored his jury's admission that they had no evidence to support their on-sale bar verdict, but the judge supported it anyway.

The judicial misconduct has deteriorated from there, replete with two of the three judges on the Federal Circuit appeal panel, Judges Alan D. Lourie and Kimberly A. Moore, holding Facebook stock that they did not disclose to the litigants, and later tried to excuse through a quick motion slipped in at the last minute by the Clerk of Court, Jan Horbaly, and his close friends at The Federal Circuit Bar Association. (The DC Bar subsequently revealed that Mr. Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in Washington D.C.)

The judges ignored shocking new evidence that Mark Zuckerberg withheld 28 hard drives of 2003-2004 evidence from Leader Technologies that could prove actual theft (and therefore claims even more serious than infringement). In addition, Facebook's appeal attorney, Thomas G. Hungar of Gibson Dunn LLP, has close personal ties to just about every judicial player in this story. The misconduct appears to reach into the U.S. Patent Office through abuse of the reexamination process by Facebook. We will stay focused on Leader v. Facebook until justice is served, but we also welcome news and analysis of intellectual property abuse in other cases as well.

Jim Stinson. (Jul. 25, 2017). Trump Confidante: Sessions, Priebus on Borrowed Time in Administration. Lifezette.

Source says public slights intentionally designed to lead attorney general, chief of staff to the exit doors

Attorney General Jeff Sessions and Reince Priebus, chief of staff, are not expected to last much longer in President Donald Trump's Cabinet, one of the president's longtime confidantes told LifeZette Monday.

The reason? Trump is deeply unhappy about the administration always being on defense, and he believes Sessions and Priebus have contributed to that situation. Trump believes it's time for "fresh" faces – people who will fight.

Former CIA Director John Brennan said if President Trump orders special counsel Robert Mueller be fired "executive branch officials" have an "obligation" to "refuse to carry that out."

From Zero Hedge:

"I think it's the obligation of some executive branch officials to refuse to carry that out. I would just hope that this is not going to be a partisan issue. That Republicans, Democrats are going to see that the future of this government is at stake and something needs to be done for the good of the future," Brennan told CNN's Wolf Blitzer at the Aspen Security Forum, effectively calling for a coup against the president should Trump give the order to fire Mueller.

A House IT staffer at the center of a congressional computer equipment scandal has been arrested by federal officials and charged with bank fraud, Fox News has learned.

Fox News is told officers and agents from the U.S. Capitol Police, the FBI and Customs and Border Protection were involved in the arrest of Imran Awan at Dulles International Airport.

Awan, 37, of Virginia, pleaded not guilty Tuesday to one count of bank fraud during his arraignment in federal court in Washington, D.C. He was released but will have to wear a GPS monitor and abide by a curfew.

Joe Wilson. (Jul. 25, 2017). OBAMA-ERA RULES JEOPARDIZE CALIFORNIA FARMING - 'If this unprecedented prosecution succeeds, it threatens nearly every farm in the U.S.' Fox News.

WASHINGTON - While President Donald Trump has cut over 800 regulations during just his first six months in office, freeing up small businesses to grow and prosper, one California farmer is hoping that his administration will drop a costly lawsuit held over from the Obama years.

So he can pursue his livelihood, farming, without the shadow of a misapplied regulation.

John Duarte, a farmer and owner of Duarte Nursey, Inc., planted winter wheat in 2012 on land that he owns in Tehema County, California. In February 2013, he received a cease-and-desist order from the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, according to the Pacific Legal Foundation, which is representing the Duarte family in this case.

Judge Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, trial judge in Leader Techs, Inc. v. Facebook, Inc., 770 F. Supp. 2d 686 (D.Del. 2011). Judge Stark heard his jury foreman admit that the jury made the on-sale bar decision without any evidence other than speculation, and yet he supported that verdict anyway. Just months before trial, Judge Stark allowed Facebook to add the on-sale bar claim after the close of all fact discovery and blocked Leader from preparing its defenses to this new claim. Judge Stark allowed the claims despite Leader's prophetic argument that the action would confuse the jury and prejudice Leader. He also permitted the jury to ignore the Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar, even after instructing the jury to use it. (See that Jury Instruction No. 4.7 here.) He also contradicted his own instruction to Leader to answer Interrogatory No. 9 in the present tense (2009), then permitted the jury to interpret it as a 2002 admission as well. Facebook's entire on-sale bar case is based upon this interrogatory. (Editorial: Hardly sufficient to meet the "heavy burden" of the clear and convincing evidence standard.)

Judge Alan D. Lourie, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, panel judge in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Lourie stood to benefit financially from undisclosed holdings in Facebook. See analysis of Judge Lourie's T. Rowe Price holdings re. the Facebook IPO. Judge Lourie also failed to apply his own law-test in Group One v. Hallmark Cards to the evidence. After debunking all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, Judge Lourie created new argument in the secrecy of chambers to support Facebook and prevent the on-sale

George Washington. (Jul. 24, 2017). NSA Officials and Computer Expert: Forensic Evidence Proves DNC Emails Were LEAKED, Not Hacked. ZeroHedge.

Preface by Washington's Blog: We asked top NSA whistleblower Bill Binney what he thought about a report claiming that the DNC emails were transferred too quickly to have been accessed by a hacker, and could only have been copied by a DNC leaker. This article is his response. Background here and here.

MEMORANDUM FOR: The President

FROM: Veteran Intelligence Professionals for Sanity (VIPS)

SUBJECT: Was the "Russian Hack" an Inside Job?

Executive Summary

Forensic studies of "Russian hacking" into Democratic National Committee computers last year reveal that on July 5, 2016, data was leaked (not hacked) by a person with physical access to DNC computers, and then doctored to incriminate Russia.

After examining metadata from the "Guccifer 2.0" July 5, 2016 intrusion into the DNC server, independent cyber investigators have concluded that an insider copied DNC data onto an external storage device, and that "telltale signs" implicating Russia were then inserted.

Key among the findings of the independent forensic investigations is the conclusion that the DNC data was copied onto a storage device at a speed that far exceeds an Internet capability for a remote hack. Of equal importance, the forensics show that the copying and doctoring were performed on the East coast of the U.S. Thus far, mainstream media have ignored the findings of these independent studies [see here and here].

Brooke Singman. (Jul. 26, 2017). Trump's not alone: Congress digging into DNC-Ukraine connection. Fox News.

Republicans in Congress have joined the White House in asking questions about the extent to which a Democratic Party consultant may have worked with Ukrainian officials to hurt then-candidate Donald Trump's presidential bid last year.

Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman Chuck Grassley wrote a letter earlier this week to the Justice Department asking whether the Democratic National Committee broke the law. Grassley, R-Iowa, specifically asked if the DOJ was investigating Alexandra Chalupa, a Ukrainian-American DNC consultant who allegedly had meetings at the Ukrainian Embassy in Washington, D.C., to discuss incriminating information about Trump campaign officials.

President Trump, trying furiously to tamp down the controversy over alleged Russian coordination with his associates, has questioned why the same scrutiny is not being applied to the Democrats' alleged Ukraine connection.

In a Tuesday tweet, he complained about the lack of an investigation into Ukraine efforts to "sabotage" his campaign.

Judge Wallach is not a patent attorney. This begs the question as to why a judge with no knowledge of patent law was assigned to the case. Would anyone ask a dentist to perform brain surgery? The Federal Circuit was specially formed to appoint patent-knowledgeable judges to patent cases. There is no evidence so far in the judicial disclosures that Judge Wallach holds stock in Facebook, although when he was asked on a motion to disclose potential Facebook holdings and other conflicts of interest, he refused along with the other judges. The National Security Agency and FBI violated specific civil liberty protections during the Obama administration by improperly searching and disseminating raw intelligence on Americans or failing to promptly delete unauthorized intercepts, according to newly declassified memos that provide some of the richest detail to date on the spy agencies' ability to obey their own rules.

The memos reviewed by The Hill were publicly released on July 11 through Freedom of Information Act litigation by the American Civil Liberties Union.

They detail specific violations that the NSA or FBI disclosed to the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court or the Justice Department's national security division during President Obama's tenure between 2009 and 2016. The intelligence community isn't due to report on compliance issues for 2017, the first year under the Trump administration, until next spring.

About two dozen Facebook accounts were created to conduct surveillance on Macron campaign officials and others close to the centrist former financier as he sought to defeat far-right nationalist Marine Le Pen and other opponents in the two-round election, the sources said. After helping to sink a clean repeal of Obamacare, Sen. Dean Heller (R-Nev.) on Wednesday stood in the well of the Senate and pretended to advocate for reform.

Yet Heller, the only Republican senator facing re-election next year in a state Democratic presidential candidate Hillary Clinton won, argued against substantive changes to a host of Obamacare provisions and offered an amendment to protect the status quo at the heart of the law — its expansion of Medicaid.

"Let me tell you the impact Medicaid has had on the state of Nevada," he said. "And as many of you know, the state of Nevada was the first state to expand Medicaid. Before the state made that decision, the state's uninsured rate was at 23 percent, one of the highest in the country."

Most Republicans argue that the Medicaid expansion has weakened the financial integrity of an already-shaky entitlement program. But Heller insisted he opposes the Affordable Care Act.

Several conservative activists ripped Heller and six other Republicans who joined Democrats in voting down the repeal — Arizona's John McCain, Maine's Susan Collins, Alaska's Lisa Murkowski, Ohio's Rob Portman, Tennessee's Lamar Alexander, and West Virginia's Shelley Moore Capito.

President Donald Trump and the Republican-controlled Congress have laudably made passing tax reform – real tax reform, not just shuffling money from one group to another – a top priority. Now, however, some supply-side economics skeptics are open to the possibility of taxing free speech – a constitutional right – to fill Washington’s coffers.

As you read this, the “Big Six” are meeting to discuss which deductions to keep or eliminate, and Ways and Means Committee Chair Kevin Brady must quell these whispers of taxing advertising. Imposing such a levy would trample on our country’s liberty and values, setting a dangerous precedent for further constitutional breaches in the foreseeable future.

As substantial “pay-fors” such as the border adjustment tax begin to fall out of the public’s favor, some in Congress have begun to look at provisions from Dave Camp’s 2014 tax reform proposal as a blueprint for replacement. Camp’s proposal would have changed the tax treatment of advertising from a normal, 100 percent deductible business expense to one that is only 50 percent deductible, with the rest being amortized over the course of a decade.

We seldom interrupt our regular intelligence flow on this website. We are doing this now because the extraordinary memorandum produced by the Veteran Intelligence Professionals for Sanity (VIPS) yesterday conclusively demonstrates that the so-called Russian hacks of the Democratic National Committee were not hacks at all, but leaks by someone with physical access to DNC computers. The data was then doctored to incriminate Russia. You can read the entire explosive VIPS Memorandum here.

The VIPS, who include former NSA Technical Director William Binney, back the independent forensic analysis performed by a group including Skip Folders, retired IBM Program Manager for Information Technology U.S. No such forensic analysis was performed in any of the Obama intelligence community’s so-called “assessments.” The VIPS state that there were two inside leaks from the DNC. The first was in June of 2016, sometime before Julian Assange’s June 12th announcement that he had DNC documents and planned to publish them. The second leak was on July 5, 2016 to pre-emptively taint anything Wikileaks might publish by “showing it came from a Russian hack.” As is well-known, Wikileaks did publish its DNC trove showing that Hillary Clinton and the DNC conspired to rig the Democratic Presidential primary process against Bernie Sanders.

In an explosive interview with with the New Yorker's Ryan Lizza, Anthony Scaramucci issued his sternest warning yet to those leaking information to the press.

Scaramucci said he wants to "f*cking kill all the leakers and I want to get the President's agenda on track so we can succeed for the American people."

The New Yorker reported:

He reiterated that Priebus would resign soon, and he noted that he told Trump that he expected Priebus to launch a campaign against him. "He didn't get the hint that I was reporting directly to the President," he said. "And I said to the President here are the four or five things that he will do to me." His list of allegations included leaking the Hannity dinner and the details from his financial-disclosure form.

I got the sense that Scaramucci's campaign against leakers flows from his intense loyalty to Trump. Unlike other Trump advisers, I've never heard him say a bad word about the President. "What I want to do is I want to fucking kill all the leakers and I want to get the President's agenda on track so we can succeed for the American people," he told me.

Ian Mason. (Jul. 27, 2017). REPORT: Top FBI Lawyer Under Investigation for Leaks. Breitbart.

A Thursday report in Circa cites three officials claiming that FBI General Counsel James A. Baker is the "top suspect" in an investigation into leaks of classified Department of Justice information to the media.

The report claims the investigation is "criminal" in nature. It is unclear exactly what information Baker is suspected of leaking and to which new outlets he did so.

Baker is reportedly a "close ally" of ousted FBI Director James Comey, who, in 2014, appointed him to his current post as the top attorney representing the bureau. According to a June report in Vox, Baker was one of the three officials to whom Comey turned for advice soon after his infamous private audience with President Donald Trump in which he later claimed, through a memo leaked to Columbia Law professor Daniel Richman, that the President asked him "let it go" with regard to former National Security Advisor Michael Flynn.

If Circa's report proves accurate, it may be the first name to drop in Attorney General Jeff Sessions's rumored extensive probe into leakers in the federal government. Neither the Justice Department nor the FBI responded to Circa's request for comment on Baker being under investigation, but DOJ Spokeswoman Sarah Isgur Flores did release this statement to journalists Thursday:

Bob Nuruh. (Jul. 28, 2017). Watching the Watchers: Lawsuits Target FBI's McCabe. WND.

The FBI, of course, is the federal agency that carries out some of the nation's most important investigations.

But of late, there have been raised questions about the agency's chiefs. After all, fired director James Comey was the lead player in the FBI's announcement not to prosecute Hillary Clinton, even though he explained her national security-related actions exhibited extremely poor judgment.

Then there has been the ongoing investigation into claims that the Trump campaign colluded with Russia during the 2016 presidential race, a rumor-filled nest that has yet to produce anything more than some decisions political insiders would describe as unwise.

And of course after Comey was fired, he released government documents to a friend to give to the media in his desire to manipulate the Washington bureaucracy to trigger an outside counsel's investigation of "Russia," which he got.

Now questions are being raised about his close friend, Andrew McCabe, who became acting FBI chief when Comey was removed.

They come in the form of three lawsuits filed by officials with Judicial Watch seeking information about McCabe's activities.

Get "Trump's War: His Battle for America" by talk radio icon Michael Savage, from the WND Superstore.

"There are numerous questions about the ethics and judgment of the FBI's top leadership, particularly acting FBI director Andrew McCabe," said Tom Fitton, the Judicial Watch chief.

WASHINGTON, D.C. - On May 17, the day Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein appointed former FBI Director Robert Mueller as Special Counsel charged with investigating possible "Russian collusion" with President Trump's campaign, Julian Assange at WikiLeaks tweeted a WikiLeaks released State Department cable documenting that Secretary of State Hillary Clinton ordered Mueller to deliver a sample of stolen Highly Enriched Uranium (HEU) to Russia in 2009.

Assange's email signaled an investigation is needed into Mueller and his complex involvement with Russia and Uranium One, the company Bill Clinton promoted with Canadian entrepreneur Frank Giustra while Hillary Clinton served as Obama secretary of state in a criminal saga that ended up with Secretary Clinton voting to give the Russian State Atomic Nuclear Energy Agency, Rosatom, control of approximately 20 percent of all uranium holdings in the United States.

Mueller's involvement in the Clintons' drive to profit from selling 20 percent of U.S. uranium to Vladimir Putin's Russian government should properly make him the target of a Department of Justice grand jury convened to examine the Clintons' involvement with Uranium One, thereby disqualifying him from serving as Special Counsel appointed to examine the "no evidence" Democratic meme that the Trump campaign "colluded" with Russia to steal the election from Hillary Clinton.

Pat Buchanan. (Jul. 27, 2017). Is Trump Entering a Kill Box? Patrick J. Buchanan Blog.

Given the bravery he showed in stepping out front as the first senator to endorse Donald Trump, Jeff Sessions deserves better from his boss than the Twitter-trashing he has lately received.

The attorney general has not only been loyal to Trump and his agenda, he has the respect and affection of ex-colleagues in Congress and, more broadly, of populists and conservatives nationally.

Trump's tweets about Sessions are only demoralizing his base.

Yet the president is not wrong to be exasperated and enraged.

A yearlong FBI investigation into Russian hacking has failed to produce a single indictment. Yet the president watches impotently as a special counsel pulls together a lethal force, inside his own administration, whose undeclared ambition is to bring him down.

Trump's behavior suggests that he sees the Mueller threat as potentially mortal.

Bob Unruh. (Jul. 29, 2017). 'OBAMA HOLDOVERS' IN D.C. SCRUBBING 'ISIS GENOCIDE AGAINST CHRISTIANS' - Legal team preparing new court demands to "expose deep state operatives"

The Obama administration repeatedly fudged on the issue of Islam.

Barack Obama himself said Muslims were a key to the founding of the nation and after all, the U.S. wasn't a Christian nation.

Muslim advocates, including some fairly radical, were installed in influential positions in Washington.

Never were the words "Muslim" and "terrorist" to be used together, it seemed.

Now, a report is confirming that those left in the government, and there are many, from Obama's tenure are busy trying to erase the references to ISIS' "genocide" of Christians in the Middle East.

It is the American Center for Law and Justice that is, well, a little upset.

"In a startling revelation, news is breaking this week that Obama holdovers within the State Department are actively attempting to scrub its records to remove any mention of the ISIS genocide against Christians," the organization reported.

"This is outrageous and the ACLJ has had enough, so we are preparing a new set of Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests to find out why - and to expose deep state operatives who would use the delay of confirming new State Department officials as cover to strip legal protections from Christians facing genocide."

Today, July 19th 2017, WikiLeaks publishes documents from the CIA contractor Raytheon Blackbird Technologies for the "UMBUDGE Component Library" (UCL) project. The documents were submitted to the CIA between November 21st, 2014 (just two weeks after Raytheon acquired Blackbird Technologies to build a Cyber Powerhouse) and September 11th, 2015. They mostly contain Proof-of-Concept ideas and assessments for malware attack vectors - partly based on public documents from security researchers and private enterprises in the computer security field.

Raytheon Blackbird Technologies acted as a kind of "technology scout" for the Remote Development Branch (RDB) of the CIA by analysing malware attacks in the wild and giving recommendations to the CIA development teams for further investigation and PoC development for their own malware projects.

Want To Rig An Election? There's A Convention In Vegas For

Hackers at a competition in Las Vegas were able to successfully breach the software of U.S. voting machines in just 90 minutes on Friday, illuminating glaring security deficiencies in America's election infrastructure.

Tech minds at the annual DEF CON in Las Vegas were given physical voting machines and remote access, with the instructions of gaining access to the software.

According to a Register report, within minutes, hackers exposed glaring physical and software vulnerabilities across multiple U.S. voting machine companies' products.

Some devices were found to have physical ports that could be used to attach devices containing malicious software. Others had insecure Wi-Fi connections, or were running outdated software with security vulnerabilities like Windows XP.

We have identified the instructions and online forms you need to file a complaint with the participants. MOOC stands for "Massive Open Online Course."

You should complain about:

- (1) the intellectual property theft of social networking source code from Leader Technologies, Columbus, Ohio that is the software engine running the UIA;
- (2) the corruption at Ohio State University and OSU's collusion with Battelle Memorial Institute which helped steal the software being used by UIA; and
- (3) the mistreatment of OSU Marching Band Director Jon Waters regarding fabricated Title IX charges that were used to pave the way for Steinmetz to announce UIA.

Universities pride themselves on protection of intellectual property.

Therefore, these universities cannot participate in this abuse of inventor

In essence, he said, not only was Hillary not smart enough, or qualified, to know that using an unsecured email server put our nations security at risk, but she was incapable of determining what was top secret material was.

The truth is, that James Comey did not recommend federal charges against Hillary Clinton, in part, because he is connected to the Clinton Foundation through the Swiss bank HSBC.

More than 200 republicans sent a letter demanding to know why he didn't recommend federal charges against Hillary Clinton over her use of private email servers.

Clinton "clearly placed our nation's secrets in peril," the letter states. "No one is above the law, and the American people deserve a more robust explanation for your decision to not recommend criminal charges."

According to Mini Planet, a review of FBI Director James Comey's professional history and relationships shows that the Obama cabinet leader — now under fire for his handling of the investigation of Hillary Clinton — is deeply entrenched in the big-money cronyism culture of Washington, D.C. His personal and professional relationships — all undisclosed as he announced the Bureau would not prosecute Clinton — reinforce bipartisan concerns that he may have politicized the criminal probe.

Luke Rosiak. (Feb. 20, 2017). EXCLUSIVE: House Dem IT Guys In Security Probe Secretly Took $100K In Iraqi Money. The Daily Caller.

Rogue congressional staffers took $100,000 from an Iraqi politician while they had administrator-level access to the House of Representatives' computer network, according to court documents examined by The Daily Caller News Foundation's Investigative Group.

The money was a loan from Dr. Ali al-Attar, an Iraqi political figure, and was funneled through a company with "impossible"-to-decipher financial transactions that the congressional information technology (IT) staffers controlled.

Imran Awan, ringleader of the group that includes his brothers Abid and Jamal, has provided IT services since 2005 for Florida Democrat Rep. Debbie Wasserman Schultz, the former Democratic National Committee (DNC) chairwoman. The brothers are from Pakistan.

President Trump on Saturday threatened to end key payments to insurance companies made under Obamacare if a repeal and replace bill is not passed.

"After seven years of 'talking' Repeal & Replace, the people of our great country are still being forced to live with imploding ObamaCare!" the president wrote in a tweet.

"If a new HealthCare Bill is not approved quickly, BAILOUTS for Insurance Companies and BAILOUTS for Members of Congress will end very soon!" he added.

Jerry Cave. (Jul. 29, 2017). Scaramucci Was Brought in to Drain the Swamp. Accuracy in Media (AIM.)

Over the course of the last week, White House Communications Director Anthony Scaramucci railroaded Chief of Staff Reince Priebus out of his job for allegedly leaking. He tweeted Priebus' name in a threat to investigate the latest White House leak. He gave a couple of interviews that made it clear he thought Priebus was leaking and needed to go. And, voila, on Friday, Priebus was gone.

If you work in the White House and do not have the message yet, Scary Mucho is there to scare people straight on the issue of leaking. And he is not messing around.

He is sending a message to the staff that none are above suspicion or scrutiny. This is not the Obama Justice Department, where anything went, nor the Hillary Clinton State Department, where bribes and lawlessness reigned. It's illegal to leak, and if you do so from the Trump White House now, you will be gone...no matter who you are.

Scaramucci is not in Washington to make friends. He is here to clean up the operations of the White House and clean out those who are not on the president's side.

He correctly identified Priebus as a leaker and as someone who did not support the candidate and brought people into the White House who also were never Trumpers. Those people are now on the shortest of leashes.

He's treating the White House like a corporate C-ring. That means real accountability in real time. Corporations fire faster because they have a lower tolerance for losing. They fire warning shots across the bow to give employees a chance to fix problems before they result in bottom line losses or dismissals of them and their CEOs.

Private Property and Privacy are the 'Rights of Man'

The Deep State created "The Internet of Things" industry as a global spy machine. This theft is arguably the greatest financial crime in history, and has been valued by Wall Street currently at approximately $2.9 trillion and climbing. The abuses of the Bill of Rights are equally significant. The 'Deep State' is defined as a 'rogue group from the C*A, whose loyalties are to the 'globalists' seated in every political party in America...simply choose one, and there is a role for a globalist in 'the party'. The American people are the victims, as well as the current POTUS, who is being cornered and delayed by the 'Deep State' at every turn. "The Internet of Things" was never intended to be used in the current manner. "We The People" can change this by demanding that the original 'blocks' and 'encryption' be part of the "Internet" where people and businesses 'choose' what to share and what not to share....with anyone...especially 'government'. It is possible for this to be accomplished. American's are not stuck in this paradigm, but people have to be aware that they are not safe nor respected regarding their 'personal effects, property, or affairs under the current 'Internet of Things'.

Daily Telegraph. (Jul. 31, 2017). WIKILEAKS PUBLISHES 21,000 MACRON CAMPAIGN EMAILS - Leak includes 50,000 more unverified emails. Infowars.

More than 20,000 emails from Emmanuel Macron's presidential campaign have been published by Wikileaks.

The whistleblowing website released the trove of leaked emails on Monday as a searchable archive. It comes almost three months after the Macron campaign was hacked on the eve of his election.

WikiLeaks ✓ @wikileaks

RELEASE: 21,075 verified searchable emails from the campaign of President Macron #MacronEmails #MacronLeaks <https://wikileaks.org/macron-emails/> 6:37 AM - Jul 31, 2017 147 147 Replies 1,347 1,347 Retweets 1,264 1,264 likes

Wikileaks, best known for publishing huge stores of US spy agency records, said the emails date between March 2009 and April 24 2017.

The organisation said it had confirmed the 21,075 emails were sent or received by addresses associated with the campaign by checking the "domain keys" used to sign emails. It published a further 50,773 emails it could not verify.

In total, the leak includes 71,848 emails, 26,506 attachments and 4,493 unique senders.

Morgan Liddick. (Jul. 31, 2017). OPINION: What is Wasserman-Schultz hiding? The News Virginian.

Imran Awan was arrested at Dulles airport last Tuesday while trying to flee the country for his native Pakistan. His two brothers, wife, children and several other family members had already fled.

When his arrest became known prominent Democrats, led by former Democratic National Committee Chairwoman Debbie Wasserman-Schultz raised the hue and cry of "Islamophobia," excoriating the Feds for their biases. Sorry. Not this time.

Awan is a prime target of investigations led by the Capitol Police. He and other family members were employed by Wasserman-Schultz and other Democrats for years, at high rates of pay, as IT technicians in both congressional and party offices - but staffers said they were "hardly ever seen," and what they actually did was a bit of a mystery.

Was the Awan crime family engaged in anything besides the time-honored traditions of featherbedding and kickbacks, through which public monies are channeled to a favored few in return for "considerations" given to their paymasters? Probably.

Sharyl Attkisson. (Aug. 01, 2017). NEW: Attkisson v. DOJ: The Computer Intrusion Lawsuit against the Federal Govt. Full Measure.

It "is not a mistake; it is not a random event; and it is not technically possible for these IP addresses to simply appear on her computer systems without activity by someone using them as part of the cyber-attack." -David Scantling, cyber-security expert.

I'm frequently asked about the status of my lawsuit against the U.S. Department of Justice over the secret, unlawful intrusions into my computers, exposed in 2013. As my federal case moves slowly through court system, there is a new development: ongoing forensic work of my computer laptop system has revealed a second government Internet Protocol (IP) address used in the illegal cyber-attacks on my computer laptop system.

The IP addresses don't belong there.

In a new affidavit filed in federal court last week, cyber-security expert David Scantling states, "[T]he presence of these USPS addresses on [Attkisson's] computer is not a mistake; it is not a random event; and it is not technically possible for these IP addresses to simply appear on her computer systems without activity by someone using them as part of the cyber-attack."

Scantling served as a contractor for the National Security Agency (NSA), the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and as a Department of Defense (DoD) civilian employee. He's familiar with "Advanced Persistent Threat" ("APT") cyber-attacks. In fact, he developed and deployed similar APT cyber-attacks against foreign government, commercial, insurgent and terrorist targets. He also developed and deployed cyber-security countermeasures in the private sector to defend against such attacks.

Paul Joseph Watson. (Aug. 01, 2017). ROGER STONE: SETH RICH WAS PARTYING WITH IMRAN AWAN ON THE NIGHT OF HIS MURDER - Trump confidante claims link between DNC staffer's death and disgraced Wasserman Schultz aide. Infowars.

According to Trump confidante Roger Stone, disgraced Debbie Wasserman Schultz aide Imran Awan was with former DNC staffer Seth Rich on the night of his murder.

Rich was murdered in an upscale area of Washington DC on July 10 last year but the killer or killers did not steal anything from the victim, rendering the police's explanation that the incident was a robbery gone wrong doubtful.

Infowars reported on the questions surrounding Seth Rich's murder multiple times back in August last year, including how there was around an hour and a half of "unaccounted for" time between Rich leaving a bar and being killed.

Brad Bauman, a crisis communications manager for the Democratic Party, was hired by Rich's family to act as their spokesman.

Bauman's first action was to insist that people stop questioning the unsolved circumstances behind Rich's murder.

The mainstream media is completely blacklisting any mention of the bombshell revelations by investigative reporter Seymour Hersh about murdered DNC staffer Seth Rich, in which Hersh explained how Rich was Wikileaks' source for the DNC leak and how the "Russian hacking" story was completely concocted by former CIA director John Brennan.

In an audio tape obtained by Big League Politics, Hersh says he saw an FBI report leaked to him by an insider which confirms that Rich had contacted Wikileaks with sample emails from the DNC leak and asked for payment for the full data dump.

"All I know is that he offered a sample, an extensive sample, I'm sure dozens of emails, and said 'I want money.' Later, WikiLeaks did get the password, he had a DropBox, a protected DropBox," he said. They got access to the DropBox," added Hersh.

Email comment by TEX:

If these were Republican scandals, they would consume the news cycle.

Michael Sainato of The Observer has done a superb job of accumulating all the scandals currently roiling the Democrat Party. Well, not really roiling, because as we all know our objective, unbiased, and not-at-all-leftwing media is covering up every single one of these jaw-dropping scandals. Smothering them to death. Burying them. In other words, thanks to our media, Democrats, the true Russian colluders (more on this below) are getting away with everything but murder.

So, with another word of thanks to The Observer for reminding us of these 17 scandals (I added the last two), here they broken down into a handy-dandy list.

1. Debbie Wasserman Schultz and the Shady IT Guy

While she was head of the Democrat National Committee (DNC), and until last week when he was detained by the FBI after attempting to flee the country, sitting Congresswoman Debbie Wasserman Schultz employed an IT aide named Imran Awan, who is under criminal investigation for all sorts of financial and intelligence crimes. There are reports of him destroying hard drives sought by the FBI, and worse, there are reports he hid a laptop computer in a crevice somewhere in the congressional office building, which, until recently, Wasserman Schultz refused to give investigators access to.

Incredibly, Awan worked for a whole host of Democrats, but for some bizarre reason Wasserman Schultz did not fire him until last week when he attempted to flee justice.

Other than the usual reasons, the MSM is terrified of this story because Awan's access to all computer things Democrat might prove to be the source of the email hacks that the MSM is desperate to pin on Trump via Russia via WikiLeaks.

2. Democrat Mayors Charged with Pay-to-Play

In the great state of Pennsylvania, two former Democrat mayors were indicted on July 26 by the FBI for pay-to-play. This is the first you've heard of it because the national media is covering this story up.

Oh, and you also haven't heard of Philadelphia District Attorney Seth Williams, who is currently under investigation for $160,000 in gifts that went unreported.

3. Democrat Faces Bribery Charge

Sitting Congressman Robert Brady is currently under FBI investigation for allegedly paying a challenger $90,000 to drop out of the Democrat primary.

4. Democrat Sent to Prison for Racketeering

Just 6 months ago, longtime Democrat Congressman Chaka Fattah began a 10-year prison sentence for racketeering.

5. Democrat Accused of Having Sex with Children

Ed Murray, the sitting mayor of Seattle, ended his campaign for a second term in May after allegations surfaced of child sexual abuse.

6. Corruption Scandal at the Democrat National Committee

As WikiLeaks proved, the DNC rigged the primary against Bernie Sanders in favor of Hillary Clinton. Due to a class action suit the media does not want you to know about, the scandal is not only ongoing, the discovery phase could be a goldmine – you know, for anyone interested in political corruption.

7. Democrat National Committee Sued for Unpaid Wages

Another class action lawsuit filed against the DNC involves campaign workers who claim they were screwed out of overtime pay even as millions in bonuses were handed out to bigwigs.

8. Democrat's Phony Charity Conviction

Just two months ago Corinne Brown, a congresswoman since 1993, was convicted of pocketing hundreds of thousands of dollars through a phony charity.

9. Democrat Billionaire Steals Party Chairmanship

This is one of the sleaziest things you will ever read.

10. Sitting Democrat U.S. Senator Heads to Trial for Bribery

Just two months ago sitting United States Senator Bob Menendez exhausted his final appeal in the Supreme Court. In September, he will go to trial for bribery charges. This is a sitting U.S. Senator. Moreover, this is a sitting U.S. Senator from a major media zone – New Jersey.

But we all know is that Chris Christie went to the beach.

11. Democrat Mayoral Cover-Up In Chicago

Another high-profile Democrat in a major media zone is benefitting from a national media cover-up. Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel not only buried video of a police shooting in 2015, his biggest union supporter – a major Democrat player – was just indicted (two weeks ago) for extortion.

12. Democrat Faces Corruption Charges In New York

In another major media market, a former Assembly Speaker is being tried for corruption.

13. Aides to New York Governor Andrew Cuomo Charged with Corruption

Like Chris Christie, Andrew Cuomo is the governor of a major state who is considering a presidential run. Like Chris Christie and Bridgegate, a number of Cuomo's aides have been indicted for numerous charges of corruption. Unlike Chris Christie and Bridgegate, which was a major national story for over a year, we are hearing almost zilch from the MSM about Cuomo's ethical troubles, and his ethical troubles do not end there.

14. New York Governor Cuomo Diverts Emergency Funds to 'Pet Projects'

Democrats sure got it good.

15. Former Democrat Congressman Pleads Guilty To Underage Sexting

Just two months ago, Anthony Weiner, who is not only a former New York Democrat Congressman but is also married to Hillary Clinton's top aide, Huma Abedin, pleaded guilty to sexting with a 15-year-old girl. Former President Bill Clinton resided over the wedding of Anthony and Huma, and now Anthony will have to register as a sex offender for the rest of his sick life. Oh, and thousands of Hillary's government emails were found on Wiener's laptop. CNN is asking the media to stop talking about Anthony Weiner.

16. Charges of Democrat Vote Fraud in California

Over 300 votes cast to elect a Democrat Party Chair were fraudulent, according to a review board. A lawsuit is probably on the way in an election decided by just 62 votes.

17. Money Laundering Through Gov. Jerry Brown's Campaign

The corruption is just not the money laundering but also the punishment meted out – a $3500 fine and a warning letter to Governor Brown. Have I mentioned how good Democrats got it?

18. Obama Administration Wiretaps Trump Through MASSIVE Unmasking

In order to wiretap Trump and his campaign, the Obama Administration wiretapped foreign officials and then unmasked the names of the Trump officials they spoke with, something that is highly unethical and almost certainly illegal. Using national security to a political end is simply beyond the beyond. Moreover, much of this highly classified information was then leaked to a willing media, also for partisan political purposes.

19. Infamous Trump Dossier Fabricated By Company That Does Business With Russian Government

Well, well, well...

While there is zero proof of any collusion between the Russian government and the Trump campaign, there is now no question that Fusion GPS, the firm behind the thoroughly-discredited "Trump Dossier," has done business with and for the Russian government. There are now claims from numerous sources that the "Trump Dossier" was created on behalf of the Russian government, which, if true, means that those most responsible for making the Dossier public – Senator John McCain, CNN's Jake Tapper, BuzzFeed's Ben Smith – are either colluding with Russians, i.e., knowingly spreading Putin's lies to disrupt our government, or Russian stooges. According to the Daily Caller, this is also true for much of the rest of the media.

To cover up the fact that the media and Democrats appear to have been colluding with the Russians as a means to destroy Trump, Democrats are aggressively trying to kill further congressional inquiry.

NOTE: Yes, the American media does pretty much cover everything. So, yes, if you look hard enough you might find something about these scandals at CNN or The Washington Post. But let's not hide behind hyper-literalism. Just because the MSM can point to a particular write-up, this does not mean the story has gotten any of the traction or attention it deserves. The MSM writes these placeholder pieces only as a means of defense when accused of a cover-up, when we all know that if these were Republican scandals, the MSM stories surrounding them would not be published, buried and ignored – rather, they would consume the news cycle.

Investigative Bureau. (Aug. 02, 2017). EXCLUSIVE: In March, Comey and McCabe Blocked the Arrest of Imran Awan's Wife As She Was Fleeing the Country to Pakistan. True Pundit.

Alvi Awan was suspected of helping swindle $283,000 from banks and was busted carrying over $12,400 in undocumented cash when the FBI caught up with her at Dulles International Airport in March.

But incredibly Awan – the wife of Imran Awan, the IT specialist and con man employed by Democratic Rep. Debbie Wasserman Schultz, who was arrested last week for bank fraud – was never detained or forced to stay in the United States. Her arrest in fact was blocked by then-FBI Director James Comey and then-Deputy Director Andrew McCabe, FBI sources said.

So federal agents and Capitol Police watched as the former Democratic congressional aide and suspected bank fraudster stepped onto Qatar Air1ines Flight 708 to Doha, Qatar, on her way to Lahore, Pakistan with her three daughters, bulging luggage and $12,400 in undocumented cash – a federal crime in itself. Awan had essentially been given a license to disappear from the clutches of US law enforcement, never likely to return to the United States. She was in the wind, courtesy of the FBI.

National Security Council staffer Rich Higgins was fired in July after issuing a memo in which he argued globalists and Islamists are attempting to derail President Donald Trump's agenda.

Former Pentagon official Rich Higgins served as director for strategic planning at the NSC, but was let go after he wrote a memo detailing threats to Trump's presidency specifically stemming from groups like globalists, bankers, Islamists and the deep state, The Atlantic reports.

The memo, written in May and reviewed by The Atlantic, states "Globalists and Islamists recognize that for their visions to succeed, America, both as an ideal and as a national and political identity, must be destroyed."

It further goes on to argue that similar interests between the two groups has prompted "Islamists [to] ally with cultural Marxists because, as far back as the 1980s, they properly assessed that the left has a strong chance of reducing Western civilization to its benefit."

Former Hillary Clinton aide Huma Abedin used her personal email account to transmit classified documents and coordinate favors for Clinton donors, according to emails obtained by Judicial Watch Wednesday.

Judicial Watch obtained the documents as part of a lawsuit filed after the State Department failed to respond to a March 2015 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request. The newly-obtained documents include 91 Clinton email exchanges that were not turned over to the State Department, contradicting Clinton's claim that, "as far as she knew," she had turned over all of her government emails.

The emails reveal multiple instances in which Abedin used her personal account to send and receive classified documents as well as arrange personal favors for Clinton donors and political allies on former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton's behalf.

DINESH D'SOUZA'S 'THE BIG LIE' - $4.95 TODAY ONLY!
Astonishing $22 discount on acclaimed author/filmmaker's brand-new best-seller

What is "the big lie" of the Democratic Party? That conservatives - and President Donald Trump in particular - are fascists. Nazis, even. In a typical comment, MSNBC host Rachel Maddow says the Trump era is reminiscent of "what it was like when Hitler first became chancellor."

But in fact, this audacious lie is a complete inversion of the truth. Yes, there is a fascist threat in America - but that threat is from the Left and the Democratic Party. The Democratic left has an ideology virtually identical with fascism and routinely borrows tactics of intimidation and political terror from the Nazi Brownshirts.

Desperate to politically damage President Trump to lay the grounds for impeachment, Robert Mueller's investigation into "Russian collusion" now includes material "unconnected to the 2016 elections" and even includes tenants who stayed in Trump Tower over the last six years.

Sources told CNN that a "potential prosecution" could be secured not by way of evidence that proves Russia schemed with the Trump campaign to swing the election (which is supposedly the entire focus of the investigation), but by proving past financial improprieties by Trump-owned business interests.

This not only underscores how the entire investigation, which now involves a Grand Jury, is a pure witch hunt, but also how Mueller almost certainly knows that there is no clear evidence of Russian collusion with which to nail Trump.

Subject: PROPAGANDA

I realize you have heard me many times mention the Joseph Goebbels theory of propaganda. For the perhaps few who might not know who he was, Joseph Goebbels was the Propaganda Minister for Adolf Hitler and the Nazi regime. I see one tenant of his theory being used here in the USA and that is repeat, repeat, flood the news channels with what is to be pushed. We see evidence of this with the war against Trump, the official president of the USA, being waged by the "resistance movement" made up of those who want to maintain the status quo of the progress agenda towards control by a globalist central government. They use the big media and the big media goes along with them for what reason I have no idea. One would think big media would realize when the agenda is realized they would be out of business. Makes me scratch my head! Also by the Elite Washington Political boys and girls network that fears being thrown out in Trumps "drain the swamp" initiative. Now here is something to contemplate, an actual quotation from Goebbels from his diary:

"If you tell a lie big enough and keep repeating it, people will eventually come to believe it. The lie can be maintained only for such time as the State can shield the people from the political, economic and/or military consequences of the lie. It thus becomes vitally important for the State to use all of its powers to repress dissent, for the truth is the mortal enemy of the lie, and thus by extension, the truth is the greatest enemy of the State."
