MG Chuck Thomas: Previous post commander

Thomas assumed command of the USAIC&FH in Nov. ’94; final assignment was TRADOC CofS before Sept. ’00 retirement.

His awards and decorations include the Meritorious Service Medal with oak leaf clusters, and the Army Commendation Medal with oak leaf clusters. Lowry retired from active duty Feb. 29, 2000, after 30 years of service.

He is married the former Sharon Staley of Brady, Texas. They have a daughter, Rebecca.

C&M: Mr. Pay,rown V. Lowry

I am Military Intelligence: Always Out Front!

I am Military Intelligence, and my roots stretch to the beginning of time. What- ever and whenever man has had to defend himself, to live, to be free, to defend and victory depend on me. For I am Knowledge, for I am the Source of Truth.

I was with Moses as he sent Caleb into the Promised Land ahead of his people, meeting the enemy where the danger was greatest, their confidence firm.

I've been there since the beginning, and I'll be there tomorrow as well. We light a fire from the people of the Old North Church. "One by land, two by sea," I said and we rode through the cool April night to Lexington.

With a purified message that set free a man’s soul, setting them to fight for their free- dom, and for a nation that was but a dream. I, alone, made welders of farmers that night.

I've been there since the beginning, in cold and in heat, in light and in dark, as the flames of freedom are lit. I'm all clear, I'm all right. I'm all there.

I've been there since the beginning.

I am Military Intelligence: Always Out Front!

At Pearl Harbor, unshackled, I went to the front, but the flames of the flames I was strongest.

Side M, back page.

Golf tourney kicks off Hall of Fame activities; trail ride concludes

By Capt. Jeannie Dixon

Hill of Fame GC

The 14th Annual Military Intelligence Hall of Fame Week celebration, scheduled today and Friday at Fort Huachuca, starts with ice and fire with titles "Military Intelligence Out Front Leading the Army in Transformation!" Activities kick off at 9:30 a.m. today with a golf tournament at Military Intelligence Hall of Fame GC. There will be the longest drive, closest to the hole and many other contests. Lunch is also available. "Military Intelligence Out Front Leading the Army in Transformation!"

Additional lunch meals may be purchased for $8.50. Registration forms are available at the Mountain View Golf Course, Bldg. 4644, or call 586-4028.

At 1 p.m. today, a barbecue lunch will be held in the Magnificent Seven dining facility. "Military Intelligence Out Front Leading the Army in Transformation!"

Commander James M. Keitra.

Command Sgt. Maj. Randolph S. Hollingsworth

Military education

His military education includes the Basic Noncommissioned Officers Course, Advanced Noncommissioned Officers Course, Command and Staff School, Joint Intelligence Center, Chicago, and the Sergeants Majors Course, Basic and Intermediate at Fort Benning, Ga.

Awards, decorations

Hollingsworth’s awards include the Bronze Star Medal with V device, Army Commendation Medal with V device, Army Achievement Medal, National Defense Service Medal, and the Army Reserve Badge.

I'm Military Intelligence: Always Out Front!

I am Military Intelligence, and my roots stretch to the beginning of time. Whatever and whenever man has had to defend himself, to live, to be free, to defend and victory depend on me. I am Knowledge, for I am the Source of Truth.

I was with Moses as he sent Caleb into the Promised Land ahead of his people, meeting the enemy where the danger was greatest, their confidence firm.

I've been there since the beginning, and I'll be there tomorrow as well. We light a fire from the people of the Old North Church. "One by land, two by sea." I said and we rode through the cool April night to Lexington.

With a purified message that set free a man’s soul, setting them to fight for their freedom, and for a nation that was but a dream. I, alone, made welders of farmers that night.

I've been there since the beginning, in cold and in heat, in light and in dark, as the flames of freedom are lit. I'm all clear, I'm all right. I'm all there.

I've been there since the beginning.

I am Military Intelligence: Always Out Front!

At Pearl Harbor, unshackled, I went to the front, but the flames of the flames I was strongest.

Side M, back page.

Golf tourney kicks off Hall of Fame activities; trail ride concludes

By Capt. Jeannie Dixon

Hill of Fame GC

The 14th Annual Military Intelligence Hall of Fame Week celebration, scheduled today and Friday at Fort Huachuca, starts with ice and fire with titles "Military Intelligence Out Front Leading the Army in Transformation!" Activities kick off at 9:30 a.m. today with a golf tournament at Military Intelligence Hall of Fame GC. There will be the longest drive, closest to the hole and many other contests. Lunch is also available. "Military Intelligence Out Front Leading the Army in Transformation!"

Additional lunch meals may be purchased for $8.50. Registration forms are available at the Mountain View Golf Course, Bldg. 4644, or call 586-4028.

At 1 p.m. today, a barbecue lunch will be held in the Magnificent Seven dining facility. "Military Intelligence Out Front Leading the Army in Transformation!"

Commander James M. Keitra.

Command Sgt. Maj. Randolph S. Hollingsworth

Military education

His military education includes the Basic Noncommissioned Officers Course, Advanced Noncommissioned Officers Course, Command and Staff School, Joint Intelligence Center, Chicago, and the Sergeants Majors Course, Basic and Intermediate at Fort Benning, Ga.

Awards, decorations

Hollingsworth’s awards include the Bronze Star Medal with V device, Army Commendation Medal with V device, Army Achievement Medal, National Defense Service Medal, and the Army Reserve Badge.

I'm Military Intelligence: Always Out Front!

I am Military Intelligence, and my roots stretch to the beginning of time. Whatever and whenever man has had to defend himself, to live, to be free, to defend and victory depend on me. I am Knowledge, for I am the Source of Truth.

I was with Moses as he sent Caleb into the Promised Land ahead of his people, meeting the enemy where the danger was greatest, their confidence firm.

I've been there since the beginning, and I'll be there tomorrow as well. We light a fire from the people of the Old North Church. "One by land, two by sea." I said and we rode through the cool April night to Lexington.

With a purified message that set free a man’s soul, setting them to fight for their freedom, and for a nation that was but a dream. I, alone, made welders of farmers that night.

I've been there since the beginning, in cold and in heat, in light and in dark, as the flames of freedom are lit. I'm all clear, I'm all right. I'm all there.

I've been there since the beginning.

I am Military Intelligence: Always Out Front!

At Pearl Harbor, unshackled, I went to the front, but the flames of the flames I was strongest.

Side M, back page.

Golf tourney kicks off Hall of Fame activities; trail ride concludes
Lt. Gen. Patrick W. Hughes
Force Gold Medal (Slovenia), and Honor Medal for Merit in Military Intelligence Operations (Venezuela).

Civillian education
Hughes graduated from Montana State University with a bachelor of science in commerce, from Central Michigan University with a master of science in business management, from the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, and from the two year Advanced Operational Studies Fellowship at the School of Advanced Military Studies at Fort Leavenworth, KS.

He hold honorary doctorates from Montana State University (Busi- ness) and The Joint Military Intelligence College (Intelligence Operations). He is formally named Vietnamese and Indonesian and in me- mory specialists.

Hughes retired from the Army Oct. 1, 1999. He has been married to the former Karen Kay Nabar of Bozeman, Mont., for 39 years. They have two children, Barry and Chad.

CW5 Fried: 41 years of interrogation expertise

Ratied Chief Warrant Officer Five Michael Fried was commissioned from the Amphibious Assault School in 1966, with 41 years and seven months of active ser- vice, His foreign awards include the Honor Medal (first class) and the Joint Military Intelligence College (Strategic Intelligence). Hughes' personal awards and decorations include the Defense Dis- tinguished Service Medal (two awards), Silver Star, Bronze Star Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster (three awards), Bronze Star Medal for Valor in Combat (three awards), Bronze Star Medal for Meritorious Service (two awards), Purple Heart, Defense Mer- itious Service Medal, Army Meritorious Service Medal (five awards), Air Force Commendation Medal, National Intelligence Superiority Medal (two awards), National Intelligence Superiority Medal, Army Good Conduct Medal, Con- struction Equipment Operator's Badge, Fatherlands Defense Medal, German Wound and Disease In- telligence Badge, and the Army Staff Identification Badge.

Fried served as the division's POW team chief, the intelligence officer of an infantry battalion, many. There, he served as interrogator until 1975. Fried's first assignment was with the 10th Mountain Division where, due to his German lan- guage abilities, he was placed in charge of a POW team. When the Wall fell, the World turned their focus on World Peace, in the borders of Kuwait, into Iraq … Always Out Front!

June 27, 1964 – 2001 MI Hall of Fame Page 2

Lt. Gen. Patrick W. Hughes
Force Gold Medal (Slovenia), and Honor Medal for Merit in Military Intelligence Operations (Venezuela).

Civillian education
Hughes graduated from Montana State University with a bachelor of science in commerce, from Central Michigan University with a master of science in business management, from the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, and from the two year Advanced Operational Studies Fellowship at the School of Advanced Military Studies at Fort Leavenworth, KS.

He hold honorary doctorates from Montana State University (Busi- ness) and The Joint Military Intelligence College (Intelligence Operations). He is formally named Vietnamese and Indonesian and in me- mory specialists.

Hughes retired from the Army Oct. 1, 1999. He has been married to the former Karen Kay Nabar of Bozeman, Mont., for 39 years. They have two children, Barry and Chad.

CW5 Fried: 41 years of interrogation expertise

Ratied Chief Warrant Officer Five Michael Fried was commissioned from the Amphibious Assault School in 1966, with 41 years and seven months of active ser-vice, His foreign awards include the Honor Medal (first class) and the Joint Military Intelligence College (Strategic Intelligence). Hughes' personal awards and decorations include the Defense Distinguished Service Medal (two awards), Silver Star, Bronze Star Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster (three awards), Bronze Star Medal for Valor in Combat (three awards), Bronze Star Medal for Meritorious Service (two awards), Purple Heart, Defense Meritious Service Medal, Army Meritorious Service Medal (five awards), Air Force Commendation Medal, National Intelligence Superiority Medal (two awards), National Intelligence Superiority Medal, Army Good Conduct Medal, Construction Equipment Operator's Badge, Fatherlands Defense Medal, German Wound and Disease Intelligence Badge, and the Army Staff Identification Badge.

Fried served as the division's POW team chief, the intelligence officer of an infantry battalion, many. There, he served as interrogator until 1975. Fried's first assignment was with the 10th Mountain Division where, due to his German language abilities, he was placed in charge of a POW team. When the Wall fell, the World turned their focus on World Peace, in the borders of Kuwait, into Iraq … Always Out Front!

June 27, 1964 – 2001 MI Hall of Fame Page 2

Lt. Gen. Patrick W. Hughes
Force Gold Medal (Slovenia), and Honor Medal for Merit in Military Intelligence Operations (Venezuela).

Civillian education
Hughes graduated from Montana State University with a bachelor of science in commerce, from Central Michigan University with a master of science in business management, from the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, and from the two year Advanced Operational Studies Fellowship at the School of Advanced Military Studies at Fort Leavenworth, KS.

He hold honorary doctorates from Montana State University (Busi- ness) and The Joint Military Intelligence College (Intelligence Operations). He is formally named Vietnamese and Indonesian and in me- mory specialists.

Hughes retired from the Army Oct. 1, 1999. He has been married to the former Karen Kay Nabar of Bozeman, Mont., for 39 years. They have two children, Barry and Chad.

CW5 Fried: 41 years of interrogation expertise

Ratied Chief Warrant Officer Five Michael Fried was commissioned from the Amphibious Assault School in 1966, with 41 years and seven months of active ser-vice, His foreign awards include the Honor Medal (first class) and the Joint Military Intelligence College (Strategic Intelligence). Hughes' personal awards and decorations include the Defense Distinguished Service Medal (two awards), Silver Star, Bronze Star Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster (three awards), Bronze Star Medal for Valor in Combat (three awards), Bronze Star Medal for Meritorious Service (two awards), Purple Heart, Defense Meritious Service Medal, Army Meritorious Service Medal (five awards), Air Force Commendation Medal, National Intelligence Superiority Medal (two awards), National Intelligence Superiority Medal, Army Good Conduct Medal, Construction Equipment Operator's Badge, Fatherlands Defense Medal, German Wound and Disease Intelligence Badge, and the Army Staff Identification Badge.

Fried served as the division's POW team chief, the intelligence officer of an infantry battalion, many. There, he served as interrogator until 1975. Fried's first assignment was with the 10th Mountain Division where, due to his German language abilities, he was placed in charge of a POW team. When the Wall fell, the World turned their focus on World Peace, in the borders of Kuwait, into Iraq … Always Out Front!

June 27, 1964 – 2001 MI Hall of Fame Page 2

Lt. Gen. Patrick W. Hughes
Force Gold Medal (Slovenia), and Honor Medal for Merit in Military Intelligence Operations (Venezuela).

Civillian education
Hughes graduated from Montana State University with a bachelor of science in commerce, from Central Michigan University with a master of science in business management, from the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, and from the two year Advanced Operational Studies Fellowship at the School of Advanced Military Studies at Fort Leavenworth, KS.

He hold honorary doctorates from Montana State University (Busi- ness) and The Joint Military Intelligence College (Intelligence Operations). He is formally named Vietnamese and Indonesian and in me- mory specialists.

Hughes retired from the Army Oct. 1, 1999. He has been married to the former Karen Kay Nabar of Bozeman, Mont., for 39 years. They have two children, Barry and Chad.

CW5 Fried: 41 years of interrogation expertise

Ratied Chief Warrant Officer Five Michael Fried was commissioned from the Amphibious Assault School in 1966, with 41 years and seven months of active ser-vice, His foreign awards include the Honor Medal (first class) and the Joint Military Intelligence College (Strategic Intelligence). Hughes' personal awards and decorations include the Defense Distinguished Service Medal (two awards), Silver Star, Bronze Star Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster (three awards), Bronze Star Medal for Valor in Combat (three awards), Bronze Star Medal for Meritorious Service (two awards), Purple Heart, Defense Meritious Service Medal, Army Meritorious Service Medal (five awards), Air Force Commendation Medal, National Intelligence Superiority Medal (two awards), National Intelligence Superiority Medal, Army Good Conduct Medal, Construction Equipment Operator's Badge, Fatherlands Defense Medal, German Wound and Disease Intelligence Badge, and the Army Staff Identification Badge.

Fried served as the division's POW team chief, the intelligence officer of an infantry battalion, many. There, he served as interrogator until 1975. Fried's first assignment was with the 10th Mountain Division where, due to his German language abilities, he was placed in charge of a POW team. When the Wall fell, the World turned their focus on World Peace, in the borders of Kuwait, into Iraq … Always Out Front!

June 27, 1964 – 2001 MI Hall of Fame Page 2

Lt. Gen. Patrick W. Hughes
Force Gold Medal (Slovenia), and Honor Medal for Merit in Military Intelligence Operations (Venezuela).

Civillian education
Hughes graduated from Montana State University with a bachelor of science in commerce, from Central Michigan University with a master of science in business management, from the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, and from the two year Advanced Operational Studies Fellowship at the School of Advanced Military Studies at Fort Leavenworth, KS.

He hold honorary doctorates from Montana State University (Busi-ness) and The Joint Military Intelligence College (Intelligence Operations). He is formally named Vietnamese and Indonesian and in me-mor...