CW5 Fried: 41 years of interrogation expertise

Rotted Chief Warrant Officer Five Michael Fried entered the Army from the Philippines in 1964, with 41 years and seven months of active service. He served from 1965 until 1989 as a member of the command, Tactical, and Staff on active duty.

Fried was born in 1934 in Kielburg, Germany. In 1959, while fleeing from Nazi persecution, his family was captured and taken to a concentration camp where they spent the next five and a half years until liberated in 1945. At age 12 his family immigrated to the United States and he entered in the Army in 1955.

Past assignments

Fried's first assignment was with the 10th Infantry Division where, due to his German language fluency, he was appointed as an expert linguist from 1965-1966. In 1969 Fried was
