Embargoes

We address all international legal aspects of sanctions, from embargoes and economic coercive measures to targeted sanctions. We advise targeted States and businesses on treaty protections, options for judicial review, and issues of international responsibility.

Boundaries

PIL Advisory Group has prominent experts on all matters of the law of the sea (LOS) and ocean governance, with specific experience on delimitation of maritime boundaries and legal and environmental challenges of exploitation of natural resources in disputed maritime zones.

Our arms control & nonproliferation experts assist on issues and challenges such as compliance with arms control agreements, their negotiation and interpretation, and have high-level experience in the legal framework of civilian nuclear activities and IAEA safeguards.

Settlement

Assistance and representation before international courts and tribunals, including the ICJ, the PCA, ITLOS, the WTO Dispute Settlement Body, and ad hoc tribunals. We also assist on major investor-State arbitration cases (ICSID, Energy Charter Treaty, and others).

Nuclear power plant financing post-Fukushima and international investment law

Prof. Daniel H. Joyner has published ‘Nuclear power plant financing post-Fukushima, and international investment law’ in the Journal of...
Venice (Italy) and gathered professors and students from the seven Regional Master’s programme of the Global Campus taking place in five continents, international experts from the United Nations, and civil society organisations.

Pierre-Emmanuel spoke on “Human rights impacts of unilateral sanctions and mechanisms for remedies and redress” in his capacity as Legal Adviser to the UN Special Rapporteur on the negative impact of unilateral coercive measures.

The essential thesis of this article is that, as corporate and project finance trends continue in nuclear power plant financing, resulting in diversified and much broader and more complex structures of foreign investment, international investment law will become increasingly relevant to and influential upon these transactions. This in turn will spawn a new wave of disputes based in international investment law claims, before international arbitral tribunals including the ICSID.
