ROGER STONE SPEAKS:

On Nov. 18, 2017, Twitter censored New York Times best-selling author Roger Stone completely. Every red-blooded American should be outraged, Republican, Democrat and Independent alike. ### PAY-to-PLAY NEW WORLD ORDER

This timeline shows how insiders sell access & manipulate politicians, police, intelligence, judges and media to keep their secrets

Clintons, Obamas, Summers were paid in cash for outlandish speaking fees and Foundation donations. Sycophant judges, politicians, academics, bureaucrats and media were fed tips to mutual funds tied to insider stocks like Facebook. Risk of public exposure, blackmail, pedophilia, "snuff parties" (ritual child sexual abuse and murder) and Satanism have ensured silence among pay-to-play beneficiaries. The U.S. Patent Office is their toy box from which to steal new ideas.

"In the darkness of secrecy, sinister interest and evil in every shape have full swing. Only in proportion as publicity has place can any of the checks applicable to judicial injustice operate. Where there is no publicity there is no justice. Publicity is the very soul of justice . . . It keeps the judge, while trying, under trial." Jeremy Bentham (1748–1832)

Bauer was just identified as the man in the White House who helped direct the targeting of Tea Party groups by the IRS. He also counsels Obama's funding raising arm, Organizing For America, which includes multiple donations by many Leader v. Facebook attorneys, esp. ## FIVE CRITICAL AFI POSTS ON JUDICIAL COMPROMISE

Fully updated Mar. 25, 2014 in the wake of the Scribd censorship:

1. HOW PATENT JUDGES GROW RICH ON THE BACKS OF AMERICAN INVENTORS

Patent Office filings are shuffled out the USPTO backdoor to crony lawyers, banks and deep-pocket clients.

2. WAS CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS BLACKMAILED into supporting Obamacare by his ethical compromises in Leader v. Facebook?

3. JUSTICE ROBERTS MENTORED Facebook Gibson Dunn LLP attorneys.

4. JUSTICE ROBERTS HOLDS substantial Facebook financial interests.

5. JUDGE LEONARD STARK FAILED to disclose his Facebook financial interests and his reliance on Facebook's Cooley Godward LLP attorneys for his appointment.

BARACK OBAMA'S DARK POOLS OF CORRUPTION

Corrupt judges and government officials are in the proverbial cross-hairs of a growing anti-judicial-corruption movement. Calls to arms to combat the systemic corruption exposed by Leader v. Facebook are being made across America. (See the new poster on right. We encourage you to download the poster and display it prominently.) Washington D.C. should be plastered with these posters. The time of judges and attorneys secretly sniggering behind the black robes must end. In a democracy, a judgeship is a sacred trust. That trust has been violated.

(JUL 17, 2013)—The U.S. Supreme Court declined to take up the failed district court ruling and judicial misconduct in the Leader v. Facebook patent infringement case. The injustice to Columbus-OH-based inventor Leader Technologies aside, this case also shines a flood light on the "old boy" backrooms of our federal system. Those rooms are in dire need of renovation. Their ethical underpinnings have sheered and the floor has collapsed.

The ethical lapses cannot get any worse than we are witnessing in Leader v. Facebook. EVERY judge who has touched this case holds Facebook stock. If we still value our freedom and our democracy, Congress must step in now to fix this injustice and the endemic problems that caused it. A democracy cannot survive without just judges.

"This is a simple case of theft. The people in power to correct it have been complicit. At a minimum, they were motivated by personal greed. At worst, other coercive forces were at play. Whatever the reason, justice must be served," said a social scientist close to the investigation.

"Who are we to preach about the rule of law when our own Chief Justice can't get it right?"

An historian told AFI, "American foreign policy advocates John Withrop's 'city upon a hill' vision of American justice. But, the judicial corruption exposed by Leader v. Facebook is an utter embarrassment. I cringe now when I see our foreign service officers lecturing Afghans on democracy. Who are we to preach about the rule of law when our own Chief Justice can't get it right?"

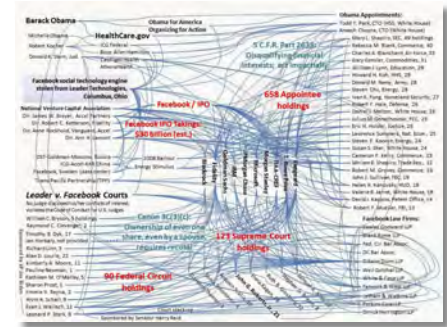

An entrepreneur close to this investigation said, "The conduct of Facebook's unscrupulous attorneys and these judges leaves me numb. Why bother building a business if these judges (and their cousin regulators) are just going to take it away based on 'old boy' payola, and not laws? We have become a Banana republic, sad to say."

These sentiments were echoed just today by syndicated columnist Thomas Sowell writing about the fate of the American justice system and referring to the lawlessness of this Administration. "After Zimmerman, is this still America?" by Thomas Sowell, The Patriot-News, Central PA, Jul. 17, 2013.

Trust is hard to build and easy to destroy.

WILL HUMANKIND EVER LEARN? Facebook's Orwellian doublespeak about property and privacy (theft) merely repeats the eventual dehumanization of the individual under MAO's Red Star, Stalin's SOV ET Hammer & Cycle and Hitler's NAZI Swastika. Respect for the inalienable rights of each individual is a bedrock value of democracy. The members of the Facebook Cabal abuse this principle at every opportunity. They evidently believe that they deserve special privileges and are willing to lie, cheat and steal in order to treat themselves to these privileges.

LEADER TECHNOLOGIES INVENTOR PROTECTION ACT

Rescind. Investigate. Sanction. Certify.

A group of bipartisan leaders has proposed the Leader Technologies Inventor Protection Act (see documents below). With the stated purpose to "restore public confidence in the patent system, and the justice system in general," the Act has three elements:

1. Rescind the corrupted Leader v. Facebook decision,
2. Investigate the wrongdoers among the judges and attorneys, and
3. Enact new judicial conflict of interest certification procedures.

All patent holders, prospective patent holders and freedom-loving Americans are urged to support this initiative by contacting your Senators and Congressperson and asking for their support and advocacy. The investigators at AFI will be more than happy to package any research they require.

Two different narratives have been created for the Act and the backstory. Here they are:

(a) correct a Supreme Court decision that threatens American innovation and the credibility of the U.S. patent system, (b) investigate the judicial corruption that led to the failed decision, and (c) expand 28 U.S.C. § 455 on judicial disqualification to require a Certification on Conflicts Interest for judges and judicial employees in all branches of government.SUMMARY: In accordance with constitutional powers granted to Congress in Article I, Section 8, Congress proposes this Act regarding patent protection and related judicial ethics matters to protect the general welfare.A seminal patent infringement case captioned *Leader Techs, Inc.
v. Facebook, Inc.*, 770 F. Supp. 2d 686 (D.Del. 2011) determined that Facebook was in literal infringement on 11 of 11 claims of Leader Technologies' social networking invention. In short, the court determined that the engine running Facebook is Columbus-OH-based Leader Technologies' invention.Despite the infringement decision against Facebook, the court invalidated Leader's patent on an obscure on-sale bar. That claim was added by Facebook and permitted by the judge just one month before trial. The judge blocked Leader from additional discovery to prepare defenses on this new claim—a breach of due process.Facebook did not put forward any computer source code or expert witnesses to prove their new claim.
No well-settled on-sale bar tests were performed, most notably *Pfaff
v. Wells Electronics, Inc.*The invalidation has survived solely on attorney-fabricated evidence and argument—not on hard evidence. Despite the lack of evidence, much less clear and convincing evidence, all subsequent appeals through to the U.S. Supreme Court declined to overturn the district court. Worse, the Federal Circuit fabricated new evidence and argument for Facebook, without a hearing, after Facebook's argument fell apart.
The Federal Circuit even fabricated new evidence not even put forward at trial by Facebook—also a breach of due process.Subsequently, an unprecedented third reexamination of Leader's patent was ordered by the Director of the U.S. Patent Office (ten years after issuance) and assigned to a judge who was formerly employed by Microsoft and IBM, two large Facebook stockholders and stakeholders. Facebook lost both of the previous two reexamination on all counts.A Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to the Patent Office was assigned to a Patent Office deputy FOIA counsel formerly employed by Facebook's attorney.
That person redacted most of the contents and claimed "executive communication privilege."Investigators suspicious of misconduct have uncovered numerous breaches of ethics and law on the part of the courts. Chief among those breaches is judge bias based on financial holdings.
Required judicial financial disclosures revealed that the district court judge, each of the judges in the Federal Circuit three-judge panel, and the Chief Justice of theSupreme Court all held/hold stock in Facebook that was/is notoriously known in the public record.The purpose of this Act is to (a) remove the taint of corruption that hangs over this case by fully validating Leader Technologies' patent property, (b) investigate and punish the wrongdoers, and (c) upgrade the judicial ethics laws from the lessons learned. Congress believes that compliance with the Act will help restore public confidence in the patent system, and the justice system in general.FOR FURTHER INFORMATION

firm with the reason why nota single Wall Street banker has gone to jail since 2008. Click here to read her article

Examiner.com, Apr. 10, 2012. Here's an excerpt:"Skillful manipulation of the firm's extensive media connections allows Gibson Dunn to promote their causes, while simultaneously smearing their opponents and silencing embarrassing news coverage."This statement followed right after Davis cited Facebook's chief inside counsel in the Leader v. Facebook case, Theodore Ulyot, who appears to have helped lead the *Leader
v. Facebook* judicial corruption. Interesting word choices associated with Gibson Dunn LLP: manipulation, smear. Attorneys swear a solemn oath to act morally, ethically, and in support of democratic principles. They promise to conduct themselves in a manner than instills confidence among the citizenry in the rule of law and the judicial system. These promises appear to be meaningless. [Click

John Craven July 17, 2013 at 3:24 PMI'm sorry but this proposed new law is dead on arrival and would be unconstitutional.
Congress does not have the power to override a court decision in this fashion.It is true that congress has "overruled" the Supreme Court in the past, but only through the passage of a constitutional amendment or by changing a law that was previously interpreted by the Supreme Court. So, for example, the Supreme Court in Ledbetter v.

plaintiff did not file her claim within a 180 day period required by the law itself, her claim failed. Congress reacted to the ruling by enacting a NEW law that allowed for a longer period for claims to be filed.

Here, we have a completely different situation. The whole argument here is that the district court and federal circuit misinterpreted law, i.e. the evidentiary standard of clear and convincing evidence. No one is arguing that the clear and convincing evidence standard is itself unenforceable. And forget the fact that this isn't even a federal statute—the clear and convincing evidence standard is a massive body of court-made law from thousands of cases. There is no federal statute that could be changed by congress.

And this isn't really the argument that's being put forth anyway. The real argument appears to be that the courts and everyone involved with Facebook is corrupt, so the lower court's decision should be overruled. Congress can't do that. Congress cannot simply say, "we disagree with a court's ruling, so we're overruling it." That violates separation of powers. That is what Leader is asking congress to do, and that's unconstitutional.

I suppose it's possible for Congress to enact a new federal statute that says that clear and convincing evidence means that a court decision cannot be based solely on someone lying under oath (or the jury claiming that someone lied under oath) on the witness stand. But realistically, that is never, ever going to happen. Again, evidentiary standards are based on hundreds of years of precedent and thousands of cases. The idea that Congress would wade into this and try to change a single evidentiary standard is ludicrous. And think of the mayhem that would result. If congress changed this standard in order to change the Leader decision, then it would have to retroactively apply the new standard. Well you can't retroactively apply a law to only a single case. It would have to be an across the board application, meaning that thousands of cases where the clear and convincing evidence standard applied would have to be reopened and relitigated. Complete mayhem, and it would never happen.

Now I suppose it is possible that Congress could enact a new law that requires pre-litigation disclosure by judges. But that would be prospective and would only affect future cases. It would have absolutely no effect on the Leader case. Because again, if it were retroactive, it would have to be retroactive for thousands of cases across the country. Completely unworkable.

I am constantly mocked on this board when I say that this dispute is over, but I don't make that claim lightly. Because the Leader decision was factually based, because it ran its course in the courts, and because of the limitations above, that truly is the end of the road. I'm not trying to be crass—only realistic.

My my. Is this the same John Craven who just last week said he did not have a dog in this hunt? Your duplicity betrays you. Also, your view of the constitution is wholly lacking. You have yet to do anything except argue over the games lawyers play. You lawyers are ruining this country and we intend to stop you. This is about justice, not your lawyer paddy cakes in front of your crony judges. We're on to you. Blather away.

You are misinterpreting my comment. I am not taking Facebook's side by any stretch. I am simply pointing out that mechanically, procedurally, the proposed legislation is unconstitutional and unworkable. Show me a single instance over the past 200 years where congress has vacated the judgment of a court. There is none, because congress does not have that power. Congress may be able to implement new laws that would affect the future operation of the court, but in terms of a judgment that is already in place, such as the Leader case, congress is powerless. The only way that the judgment could have been vacated would have been if the federal circuit or the Supreme Court vacated the judgment and remanded the case to the district court. That did not occur, so there is no remaining avenue for the judgment to be overturned, vacated, or otherwise disturbed. This has nothing to do with the facts or Facebook's position; this is just mechanics and the way that our constitution is set up.

John Craven July 24, 2013 at 3:45 PM

Specifically, refer to Plaut v. Spendthrift Farm, Inc., 514 U.S. 211 (1995). There, the Supreme Court held that Congress did not have the power to retroactively order the federal courts to reopen a judgment. Justice Scalia stated that Article III not only gives the federal judiciary the power to rule on cases, but to decide them, subject only to review by superior courts in the Article III hierarchy. "When retroactive legislation requires its own application in a case already finally adjudicated, it does no more and no less than 'reverse a determination

All bets are off when there is judicial corruption, as here. Corrupt judges don't get the deference of good faith difference of opinion, they get jail. Separation of powers specifically contemplated this situation, and allows the People to override as the final check on such corruption. Obama's first act was an override. So much for these arguments.

Facebook's attorney defenders operate by a double-standard. They cite the Constitution when it is to their advantage, then violate Leader's constitutional rights the rest of the time. They want it both ways, whatever titillates their seared consciences. Priceless.

Separation of powers, John? Really? Like when Obama didn't like the outcome of the Zimmerman trial? He sent his lead lap dog to attack the court's decision, and, with help of his buddies, to gin up racial tensions.

And, as far as Congressional authority goes, the constitution states that Congress shall oversee all goings on in the Judicial and Executive branches. That even though the Judicial branch interprets the law, Congress may, at times, intercede when any law has been usurped, or if a question of constitutionality has occurred. And, clearly, Leader v Facebook is book marked with red flags all over the place, from evidentiary proceedings, judicial conflicts of interests, improper influencing of the courts, by your buddies at Facebook, and foreign nationals. This, to us, John, reeks and begs of Congressional inquiry!

And, once again, with no dog in this hunt, you just keep wagging your tail from tree top to tree top! Don't ya?

And, furthermore, why do you insist on continually apologizing when you have absolutely no stake in the outcome of this whole fiasco???! The skunks are going to be driven out by us dogs; and you can smell it coming, can't you?....

Every corruption blog in which I have participated seems to have a John Craven assigned apologist for the bad guys. This one is no different. The pattern is the same. They cannot win on the facts, so they try and change the subject.

Craven refers to "mayhem." The mayhem created here is created by the Facebook Cabal who are corrupting our business and legal systems. Leader supporters are working to fix the mayhem these people have created. But of course, he (or she) labels the good as mayhem. Typical. The only mayhem it creates is in the halls of corruption. Bring it on.

No one should be fooled by the separation of powers issue. That separation assumes good faith and honest debate, not corruption. When a branch acts corruptly, it is the constitutional duty of the others to investigate and remedy. That is the "checks and balances" established by the Founding Fathers. Also, Craven talks out of his nether parts. The sample letter in this post even cites a recent example where Congress overrode a Supreme Court decision. It was Obama's first bill signed into law. Did anyone see any "mayhem" in the streets as a result of the Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act? So much for Craven's silly hand waving.

Did anyone catch how this self-proclaimed non-lawyer waxed suddenly eloquent on things only a corrupt attorney would care about? His bubble is getting popped. The prison system is about to get more crowded. When people are bad for this long, and have hurt so many people, prison is the only remedy to get them out of general society.

3. Two Policy Changes That Will Make America More Democratic \(and less contentious\), Dec. 21, 2012

OUR MISSION

American citizens must fight abuse of the constitutional right for authors and inventors to enjoy the fruits of their inventions, as a matter of matter of basic property rights and sound public policy. Otherwise, instead of innovation, creativity, genius, ideas, vision, courage, entrepreneurship, respect, property, rejuvenation, morals, ethics, values, renewal, truth, facts, rights, privacy, solutions and judicial faithfulness,

... our society and economy will be dragged down (and eventually destroyed) by copying, infringement, thievery, counterfeiting, hacking, greed, misinformation, exploitation, abuse, waste, disrespect, falsity, corruption, bribery, coercion, intimidation, doublespeak, misconduct, lies, deception, attorney dark arts, destruction, confusion, dishonesty, judicial chicanery and lawlessness.

If we do not speak up, impeach derelict judges and imprison corrupt attorneys, we cannot possibly hope to start fixing the current ills in our society. Without justice and respect for private property, democracy has no sure foundation.

CURRENT EDITORIAL FOCUS

We are an opinion blog that advocates for strong intellectual property rights. We welcome commenters and contributors. The Leader v. Facebook patent infringement case first came to our attention after learning that the trial judge, Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, ignored his jury's admission that they had no evidence to support their on-sale bar verdict, but the judge supported it anyway.

The judicial misconduct has deteriorated from there, replete with two of the three judges on the Federal Circuit appeal panel, Judges Alan D. Lourie and Kimberly A. Moore, holding Facebook stock that they did not disclose to the litigants, and later tried to excuse through a quick motion slipped in at the last minute by the Clerk of Court, Jan Horbaly, and his close friends at The Federal Circuit Bar Association. (The DC Bar subsequently revealed that Mr. Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in Washington D.C.)

The judges ignored shocking new evidence that Mark Zuckerberg withheld 28 hard drives of 2003-2004 evidence from Leader Technologies that could prove actual theft (and therefore claims even more serious than infringement). In addition, Facebook's appeal attorney, Thomas G. Hungar of Gibson Dunn LLP, has close personal ties to just about every judicial player in this story. The misconduct appears to reach into the U.S. Patent Office through abuse of the

Comment by: Judicial Corruption

I agree that there should be no exemptions to the Conflicts of Interest Certification for judges. Such exemptions assume good faith on the part of the requester and the receiver and are intended for MINOR variants to a general policy. However, the Facebook Cabal has made a mockery of exemptions. Look what they did with the 500-shareholder rule, and the loophole for the insiders to dump over $6 billion on Day 3 of the IPO. In short, they used exemptions as their excuse for wanton sin.

For example, the 500-shareholder rule. It was designed to stop unscrupulous market makers from forming companies, then selling stock willy nilly without any oversight as to the promises they are making and who they are selling to. Good faith exemptions to these rules were allowed only for minor tweaks based on unique circumstances, not for major wholesale revision of the policy.

What Larry Summers, Fenwick & West LLP, Gibson Dunn LLP, Cooley Godward LLP, Sheryl Sandberg, Goldman Sachs, Morgan Stanley, Thomas J. Kim, Donald K. Stern and Facebook did was essentially BLOW UP THE EXEMPTION IN A WILLFUL AND WANTON BREACH OF THE POLICY. They ordered their homie inside the SEC, Chief Counsel Thomas J. Kim, to grant them the exemption, then they used it to sell BILLIONS in unregulated Facebook stock. People need to go to jail over this IMHO. This is 100 times worse than Bernie Madoff.

If we give judges and judicial employees exemptions to their required financial disclosure, we just open the door back up to abuses. They have already proven that they cannot police themselves, so any exemptions would just destroy the rule, again.

That's exactly what the Facebook Cabal "homie", US Patent Judge Stephen C. Siu is attempting to do in this sickening 3rd patent reexam!!! He has no factual basis for rejecting Leader's claims, which are 10 years mature. Instead, he is invoking his power to invalidate as his only reason for doing so. This is a another good example of unchecked power corrupting. Where does Siu live? Perhaps we should apply for a license to demonstrate, then picket his neighborhood. Some metaphorical tar and feathers just might do the trick with these "scoundrels". They need to start feeling the consequences of their misbehavior. They really are morally disgusting.

Dear NAME:

I would like to meet with you to get your assistance on a matter important to an American innovation company, Leader Technologies, [describe your relationship to/interest in Leader], and to national security, I believe.

Rather than try to summarize here, I include several websites URLs below that are covering the patent infringement battle between Leader and Facebook. These sites also expose the corrosive business and judicial corruption that it has uncovered. Sadly, the corruption includes the U.S. Supreme Court.

A bipartisan group of leaders has just proposed an Act that I/they believe you may have interest in sponsoring and/or supporting. I hope you will. I believe the national security is threatened by what has been exposed in Washington.

Various Congresspersons and Senators have already been briefed, including members of the House Oversight Committee on Government Reform and the Judiciary Committees. Concerned Americans from around the country are making similar contacts to mine with their representatives to gather momentum for this INVENTOR PROTECTION ACT.

Here is background for our meeting:

Judge Stark heard his jury foreman admit that the jury made the on-sale bar decision without any evidence other than speculation, and yet he supported that verdict anyway. Just months before trial, Judge Stark allowed Facebook to add the on-sale bar claim after the close of all fact discovery and blocked Leader from preparing its defenses to this new claim. Judge Stark allowed the claims despite Leader's prophetic argument that the action would confuse the jury and prejudice Leader. He also permitted the jury to ignore the Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar, even after instructing the jury to use it. (See that Jury Instruction No. 4.7 here.) He also contradicted his own instruction to Leader to answer Interrogatory No. 9 in the present tense (2009), then permitted the jury to interpret it as a 2002 admission as well. Facebook's entire on-sale bar case is based upon this interrogatory. (Editorial: Hardly sufficient to meet the "heavy burden" of the clear and convincing evidence standard.)

I'm sorry but you don't understand what I am saying. Neither Congress nor the president has the power to overrule a court decision, nor to direct the judicial branch to take any particular action with respect to a case that has already been decided.

It is true that Congress has "overruled" certain Supreme Court decisions in the past, but only by changing the underlying law that the Supreme Court had interpreted. For example, you reference the Ledbetter case that was "Obama's first act in office." There, the Supreme Court specifically interpreted the Equal Pay Act and, based on a provision of that statute, determined that the plaintiff's claim was barred because she waited more than 180 days to initiate the suit. Congress responded by CHANGING THE UNDERLYING LAW so that the 180 day period did not exist. So in effect, Congress "overruled" the Supreme Court, but only by changing the law itself. Congress did not direct the Supreme Court to take any particular action, because Congress does not have that power. Here is a good primer on the limitations of Congress. Simply stated, it cannot direct the judiciary to do anything with respect to a particular case. <http://joshblackman.com/blog/2010/02/01/congress-does-not-overrule-or-reverse-the-supreme-court-they-just-pass-new-laws-which-the-court-should-interpret/>

Here, we have a completely different situation. The argument here is that the courts "got it wrong" when interpreting existing law. There is no argument that the underlying law---i.e. the clear and convincing evidentiary standard---is invalid. The proposed legislation is After debunking all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, Judge Lourie created new argument in the secrecy of chambers to support Facebook and prevent the on-sale bar verdict from being overturned—a clear breach of constitutional due process.

Judge Kimberly A. Moore, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, panel judge in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Moore stood to benefit financially from undisclosed holdings in Facebook. See disclosure of substantial holdings in Facebook and Facebook-related stocks.

Judge Moore failed to follow the long-held precedent for testing on-sale bar evidence in Pfaff

v. Wells Electronics, Inc.—an evident and intentional omission coming from a former patent law professor. After debunking all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, Judge Moore created new argument in the secrecy of chambers to support Facebook and prevent the on-sale bar verdict from being overturned—a clear breach of constitutional due process.

Judge Evan J. Wallach, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, member of the three-judge panel in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Wallach is not a patent attorney. This begs the question as to why a judge with no knowledge of patent law was assigned to the case. Would anyone ask a dentist to perform brain surgery? The Federal Circuit was specially formed to appoint patent-knowledgeable judges to patent cases. There is no evidence so far in the judicial disclosures that Judge Wallach holds stock in Facebook, although

Months ago, Lawless America changed its Facebook profile from a "personal" profile to a "business" profile. You can view this on their own website. Thus, you are no longer "friends" with Lawless America, but you "Like" their page. Whoever sent that screenshot was trying to access the old "friend" page of Lawless America, which Lawless America itself disabled. If you search on Facebook now, you will find Lawless America's "business" page fully accessible. There's no conspiracy here.

Craven is missing the new reality. The old rules that he and the Facebook club have manipulated are going to come crashing down on them. THE PEOPLE are now demanding that the COURTS choose on their own to right the wrongs that they perpetrated in Leader v. Facebook, otherwise, we are going to demand that CONGRESS enact new laws to fix those despicable decisions. Then, we will demand that CONGRESS investigate, sanction and jail the wrongdoers. Since we can no longer assume good faith and morality from our attorneys and judges (Mr./Ms./Other Craven and his crowd of powermongers), then we must remake the entire JUDICIAL system to weed them out, and make them accountable to THE PEOPLE, and not to themselves and their boys club.

BTW. Any court, any time, can reopen a case when material new evidence emerges. This idea that a judge must wait for a motion to do it is wrong. A judge can do it on his or her own initiative. Let's see if these judges have any moral backbone left, or whether they will just make more excuses and cite more procedural claptrap. Yada, yada, yada.

Judge Rader also failed to disclose his conflicting relationships with a Leader principle with whom he may have had deep professional differences during his time at the Senate Judiciary Committee—his former professor of law at George Washington University Law Center, former Leader director Professor James P. Chandler. See analysis of Judge Rader's undisclosed conflicts of interest in Leader v. Facebook.

Judge Rader also did not stop his judges from creating new arguments and evidence for Facebook in the secrecy of chambers—after they had debunked all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, which is a clear breach of constitutional due process.

Hey Craven,

I am here to speak about your above statement that you shared. (Thank you sooo much for your inside knowledge of the does & don'ts with "Facebook Law"). The Laws that FB is making up as they go!

Quote:

"Months ago, Lawless America changed its Facebook profile from a "personal" profile to a "business" profile. You can view this on their own website. Thus, you are no longer "friends" with Lawless America, but you "Like" their page. Whoever sent that screenshot was trying to access the old "friend" page of Lawless America, which Lawless America itself disabled. If you search on Facebook now, you will find Lawless America's "business" page fully accessible. There's no conspiracy here."

I am here to correct you on your assertion of the censorship that was shared. I was the one communicating with others regarding the corrupt Leader v Facebook case..Some were my friends from Lawless and actually a lot were with American Patriot sites. Example, Rise UP America, Act of Courage, The Patriot, Judges of Unjust Law, Justice Joe, and Mothers of Lost Children. So, again here is another example of your twisting of the events and truths! You better keep sharpening your crayon. We are not stopping. BTW..I was well aware of the issues that Lawless America was having with Facebook months ago! And I am friends with Lawless America Business page, as I have been months ago!

Thanks again for showing concern regarding my personal Facebook activities. God only knows how vigilant you could be if you truly had a dog in this hunt!

Reminds me of the way so many Judges Doofus blindly accept the words of lying attorneys (I know, redundant) in their courts, and just skip merrily down the road accepting those lies as truths, forcing the victims to have to prove endless falsehoods just because the Judges Doofus are too lazy or too bribe to sanction the liars.

According to our second President, America is in a state of anarchy and tyranny fomented by the Facebook Cabal, with Larry Summers at the helm. Looks like they have been at it for a decade. Isn't it curious that this is about the time we started hearing all the comments about Washington being BROKEN. Hmmm. Fix Leader v. Facebook and we fix Washington too? A twofer?

ReplyRain Onyourparade July 28, 2013 at 11:02 AM

Isn't it also curious that Lawrence "Larry" Summers is Obama's pick to take over as Chairman of the Federal Reserve? Double hmmm.

Comment by: Superman

Matt Cohler, the "founder" of Instagram, co-founded LinkedIn with Reid Hoffman back in 2004 while Summers oversaw things for the Cabal at Haaavard re. Zuckerberg. Then, Summers just "popped up" out in Silicon Valley in 2012 before the Facebook IPO just long enough to oversee the purchase of the 13-man Instagram for $1 billion... How much of that did he put in his pocket? What a bunch of cockroaches. And we want Summers to be the next Chairman of the Federal Reserve?

Derek, I hate to have to burst your bubble, but the answer is pretty clear. If you look at all of Donna's previous posts, it is clear that they were paid advertisements. I don't know if she was paid directly, or whether she was just promised a payout in the event that Leader ever obtained a verdict or settlement from Facebook. In any event, she came to the realization in December 2012 that there was nothing forthcoming, and she abandoned coverage of this matter. I am virtually certain that all of her posts were written by the same author as this blog. If she were actually an objective journalist, there is no way you would see an abrupt cutoff and a complete cessation of any coverage. Now, I think that she has become embarrassed regarding the previous coverage, or she is not willing to pay the hosting fees for the website going forward. This is likely why the website is now offline.

LOL. "Tile Cutter" aka. John Craven. Pure unadulterated speculation. As we have indicated previously. Ms. Kline has family issues that are none of anyone's business.

Excellent new report/analysis on Larry Summers just hit the wires. Looks like they even used an AFI/Donna Kline graphic. Seems like we've seen it on earlier posts. Here it is:

Well of course the graphics are the same. That article was written by the same person who writes this blog. That is why I believe people find this blog not to be credible. All of these phantom "grassroots" groups that mysteriously pop-up are undermining your credibility. If you were serious about the media paying attention to this cause, I would suggest that you put your name on your articles like a real journalist would. Dispense with the façade of "contributing writers" and "contributing editors". The media is never going to pay attention otherwise.

LOL. Spoken like a true ANONYMOUS hypocrite. Every corruption blogger we have surveyed has the anonymous "Derek," "Craven," and what was the latest, oh ye "Tile Cutter." You people spend most of your post time cajoling contributors to identify themselves. That is not going to happen unless that contributor wishes. You have no ability to fight in the open field of FACTS and TRUTH, since it is not on their side. And, the other thing we've learned is that this tack cycles, on again, off again, as it has with your comments.

AFI WELCOMES ANONYMOUS POSTS. Victims of attorney and judge abuse need a forum and we will give it to them. Public figures put themselves out there for the public to express opinions in any way they like short of maliciousness. You guys are not going to win. Freedom-loving people cannot let you win. History should teach you that you never do. But, it appears unlikely that any of you ever touched a history or ethics book. Your kind never have, that's why you repeat history's mistakes. Greed and lust for power are age-old vices. Your version is just slathered in bit-grease.

Your hypocrisy is legion. You anonymously criticize others for being anonymous. You people are too much.

As to your comments about the media. Again, pure speculation. Haven't you ever heard the expression, "you don't know what you don't know?" A mainstream media muzzled by bribes, graft and corruption is not a media to which we seek coverage. The mainstream media appears to many to have lost its way in collusion and its own lust for power. Always the ingredients of eventual failure and ruin.

anonymously in any way in which you are most comfortable. The attempt of these people and their organizations to corrupt American justice and commerce cannot be tolerated. Vigilance. We will expose them. See Congressional Briefings (currently being updated after Scribd censored the documents on Fri. Mar. 7, 2014).

HOW TO FILE A FRAUD COMPLAINT AGAINST A UNIVERSITY

The following universities were announced as participants in Ohio State Provost Joseph A. Steinmetz's corrupt MOOC education initiative named "University Innovation Alliance" (UIA). We have identified the instructions and online forms you need to file a complaint with the participants. MOOC stands for "Massive Open Online Course."

You should complain about:

- (1) the intellectual property theft of social networking source code from Leader Technologies, Columbus, Ohio that is the software engine running the UIA;

(2) the corruption at Ohio State University and OSU's collusion with Battelle Memorial Institute which helped steal the software being used by UIA; and

(3) the mistreatment of OSU Marching Band Director Jon Waters regarding fabricated Title IX charges that were used to pave the way for Steinmetz to announce UIA.

Universities pride themselves on protection of intellectual property.

Therefore, these universities cannot participate in this abuse of inventor copyrights, patents and trade secrets by The Ohio State Trustees and Administration. If these universities participate knowingly with Ohio State in its theft of intellectual property, then they are aiding and abetting the theft of intellectual property on a "massive" scale... Massive Open Online Course (MOOC) also known as The Eclipse Foundation.
