CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS PLEADS POVERTY AS AN EXCUSE FOR HIS CORRUPT COURTS & "DARK POOL" FACEBOOK IPO INVESTMENTS

Fig. 1— CHIEF JUSTICE JOHN G. ROBERTS, JR. appears to be so cozy with Barack Obama and the White House that they share their Facebook "dark pools" investing tips with each other, congressional buds, White House staff and favored media friends. By 2008, it appears that little, if any, separation of powers existed between the Executive, Judicial and Legislative Branches. The supposed "free press" was also in on the "dark pools" investing scheme. Photo: ABC News.

ROGER STONE SPEAKS: On Nov.

18, 2017, Twitter censored New York Times best-selling author Roger Stone completely. Every red-blooded American should be outraged, Republican, Democrat and Independent alike. If Roger's voice is silenced today, yours is next. We must break this embargo. PAY-to-PLAY NEW WORLD ORDER

This timeline shows how insiders sell access & manipulate politicians, police, intelligence, judges and media to keep their secrets

Clintons, Obamas, Summers were paid in cash for outlandish speaking fees and Foundation donations. Sycophant judges, politicians, academics, bureaucrats and media were fed tips to mutual funds tied to insider stocks like Facebook. Risk of public exposure, blackmail, pedophilia, "snuff parties" (ritual child sexual abuse and murder) and Satanism have ensured silence among pay-to-play beneficiaries. The U.S. Patent Office is their toy box from which to steal new ideas.

(JAN. 2, 2013)—On Dec. 31, 2013, U.S. Supreme Court Chief Justice John G. Roberts (Baby Bush appointment Sep. 29, 2005—four years into The Patriot Act) issued a 15-page end of year report on the federal judiciary and 217-page Guide to Judiciary Policy, a.k.a. license to steal or "the art of judicial chicanery."

Buried on page 9, Justice Roberts blames hypothetical injustices by his courts ("unvindicated rights") on lack of funding. Nowhere does he admit that his courts are rife with cronyism and don't deserve the funds they're presently receiving.

Instead, he praises his federal judges for their "selfless commitment to public services" and affirms the notion of an "independent Judicial Branch." These platitudes ring hollow in the light of his conduct and that of his courts. When corporate CEOs perform incompetently or corruptly, they are fired and, in the case of corruption, prosecuted.

However, using the court's own ethical standards, the conduct of Chief Justice Roberts' judges in Leader v. Facebook proves that Roberts' courts are wantonly corrupt.

"EVEN ONE SHARE" REQUIRES DISQUALIFICATION

According to the court's own Judiciary Policy, ownership of "even one share of stock" requires disqualification (p. 20-2), not to mention the directive to "avoid even the appearance of impropriety." This concept trumps the flimsy excuses currently voiced about being allowed to invest in mutual funds. The point is, if you know or should have known, that the mutual fund held, or intended to hold Facebook stock, you must disqualify yourself.

By 2008, all the Leader v. Facebook judges held the Facebook "dark pools" stock. They were evidently chomping at the bit for Facebook to go public. The Federal Circuit, whose presiding judge Alan D. Lourie held 22 Facebook "dark pools," even timed his rulings to accommodate Facebook IPO media needs—claiming the timing was purely coincidental. The actions of Roberts' courts showed that they were not going to let Leader Technologies' constitutional private property rights spoil their dreams of an IPO windfall.

The Leader v. Facebook case went before the Delaware District Court Judge Leonard P. Stark, then the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals, and then the U.S. Supreme Court.

4. JUSTICE ROBERTS HOLDS substantial Facebook financial interests.

5. JUDGE LEONARD STARK FAILED to disclose his Facebook financial interests and his reliance on Facebook's Cooley Godward LLP attorneys for his appointment.

Justice Roberts now has the audacity to ask for additional funds, while his judges personally pocket hundreds of millions of dollars, maybe even billions, in Facebook stock sales founded on a lie they helped perpetrate—the confiscation of the social networking patent property of Columbus innovator Leader Technologies.

The People have the power of the purse. If we fund corrupt institutions, then we deserve the results.

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT'S SEPARATION OF POWERS IS CURRENTLY CRUEL HOAX

The People must say NO to Justice Roberts' funding request, at least until he proves an "independent Judiciary" is more than another lie, like "If you like your doctor, you can keep your doctor, period." Among his restitutions, HE MUST RETURN LEADER TECHNOLOGIES' STOLEN PROPERTY. We must not let these great deceivers off the hook. The victims of their greed and deception must be made whole.

Say no to Justice Roberts until his federal courts come clean on Leader v. Facebook and other evident injustices.

GIBSON DUNN LLP exposed as one of the most corrupt law firms in America

Investigative Reporter Julia Davis investigates Facebook's Leader v. Facebook attorney Gibson Dunn LLP. She credits this firm with the reason why not a single Wall Street banker has gone to jail since 2008. Click here to read her article "Everybody hates whistleblowers."

Examiner.com, Apr. 10, 2012. Here's an excerpt:

"Skillful manipulation of the firm's extensive media connections allows Gibson Dunn to promote their causes, while simultaneously smearing their opponents and silencing embarrassing news coverage."

This statement followed right after Davis cited Facebook's chief inside counsel in the Leader v. Facebook case, Theodore Ullyot, who appears to have helped lead the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption. Interesting word choices associated with Gibson Dunn LLP: manipulation, smear. Attorneys swear a solemn oath to act morally, ethically, and in support of democratic principles. They promise to conduct themselves in a manner than instills confidence among the citizenry in the rule of law and the judicial system. These promises appear to be meaningless. 3. Two Policy Changes That Will Make America More Democratic (and less contentious), Dec. 21, 2012

OUR MISSION

American citizens must fight abuse of the constitutional right for authors and inventors to enjoy the fruits of their inventions, as a matter of matter of basic property rights and sound public policy. Otherwise, instead of innovation, creativity, genius, ideas, vision, courage, entrepreneurship, respect, property, rejuvenation, morals, ethics, values, renewal, truth, facts, rights, privacy, solutions and judicial faithfulness,

... our society and economy will be dragged down (and eventually destroyed) by copying, infringement, thievery, counterfeiting, hacking, greed, misinformation, exploitation, abuse, waste, disrespect, falsity, corruption, bribery, coercion, intimidation, doublespeak, misconduct, lies, deception, attorney "dark arts," destruction, confusion, dishonesty, judicial chicanery and lawlessness.

If we do not speak up, impeach derelict judges and imprison corrupt attorneys, we cannot possibly hope to start fixing the current ills in our society. Without justice and respect for private property, democracy has no sure foundation.

CURRENT EDITORIAL FOCUS

We are an opinion blog that advocates for strong intellectual property rights. We welcome commenters and contributors. The Leader v. Facebook patent infringement case first came to our attention after learning that the trial judge, Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, ignored his jury's admission that they had no evidence to support their on-sale bar verdict, but the judge supported it anyway.

The judicial misconduct has deteriorated from there, replete with two of the three judges on the Federal Circuit appeal panel, Judges Alan D. Lourie and Kimberly A. Moore, holding Facebook stock that they did not disclose to the litigants, and later tried to excuse through a quick motion slipped in at the last minute by the Clerk of Court, Jan Horbaly, and his close friends at The Federal Circuit Bar Association. (The DC Bar subsequently revealed that Mr. Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in Washington D.C.)

The judges ignored shocking new evidence that Mark Zuckerberg withheld 28 hard drives of 2003-2004 evidence from Leader Technologies that could prove actual theft (and therefore claims even more serious than infringement). In addition, Facebook's appeal attorney, Thomas G. Hungar of Gibson Dunn LLP, has close personal ties to just about every judicial player in this story. The misconduct appears to reach into the U.S.

FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT (DEL.)

STARK

FB DARK POOLS

Judge Leonard P. Stark's appointment by Pres. Barack Obama was sponsored by Vice Pres. Joe Biden. His sudden ascendancy into this trial replaced veteran judge Joseph J. Farnan just one month before trial. Up until that time, Farnan had voiced on numerous occasions his interest in presiding over this trial. Stark's first act after taking the case was to allow Facebook to do a 180 degree turn and add the "on-sale bar" claim. Such action is a clear abuse of discretion, especially when considering that he blocked Leader Technologies from conducting discovery on the new claim. Such blocking is a gross violation of due process. Outrageously, he also ruled that Mark Zuckerberg did not have to testify at the trial. This is another shocking abuse of discretion since Zuckerberg is the principal actor in the theft and infringement of Leader Technologies' invention. Stark also affirmed fabricated Cooley Godward LLP attorney evidence, in lieu of hard evidence and well-settled legal tests, namely Pfaff Electronics and Group One, among others. Stark's conduct is clear evidence that he was following orders from the White House to protect Facebook (and Barack Obama's 47 million Facebook "likes."

It should also be noted that just months before trial, Facebook's Leader v. Facebook trial attorney, Michael Rhodes, Cooley Godward LLP, was appointed Chief Legal Counsel for Tesla Motors – the recipient of almost $465 million in energy stimulus funds. Cooley Godward LLP and McBee Strategic LLC (led by Nancy Pelosi's former adviser Mike Sheehy) were key advisers on the stimulus funds given to 22 organizations, largely associated with Obama donors. 20 of those funded companies have now failed. Cooley Godward's man in the White House, Donald K. Stern, also advised Obama on the Stark nomination.

LEONARD P. STARK, Leader v. Facebook trial judge, July 19-27, 2010. Barack Obama nominee. Replaced 25-year veteran judge Joseph J. Farnan one month before trial. Confirmed one week after the trial. Ignored Pfaff Electronics and Group One v. Hallmark Cards precedents for testing on-sale bar evidence. His sole rationale for supporting Facebook was an unrelated 1860's criminal case that had never been used in a patent trial in history. His nomination was advised to Obama by Facebook lawyer Donald K. Stern, Cooley Godward LLP.

Patent Office through abuse of the reexamination process by Facebook. We will stay focused on Leader v. Facebook until justice is served, but we also welcome news and analysis of intellectual property abuse in other cases as well.

Judge Amy B. Jackson has stonewalled the House Oversight Committee on Government Reform from obtaining subpoenaed evidence regarding the Justice Department's cover-up of Operation Fast & Furious. U.S. BORDER AGENT BRIAN TERRY was murdered by an AR-15 assault rifle trafficked by the U.S. Justice Department to Mexican drug cartels. Judge Jackson's Facebook "dark pool" holdings (hidden agendas) are consistent with numerous members of the Obama White House, the Federal Circuit and various district courts. Judge Thomas S. Ellis III recently referred this case to the Federal Circuit for a decision on Rembrandt's opposition to Judge Ellis' refusal to allow expert testimony. "CANON 2: A JUDGE SHOULD AVOID IMPROPRIETY AND THE APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY IN ALL ACTIVITIES"

GALLERY OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Judge Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, trial judge in Leader Techs, Inc. v. Facebook, Inc., 770 F. Supp. 2d 686 (D.Del. 2011). Judge Stark heard his jury foreman admit that the jury made the on-sale bar decision without any evidence other than speculation, and yet he supported that verdict anyway. Just months before trial, Judge Stark allowed Facebook to add the on-sale bar claim after the close of all fact discovery and blocked Leader from preparing its defenses to this new claim. Judge Stark allowed the claims despite Leader's prophetic argument that the action would confuse the jury and prejudice Leader. He also permitted the jury to ignore the Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar, even after instructing the jury to use it. (See that Jury Instruction No. 4.7 here.) He also contradicted his own instruction to Leader to answer Interrogatory No. 9 in the present tense (2009), then permitted the jury to interpret it as a 2002 admission as well. Facebook's entire on-sale bar case is based upon this interrogatory. (Editorial: Hardly sufficient to meet the "heavy burden" of the clear and convincing evidence standard.)

We have a commenter posting spam. If this person has facts and wishes to discuss them, that's fine. Otherwise, repeated posts based only on speculation and obviously feigned sincerity will be removed. We have observed that Facebook-friendly posts have yet to present a single hard fact that references something other than fabricated attorney evidence and attempts at baiting. It seems that Facebook's only defenders are attorneys. At last count Facebook employs 8-10 firms including Gibson Dunn, Fenwick & West, Latham & Watkins, Cooley Godward, White & Case, Orrick Herrington, Weil Gotshal, Perkins Coie and Blank Rome. Facebook is a wholly attorney-fabricated company and appears it needs this much protection to maintain the big lie.

Dale Michaels January 4, 2014 at 2:17 PM

There is a fundamental flaw in the logic now being espoused in this blog. You realize that the Facebook holdings in virtually all of these so called dark pools are minuscule? 1 percent. A quarter of a percent. And you also realize that if Facebook performs well it harms the stock price of other companies in the same mutual funds. These funds are comprised of hundreds and often thousands of different companies.

It is absolutely preposterous to think that the entire US government, judiciary, and media have been bought off--via unstable mutual funds where the value of the fund is contingent on hundreds of other companies--simply to support Facebook.

We must be getting somewhere. Dale Michaels, attorney for Facebook, now says the holdings, like T.Rowe Price's who owned 5.2% of Facebook, is "minuscule." Oh wait, perhaps you didn't bother reading the Facebook S-1 disclosure, did you? Some of us did and know you are lying. No, Mr. Michaels whatever your name is, it is your logic that is tragically preposterous and more attempts at misdirection. Like we have told you repeatedly now. The dogs have your scent.

K. Craine January 4, 2014 at 7:04 PM

Dale Michaels attempts to rewrite the Judiciary Policy. The policy says that "even one share" requires disqualification of these judges. The rule does not allow the holder to determine whether or not a holding is relevant. The rule says ANY holding requires recusal. Michaels admits that these funds hold Facebook stocks, and therefore, these judges are guilty of breaking their own benefit financially from undisclosed holdings in Facebook. See analysis of Judge Lourie's T. Rowe Price holdings re. the Facebook IPO.

Judge Lourie also failed to apply his own law-test in Group One v.

Hallmark Cards to the evidence.

After debunking all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, Judge Lourie created new argument in the secrecy of chambers to support Facebook and prevent the on-sale bar verdict from being overturned—a clear breach of constitutional due process.

Judge Kimberly A. Moore, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, panel judge in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Moore stood to benefit financially from undisclosed holdings in Facebook. See disclosure of substantial holdings in Facebook and Facebook-related stocks.

Judge Moore failed to follow the long-held precedent for testing on-sale bar evidence in Pfaff

v. Wells Electronics, Inc.—an evident and intentional omission coming from a former patent law professor. After debunking all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, Judge Moore created new argument in the secrecy of chambers to support Facebook and prevent the on-sale bar verdict from being overturned—a clear breach of constitutional due process.

Judge Evan J. Wallach, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, member of the three-judge panel in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Wallach is not a patent attorney. This begs the question as to why a judge with no knowledge of patent law was assigned to the case. Would anyone ask a dentist to perform brain surgery? The Federal Circuit was specially formed to appoint patent-knowledgeable judges to patent cases. There is no evidence so far in the judicial disclosures that Judge Wallach holds stock in Facebook, although rules. In trying to defend these Facebook holdings, Michaels condemns those he attempts to excuse. Such is the case with duplicity.

K. Craine January 4, 2014 at 7:11 PM

Glad to see you are paying attention, Mr. Michaels. Suggest you find another profession other than law. Your morals are broken. One fund is enough, and too bad for you, its all public evidence.

steve n amy January 5, 2014 at 11:08 AM

Dale, mutual funds aside, since Facebook WAS found guilty on 11 of 11 counts of literal patent infringement of Leader Technologies' property (and, since we are talking about software platforms, we must also assume we are referring to software code); given the fact that Zuckerberg his self declared Facebook an "Open-Source Platform", I implore you to answer the following:
To whom does this "Open-Source Platform" actually belong to?
I think you know the answer to that question already, but I defer.

We've already thoroughly posted on this subject re. Obama's two chief technology officers. In fact, it was chasing down the public sources on this false claim that led to the "dark pools" exposé.

Here's a refresher on judicial ethics from the Justice Department's own Judiciary Policy: <http://www.uscourts.gov/uscourts/RulesAndPolicies/conduct/Vol02B-Ch02.pdf>

((1.)) The policy mentions "impropriety" 99 times, citing The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, Canon 2:

"[a] judges should avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all activities."

((2.)) "Canon 3C(1) is clear that a judge should disqualify in any proceeding in which his or her impartiality might reasonably be questioned." (p. 27-2).

((3.)) Recusal is required where there is "participation in development of the bar association position on the matter." (p. 52-2). The Federal Circuit Bar Association filed a motion in Leader v. Facebook against a Friend of the Court motion. Besides FCBA membership by all the judges, their Clerk of Court and Executive, Jan Horbaly, was Ex Officio at the FCBA. These positions demanded recusal by the whole court. Instead, they were silent and acted like they were unbiased. Gag.

((4.)) OPINION 97 -- THIS RULE IS SIX PAGES (longest in the rules) HMMMMMMMMMMMM (Shakespeare: "The lady doth protest too much, methinks") -- Re. Magistrate Judge Leonard P. Stark's surprise appointment to the Leader v. Facebook case one month before trial, while simultaneously being considered by Obama for appointment. Facebook's attorney Donald K. that Clerk Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in the District of Columbia. [Editorial: What does that make the Federal Circuit with its location within in a stone's throw of the White House? A self-governing state?]

Judge Randall R. Rader, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, chief judge responsible for the (mis)conduct of his judges and Clerk of Court in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Rader failed to manage his court resulting in a likely situation where his judges never even received briefs that they allegedly ruled on in favor of Facebook. Judge Rader also failed to disclose his conflicting relationships with a Leader principle with whom he may have had deep professional differences during his time at the Senate Judiciary Committee—his former professor of law at George Washington University Law Center, former Leader director Professor James P. Chandler. See analysis of Judge Rader's undisclosed conflicts of interest in Leader v. Facebook.

Judge Rader also did not stop his judges from creating new arguments and evidence for Facebook in the secrecy of chambers—after they had debunked all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, which is a clear breach of constitutional due process.

that could be substantially affected by the outcome of a case, then the magistrate judge should recuse." STARK DID NOT RECUSE. (p. 97-5)

(5.) MUTUAL FUNDS - read this policy and weep. One could drive a truck through it. All the sneaky lawyer wiggle language aside, it is subject to the overarching rule of Canon 3C(1)(c) which "requires a judge to disqualify himself or herself when the judge knows that he or she 'has a financial interest... in a party to the proceeding.'" Re. the Facebook "dark pools."

This rule is like punching into the Pillsbury Dough Boy. While it provides a "safe harbor" rule for mutual funds, it sets apart enough exceptions to condemn all of the 213 Leader v. Facebook court holdings anyway. From the "safe harbor" rule (p. 106-2), it exempts (a) former law firm 401(k) retirement plans managed by the law firm, (b) IRA's, (c) brokerage accounts held in the judge's name (or children/spouse/stock-parkers), (d) judge managed mutual fund holdings.

"[R]ecusal may be required under Canon 3C(1)(c) because the judge has an 'interest that could be affected substantially by the outcome of the proceeding.'" (p. 106-2).

MAGICALLY, not a single judge or judicial employee (incl. the Patent Office officers with substantial Facebook holdings and relationships) in Leader v. Facebook raised the specter of conflict of interest despite their 213 "dark pool" investments. Their silence is deafening!

Jill, your analysis and understanding of the judiciary rules and how these funds work are off the mark.

First, judges are mandated to keep abreast of their holdings in order to avoid just such conflicts. It is not hard to do. All funds must publish the stocks they hold for the clients. One call to the broker gets the list. Judges are MANDATED by the Judicial Conference to keep a conflicts log, keep it up to date, and report on conflicts before they take cases. That's their job. Your logic would excuse a doctor prescribing a new drug he holds stock in in his IRA. Democracy cannot function with these sorts of people as our judges.

Second, Rain's comment above highlights holdings that cannot claim the "safe harbor" privilege and must be disclosed, however small. I won't repeat those citations here. The rule is even clearer: it says "even one share" ... even one share held by a spouse.

Justice demands unbiased judging. The rules are what they are and they are right. ANY investment in a litigant, even one share, is too many. If a judge is holding such a stock in a fund, he or she must divest or recuse. That's the rule. These sneaky games the Facebook Club attempted to get away with are clever but illegal. The impropriety alone is off the charts. Using your logic they might as well add a new clause for "Stealth Investing... How to hide your investments from public scrutiny." Heck, it could be a new course at Harvard and Stanford Law Schools. Sad to say, it probably is.

As to the Facebook holdings in these funds themselves, look them up for yourself. We did our homework and have.

Remember, you as an American citizen (we assume you are) need unbiased judges just as much as us. We suggest you stop loving all things unscrupulous and stand up for your constitutional rights. You may need those rights someday yourself. If you keep giving your rights away to crooks, they won't be. Ask families of relatives who were murdered in Nazi death camps.

anonymously in any way in which you are most comfortable. The attempt of these people and their organizations to corrupt American justice and commerce cannot be tolerated. Vigilance. We will expose them. See Congressional Briefings (currently being updated after Scribd censored the documents on Fri. Mar. 7, 2014).
