THE DAY THE MUSIC DIED IN WASH., D.C.

PUBLIC DISCOURSE TOOK A DRAMATIC TURN TOWARD HARVARD HUBRIS IN THE EARLY 1990'S

CONTRIBUTING WRITERS | OPINION | AMERICANS FOR INNOVATION | JUN. 06, 2014, UPDATED JUN. 09 | PDF

(JUN. 6, 2014)—American democracy relies on the principle of the separation of powers, where each branch of government (Executive, Legislative, Judicial) holds the other two branches accountable against abuses of power.

However, this principle cannot work if members of one branch collude with their cronies in another branch to control outcomes.

For good measure, the Founders gave special privileges and immunities to a Free Press so that they would not be a mouthpiece of state propaganda, and would serve as a watchdog to question power and check abuse.

The Founders were so concerned about the abuses of power they'd seen and experienced in the monarchies of Europe, that they physically moved the seat of government out of New York and onto the then swampy banks of the Potomac River—present day Washington, D.C. The logic was that political discourse must be independent of money interests, given human weaknesses to greed, bribes and coercion.

BUT NOW, THE THREE BRANCHES AND THE PRESS HAVE ALLOWED THE WALLS OF SEPARATION TO CRUMBLE

The current caustic environment in Washington D.C. begs the question: What has gone wrong?

We posit that the answer is not that complicated, and the solutions are straightforward.

Modern communication has blurred the separation between Wall Street and Washington. The grease of corruption that holds them together now is a bevy of unscrupulous "constitutional" lawyers who have made an industry out of exploiting the weaknesses in our Constitutional government.

Founder John Adams emphasized to the officers of the First Brigade of the Third Division of the Militia of Massachusetts on October 11, 1798:

“Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.”

Playright Peter Stone attributed this famous wit to his John Adams character in the 1969 musical comedy 1776: "I have come to the conclusion that one useless man is called a disgrace, two useless men are called a law firm, and three or more become a Congress."

THE LEGAL PROFESSION IS SMOTHERING THE CONSTITUTION

We cannot resist an attorney joke here. "How many moral and religious attorneys do you know?" Don't answer that. Our point is made. Attorneys cannot be relied upon to make the Constitution work. In fact, there are so many of them hovering over Washington that they are smothering it.

A handful of straightforward changes can turn things around, we believe:

1. MOVE GOVERNMENT AGENCIES OUT OF WASHINGTON D.C. AND OFF THE COASTS

Move government agencies offices out of the congested East Coast and into various parts of the country where Midwestern values of honesty and hard work prevail.

The “coastal” mentalities have made duplicity a virtue. Such values destroy public discourse and trustworthiness.

Move government agencies to worthy locations like North Platte, Nebraska. We have yet to see a downside to this suggestion. We first heard this suggestion from a leading Democrat in a northern state.

Let's face it, two Ivies, Harvard and Yale, have developed an unsustainable stranglehold over American government.

For example, six of the nine Supreme Court justices are from Harvard (Roberts, Scalia, Kennedy, Bader-Ginsberg, Breyer, Kegan), and the other three are from Yale (Alito, Thomas and Sotomayor).

Harvard graduates run Goldman Sachs (Blankfein) and JPMorgan (Dimon). The list goes on. Could the picture be any clearer?

No doubt in our age of instant communications, planes, super highways and fast trains, a big reason for this concentration of power is relative proximity. These schools are just short distances from Washington, D.C. It is just too easy for backroom arm twisting to be accomplished over a Starbucks.

If we disperse our agencies throughout the United States, the lack of proximity will surely help dampen collusion.

Strong side benefits are that it lowers living costs and creates more take home pay for the civil servants. It also will dramatically reduce travel time, thus making more time for family, personal and community priorities.

2. SHUT DOWN CAREER LOBBYIST-ATTORNEYS

An attorney license is a privilege bestowed by the People meant to promote and support justice and fair play. It is not a right. It can be revoked at any time.

However, an attorney license in Washington, D.C. is more like a hunting license. These people gravitate naturally to deep pockets, thus skewing their work toward promoting financial interests, not justice.

John Adams (1778)

"The moment the idea is admitted into society, that property is not as sacred as the laws of God, and that there is not a force of law and public justice to protect it, anarchy and tyranny commence. If 'Thou shalt not covet,' and 'Thou shalt not steal,' were not commandments of Heaven, they must be made inviolable precepts in every society, before it can be civilized or made free."

UPDATE MAR. 25, 2014

FOUR CRITICAL AFI POSTS ON JUDICIAL COMPROMISE

Fully updated Mar. 25, 2014 in the wake of the Scribd censorship:

1. WAS CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS BLACKMAILED into supporting Obamacare by his ethical compromises in Leader v. Facebook?
2. JUSTICE ROBERTS MENTORED Facebook Gibson Dunn LLP attorneys.
3. JUSTICE ROBERTS HOLDS substantial Facebook financial interests.
4. JUDGE LEONARD STARK FAILED to disclose his Facebook financial interests and his reliance on Facebook's Cooley Godward LLP attorneys for his appointment.

BARACK OBAMA'S DARK POOLS OF CORRUPTION

Lawmakers often rely upon the data and input from lobbyists. However, it stands to reason that if they only ever have the input of this one class of American citizen, then their perspectives will become skewed and unhealthy over time.

In the current environment, Wall Street has bought and paid for the Left, the Right and the Media. Wall Street (and its cadre of lackey attorney firms) is running the show currently.

LIMIT ACCESS

In order to shut down the career attorney-lobbyist mill, limit the number of times any one attorney/firm can appear before a government official or tribunal.

LAUGHABLE "IMPARTIALITY"

The current situation is laughable. Now we see attorneys like Gibson Dunn LLP's Thomas G. Hungar, making more appearances before the Federal Circuit and U.S. Supreme Court than Henry the 8th had wives.

Hungar and his partner, Theodore B. Olson, have become so influential that the judges before whom they argue seek their affirmation and approval. "Chummy" was the descriptor used recently by The Wall Street Journal. Impartiality is a joke when Hungar and Olson become involved.

The recent revelation that the Federal Circuit Chief Judge Randall Rader has been secretly promoting the career of closet Facebook attorney, Edward R. Reines, Weil Gotshal LLP, shows that this familiarity has destroyed impartiality. Reines appeared in the Leader v. Facebook case to protect the judges from accusations of Facebook bias.

GO HOME AND GET REAL JOBS

Make these attorneys go home and get real jobs. This will cut down on the collusion that is so evident now in federal courts and agencies like the Federal Circuit, Patent Office, S.E.C., F.E.C., N.S.A., C.I.A., F.C.C., DoD, D.O.E., Patent Office, Pentagon, Commerce, and Justice.

GO TO JAIL

Any attorney that has forsaken his/her solemn oath to preserve and protect the U.S. Constitution, and has instead locked arms with judges and other attorneys to thwart justice in favor of his or her "chums," deserves a prison cell.

3. ABOLISH THE FEDERAL CIRCUIT'S EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OVER PATENTS

Power corrupts, and absolute power is corrupting absolutely. As just mentioned, the Federal Circuit's Chief Judge Randall R. Rader proved by release of his own emails that he is not impartial. He was caught promoting the private attorney-interests of his Silicon Valley friend, Weil Gotshal LLP attorney, Edward R. Reines.

If such impartiality is coming from arguably the second most powerful judge in the land, what does that say about our system?

4. ABOLISH PATENT REEXAMINATIONS; GIVE CERTAINTY TO INVENTORS

The new reexamination rules do nothing but destroy the certainty inventors depend upon for their livelihoods. Big infringers have been given free rein in the deceptively named, "American Invents Act," to keep challenging an issued patent as many times as they like. This destroys the value of game-changing inventions that they want for themselves. Inventors will be relegated to inventing trinkets that the large companies are not interested in stealing anyway.

From our research, the current group in power appears to have hatched their plans along Harvard's Mass. Ave. in the early 1990's.

5. RESCIND PRESS PRIVILEGES IF A MEDIA OUTLET RECEIVES MORE THAN X% OF ITS OUTSIDE FINANCING

Click to enlarge

STOP FACEBOOK PROPERTY THEFT

W LL HUMANKIND EVER LEARN? Facebook's Orwellian doublespeak about property and privacy (theft) merely repeats the eventual dehumanization of the individual under MAO's Red Star, Stalin's SOVIET Hammer & Cycle and Hitler's NAZI Swastika. Respect for the inalienable rights of each individual is a bedrock value of democracy. The members of the Facebook Cabal abuse this principle at every opportunity. They evidently believe that they deserve special privileges and are willing to lie, cheat and steal in order to treat themselves to these privileges.

ASK CONGRESS: PASS THE INVENTOR PROTECTION ACT!

LEADER TECHNOLOGIES Inventor Protection Act (Proposed)

America needs to practice what it preaches.

We have no business lecturing the world about free enterprise and the rule of law, when we permit the investors in Ohio-based innovator Leader Technologies to go uncompensated for the risks they took to help invent social networking . . .

- a technology upon which the President and U.S. government now rely;
- a technology stolen by the "Facebook Cabal" who recruited the federal courts and Patent Office into their club of corruption.

Rescind. Investigate. Sanction. Certify.

Contact your representatives. Ask them to pass it.

Real American inventors need your support.

Click image above to download a poster-quality PDF optimized for a 11in. x 17in. (ledger-size) poster. America should not be in the business of cheating its entrepreneurial investors simply because the cheaters buy off judges with the money gained from their theft. Such permissiveness is obscene.

FROM WALL STREET, INDUSTRY OR COMMERCE

The mainstream media today are heavily funded by Wall Street. This dependency destroys objectivity. A democracy cannot survive without a truly Free Press whose job is to challenge those in power. The current subservience to financial interests by CBS, ABC, NBC, CNBC, CNN and FOX is evident and does not need to be argued further in this article. We wrote on this in a previous post. See Mainstream Media Gagged.

6. RETIRE UPPER AND MIDDLE-LEVEL BUREAUCRATS ON A CHANGE OF ADMINISTRATION

Entrenched bureaucrats from the previous administration should move on as a matter of principle. This allows the new administration to implement the changes for which they were elected. Short of hitting the refresh button each time, entrenched bureaucrats tend to use their familiarity with the infrastructure to stonewall change. These people simply dig in and wait out the term of the latest political appointee in a war of attrition. Money is wasted and the citizenry end up spending a lot on salaries and expenses for very little productivity. Presumably, the fresh faces will focus more on the tasks at hand and less on the game playing and posturing that currently makes federal agencies so ineffective.

THE DAY THE MUSIC DIED:

AMERICANS IN POLITICS, BANKING, JUSTICE, MEDIA, GOVERNMENT AGENCIES, ACADEMIA AND FINANCE ARE ALL PLAYING THEIR RESPECTIVE INSTRUMENTS IN THE SAME HARVARD BAND

Both literally and figuratively, Barack and Michelle Obama were there. So was Eric H. Holder, Jr., Lawrence H. Summers, James P. Chandler, III, James W. Breyer, Ping Li, James Swartz, Lloyd Blankfein, Jamie Dimon, Hank Paulson, Preetinder "Preet" Bharara, Thomas J. Kim, Samantha Power, Jill Abramson, Sylvia M. Burwell, Shaun Donovan, Arne Duncan, Jeffrey Immelt, Jack Lew, Ben Bernanke, John G. Roberts, Jr., Ruth Bader-Ginsburg, Antonin Scalia, Stephen G. Breyer, Samuel A. Alito, Elena Kagan, Anthony Kennedy, and Sheryl K. Sandberg, to name a few.

It appears that by the time Barack Obama leaves offices, this crowd will have installed "data mining" and "data siphoning" tools at all levels of our national communications infrastructure so that they can keep playing this music indefinitely.

Then who will be in control of American life?

When Benjamin Franklin was asked what kind of government the Continental Congress had drafted, he famously replied,

"A republic, if you can keep it."

Now is the time for the People to stop this attempt to devolve American democracy to a hubristic autocracy of the past where a few lord it over the many.

In case you did not get the memo, these people are sure they are right, and you are wrong.

If we want to keep our republic, we must stop this.

I think the reason the media has ignored this case is because there is no actual evidence that Facebook ever actually took or copied anything. It's all wild speculation based on the idea that Mike McKibben's son was supposedly living on the Harvard campus at the same time as Mark Zuckerberg. McKibben supposedly emailed a copy of a white paper to his son and claims that Zuckerberg hacked the son's email and got a copy of the white paper. That's wild speculation in and of itself, but we've all seen the white paper now and it contains zero useful information for creating a social network like Facebook. And it sure doesn't have any code.

But here's why I think this conspiracy is really all fantasy. dave123 claims that he has hundreds of IMs and emails that conclusively demonstrate that Zuckerberg stole code, entered into a contract with Ceglia, etc. etc. He says that he sent those messages to hundreds of journalists, government officials, etc. I'm calling shenanigans.

Remember that Donna Kline video where she interviewed David London? <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KNJcfusZnW> At the end of the interview, Donna says "stay tuned as I reveal fact after fact" that supposedly showed that Zuckerberg stole Leader's code. There were no further interviews or posts by Ms. Kline regarding these "facts"... I think we know why. My guess is that when it came time to actually offer up some proof that Zuckerberg stole anything, there was none.

If this incredible smoking-gun evidence exists, it's inconceivable that it hasn't been presented.

GIBSON DUNN LLP exposed as one of the most corrupt law firms in America

Investigative Reporter Julia Davis investigates Facebook's Leader v. Facebook attorney Gibson Dunn LLP. She credits this firm with the reason why not a single Wall Street banker has gone to jail since 2008. Click here to read her article "Everybody hates whistleblowers." Examiner.com, Apr. 10, 2012. Here's an excerpt:

"Skillful manipulation of the firm's extensive media connections allows Gibson Dunn to promote their causes, while simultaneously smearing their opponents and silencing embarrassing news coverage."

This statement followed right after Davis cited Facebook's chief inside counsel in the Leader v. Facebook case, Theodore Ulyot, who appears to have helped lead the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption. Interesting word choices associated with Gibson Dunn LLP: manipulation, smear. Attorneys swear a solemn oath to act morally, ethically, and in support of democratic principles. They promise to conduct themselves in a manner than instills confidence among the citizenry in the rule of law and the judicial system. These promises appear to be meaningless. Greg, that is an incredible find. I always suspected this but now we have concrete proof. The fact that Donna abruptly cut off coverage of this issue back in February 2013 now makes complete sense. The checks from Leader stopped coming. Or I guess it's possible that Donna got religion and concluded that even she couldn't stomach all of the conspiracy theories/dave123 claims anymore. They just had no evidentiary support. It never made sense that a journalist who was following a story would just stop cold-turkey and quit reporting. Thanks for sharing this incredible find!!

We are just about ready to cancel your bar tabs "Jason" and "Greg." This so called find is posted in the Donna Kline archives, so what is your point? This fake dialog is humorous. Your obsession with her is getting a little wierd. Ms. Kline had other priorities which are none of anyone's business. The facts are the facts, yet you people can't deal with them, can you? It is telling that you choose to talk about anything but the facts of the misconduct. Why don't you comment on Judge Rader's outing of himself as a shill for his Facebook lawyer friends at the Weil Gotshal law firm last week? Could that be because you are lawyers yourselves and you are covering for him? Who else would spend time writing about such silliness as your comments above? Nero fiddled while Rome burned. Perhaps you should be the first whistle blowers and do something constructive with your lives. Be the first in line, your bubble is popping.

I know when I write policies and procedures, the language I use is based on the audience. The way I read the John Adams quote in the post ("Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other."), Adams is saying that he assumed a moral and ethical compass among his readers and adherents as the BASIS for his drafting of the Constitution. Without that moral and ethical basis, then it stands to reason that areligious/irreligious and amoral/immoral people, if given the choice and the reins of power, will try and rewrite or destroy it. That appears to be what the lawyers in Washington have set out to do. Just look at all the despicable advice Obama is acting on regarding following the law.

Have we learned our lesson with this administration? It appears that the abuses of power the Founders feared are upon us. Let's throw them out and say never again will we allow the Constitution to be toyed with like this.

ATTACK ON USPTO REEXAMINATIONS AS UNCONSTITUTIONAL FILED IN VIRGINIA

We just received notice of a new case filed in Virginia Eastern District specifically attacking the constitutionality of Ex Parte Reexaminations in the aftermath of the euphemistically named "America Invents Act." The same Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB) stacked with IBM cronies just followed IBM David J. Kappos UNPRECEDENTED order to invalidate Leader Technologies' patent, even after Leader had WON all arguments at trial and in two prior re-exams. The process is very evidently corrupt. Let's support Cooper's and eCharge Licencing LLC's efforts. Send them an email of support. The emails of their attorneys are in the filings below.

3. Two Policy Changes That Will Make America More Democratic (and less contentious), Dec. 21, 2012

OUR MISSION

American citizens must fight abuse of the constitutional right for authors and inventors to enjoy the fruits of their inventions, as a matter of matter of basic property rights and sound public policy. Otherwise, instead of innovation, creativity, genius, ideas, vision, courage, entrepreneurship, respect, property, rejuvenation, morals, ethics, values, renewal, truth, facts, rights, privacy, solutions and judicial faithfulness,

... our society and economy will be dragged down (and eventually destroyed) by copying, infringement, thievery, counterfeiting, hacking, greed, misinformation, exploitation, abuse, waste, disrespect, falsity, corruption, bribery, coercion, intimidation, doublespeak, misconduct, lies, deception, attorney "dark arts," destruction, confusion, dishonesty, judicial chicanery and lawlessness.

If we do not speak up, impeach derelict judges and imprison corrupt attorneys, we cannot possibly hope to start fixing the current ills in our society. Without justice and respect for private property, democracy has no sure foundation.

CURRENT EDITORIAL FOCUS

We are an opinion blog that advocates for strong intellectual property rights. We welcome commenters and contributors. The Leader v. Facebook patent infringement case first came to our attention after learning that the trial judge, Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, ignored his jury's admission that they had no evidence to support their on-sale bar verdict, but the judge supported it anyway.

The judicial misconduct has deteriorated from there, replete with two of the three judges on the Federal Circuit appeal panel, Judges Alan D. Lourie and Kimberly A. Moore, holding Facebook stock that they did not disclose to the litigants, and later tried to excuse through a quick motion slipped in at the last minute by the Clerk of Court, Jan Horbaly, and his close friends at The Federal Circuit Bar Association. (The DC Bar subsequently revealed that Mr. Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in Washington D.C.)

The judges ignored shocking new evidence that Mark Zuckerberg withheld 28 hard drives of 2003-2004 evidence from Leader Technologies that could prove actual theft (and therefore claims even more serious than infringement). In addition, Facebook's appeal attorney, Thomas G. Hungar of Gibson Dunn LLP, has close personal ties to

Here are the attorneys for Cooper/ECharge. Let's send them notes of support. If patent rights are taken away into these crony USPTO reexamination courts, we can kiss innovation goodbye. This is an important Constitutional fight these attorneys have undertaken on our behalf.

CORRUPTION ALERT.

It is interesting that one of the lead attorneys for the Facebook Cartel, INDRA NEEL CHATTERJEE, ORRICK HERRINGTON LLP, just filed another case against the USPTO on the same day as the Cooper / ECharge filing. How did they know that Echarge was going to file the same day?!

Orrick Herington is a longtime member of the Facebook Cartel, and Indra Neel Chatterjee leads the charge. This appears on the surface as an attempt at an end around the Cooper/Echarge filing. They apparently need to reign in some errant PTO judges who have been sub-setting their inter partes rulings, which thwarts the Cartel's objective for clean, "fast track" denials of everything they ask for.

In the Leader reexam, the PTAB, on Kappos' own initiative, expanded the review from 11 claims (which were affirmed 3 times, once at trial, then in two prior re-exams) to all 35 of Leader's claims (the others had never even received an reexam complaint) and invalidated Leader's whole patent.

These predators are in the midst of shoring up their precedential rulings to rape and pillage all horizontal patents. I now suspect this "fast track" in the America Invents Act is some sort of excuse to kill a whole range of Internet patents having to do with "cloud" computing and transactions. The Cartel wants it all without any patents to have to license?

For some reason, the Judge James C. Cacheris 2010 Financial Disclosure is redacted, which is odd.

just about every judicial player in this story. The misconduct appears to reach into the U.S. Patent Office through abuse of the reexamination process by Facebook. We will stay focused on Leader v. Facebook until justice is served, but we also welcome news and analysis of intellectual property abuse in other cases as well.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR U.S. JUDGES

"CANON 2: A JUDGE SHOULD AVOID IMPROPRIETY AND THE APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY IN ALL ACTIVITIES"

GALLERY OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Judge Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, trial judge in Leader Techs, Inc. v. Facebook, Inc., 770 F. Supp. 2d 686 (D.Del. 2011). Judge Stark heard his jury foreman admit that the jury made the on-sale bar decision without any evidence other than speculation, and yet he supported that verdict anyway. Just months before trial, Judge Stark allowed Facebook to add the on-sale bar claim after the close of all fact discovery and blocked Leader from preparing its defenses to this new claim. Judge Stark allowed the claims despite Leader's prophetic argument that the action would confuse the jury and prejudice Leader. (Read Leader's May 20, 2010 motion here.) He also permitted the jury to ignore the Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar, even after instructing the jury to use it. (See that Jury Instruction No. 4.7 here.) He also contradicted his own instruction to Leader to answer

Interrogatory No. 9 in the present tense (2009), then permitted the jury to interpret it as a 2002 admission as well. See his Sep. 14, 2009 Order. Facebook's entire on-sale bar case is based upon this interrogatory. (Editorial: Hardly sufficient to meet the "heavy burden" of the clear and convincing evidence standard.)

Judge Alan D. Lourie, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, panel judge in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Lourie stood to benefit financially from undisclosed holdings in Facebook. See analysis of Judge Lourie's T. Rowe Price holdings re. the Facebook IPO.

Judge Lourie also failed to apply his own law-test in Group One v.

Hallmark Cards to the evidence. After debunking all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, Judge Lourie created new argument in the secrecy of chambers to support Facebook and prevent the on-sale bar verdict from being overturned—a clear breach of constitutional due process.

Judge Kimberly A. Moore, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, panel judge in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Moore stood to benefit financially from undisclosed holdings in Facebook. See disclosure of substantial holdings in Facebook and Facebook-related stocks. Judge

Moore failed to follow the long-held precedent for testing on-sale bar evidence in Pfaff v. Wells

Electronics, Inc.—an evident and intentional omission coming from a former patent law professor. After debunking all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, Judge Moore created new argument in the secrecy of chambers to support Facebook and prevent the on-sale bar verdict from being overturned—a clear breach of constitutional due process.

Judge Evan J. Wallach, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, member of the three-judge panel in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012).

Judge Wallach is not a patent attorney. This begs the question as to why a judge with no knowledge of patent law was assigned to the case. Would anyone ask a dentist to perform brain surgery? The Federal Circuit was specially formed to appoint patent-knowledgeable judges to patent cases. There is no evidence so far in the judicial disclosures that Judge Wallach holds stock in Facebook, although when he was asked on a motion to disclose potential Facebook holdings and other conflicts of interest, he refused along with the other judges. See Motion to Disclose Conflicts of Interest.

Judge Wallach continued in silence even after Clerk of Court

Horbaly failed to provide him with Dr. Lakshmi Arunachalam's motions (according to his Federal Circuit staffer Valeri White), and yet the Clerk signed an order regarding that motion on Judge Wallach's behalf. See a full analysis of these events at Donna Kline Now! Judge Wallach also failed to police his court's violation of Leader's Fifth and 14th Amendment constitutional right to due process when he participated in the fabrication of new arguments and evidence for Facebook in the secrecy of judge's chambers after he had just invalidated Facebook's sole remaining item of evidence (using disbelieved testimony as ostensible evidence of an opposite). Judge Wallach also failed to police his court when he failed to apply the Supreme Court's Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar evidence, which included even the Federal Circuit's own Group One v. Hallmark Cards, Inc. test—a test which Judge Lourie should have advised Judge Wallach to follow since Judge Lourie helped write that opinion. Group One test omission analysis.

Clerk of Court Jan Horbaly, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, clerk who signed all the opinions in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Clerk Horbaly and his staff obfuscated when the court's ruling was challenged by an amicus curiae brief revealing clear mistakes of law and new evidence. See analysis of the misconduct and misrepresentations within the Federal Circuit Clerk of Court in *Leader v. Facebook*. Mr. Horbaly failed to disclose his conflicts of interest and close associations with numerous Facebook attorneys and law firms, as well as his close association with one of Facebook's largest shareholders, Microsoft, who is a Director of The Federal Circuit Bar Association where Mr. Horbaly is an ex officio officer. Additionally, the DC Bar revealed in a written statement that Clerk Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in the District of Columbia. [Editorial: What does that make the Federal Circuit with its location within in a stone's throw of the White House? A self-governing state?]

Judge Randall R. Rader, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, chief judge responsible for the (mis)conduct of his judges and Clerk of Court in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Rader failed to manage his court resulting in a likely situation where his judges never even received briefs that they allegedly ruled on in favor of Facebook. Judge Rader also failed to disclose his conflicting relationships with a Leader principle with whom he may have had deep professional differences during his time at the Senate Judiciary Committee—his former professor of law at George Washington University Law Center, former Leader director Professor James

P. Chandler. See analysis of Judge Rader's undisclosed conflicts of interest in Leader v. Facebook.

Judge Rader also did not stop his judges from creating new arguments and evidence for Facebook in the secrecy of chambers—after they had debunked all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, which is a clear breach of constitutional due process.

Dr. Saul Greenberg (Facebook's expert witness from the University of Calgary; disingenuously waived his hands and said he would be "wild guessing" about the purpose of a Java "sessionstate" import statement (even Java newbies know it is used for tracking a user while in a web session); in short, Dr. Greenberg lied to the jury, thus discrediting his testimony)
  117. Toni Townes-Whitley (CGI Federal; Michelle Obama's 1985 Princeton classmate; CGI "donated" $47 million to the Obama campaign; CGI won the no-bid contract to build the www.healthcare.gov Obamacare website; CGI shut off the security features on Obama's reelection donation sites to increase donations)
