LEGEND: Some corruptocrat photos in this blog contain a stylized Christian Celtic Wheel Cross in the background alongside the text "Corruption Central" meaning we have put the person's conduct under the microscope and discovered that he or she is at the center of global corruption. Judge Amy Berman Jackson asserts that it is unambiguously (to her anyway) a rifle cross hair. This shows her woeful ignorance of theology, history, symbology and engineering. It could be many things, but she clearly wanted to see a rifle sight (ask her about her role in Fast and Furious gun running). Others assert equally ignorantly that it is a pagan or white supremacist symbol. This stylized Christian Chi-Rho Cross dates to 312 A.D. when Emperor Constantine adopted the symbol after his history-changing "By this sign, you shall conquer" vision on the Milvian Bridge. A similar Wheel Cross form was widely used in Ireland by the eighth century. The triple entendre indicates that the person's corrupt life, when studied under a microscope, has been found wanting, but that there is hope in Christ if the person repents from his or her wicked ways. It triples as a reticle or graticule built into all sorts of eyepieces in microscopes, oscilloscopes, surveying instruments, astronomy optics,

Yesterday, an internal document surfaced from Gibson Dunn LLP, one of Facebook’s law firms. It proves that Facebook and CEO Mark Zuckerberg lied in multiple lawsuits about the existence and contents of Zuckerberg’s 2003-2004 Harvard computers and emails. This evidence, which is now supported by Ceglia court filings (Doc. No. 42 link below) supports the Leader case that Facebook stole Leader’s invention and obstructed justice to hide it from discovery.

LEADER V. FACEBOOK

Now, the lies are proven. In Leader v. Facebook, after nearly a year of stonewalling, Facebook’s trial attorney, COOLEY GODWARD LLP, claimed that all of Zuckerberg’s 2003–2004 Harvard emails and computer hard drives were lost. They produced nothing to Leader Technologies in preparation for the trial. They never said that the information was lost until almost a year of stonewalling, and just days before they were going to be ordered to produce it by the judge.

When will lawyers condemn this judicial corruption and Constitutional betrayal?

AFI researchers have uncovered more than 233 Zuckerberg Harvard emails between Jun. 02, 2003 and May 08, 2004. Click here for Doc. No. 42; Ceglia v. Zuckerberg, Facebook filed Nov. 17, 2011. It is unclear when the court published this. AFI researchers are just learning about it, and no one in the mainstream media has covered it.

The existence of even one of these Zuckerberg messages would automatically trigger Leader Technologies’ right to forensically examine all of Zuckerberg’s 28 computer devices and Harvard emails from 2003-2004.

On Oct. 23, 2009, even Magistrate LEONARD P. STARK, Obama’s eventual nominee, could not ignore Leader’s due process right to forensically analyze Zuckerberg’s evidence. He stated to then Facebook counsel, WHITE & CASE LLP, in a hearing on Facebook’s year of stonewalling:

Magistrate Stark on Facebook’s year of stonewalling review of Zuckerberg’s 2003-2004 Harvard information: "I am inclined to the view that prior deposition testimony related to what materials were relied on in the development of the Facebook website sounds to me like it may very well prove to be relevant and the production of it could also streamline and thereby make more efficient the deposition process in this case."

precision pointers, binoculars, etching equipment, and yes, gun sights, but also computer mouse pointers! Therefore, to claim that it could only mean a gun sight, as Judge Jackson did, is truly ignorant. As shown, it is a call to prayer and repentance based upon microscopic observation of the corruptocrat’s conduct. For Judge Jackson to use her ignorance of this symbol as the excuse to gag Roger Stone’s FREE SPEECH right to defend himself is heinous abuse of authority. Chief Justice John Roberts should censor her immediately. Patriots must demand it.

PAY-to-PLAY NEW WORLD ORDER
This timeline shows how insiders sell access & manipulate politicians, police, intelligence, judges and media to keep their secrets

Clintons, Obamas, Summers were paid in cash for outlandish speaking fees and Foundation donations. Sycophant judges, politicians, academics, bureaucrats and media were fed tips to mutual funds tied to insider stocks like Facebook. Risk of public exposure, blackmail, pedophilia, “snuff parties” (ritual child sexual abuse and murder) and Satanism have ensured silence among pay-to-play beneficiaries. The U.S. Patent Office is their toy box from which to steal new ideas.

John Adams, or ...?

On Oct. 26, 2009, three days later, Facebook replaced White & Case LLP with Cooley Godward LLP, however, the attorneys remained, including Heidi Keefe. Tellingly, Cooley Godward's partner, DONALD K. STERN, was now Obama's Justice adviser at the White House.

On Jun. 04, 2010, HEIDI L. KEEFE, COOLEY GODWARD LLP, instructed Zuckerberg during his Leader v. Facebook deposition not to answer any questions about his 2003-2004 activities.

GIBSON DUNN LLP partner, THOMAS G. HUNGAR, a protégé of Chief Justice JOHN G. ROBERTS, JR., became Facebook's appeals attorney in Leader v. Facebook. He had represented the judges in the appeals court and both he and the Federal Circuit judges should have recused themselves due to their obvious conflict of interest. But alas, the entire legal community sat silent while Facebook and the Courts performed their charades. Evidently all in the Facebook (Crime) Family.

However, Facebook's lawyers, Gibson & Dunn LLP, leaked an internal spreadsheet verifying that Zuckerberg's Inbox contained hundreds of emails and files that should have been produced in Leader v. Facebook. Such lies during litigation are Fraud on the Court and are criminal offenses since they obstruct justice. ## CEGLIA V. ZUCKERBERG

Facebook's experts lied. In Ceglia v. Zuckerberg, Facebook's trial attorney, GIBSON DUNN LLP, accused Ceglia of forging over 233 emails exchanged with Zuckerberg during 2003–2004. However, the courts have never allowed Ceglia to examine Zuckerberg's information from the same period.

In Nov. 2011, according to sources close to the case, the Winklevoss Twins' attorney warned Ceglia that 28 Zuckerberg hard drives and Harvard emails were never lost as Cooley Godward LLP and Zuckerberg had told Leader Technologies. They were in the custody of Gibson Dunn LLP, and were about to be destroyed. Ceglia's attorneys successfully stopped the destruction.

However, for the next six months, the court continued to shield Zuckerberg's information until finally allowing Ceglia to depose Facebook's experts about Facebook's information. The impropriety aside of only allowing self-serving expert testimony, Ceglia's attorney was blistering nonetheless.

In two days of testimony, Facebook's Stroz Friedberg experts, Bryan J. Rose and Michael F.

McGowan, confirmed the existence of the 28 computer devices and Harvard emails.

Three months later, criminal charges were filed against Ceglia for forgery of his contract with Zuckerberg (charges which have since been proven unfounded by the U.S. Secret Service forensic lab).

Facebook's Stroz Friedberg experts lied like drunken sailors.

They admitted appalling professional incompetence (or amnesia):

1. Took no notes,
2. Did not ask Zuckerberg if they had everything,
3. Did not confirm a chain of custody (who has preserved the hard drives and data from tampering and deterioration),
4. Were not impartial or arm's length,
5. Were paid by Facebook, and
6. Took their search terms from Gibson Dunn LLP.

BANANA REPUBLIC COURTS

To this day, Ceglia's experts have been stonewalled and been unable to study Zuckerberg's 28 computers and Harvard emails. This injustice is just gross; as bad as in a Banana Republic; worse since it is happening in the United States where we are supposed to be better than this.

They were asked a straightforward question:

"If you found an email between Ceglia and Zuckerberg, would you report it?"

FACEBOOK EXPERTS: TWEEDLEDUM AND TWEEDLEDEE

Rose and McGowan waffled with repeated vagaries like "don't recall," "not sure," "hard for me to answer." Experts are supposed to help juries learn the facts. It is illegal for experts to simply shill and obstruct fact finding for their client, thus betraying their expert objectivity, as Rose and McGowan clearly did. In this case, Tweedledum and Tweedledee would've remembered more than these purported experts.

On the key question of whether Zuckerberg's assets contained messages from Paul Ceglia, Michael McGowan said:

"I don't believe so."

This admission is a bombshell.

BOMBSHELL: ZUCKERBERG'S FRAUD ON THE COURT PROVED

The whistleblower evidence proves that "I don't believe so" is a boldface lie. It also proves Facebook committed fraud on the court in both Ceglia v. Zuckerberg and Leader v. Facebook.

The leaked forensic spreadsheet was created on April 30, 2012 by "METROSTAR." It compares 111 Ceglia emails and 233 Zuckerberg emails. Here are the Ceglia emails that mostly match messages also in Zuckerberg's emails and prove McGowan lied.

Facebook's Gibson Dunn LLP's attorney, Orin S. Snyder, called the "Punk with a Pen," said that Ceglia's emails were: "supposed emails," "fabricated emails," "fraudulent emails," "those emails were concocted," "bogus emails," "his so-called emails," "purported emails,"

STOP FACEBOOK PROPERTY THEFT

We see. We "like." We steal.
STOP FACEBOOK PROPERTY THEFT.

WILL HUMANKIND EVER LEARN? Facebook's Orwellian doublespeak about property and privacy (theft) merely repeats the eventual dehumanization of the individual under MAO's Red Star, Stalin's SOVIET Hammer & Cycle and Hitler's NAZI Swastika. Respect for the inalienable rights of each individual is a bedrock value of democracy. The members of the Facebook Cabal abuse this principle at every opportunity. They evidently believe that they deserve special privileges and "made up emails." Clearly, Snyder is a bully who spews falsities in bombastic tirades.

Reading Snyder's outburst reminds one of Hamlet, Act III, Scene II (1599): "The lady doth protest too much, methinks." Hamlet's mother, Queen Gertrude, observes of the actor who is secretly playing her in Shakespeare's play-within-a-play that the actor's too frequent and vehement attempts to convince others of some matter of which the opposite is true, makes her appear defensive and insincere.

Note: The leaked Stroz Freidberg spreadsheet was created by "METROSTAR." A Washington, D.C. company named METROSTAR SYSTEMS has a long client list of federal government agencies, including the Department of Justice, Patent Office and FBI. Could this company be running cover and obstructing justice for Facebook on the government's dime?

FIG. 11— ORIN S. SYNDER, GIBSON DUNN LLP, labelled all of Ceglia's emails bogus. His own leaked internal documents prove he is the liar and defrauded the court.

and are willing to lie, cheat and steal in order to treat themselves to these privileges.

ASK CONGRESS: PASS THE INVENTOR PROTECTION ACT!

Click image above to download a poster-quality PDF optimized for a 11in. x 17in. (ledger-size) poster. America should not be in the business of cheating its entrepreneurial investors simply because the cheaters buy off judges with the money gained from their theft. Such permissiveness is obscene.

70.5% EMAILS IN COMMON IN CEGLIA'S & ZUCKERBERG'S EMAIL INBOXES BETWEEN JUL. 16, 2003 AND OCT. 20, 2003

Between Jul. 16, 2003 and Oct. 20, 2003, Ceglia had 62 out of 88 held by Zuckerberg. In other words, 70.5% were held by both men.

ZUCKERBERG SECTIONS MISSING, STRONG EVIDENCE OF DOCTORING BY LAWYERS

Between Jun. 2, 2003 and Jul. 14, 2003, Ceglia had 42 for which Zuckerberg had 0.

Between Oct. 21, 2003 and May 8, 2004, Ceglia had 103 for which Zuckerberg had 0.

This proves Ceglia did not forge them since he would have had to hack through Harvard FASmail system security and make substantial changes, undetected. He did not have that kind of technical proficiency.

STREETFAX MENTIONED 78 TIMES; PROVES CEGLIA TOLD THE TRUTH AND ZUCKERBERG LIED

"StreetFax" is mentioned 78 times in the spreadsheet. (This is the smoking gun for McGowan's "I don't believe so" lie.) StreetFax is the parallel project that Zuckerberg and Ceglia were working on along with Facebook.

Zuckerberg's emails either have a typically techie tone, spelling (poor) and grammar (loose), or they are flowery, well-written, properly punctuated and formatted, and obvious written by lawyers.

During the Ceglia case, Facebook accused Ceglia of forging hundreds of emails.

However, the leaked spreadsheet debunks the Facebook accusation that Ceglia forged hundreds of emails. It proves unequivocally that Zuckerberg has lied all along and Ceglia is telling the truth. But, Ceglia has been indicted and had to flee the government's persecution. Click here for more in defense of Paul Ceglia.

GIBSON DUNN LLP exposed as one of the most corrupt law firms in America

The Takings Clause of the Fifth Amendment empowers Congress to legislate a payday for Leader Technologies shareholders. This would provide adequate financing for Leader to offer a rational social networking environment—one that offers the application utility that people have come to enjoy about Leader’s invention without sacrificing security and privacy.

Contact your elected representatives and ask them to use Congress’ power of the purse to pay Leader Technologies and unplug the Cartel.

This statement followed right after Davis cited Facebook’s chief inside counsel in the Leader v. Facebook case, Theodore Ulylot, who appears to have helped lead the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption. Interesting word choices associated with Gibson Dunn LLP: manipulation, smear. Attorneys swear a solemn oath to act morally, ethically, and in support of democratic principles. They promise to conduct themselves in a manner than instills confidence among the citizenry in the rule of law and the judicial system. These promises appear to be meaningless. When it was revealed recently that Facebook had agreed to pay $1 billion to acquire Instagram, critics of the deal wondered how Facebook's board came to the conclusion that a year-and-a-half-old mobile photo-sharing network was worth that kind of money. It turns out, it didn't -- not in a deliberate and thoughtful way, at least. That's because the board didn't have time to be very deliberate or thoughtful. CEO Mark Zuckerberg informed members of his decision to buy Instagram just a few hours before the deal was made, according to insights in The Wall Street Journal. He and Instagram CEO Kevin Systrom did most of the haggling privately at Zuckerberg's own home before finally settling on an even billion. Only when the deal was all but clinched did Zuckerberg inform his board about the situation, though at that point it was probably more like he was telling them rather than asking them. BUT INSTAGRAM WAS A STOLEN IDEA and they knew facebook was a stolen idea say something Kevin Systrom

Many people have questioned as to the reasoning behind the lack of settlement offers from Facebook to Leader. Facebook has been notorious for buying peoples' silence and paying off those who would otherwise give the appearance of illegitimacy (The Winklevoss twins come to mind Reactive narcissistic leaders are not prepared to share power. On the contrary, as leaders they surround themselves with 'yea-sayers.' Unwilling to tolerate disagreement and dealing poorly with criticism, such leaders rarely consult with colleagues, preferring to make all decisions on their own.

Hi dave123. You ask why Facebook never settled with Leader Technologies. It's because Leader's patent attorney, James P. Chandler: (1) stole it while Leader was still working on it, so he couldn't reveal to Leader that he intended to give it to IBM Eclipse Foundation, (2) if he had told Leader, Leader would have fired him, thus cutting him off any more source code, which his IBM cronies were anxiously waiting on (Zuckerberg was busy at Harvard stalling all the other facebooks from launching), and (3) then, when Chandler did get a copy of the invention source code, he had IBM put copyright notices on the inventions. Since such fraudulent and willful copyright notices amount to grand theft, they were forced to pretend Leader did not exist and had nothing.

Why would they settle with a company that did not exist and had nothing special anyway. Chandler and IBM painted themselves into a corner and could not therefore settle. Settlement would have acknowledged the theft, so even if there were a civil settlement, the theft does not preclude criminal penalties against Facebook, Chandler, IBM and Zuckerberg.

Chandler liked being big man on campus with his coveted IBM client. Also remember, David J. Kappos was at IBM at the time (2001). Isn't it uncanny coincidence that Kappos became Obama's Patent Office director and that one of his last acts as director in 2013 was to rule by fiat to invalidate Leader's patent that Facebook was proved to be infringing.

Don't you see the hub caps flying off of the jalopy?

current ills in our society. Without justice and respect for private property, democracy has no sure foundation.

CURRENT EDITORIAL FOCUS

We are an opinion blog that advocates for strong intellectual property rights. We welcome commenters and contributors. The Leader v. Facebook patent infringement case first came to our attention after learning that the trial judge, Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, ignored his jury's admission that they had no evidence to support their on-sale bar verdict, but the judge supported it anyway.

The judicial misconduct has deteriorated from there, replete with two of the three judges on the Federal Circuit appeal panel, Judges Alan D. Lourie and Kimberly A. Moore, holding Facebook stock that they did not disclose to the litigants, and later tried to excuse through a quick motion slipped in at the last minute by the Clerk of Court, Jan Horbaly, and his close friends at The Federal Circuit Bar Association. (The DC Bar subsequently revealed that Mr. Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in Washington D.C.)

The judges ignored shocking new evidence that Mark Zuckerberg withheld 28 hard drives of 2003-2004 evidence from Leader Technologies that could prove actual theft (and therefore claims even more serious than infringement). In addition, Facebook's appeal attorney, Thomas G. Hungar of Gibson Dunn LLP, has close personal ties to just about every judicial player in this story. The misconduct appears to reach into the U.S. Patent Office through abuse of the reexamination process by Facebook. We will stay focused on Leader v. Facebook until justice is served, but we also welcome news and analysis of intellectual property abuse in other cases as well.

Thanks GH. Here's a telling bit from this article that is a chilling reminder how sneaky these Executive Branch people have become at sidestepping Congress and running their private intelligence agency:

"The executive branch can change its own rules without going to Congress or a judge for permission because the data comes from surveillance methods that lawmakers did not include in the main law that governs national security wiretapping, the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act, or FISA."

Since James P. Chandler wrote most of these laws for Bill Clinton in 1995-1996, and he wrote most of the Clinton, Bush and Obama executive orders, it appears he probably intentionally wrote holes in his laws and orders so that he always had wiggle room.

Beware of Executive Branch National Security officials giving more permissions to the NSA to share data with the FBI. Notice that picture, Attorney General Loretta Lynch, the boss of the FBI, is sitting sheepishly at that table. So, she is essentially giving herself permissions to take illegally acquired NSA data to spy on Americans with their new changes. Priceless.

Notice the waffle on making their new decisions public:

"Once these procedures are final and approved, they will be made public to the extent consistent with national security," Mr. Hale said. "It would be premature to draw conclusions about what the procedures will provide or authorize until they are finalized."

Ruh roh. The dam appears a little shaky. This recent whistleblower announcement could prove to be the first breach that causes the big lake of corruption to flow into the valley of justice. There is a real chance that this brave whistleblower is going earn a nice pay day. If I was in a position to add to the flood by speaking out, I would. Not only would additional information help prove that America is still a country of honorable and brave business folks, but it could also prove to be financially rewarding. The money that this theft diverted from the legitimate owners makes it the largest corporate theft in the history of our little blue

He also permitted the jury to ignore the Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar, even after instructing the jury to use it. (See that Jury Instruction No. 4.7 here.) He also contradicted his own instruction to Leader to answer Interrogatory No. 9 in the present tense (2009), then permitted the jury to interpret it as a 2002 admission as well. Facebook's entire on-sale bar case is based upon this interrogatory. (Editorial: Hardly sufficient to meet the "heavy burden" of the clear and convincing evidence standard.)

planet. It is beyond me how the thieves kept the truth hidden this long. The beauty of whistleblowing now is that you can remain behind a veil of protection.

Don't let the depth or breadth of this multi year crime fool you. It began as one thing and grew into another, the size of which is unimaginable. It appears that the Leader lawyer initially hired to protect this innovation, when told of the platform created, found a nefarious way to get rich on one hand, and begin control of the information flow of average Americans, on the other. He obviously disavowed his vow to protect his client. Is there anything more disgusting than that? The "early rich" grew into a "monster rich" so throwing financial gains out to the minions involved along the way was easy. Many of those that perpetuated this crime did so unknowingly. Others such as BHO, the Clintons, Zuckerberg, the Russians, the new internet whiz kids, and a few judges, knew exactly the ramifications. The gains they enjoyed made it worth the risk. "The ends justify the means". Facebook and the new information companies that followed, used stolen inventions to gain power and power generally converts to wealth.

I am so sick of fraud, corruption, lying, cheating, and deception that my hair bursts into flames when I see our corrupt leaders say anything. They lie as a habit. And this includes the corporate leaders, faith leaders, government men and women, the news media, and academia. If you know something, say something. Come forward. We must put a stop to this America that is eating its liberties, freedoms, and honorable character.

FACEBOOK HAVE STOLEN AGAIN

The US Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit has affirmed a ruling that two patents asserted against Facebook were not infringed. In a ruling handed down February 25, the federal circuit rejected Rembrandt Social Media's arguments that two patents, US numbers 6,415,316 and 6,289,362, were infringed.

Facebook's BigPipe technology was the subject of the dispute. The stolen technology increases the speed at which a page is loaded up on an individual's browser by breaking it into different sections called page lets.

Rembrandt sued Facebook at the US District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia in 2013. But a year later, the court returned a ruling of non-infringement and found that the patents were invalid. Facebook then filed a claim at the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB), seeking revocation of the patents, With the idea to take for FREE and STEAL this technology

The PTAB, however, rejected the claim and said Facebook failed to show by a "preponderance of evidence" that the patents were invalid. In its appeal to the federal circuit, Rembrandt pointed to the PTAB's decision as evidence that the patents were valid, while questioning the court's non-infringement verdict. But the three-judge federal circuit panel affirmed the lower court's ruling of non-infringement and invalidity. "We cannot conclude that, construing the evidence in the light most favourable to Facebook, the jury could have only ruled in favour of Rembrandt," wrote Chief Judge Sharon Prost.

The Death of Scalia have changed the landscape. Dow Chemical has settled a class-action lawsuit. The company said Justice Scalia's death means it's no longer likely to win in court. Other corporations may make the same calculation. Dow Chemical to settle a class-action lawsuit for $835 million Dow Chemical generally viewed Scalia as a friend. He consistently voted on their side of the equation in a very divided Supreme Court. So losing his vote is a blow to corporations. And it was particularly bad for a corporation. But will other corporations start making a similar decision. There are a handful of other big cases involving the likes of Tyson Foods, search website Spokeo and Microsoft on the Supreme Court's docket. Microsoft is advertising it's cloud as a tool to detect patent infringement. Microsoft go suck on it to follow the long-held precedent for testing on-sale bar evidence in Pfaff v. Wells an evident and intentional omission coming from a former patent law professor. After debunking all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, Judge Moore created new argument in the secrecy of chambers to support Facebook and prevent the on-sale bar verdict from being overturned—a clear breach of constitutional due process.

Judge Evan J. Wallach, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, member of the three-judge panel in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012).

Judge Wallach is not a patent attorney. This begs the question as to why a judge with no knowledge of patent law was assigned to the case. Would anyone ask a dentist to perform brain surgery? The Federal Circuit was specially formed to appoint patent-knowledgeable judges to patent cases. There is no evidence so far in the judicial disclosures that Judge Wallach holds stock in Facebook, although when he was asked on a motion to disclose potential Facebook holdings and other conflicts of interest, he refused along with the other judges. See Motion to Disclose Conflicts of Interest. Judge Wallach continued in silence even after Clerk of Court Horbaly failed to provide him with Dr.

Lakshmi Arunachalam's motions (according to his Federal Circuit staffer Valeri White), and yet the Clerk signed an order regarding that motion on Judge Wallach's behalf. See a full analysis of these events at Donna Kline Now! Judge Wallach also failed to police his court's violation of Leader's Fifth and 14th Amendment constitutional right to due process when he participated in the fabrication of new arguments and evidence for Facebook in the secrecy of judge's chambers after he had just invalidated Facebook's sole remaining item of evidence (using disbelieved testimony as ostensible evidence of an opposite). Judge Wallach also failed to police his court when he failed to apply the Supreme Court's Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar evidence, which included even the Federal Circuit's own Group One v. Hallmark Cards, Inc. test—

What gives since it is clear the NSA has the backdoor key and has probably already given the FBI the backdoor key?

One or both things are at play, me thinks:

(1) The FBI/Government concocted this FBI v. Apple passion play to distract public attention at their meeting on Jan. 8, 2016 (Source: <http://abc7news.com/technology/white-house-wants-silicon-valley-to-help-stop-terrorist-recruitment-/1152288/> )

The Government is using Apple's faked intransigence as an excuse to NOT release information that is damaging to the Government contained on that phone. After all, it is the FBI that allegedly messed with the phone's encryption and locked the phone.

(2) Since the NSA bulk surveillance information is illegal, the FBI cannot use in court whatever the NSA gives them. So, the FBI is seeking this legitimization from Congress so they can use the evidence that they already have in court.

Either way, or both ways, the American public is being played the fool.

No one should be fooled by the idea floated today that the FBI's forensic data capabilities are weak or unsophisticated. They've got the best people money can buy... and have had since soon after 9/11. I can't believe that idea is being floated in this day and age. The Cartel really does think the American public is triple dumb. Obama is just trying to fleece more taxpayer dollars out of Congress.

Here's the main Apple engineer registered with NIST on 41 entries specifically about various versions of the iPhone's iOS operating system - Versions 2.0 to 8.0. We should call him ask him what the heck is going on

This blog has shown us that the Spy State Cartel's favorite US Government insider tactic is to form "public-private" advisory boards funded and run by the Executive Branch... all smothered in the flowery language of national security. This way, any time a FOIA request is getting too close, these scoundrels cry "national security" and redact any damaging information.

We now know about the NIAC (National Infrastructure Advisory Council) and how IBM has secretly run it since its formation in 1999.

Now we have a new one, the Defense Business Board (DBB) run out of the Pentagon by Google (aka Alphabet) and CEO Eric Schmidt. ... and here I was hoping that Secretary of Defense Ash Carter might have been an exception from the Cartel cronyism. Stupid me.

Here's the USA Today coverage:

SAN FRANCISCO — Alphabet Executive Chairman Eric Schmidt will head a new Pentagon advisory board to kickstart Silicon Valley innovation in the U.S. military.

Defense Secretary Ash Carter discussed the new Defense Innovation Advisory Board with Schmidt on Wednesday during the annual RSA cybersecurity conference in San Francisco. The new advisory board is modeled on the Defense Business Board, which gives advice on best business practices from the private sector.

Schmidt "knows that you can't have everything else, you can't have freedom, innovation and take care of your family if you don't have security. It's not a game," Carter said.

CARTEL SCAM ALERT: Here is Wired coverage of this Pentagon-Google-Alphabet misdirection.

Here's the smoking gun in the article: "The Pentagon said the board would advise it on such Google-y topics as rapid prototyping, iterative product development, business analytics, mobile apps, and the cloud."

Readers will recall that Obama's latest executive order singles out the Executive Branch's desire to control "the cloud" and IBM's "The Internet of Things" in the previous post.

Remember, the "cloud" is nothing but somebody else's computer, not yours.

Alphabet is just another name for Google. Eric Schmidt is the CEO of both companies. Evidently, Google felt a name change would distance it from the IBM Eclipse Foundation and the Spy State Cartel. In the future readers will be confused by references to Google and Alphabet and think they are two separate entities. "In confusion is profit."

Misdirection is the Cartel's bread and butter. They clearly believe that the American public is dumber than a bucket of rocks.

Email comment by TEX:

Dear America, Welcome back. On Tuesday we went to the polls and cast our ballots. In my opinion , this is the most informed electorate since I was in the military during the Vietnam Nam War. The Democrats showed their love for a corrupt liar or they voted for a self described socialist. I am gobsmacked that this is the best they have to offer . The poll numbers reflected that as well. Voting on the Dem side was down almost 40 % from 2012.

The Republicans came out to vote like never before. In some states, the total voter number was up 150% from 2012. The most interesting thing to me is that most have watched and listened to the various news and social media outlets with a determination to truly understand the issues. My friends are both mad and worried. We elected control of both the House and the Senate, yet nothing changed . It may have deteriorated even faster. And then a loud mouthed, vulgar, contentious maverick showed up , strangely enough , with focus on the same things we are all mad about and he has created massive new energy . It appears that even a growing number of registered Democrats are voicing approval of the solutions Mr Trump suggests. Bottom line is Trump could care less what label he wears, he wants to fix things.....he wants to reestablish our sovereignty through controlling our borders , he wants to find new avenues for US workers to become fully employed, he wants to grow GDP and personal income, he awkwardly calls out those that are incompetent while in embedded in political positions , he knows that a powerful military saves our warriors lives because no country wants to feel our wrath, and is clearly not accountable to big money donors that have high jacked our formerly great country.

This morning, a failed former nominee, Mitt Romney, made a fool of himself by declaring Trump a fraud and con man. Really? Mitt Romney never figured out that the GOP is not just the rich white guys. It's all kinds of folks that want to reduce tax burdens, advance our economic being, feel safe in our communities, and have the peace of mind that our right to worship is untouchable. We want our kids to learn to compete, be free of crushing financial burdens, and regain respect for America. We have no control over our past.....we do have a chance to improve our future. The good old boys in the GOP today don't seem to know what to do other than protect their own positions. Mitt Romney offers nothing to our future, Donald Trump does . In my opinion, Romney demonstrated why he lost. He is not living in the same world we are. Paul Ryan and John McCain have demonstrated their desire to remain the same. They are bashing Trump. They must enjoy losing.

I am not a conspiracy guy but it seems weird that over the last week , a small group of embedded Republicans have come up with exact talking points. Apparently a secret meeting was called and a plan emerged. Here are the talking points. . Trump is a con man, a phony, a fraud, a Democrat in GOP clothes, he's not as rich as he says, he can't beat Hillary, and so on. Evidently the Koch brothers did not like this approach because they stated that they would spend no money to destroy the Donald. It appears that this cabal , sans the Koch's , thought Romney could best deliver the firepower. He didn't . Romney just looks foolish. He should stay in Utah and leave us commoners alone. Of course this attack speech came on the day that of a new Fox debate. The plan would be to put Rubio on the offense and Trump on the defense. They know that they have a friend in Megyn Kelley. If they can get the Donald to implode, then perhaps the landslide can be stopped. The problem with that is that the electorate is in love with the thought of a new future . It has little to do with loving this very awkward politician.

One of two things will happen. Either the GOP will become a mirror image of the Whig party ( disappearing into oblivion ) , or we will see the downfall of the veiled socialist movement called the Democrats because the GOP appeals to non socialist Democrats. Actually, it could be both. Either way, the voters are finally talking. The political hacks had best listen. They are elected to serve us, not vice versa.

Well said TEX. I share your concerns about our country, the Repubs and the Dems. Something is amiss. In my experience, when things don't make sense, there's a hidden agenda afoot. That is why I follow AFI. I think we're looking at CRONY CAPITALISM that is neither left nor right, but its all about ME and MINE, and to hell with yours. I sent this letter to Trump yesterday (I am leaving out my resume which I included, but I have held senior positions in advertising, PR and marketing on both Madison Ave. and Fleet St. in my career with Fortune 100 companies):

Date: Mar. 2, 2016

Subject: Congratulations Mr. Trump

Message:

Congratulations on a terrific night of well-deserved wins!

There are MANY of us in states yet to vote who are cheering for you. We believe you may be the only person who can beat Hillary and then deal effectively with our massive problems. Your Make America Great Again theme will lower taxes, make us competitive again, create jobs, help the middle class, root out corruption, build a stronger military, and regain the respect of the world.

May I respectfully suggest that NOW is the time to become a unifying force – to call the Republican Party to heel and gather its full force and support around you. The Party needs to change, and you are in a position to lead that effort. I expect you are now going to turn your themes (immigration, trade, etc.) into a platform with more meat on the bones. I think you will agree one cannot stress more than about five major messages. You cannot avoid the journalists' questions on all sorts of topics, but it seems to me when you have a choice, the 'Top Five' is what your audience can absorb. (And never forget to remind people about how Bill and Hillary made $152mm in pay-to-play speeches and donations!)

I believe you have what it takes. I hope you agree the time is now to pivot from brawling to "Presidential," like the great President you will be. The Republicans I know want that from you now, despite Marco Rubio's and Ted Cruz's jibes. Please make nice. Some who fear you might characterize you as a bully. While I see through that tactic, many perhaps don't. I believe my suggestions will help them come to support you, if you embrace their concerns with more friendly rhetoric. Pound Hillary all you like, rather than pounding Republicans, which sounds at odds to the unification. We in the electorate are convinced that it is your time for center stage. I believe, as a long time branding person, that the pivot will ensure a faster, smoother, more powerful path forward.

Godspeed!

Immunity to State Dept. staffer who set up Clinton email server: WashPost

<http://www.reuters.com/article/us-usa-election-clinton-idUSMTZSAPEK33FYDR8A>

The U.S. Justice Department has given immunity from prosecution to a State Department employee who helped set up and manage the private email server Hillary Clinton used for her work as secretary of state, the Washington Post reported on Wednesday.

A senior U.S. law enforcement official said the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) had secured the cooperation of Bryan Pagliano, who worked on Clinton's 2008 presidential campaign before joining the State Department with her and setting up the server in her New York home in 2009, the newspaper reported. Facebook is facing a new legal probe in Germany, this time framed around antitrust allegations, but still linked to data privacy violations, which has been a problem for the social network in the EU

Facebook Brazil vice president Diego Dzodan has been freed from jail this morning after being detained by the country's authorities for failure to comply with court demands for What's App messaging data. Dzodan had been charged with blocking the investigation of criminal activity - that's because Facebook denied access to exchanges relating to interstate organized crime and drug dealing activity carried out via its free messaging tool What's App.

The Justice Department and FBI declined to comment on whether Pagliano had been granted immunity, and his lawyer did not respond to questions .The FBI is likely to ask Clinton and her aides in coming months how the server was set up and whether they knew they were sending classified information in emails ,if so This is a terrible error in judgment coupled with Clinton's arrogant and dishonest claims shows she can't be trusted with the presidency.

My thoughts:

WE THE PEOPLE!

There is no "hope" in one man or woman. "Hope" is an expression of civic authority expressed by "We The People" working together to "Keep The Republic". We do not need a "White Knight" from any party, although it would be easier if the "KING" solved all of our problems after our one day of participation and "SACRIFICE" from FOOTBALL, GAMING, ENTERTAINMENT, OTHER TITILLATION, etc. to vote. However, this is not how it works, nor is it what the Architects of FREEDOM intended for our "REPUBLIC". The intention was for "CIVIC AUTHORITY" to be derived from "WE THE PEOPLE", expressed into the elected who, as "SERVANTS OF WE THE PEOPLE", obeyed with good conscious and humble demeanor the will of "WE THE PEOPLE". I do not want nor do I care to have a "KING" from any political party. I would rather have 350 million "citizens" living as free, proud, and productive individuals in a "REPUBLIC" not a "DEMOCRACY" or a "MONARCHY". In order for this to happen, everyone must think, believe, and speak the "LANGUAGE OF LIBERTY".

Facebook Inc. will stop routing advertising sales of its largest U.K. clients through Ireland, increasing its British tax bill by millions of pounds in a bid to improve transparency after facing criticism on tax avoidance.

Facebook received widespread criticism in October after the social network giant was revealed to have paid only 4,327 pounds ($6,128) in taxes for 2014, less than the average U.K. worker. Google Inc. has also faced controversy over its U.K. tax affairs, settling a 130 million-pound payment in back taxes in January.

Facebook uses a "Double Irish" tax structure similar to that used by Google's parent company Alphabet Inc., to book international revenues through an Irish subsidiary. This company then moves most of these revenues -- in the form of licensing fees for intellectual property -- to other Irish-registered companies that are physically located in the Cayman Islands and Bermuda, which have no corporate tax. By holding these funds outside the U.S., Facebook also avoids paying U.S. tax on its international profits.

And MITT ROMNEY 2012 financial disclosure holds up to $45.1 million dollars in Goldman Sachs funds? Obama's bail out buddy's do i need to say more??
