WHY IS THE MUSICAL "HAMILTON" SO POPULAR WITH THE RADICAL COMMUNIST LEFT?

Meet John Barker, Esq., the British Crown spy banker who handled Alexander Hamilton and whose banking progeny are ripping America apart today

"Hamilton made the First Bank of the United States a centerpiece of his financial plan. Modeled on the Bank of England . . ."

Governor, Crown-chartered (monopoly) London Assurance Company (1753-87, 34 yrs.)
Crown handler of Alexander Hamilton via nephew John Barker Church aka John Carter Funded: Bank of North America, Bank of New York, Manhattan Company

Fig. 1—John Barker, Esq. (b. 1707, d. 1787) was perhaps the greatest demonic banker of all time, surpassing Warburgs (del Banco), Rothschilds, Montefiore, Barclays, Bevans, Barings, J.P. Morgan, Peabody, Carnegie, Rockefellers and Hambros.

Barker was the banking puppet master who directed America’s ne’er-do-well “founder” Alexander Hamilton to eschew all banking and currency ideas (like land banks) except fiat currency and debt that aligned with the debt slavery plans of the British Empire, that included dominating America’s first banks. The Federal Reserve eventually emerged from his evil genius as an instrument of Mammon and Moloch.

LEGEND: Some corruptocrat photos in this blog contain a stylized Christian Celtic Wheel Cross in the background alongside the text "Corruption Central" meaning we have put the person's conduct under the microscope and discovered that he or she is at the center of global corruption. Judge Amy Berman Jackson asserts that it is unambiguously (to her anyway) a rifle cross hair. This shows her woeful ignorance of theology, history, symbology and engineering. It could be many things, but she clearly wanted to see a rifle sight (ask her about her role in Fast and Furious gun running). Others assert equally ignorantly that it is a pagan or white supremacist symbol. This stylized Christian Chi-Rho Cross dates to 312 A.D. when Emperor Constantine adopted the symbol after his history-changing "By this sign, you shall conquer" vision on the Milvian Bridge. A similar Wheel Cross form was widely used in Ireland by the eighth century. The triple entendre indicates that the person's corrupt life, when studied under a microscope, has been found wanting, but that there is hope in Christ if the person repents from his or her wicked ways. It triples as a reticle or graticule built into all sorts of eyepieces in microscopes, oscilloscopes, surveying instruments, astronomy optics, precision pointers, binoculars, etching equipment, and yes, gun sights, but also computer mouse pointers! Therefore, to

Now we know, Hamilton betrayed America to British banks during the Revolution just like the communist left is doing today.

Queen Hillary Clinton is effusive in her praise of the Hamilton musical. So much praise, in fact, that Shakespeare might be tempted to re-write Queen Gertrude’s observation in Hamlet: ‘The lady doth praise too much, methinks.’ She said in her last campaign that "we may not live to see the glory" as the song from the musical Hamilton goes, "let us gladly join the fight." Let our legacy be about "planting seeds in a garden you never get to see."

What kind of Hamilton-seeds are Hillary and her ilk planting?

Turns out, before the Rothschilds and Barings was John Barker, Governor of the Crown-chartered monopoly London Assurance Company, secretly bankrolled America’s first banks championed by his Crown Agent, Alexander Hamilton. (The Warburgs predate them all).

claim that it could only mean a gun sight, as Judge Jackson did, is truly ignorant. As shown, it is a call to prayer and repentance based upon microscopic observation of the corruptcrat's conduct. For Judge Jackson to use her ignorance of this symbol as the excuse to gag Roger Stone's FREE SPEECH right to defend himself is heinous abuse of authority. Chief Justice John Roberts should censor her immediately. Patriots must demand it.

Apr. 21, 2022—Our investigations into Alexander Hamilton reveal that his seeds were sedition on behalf of the British Crown.

Hamilton secretly sold out America to British banks during the Revolution—while he was a staffer for General George Washington.

Remarkably, historians whitewash these facts and excuse his traitorous actions in the fog of war and social upheaval. Both are true, but Hamilton's secret pre-Rothschild banking agenda with Britain profoundly betrayed our nascent country. Its effects plague us today.

Even historian Ron Chernow, whose history of Alexander Hamilton was used as the basis for the musical, equivocates on the historical accuracy of the Hamilton script.

Curiously, the musical opens with a conflated relationship among Alexander Hamilton, Marques de Lafayette and Henry Laurens that was inaccurate as chronology, but likely accurate as a gay-lover triad. Homoerotic indulgences were and still are a seminal hidden agenda among self-anointed British and American elitists.

How many gay guys conspiring does it take to cripple an emerging republic? Answer: Three.

Fresh research is revealing Hamilton's demon seeds—hidden by a flurry of British Crown historians who downplay or ignore the

STOP FACEBOOK PROPERTY THEFT

WILL HUMANKIND EVER LEARN? Facebook's Orwellian doublespeak about property and privacy (theft) merely repeats the eventual dehumanization of the individual under MAO's Red Star, Stalin's SOVIET Hammer & Cycle and Hitler's NAZI Swastika. Respect for the inalienable rights of each individual is a bedrock value of democracy. The members of the Facebook Cabal abuse this principle at every opportunity. They evidently believe that they deserve special privileges and are willing to lie, cheat and steal in order to treat themselves to these privileges.

GIBSON DUNN LLP exposed as one of the most corrupt law firms in America

 Investigative Reporter Julia Davis investigates Facebook’s Leader v. Facebook attorney Gibson Dunn LLP. She credits this firm with the reason why not a single Wall Street banker has gone to jail since 2008. Click here to read her article “Everybody hates whistleblowers.” Examiner.com, Apr. 10, 2012. Here’s an excerpt:

“Skillful manipulation of the firm’s extensive media connections allows Gibson Dunn to promote their causes, while simultaneously smearing their opponents and silencing embarrassing news coverage.”

This statement followed right after Davis cited Facebook’s chief inside counsel in the Leader v. Facebook case, Theodore Ulyot, who appears to have helped lead the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption. Interesting word choices associated with Gibson Dunn LLP: manipulation, smear. Attorneys swear a solemn oath to act morally, ethically, and in support of democratic principles. They promise to conduct themselves in a manner than instills confidence among the citizenry in the rule of law and the judicial system. These promises appear to be meaningless. HAMILTONOPOLIS

Hamilton advocated unrelentingly for the capital to be in New York. Chernow writes, "It was becoming so associated with Hamilton that his enemies branded it 'Hamiltonopolis.' For many southerners, Jefferson in particular, New York City was an Anglophile bastion dominated by bankers and merchants who would contaminate the republican experiment. These critics equated New York with the evils of London." (Chernow, p. 325) (html).

More than a few historians have questioned Hamilton's motives and impartiality. As Hamilton's four banks progressed, the complaints in New York circulated that “it became at length impossible for men engaged in trade to advocate republican sentiments without sustaining material injury . . . As the rage and violence of party increased, [\[bank\] directors became more rigorous in enforcing their system of exclusion](#).”

"No type of corporation was more suspect than a bank . . . It was Republican dogma to be wary of an increase in business corporations which symbolized, as they had for a long time in England, monopoly power, speculative profit seeking, and moneyed influence." (Ruebens, p. 580). (emphasis added).

Hamilton involved his British banker brother-in-law, John Carter, aka John Barker Church, in all three banks as one of the largest founding shareholders and directors.

3. Two Policy Changes That Will Make America More Democratic (and less contentious), Dec. 21, 2012

OUR MISSION

American citizens must fight abuse of the constitutional right for authors and inventors to enjoy the fruits of their inventions, as a matter of matter of basic property rights and sound public policy. Otherwise, instead of innovation, creativity, genius, ideas, vision, courage, entrepreneurship, respect, property, rejuvenation, morals, ethics, values, renewal, truth, facts, rights, privacy, solutions and judicial faithfulness,

. . . our society and economy will be dragged down (and eventually destroyed) by copying, infringement, thievery, counterfeiting, hacking, greed, misinformation, exploitation, abuse, waste, disrespect, falsity, corruption, bribery, coercion, intimidation, doublespeak, misconduct, lies, deception, attorney "dark arts," destruction, confusion, dishonesty, judicial chicanery and lawlessness.

If we do not speak up, impeach derelict judges and imprison corrupt attorneys, we cannot possibly hope to start fixing the current ills in our society. Without justice and respect for private property, democracy has no sure foundation.

CURRENT EDITORIAL FOCUS

We are an opinion blog that advocates for strong intellectual property rights. We welcome commenters and contributors. The Leader v. Facebook patent infringement case first came to our attention after learning that the trial judge, Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, ignored his jury's admission that they had no evidence to support their on-sale bar verdict, but the judge supported it anyway.

The judicial misconduct has deteriorated from there, replete with two of the three judges on the Federal Circuit appeal panel, Judges Alan D. Lourie and Kimberly A. Moore, holding Facebook stock that they did not disclose to the litigants, and later tried to excuse through a quick motion slipped in at the last minute by the Clerk of Court, Jan Horbaly, and his close friends at The Federal Circuit Bar Association. (The DC Bar subsequently revealed that Mr. Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in Washington D.C.)

The judges ignored shocking new evidence that Mark Zuckerberg withheld 28 hard drives of 2003-2004 evidence from Leader Technologies that could prove actual theft (and therefore claims even more serious than infringement). In addition, Facebook's appeal attorney, Thomas G. Hungar of Gibson Dunn LLP, has close personal ties to just about every judicial player in this story. The misconduct appears to reach into the U.S. Patent Office through abuse of the reexamination process by Facebook. We will stay focused on Leader v. Facebook until justice is served, but we also welcome news and analysis of intellectual property abuse in other cases as well.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR U.S. JUDGES

“CANON 2: A JUDGE SHOULD AVOID IMPROPRIETY AND THE APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY IN ALL ACTIVITIES”

GALLERY OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Judge Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, trial judge in Leader Techs, Inc. v. Facebook, Inc., 770 F. Supp. 2d 686 (D.Del. 2011). Judge Stark heard his jury foreman admit that the gambling and stock speculation. Then, as the yarn is spun, Church changed his name to “John Carter” and moved to the American colonies in 1774, ostensibly to rehabilitate himself in anonymity. We now believe this was just the cover story. John Carter was evidently sent to protect the London Assurance Company Crown interests of his uncle in America.

Never mind that Parliament had just passed the Intolerable Acts in 1774 threatening martial law in Boston. The Continental Congress had responded with threats of a trade boycott that would dramatically effect London Assurance’s ability to continue insuring American ships and cargoes.

Truth is, Church changed his name to "John Carter" to disassociate him from his uncle so that he could be a secret London Assurance agent to manage the changing business winds.

From that point on, John Carter magically had all the funds he needed to bankroll inventories for the Continental and French armies, the to fund Alexander Hamilton’s first three nascent American banks—strapping America onto the demonic Crown Bank of England dead donkey from which were were striving to escape.

In fact, the archives show that many of America’s founding fathers knew about John Carter and his coming out as John Barker Church.

We conclude that the British Crown sent John Carter aka John Barker Church to America as their Crown Agent. He was tasked to ingratiate himself into one of the American families who were helping lead the Revolution. He did that by eloping with Angelica Schuyler in 1777.

jury made the on-sale bar decision without any evidence other than speculation, and yet he supported that verdict anyway. Just months before trial, Judge Stark allowed Facebook to add the on-sale bar claim after the close of all fact discovery and blocked Leader from preparing its defenses to this new claim. Judge Stark allowed the claims despite Leader’s prophetic argument that the action would confuse the jury and prejudice Leader. He also permitted the jury to ignore the Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar, even after instructing the jury to use it. (See that Jury Instruction No. 4.7 here.) He also contradicted his own instruction to Leader to answer Interrogatory No. 9 in the present tense (2009), then permitted the jury to interpret it as a 2002 admission as well. Facebook’s entire on-sale bar case is based upon this interrogatory. (Editorial: Hardly sufficient to meet the “heavy burden” of the clear and convincing evidence standard.)

Judge Alan D. Lourie, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, panel judge in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Lourie stood to benefit financially from undisclosed holdings in Facebook. See analysis of Judge Lourie’s T. Rowe Price holdings re. the Facebook IPO.

Judge Lourie also failed to apply his own law-test in Group One v. Hallmark Cards to the evidence. After debunking all of Facebook’s evidence on appeal, Judge Lourie created new argument in the secrecy of chambers to support Facebook and prevent the on-sale bar verdict from being overturned—a clear breach of constitutional due process.

 Judge Kimberly A. Moore, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit

Judge Kimberly A. Moore, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, panel judge in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Moore stood to benefit financially from undisclosed holdings in Facebook. See disclosure of substantial holdings in Facebook and Facebook-related stocks.

Judge Moore failed to follow the long-held precedent for testing on-sale bar evidence in Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc.—an evident and intentional omission coming from a former patent law professor. After debunking all of Facebook’s evidence on appeal, Judge Moore created new argument in the secrecy of chambers to support Facebook and prevent the on-sale bar verdict from being overturned—a clear breach of constitutional due process.

Remarkably, within two years of his arrival in Boston, he was appointed a commissar of the Continental Army. Logically, he bought himself into this position—a stupendous achievement for a gambling stock manipulator, so the Parliamentary propaganda said.

Knowing that America would need a central bank, Carter-Church was tasked to use his funds liberally to make himself indispensable to the war effort, then offer to invest in the first banks, ostensibly for himself, but in fact for the British Crown in order to control the emergence of the new currency and bank debt.

Carter-Church surely saw Alexander Hamilton’s courtship and marriage to Elizabeth Schuyler—his wife Angelica's sister—on Dec. 14, 1780 as kismet. From that point on, Carter-Church was surely feeding the young Hamilton, then a staffer for General George Washington, with sophisticated banking ideas and goals well beyond his years (as numerous historians have observed).

HAMILTON HAD NO EXPERIENCE IN BANKING AND FINANCE, YET (SUSPICIOUSLY) WAXED ELOQUENT, OBNOXIOUSLY

The reader must remember, the 24-year-old Hamilton (b. Jan. 11, 1756; d. Jul. 12, 1804) had no experience in banking or insurance. He had been a teenage slave-trade clerk in St. Croix before moving to New York to study law at King’s College (Columbia Law), paid for by his slave-trade bosses. He obviously did not write his diatribes supporting central banks and debt-based currency.

What we shall show below is a timeline and proofs of this premise of Hamilton's

Judge Evan J. Wallach, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, member of the three-judge panel in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Wallach is not a patent attorney. This begs the question as to why a judge with no knowledge of patent law was assigned to the case. Would anyone ask a dentist to perform brain surgery? The Federal Circuit was specially formed to appoint patent-knowledgeable judges to patent cases. There is no evidence so far in the judicial disclosures that Judge Wallach holds stock in Facebook, although when he was asked on a motion to disclose potential Facebook holdings and other conflicts of interest, he refused along with the other judges. See Motion to Disclose Conflicts of Interest. Judge Wallach continued in silence even after Clerk of Court Horbaly failed to provide him with Dr. Lakshmi Arunachalam’s motions (according to his Federal Circuit staffer Valeri White), and yet the Clerk signed an order regarding that motion on Judge Wallach’s behalf. See a full analysis of these events at Donna Kline Now! Judge Wallach also failed to police his court’s violation of Leader’s Fifth and 14th Amendment constitutional right to due process when he participated in the fabrication of new arguments and evidence for Facebook in the secrecy of judge’s chambers after he had just invalidated Facebook’s sole remaining item of evidence (using disbelieved testimony as ostensible evidence of an opposite). Judge Wallach also failed to police his court when he failed to apply the Supreme Court’s Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar evidence, which included even the Federal Circuit’s own Group One v. Hallmark Cards, Inc. test—a test which Judge Lourie should have advised Judge Wallach to follow since Judge Lourie helped write that opinion. Group One test omission analysis.

Clerk of Court Jan Horbaly, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, clerk who signed all the opinions in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Clerk Horbaly and his staff obfuscated when the court’s ruling was challenged by an amicus curiae brief revealing clear mistakes of law and new evidence. See analysis of the misconduct and misrepresentations within the Federal Circuit Clerk of Court in Leader v. Facebook. Mr. Horbaly failed to disclose his conflicts of interest and close associations with numerous Facebook attorneys and law firms, as well as his close association with one of Facebook’s largest shareholders, Microsoft, who is a Director of The Federal 1777	Mar 01	Alexander Hamilton joined Gen. George Washington's staff.

1777	Jun 23	John Carter eloped with and married Angelica Church (née Schuyler) daughter of General Philip Schuyler over her father's strong objections.
1777	Aug	"John Carter" resigned his commission and started a string of Boston businesses with business partner Col. Jeremiah Wadsworth in banking, shipping, land and currency speculation—businesses being blocked by the Continental Congress from his secret uncle John Barker, governor of London Assurance Company.
1780	Dec 14	Alexander Hamilton married Elizabeth Schuyler , Angelica Schuyler's sister; therefore, Hamilton and John Carter became brothers-in-law.
1781	Mar	Alexander Hamilton resigned General George Washington's staff as an aide-de-camp (staff assistant) in what propaganda describes as a clash of egos over Hamilton failing to attend a planned meeting. However, in hindsight, Hamilton was evidently planning the Bank of North America and was probably trolling for a reason to resign so he could get his British Agent handler John Barker Church ensconced as the bank's lead shareholder three months later.
1781	May 26	Bank of North America chartered. Robert Morris was appointed by Congress to be the first superintendent of finance in 1781. Alexander Hamilton vied to be superintendent and was looked over, he was successful in arranging for his British brother-in-law, John Barker Church, to become one of the Bank of North America two largest shareholders (html). Then, while Church sailed to Europe to "settle wartime accounts" [and visit his London base of operations], Church named Hamilton his American business agent (html) in his absence and "deputized" him to watch over his Bank of North America interests and establish the Bank of New York (in 1791) (html). Interlocked British-American Banker Blood Notably, Robert R. Livingstone had proposed a "land bank" as the initial capital, Hamilton the banking neophyte was suspiciously vociferous in opposing the idea, deriding it as a "wild and impracticable scheme." (We believe his conduct is highly suspect since (a) Hamilton had no experience to make such brash statements, and thus, was evidently (b) pressing the agenda of his British Crown handlers, most notably John Barker, Governor of London Assurance.)

1784	Mar 15	Bank of New York (html). Founded and directed by Alexander Hamilton; chartered in 1791; started as a deputization of Hamilton by his brother-in-law John Barker Church to start the bank with Church's capital while he traveled to France and Britain to consolidate his fortune made from being the commissar for the Continental and French armies. "Many Americans still regarded banking as a black, unfathomable art, and it was anathema to upstate populists. The Bank of New York was denounced by some as the cat's paw of British capitalists.) Murphy mentioned John Barker Church just once in Footnote 31 in a list of Federalist directors. This is despite the fact that the founders of the Manhattan bank, Aaron Burr and John B. Church, fought a duel on the very day of the founding! Murphy had no analysis of John B. Church as a looming figure over the bank, no context since Church was also one of the largest shareholders in the Bank of North America and likely of the First Bank of the United States. Current J.P. Morgan CEO Jamie Dimon was no doubt appreciative of Murphy's knowingly negligent history (otherwise called a sin of omission, or a lie).Brian Phillips Murphy is a Rutgers associate professor of history. In our opinion, he should be stripped of his excellence in teaching awards for this profound misdirection surrounding the Hamilton history. Not surprisingly, Murphy is an MSNBC contributor.Fig. 9—Brian Phillips Murphy. Associate Professor of History, Rutgers University.Murphy even interviewed Lin-Manuel Miranda, the Hamilton playwright, where he threw him softballs, and let him arm-flail, over talk him and let him off the hook about ignoring slavery (not to mention ignoring banking!)... in favor of "it's entertainment!" Miranda admitted he is cooperating with the globalist, pro-British Crown Rockefeller Foundation.The sad fact is, for most of Hamilton's audience, this musical will define their notions of Hamilton and America's founding, truths, half-truths, omissions, lies be damned. For this reason, Murphy's interview was little more than narcissistic hero worship and a disservice to exposing the British Crown poison that entered our American Republic through Hamilton's treachery.

HAMILTON AGAINST THE NEW AMERICAN REPUBLIC BETWEEN ACTS I AND II

Act I does not show that Hamilton was born a British subject (html), in the reign of King George II. Chernow even calls him “America’s foremost Anglophile.” Somehow the Hamilton producer missed that critical fact.

Act I does not show that Hamilton’s Caribbean Island home colony of St. Croix thrived on the African slave trade where there were four black slaves for every white on the island. IT also ignores that Hamilton’s gay friend Henry Laurens was one of the largest slave traffickers in America.

Act I does not show that Hamilton’s formative years on Nevis and St. Croix were steeped in the empire-sanctioned rape, sodomy (buggery), whippings, amputations and black-white carnal relations of a “feudal order” (html) supported by His Majesty’s Royal Council for the Province.

Act I does not show, most notably, that Hamilton’s first job (ca. 1766-68) was as a clerk in the New York-St. Croix slave trafficking firm of Kortright and Cruger (renamed from Beekman and Cruger) on Christiansted, St. Croix.

Act I does not show that Hamilton’s mother Rachel had moved Alexander and his brother James, Jr. to St. Croix after her divorce from James Hamilton. She remarried to a Jewish Dane ogre named Johann Michael Lavien, a dozen years her senior. Lavien, after failing to horn in on a small Scottish inheritance that Rachel was awarded but never received, accused Alexander and James, Jr. of being whore-children in order to justify an annulment.

NOW TO THE ACT I ELEPHANT IN THE ROOM THAT THE HAMILTON MUSICAL IGNORED

Alexander Hamilton at age 26, while still employed as General Washington’s aide-de-camp and pining for a battle command, began pushing himself forward to be the superintendent of finance in the Continental Congress, but was skipped over in favor of Robert Morris.

Bookmark: #hamilton-slaver-mentor | <https://tinyurl.com/ycx9w52e>

Not dissuaded, Hamilton *read two pro-British Empire financing books and one tract then wrote a 31-printed-pages treatise to Morris on how to shore up America’s credit and establish a national bank, even though he opened with “I pretend not to be an able financier. Neither have I had leisure or materials to make accurate calculations.” (Chernow, p. 156).

UNIVERSITY

The following universities were announced as participants in Ohio State Provost Joseph A. Steinmetz's corrupt MOOC education initiative named "University Innovation Alliance" (UIA). We have identified the instructions and online forms you need to file a complaint with the participants. MOOC stands for "Massive Open Online Course."

You should complain about:

- (1) the intellectual property theft of social networking source code from Leader Technologies, Columbus, Ohio that is the software engine running the UIA;
- (2) the corruption at Ohio State University and OSU's collusion with Battelle Memorial Institute which helped steal the software being used by UIA; and
- (3) the mistreatment of OSU Marching Band Director Jon Waters regarding fabricated Title IX charges that were used to pave the way for Steinmetz to announce UIA.

Universities pride themselves on protection of intellectual property.

Therefore, these universities cannot participate in this abuse of inventor copyrights, patents and trade secrets by The Ohio State Trustees and Administration. If these universities participate knowingly with Ohio State in its theft of intellectual property, then they are aiding and abetting the theft of intellectual property on a "massive" scale... Massive Open Online Course (MOOC) also known as The Eclipse Foundation.

"1. Outward Passage: Until 1698, London held the monopoly and the Royal African Company sailed to West Africa with British-made trade goods, such as guns, cloth and iron with which to barter for slaves and trading rights with local rulers."

Richard Price. (Mar. 12, 1776). Nature of Civil Liberty, the Principles of Government, and the Justice and Policy of the War with America, Ninth Edition, 49 pgs. Dilly and Cadell.

Hamilton argued that establishing public credit was more important than winning battles. His proposal mimicked the British financial system of debt, usury and fiat currency discussed in the above documents.

What secret British Crown banker strategy did he know that he did not tell General Washington and Congress? Why was he so impetuous about starting banks where he would direct policy toward the British debt system?

Robert Morris was appointed by Congress to be the first superintendent of finance in 1781—two years before the Treaty of Paris between America and Britain in 1783.

While Hamilton did not get appointed superintendent, but he was successful in arranging for his British brother-in-law, John Barker Church, to become one of the Bank of North America two largest shareholders.

Then, while Church sailed to Europe to “settle wartime accounts” [and certainly to visit his London home], Church named Hamilton his American business agent in his absence and “deputized” him to establish the Bank of New York in 1784 (read: leveraging London Assurance capital).

WHO WAS ENGLISHMAN JOHN BARKER CHURCH

He was Alexander Hamilton’s brother-in-law, married to Angelica Schuyler Church, the sister of Hamilton’s wife Elizabeth (“Eliza”) Hamilton (born Schuyler).

After the American Revolution, Church returned to England and became a Member of Parliament for Wendover \(UK\) (1790-96) (between London and Oxford).

The following information about John Barker Church is publish on the British Parliamentary website.

In very odd phraseology, Parliament repeats “a defamatory account” that Church went bankrupt in Aug. 1774 from stock speculation and gambling. Were the Parliament's librarians admitting this was a lie, and they knew it?

British Crown Agent handling and bankrolling Alexander Hamilton's control of first U.S. banks: Bank of North America (1781), Bank of New York (1784), First Bank of the United States (1791) and Manhattan Company (1799). He also bankrolled the commissary of the Continental and French Armies; his uncle was John Barker, Governor, the Crown-chartered London Assurance Company, the shipping insurance monopolist worldwide.

Remarkably, after the Revolution, in 1788, John Barker Church moved back to London as one of the wealthiest men in America. He bought property near Windsor and became a Member of Parliament for Wendover from 1790-96. He gambled with the Prince of Wales regularly. That is not something done except with political insiders.

In 1799, Church returned to America where he became a founding member of the Manhattan Company (Bank) (now J.P. Morgan Chase) and director of the Bank of North America (now Wells Fargo). In 1800 he was admitted as an honorary member of the New York Society of the Cincinnati.

Also in 1799, Church dueling Aaron Burr—one of the founders of the Manhattan Company (Bank) where he was a director and large shareholder. No one was hit, so they reconciled. Later, some say Church’s pistols were used in the duel between Burr and Hamilton on July 11, 1804 where Hamilton died. Burr says they were his pistols.

Given the demonic banking legacy these men heaped upon our young republic, it is hard to feel sorry for Hamilton’s fate. Literally hundreds of millions of souls have died for their greed and ambition.

ALEXANDER HAMILTON & JOHN BARKER CHURCH'S BANKS WERE THE ONLY ONES TRADING IN 1801

Fig. 19–Editor. (Dec. 07, 1801). BANK STOCK, Bank of the United States, Bank of New York, Manhattan Company - all Alexander Hamilton and John Barker Church-founded banks. The Evening Post, New York.

CONCLUSION

The evidence is overwhelming that Alexander Hamilton was not just a young man caught up in the confusion of war and social strife, but was a British Crown Agent with a mission to assure the British Crown that America’s new banking system and currency would be based on debt and usury.

When Robert R. Livingston (html) proposed a land bank system, the young Hamilton derided it as a “wild and impracticable scheme.” His emotional response certainly telegraphed a hidden agenda from across the ocean to protect.

Where did he get such seasoned opinions? Certainly not from his experience. Evidently, he received his instructions from The London Assurance governor John Barker, Barker’s nephew John Barker Church, and the Bank of England.

Consequently, Alexander Hamilton and his Crown Agent accomplices assured the new American Republic would begin its banking a and currency life with one hand tied behind its back by its mortal British nemesis.

Indeed, the British Crown was successful in institutionalizing the demons of Mammon and Moloch in our blessed Republic.

We must close their offshore bank accounts, and shut down the Federal Reserve and their grifters at the IRS.

HAMILTON'S THREE BRITISH BOOKS THAT MADE HIM A BANKING GENIUS-IN-WEEKS

A lowly figure beside the august Morris, Hamilton wanted to establish his intellectual bona fides with the new superintendent of finance. Before writing to him, Hamilton brushed up on money matters and had Colonel Timothy Pickering send him some primers: David Hume's Political Discourses, tracts written by the English clergyman and polemicist Richard Price, and his all-purpose crib, Postlethwayt's Universal Dictionary of Trade and Commerce. On April 30, 1781, Hamilton sent a marathon letter to Morris—it runs to thirty-one printed pages—that set forth a full-fledged system for shoring up American credit and creating a national bank. Portions of this interminable letter exist in Eliza's handwriting (complete with her faulty spelling), as if Hamilton's hand ached and he had to pass the pen to his bride at intervals. Hamilton started out sheepishly enough: "I pretend not to be an able financier. . . . Neither have I had leisure or materials to make accurate calculations."⁸ Then he delivered a virtuoso performance as he asserted the need for financial reforms to complete the Revolution. "Tis by introducing order into our finances—by restoring public credit—not by gaining battles that we are finally to gain our object."⁹

Watch the Form 4 insider trading filings... the real purpose of this kabuki theater. These guys are masters at creating liquidity events via propaganda “narratives” so their upper tier management, officers and directors can profit from the stock bumps or down turns, depending on the objective, in this case an upturn.

1773		Student, King's College (Columbia University), New York (age 16)	A charity student sponsored by opium and slave trader Kortright & Cruger; the evidence is intriguing that Henry Cruger, Sr. was Hamilton's illegitimate son, hence the Cruger family raised, sponsored and funded Hamilton as family; this would also explain why young Hamilton was given full management of Kortright & Cruger in St. Croix, as an inexperienced teenager, while Cruger was away on extended travel	Ron Chernow. 1781	May 26	Hamilton founded Bank of North America 	Bank of North America chartered. Robert Morris was appointed by Congress to be the first superintendent of finance in 1781. Alexander Hamilton vied to be superintendent and was looked over, he was successful in arranging for his British brother-in-law, John Barker Church , to become one of the Bank of North America two largest shareholders (html). Then, while Church sailed to Europe to "settle wartime accounts" [and visit his London base of operations], Church named Hamilton his American business agent (html) in his absence and "deputized" him to watch over his Bank of North America interests and establish the Bank of New York (in 1791) (html). Interlocked British-American Banker Blood Notably, Robert R. Livingstone had proposed a "land bank" as the initial capital, Hamilton the banking neophyte was suspiciously vociferous in opposing the idea, deriding it as a "wild and impracticable scheme." (We believe his conduct is highly suspect since (a) Hamilton had no experience to make such brash statements, and thus, was evidently (b) pressing the agenda of his British Crown handlers, most notably John Barker, Governor of London Assurance.) George Beckwith	It was also in the autumn of 1789 that the Secretary of the Treasury [Hamilton] entered into these [SECRET] discussions [with Col. Beckwith], becoming thenceforth the most important public character upon whom Dorchester's agent depended. In this opening interview Hamilton manifested his aim to influence foreign policy, thereby initiating the long divisive struggle in the cabinet—a struggle culminating five years later in the settlement that, in the words of the leading authority, more “aptly...might be called Hamilton's Treaty.” ... 			The cipher key for the discussions in the autumn of 1789 was transmitted in Dorchester to Grenville, 28 Oct. 1789, marked “Private,” PRO: CO 42/66, f. 245, 247. The most important individuals in this list, excepting Washington with whom Beckwith exchanged two unimportant remarks, were William Samuel Johnson (No. 1) , Philip Schuyler (No. 2) , “A Gentleman in Office of the United States,” who can only have been Henry Knox (No. 4) , and Alexander Hamilton (No. 7). The cipher key for seven additional names of persons consulted in the spring of 1790 was enclosed in Dorchester to Grenville, 7 June 1790, marked “Private,” PRO: CO 42/68, f. 229, 231. The principal persons in this group were William Paterson , Senator from New Jersey (No. 10), John Jay (No. 12) , and Thomas Scott, “Member of House of Representatives from Counties West of Allegheny Mountains” (No. 14) . The cipher key for six further names was transmitted in Dorchester to Grenville, 25 Sep. 1790, marked “Private,” PRO: CO 42/46, f. 384, 385. The principal informants of Beckwith in this group were Fisher Ames (No. 17) , Richard Henry Lee (No. 18) , and Isaac Sherman (No. 21) . The entire list is printed in Brymner, Report, 1890, p. xli, xlii, consisting of twenty-three names. 1790	Jul 08		British spy Col. George Beckwith met privately with Hamilton (the seventh interview) in the morning; at noon Hamilton reported the conversation to Thomas Jefferson and George Washington who instructed neutrality on the Spanish commerce question. However, Hamilton undermined the neutrality policy instruction by indicating to Beckwith, unbeknown to Beckwith, that Hamilton was promoting a hidden agenda to finalize a trade deal with Britain in favor of a Spanish deal. This hidden agenda misled Washington's policy between 1787 to 1792	Archivist. (Accessed May 09, 2022). The War Crisis of 1790, re. British spy, Alexander Hamilton handler Major George Beckwith, p. 2. 			In this meeting, Hamilton's "merely private" conversation with Beckwith (which was not reported to Washington or Jefferson timely) assured the British Privy Council that Washington favored a trade deal with Great Britain, when no such sentiments were in play. 			Historian Ron Chernow called these secret meetings between No. 7 (Alexander Hamilton) with British spy George Beckwith merely as "wide-ranging chats" and "freelance contacts". Chernow injected "preposterous charges" in pointing out that some at the time accused Hamilton of treason. However, he did not discuss why they were preposterous, revealing his bias to protect Hamilton from his evidently traitorous actions. Indeed, it only takes a few such well-placed adjectives to fool future generations. Shame.	Ron Chernow. (2004). Alexander Hamilton, Corrupt Squadrons, p. 394, 818 pgs. The Penguin Press.	https://archive.org/details/alexanderhamilton00chernow/page/394/mode/1up?q=beckwith
			Hindsight is 2020, despite Chernow's attempt to explain away treasonous, unreported side-deal conversations with the British spy Beckwith, historians ignore the elephant in the room: that Treasury Secretary Hamilton was (a) aligning the First Bank of the United States charter with that of the Bank of England; and (b) Hamilton was arranging for the effective foreign control of the bank by recruiting slave and opium traders Barings Bank (financier of the Boston Brahmins and the opium-slave trade), Hope & Sons (financier of the Dutch East India Company) and Hottinguer & Co. (Zurich-London bank associate with Klaus Schwab ancestors) as the leading investors in the soon-to-be chartered bank

1790	Aug 14		Alexander Hamilton (Beckwith Agent No. 7) sent Col. David Humphreys (Beckwith Agent No. 21) to Holland and London on a secret off-the-books mission not disclosed to Congress; the junket was masked as a mission to Spain, but the elephant in the room was the aligning of the emerging Bank of the United States charter with that of the Bank of England--		https://founders.archives.gov/?q=%22500%20Dollars%20for%20Col.%20Humphreys%22&s=1111311111&sa=&r=1&sr=

			Historian Bray Hammod describes a "close correlation between sections of the original act incorporating the Bank of England and corresponding parts of the act incorporating the Bank of the United States, has written: "Those sections of the Act of 1694 which authorized establishment of ... [the Bank of England] had influenced the measures which had already incorporated the Bank of North America, the Massachusetts Bank, and the Bank of Maryland, but to nowhere near the extent the act was to influence the charter of the Bank of the United States.....
