ROGER STONE PASSES TWO POLYGRAPH EXAMS PROVING NO WIKILEAKS COLLABORATION

(Oct. 30, 2018)—(Source: ABCNews) Longtime Republican political operative Roger Stone is gearing up for battle with special counsel Robert Mueller after a parade of witnesses has appeared before a grand jury to be grilled about their relationship with Stone during critical moments of the 2016 presidential campaign. Sources tell ABC News that Stone, a longtime friend of President Donald Trump, quietly expanded his legal team in recent months, hiring prestigious Florida attorney Bruce Rogow, who will be Stone’s lead attorney on all matters related to the office of the special counsel and all constitutional matters, such as first amendment issues that may arise.

“Mr. Robert Buschel and I welcome the presence of someone with Mr. Rogow’s stature and gravitas,” another Stone lawyer, Grant Smith, told ABC News of Rogow joining he and Buschel on the Stone legal team.

Stone’s legal team tells ABC News that last month their client voluntarily took two polygraph tests, which they claim will show Stone passing with flying colors on a spectrum of key issues covering areas of interest in the Mueller probe related to Stone.

The two polygraph tests, paid for by Stone’s legal team, were administered by Slattery Associates Inc. in Florida. Stone’s legal team shared the results from the tests exclusively with ABC News for review.

WALL STREET JOURNAL RECYCLES OLD NEWS IN SMEAR ATTEMPT

ASSANGE COMMUNICATION CLARIFIED MONTHS AGO, UNDER OATH

(Oct. 30, 2018)—I have long said Shelby Holliday of the Wall Street Journal is the most dishonest fake news reporter in America- and that’s with heavy competition. Her latest recycle of old news heralding my saying I had communicated with Julian Assange has long since been clarified as having been thru a third party. Once again she systematically ignores my responses to her questions. I testified as to this under oath before the House Intelligence committee. My testimony to the House Intelligence Committee was 100% accurate and truthful despite claims by hyper partisans who enjoy congressional immunity from lawsuit.

I had no advance knowledge about the acquisition and publication of John Podesta’s e-mail.

I had no advance notice of the source content or exact release date of the WikiLeaks DNC disclosures. I received nothing including hacked e-mails from Guccifer 2.0, the Russians, WikiLeaks or anyone else and therefore passed on nothing to Donald Trump and the Trump campaign or anyone else. My testimony in front of the House Committee was accurate and truthful.”

IN MUELLER'S CROSSHAIRS — ROGER STONE — THE INTERVIEW

(Sep. 24, 2018)—Patrick Slevin: Most people who follow politics know that you have a 40-year relationship with Donald Trump and the media is certainly focused on the fact that you appear to be in Special Counsel Robert Mueller’s crosshairs. You told the Palm Beach Post last week that “you would never roll on Trump”. What did you mean by that?

Roger Stone: At this point, Mr. Mueller and the FBI have interrogated at least 14 current or former associates of mine, at least 8 of whom have been dragged before the Grand Jury. CNN has reported that Mueller has obtained all of my financial records and presumably my tax returns. At least two people I am currently working with are informants for Mr. Mueller. Yet with all of this, I am absolutely certain that the Special Counsel has no evidence of Russian collusion, collaboration with Wikileaks, or any evidence that I knew in advance of the acquisition or publication of John Podesta’s emails. I think it is fair to say that Mr. Mueller is conducting an inquisition.

Patrick Slevin: But what did you mean when you wouldn’t roll on Trump?

Stone is Mueller’s last stand; Deep State flummoxed

Gibson Dunn LLP exposed as one of the most corrupt law firms in America

Investigative Reporter Julia Davis investigates Facebook’s Leader v. Facebook attorney Gibson Dunn LLP. She credits this firm with the reason why not a single Wall Street banker has gone to jail since 2008. Click here to read her article “Everybody hates whistleblowers.” Examiner.com, Apr. 10, 2012. Here’s an excerpt:

“Skillful manipulation of the firm’s extensive media connections allows Gibson Dunn to promote their causes, while simultaneously smearing their opponents and silencing embarrassing news coverage.”

This statement followed right after Davis cited Facebook’s chief inside counsel in the Leader v. Facebook case, Theodore Ullyot, who appears to have helped lead the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption. Interesting word choices associated with Gibson Dunn LLP: manipulation, smear. Attorneys swear a solemn oath to act morally, ethically, and in support of democratic principles. They promise to conduct themselves in a manner that instills confidence among the citizenry in the rule of law and the judicial system. These promises appear to be meaningless. Leader proposes trillion dollar fed revenue while lowering taxes
May 20, 2018—with news that more of Roger Stone associates have been subpoenaed, it is beginning to look as if Special Counsel Robert Mueller is desperate.

The Mueller probe was supposed to be about Trump-Russian collusion during the last presidential election. Yet a CBS News poll this month found 53% believed the case is politically motivated.

Mueller now needs a legitimizing target, since his last big target, Paul Manafort’s alleged criminal activity did not demonstrate a Trump-Russia nexus. The alleged crimes of Manafort are based on acts dating back to 2005, and not relevant to the Trump campaign whatsoever.

In addition to Manafort, Mueller managed to scoop up a few run-of-the-mill process crimes when he was otherwise empty-handed with General Flynn and Rick Gates.

Process crimes [like lying to the FBI] are fish in a barrel for even mediocre federal prosecutors, and scarcely satisfy an interested public. You don’t need a special prosecutor for this. So now we turn to Stone. For Mueller’s urgent need for legitimization, Stone is his best last hope.

Our Mission

American citizens must fight abuse of the constitutional right for authors and inventors to enjoy the fruits of their inventions, as a matter of matter of basic property rights and sound public policy. Otherwise, instead of innovation, creativity, genius, ideas, vision, courage, entrepreneurship, respect, property, rejuvenation, morals, ethics, values, renewal, truth, facts, rights, privacy, solutions and judicial faithfulness,

... our society and economy will be dragged down (and eventually destroyed) by copying, infringement, thievery, counterfeiting, hacking, greed, misinformation, exploitation, abuse, waste, disrespect, falsity, corruption, bribery, coercion, intimidation, doublespeak, misconduct, lies, deception, attorney “dark arts,” destruction, confusion, dishonesty, judicial chicanery and lawlessness.

If we do not speak up, impeach derelict judges and imprison corrupt attorneys, we cannot possibly hope to start fixing the current ills in our society. Without justice and respect for private property, democracy has no sure foundation.

Current Editorial Focus

We are an opinion blog that advocates for strong intellectual property rights. We welcome commenters and contributors. The Leader v. Facebook patent infringement case first came to our attention after learning that the trial judge, Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, ignored his jury’s admission that they had no evidence to support their on-sale bar verdict, but the judge supported it anyway.

The judicial misconduct has deteriorated from there, replete with two of the three judges on the Federal Circuit appeal panel, Judges Alan D. Lourie and Kimberly A. Moore, holding Facebook stock that they did not disclose to the litigants, and later tried to excuse through a quick motion slipped in at the last minute by the Clerk of Court, Jan Horbaly, and his close friends at The Federal Circuit Bar Association. (The DC Bar subsequently revealed that Mr. Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in Washington D.C.)

The judges ignored shocking new evidence that Mark Zuckerberg withheld 28 hard drives of 2003-2004 evidence from Leader Technologies that could prove actual theft (and therefore claims even more serious than infringement). In addition, Facebook’s appeal attorney, Thomas G. Hungar of Gibson Dunn LLP, has close personal ties to just about every judicial player in this story. The misconduct appears to reach into the U.S. Patent Office through abuse of the reexamination process by Facebook. We will stay focused on Leader v. Facebook until justice is served, but we also welcome news and analysis of intellectual property abuse in other cases as well.
May 07, 2018—CNBC claims their “anonymous sources” say that Muller is focusing in on Roger Stone as a top subject for the investigation into Russian collusion.

“Stone, a longtime advisor to Trump, is apparently one of the top subjects of the Mueller investigation into potential collusion between the Kremlin and the Trump campaign, sources told CNBC on condition of anonymity.” —CNBC

We reached out to Stone to get his take on this story; is this another example of CNBC fake news or is it legitimate?

“The story in CNBC yesterday suggesting extensive ties between myself and Rick Gates is categorically incorrect.

That being said, the story did refresh my memory of one dinner I had with Mr. Gates and others in the weeks following the NY Republican primary where we discussed the delegates that would be going to the convention from New York. New York has a system where the delegates were selected after the primary and we were working on a strategy to make sure that those appointed were loyal to the person who won the primary, Donald Trump. There were forces at work to try and appoint delegates that were hostile to the winner . . .”

ROGER STONE: WIKILEAKS, JULIAN ASSANGE AND ME; THE ANATOMY OF A FAKE NEWS AVALANCHE

MSM Fake News has gone berzerk using totally unverified reporting
(By Roger Stone)

The fake news media is in overdrive. The constant torrent of disinformation and manipulative ‘reporting’ from fake news outlets like the Daily Beast, Salon, Slate, and Talking Points Memo is as predictable as it is hysterical.

One would expect higher standards from The Wall Street Journal but, sadly, the Journal has now joined the perpetually-obtuse fake news lynch mob nipping at my heels with constant recycling of repeatedly-discredited claims of collaboration between me, Wikileaks, Julian Assange and the Russians.

On April 2, 2018, the Journal breathlessly reported about an August 3, 2016 email I sent to Sam Nunberg, in which I joked that I had dined with Julian Assange in London the night before.

This email, with its purely tongue-in-cheek comment about dinner with Assange, was simply a continuation of the same joke I had sarcastically made to Nunberg as I ended a prior phone call with him, after it had dragged on for far too long. This call, with my original jest about ‘meeting with Assange’, was first reported by The Washington Post.

RANDY & ME: TRUTH ABOUT WIKILEAKS

The Deep State, Mainstream Media, and Established Order will stop at nothing to prove the unprovable.

(By Roger Stone)

When I spoke of a back channel to WikiLeaks in a rousing Tea Party rally in 2016 , I was probably over dramatizing the role of progressive talk show host, comic, impressionist, and activist Randy Credico.

I first met Credico when I was advising billionaire Tom Golisano in his 75-million-dollar independent bid for Governor of New York against Governor George Pataki, who governed conservatively in his first term but mortgaged controlled state finances to the municipal unions in return for their endorsement in his re-election and Carl McCall the elected African-American State Comptroller.

Golisano, a maverick billionaire from Rochester, had proposed the legalization of medicinal marijuana as the candidate of New York’s Reform Party affiliate, the New York Independence Party who backed his message with millions from the fortune he made as the founder and CEO of PAYCHEX. It shows how far ahead of his time the billionaire philanthropist entrepreneur Tom Golisano was.

ROGER STONE PUSHES BACK ON WIKILEAKS SMEAR

Thanks to WikiLeaks, Mueller’s Apr. 27, 2009 Uranium One treason with the Clintons was exposed
Roger Stone and Sean Hannity cut to the quick on Special Counsel Robert Mueller’s illegalities and Mueller’s continuing criminal smears of American Patriots to save his own skin. https://youtu.be/Zx0W4VaaAT4

Mainstream media turn their attention to long-time Republican strategist and former Trump adviser Roger Stone.

Background:

It appears that former FBI Director Robert S. Mueller, III will stop at nothing to hide his treasonous conspiracy with the then newly-appointed Secretary of State Hillary Clinton on Apr. 27, 2009.

Mueller became Bill & Hillary's Uranium One freelance uranium trafficker by delivering a 10 gram sample of highly-enriched uranium (HEU) to the Russian government in clear violation of Article 106a(a)(1). ESPIONAGE of the U.S. Code of Military Justice.

Why? To verify to the Russians the quality of America's yellow cake uranium enrichment capabilities in Eunice, New Mexico from which the Russians planned to smuggle through Canada with the help of Clinton Foundation mega-donor, Canadian Frank Giustra.

Just fifty-seven (57) days later, the Russian atomic energy commission ROSATOM purchased Uranium One and acquired 20% of America's uranium reserves. Hillary approved the transaction. The Clinton Foundation had already received a $145 million donation from Frank Giustra—the original Uranium One bag man.

Pay attention to the military justice penalty for espionage.

FULL ROGER STONE INTERVIEW: JULIAN ASSANGE IS A ‘COURAGEOUS JOURNALIST’

Roger Stone speaks out in exclusive Influential Interview about Wikileaks !!RUSSIA!! DEAD DONKEY

Roger Stone spoke out against a recent Atlantic article, Roger Stone's Secret Messages with Wikileaks. The Atlantic story has caused a stir in political circles claiming Mr. Stone had prior knowledge of the Hillary Clinton emails that would eventually be disclosed by Wikileaks. More importantly, Stone said he never discussed the Wikileaks disclosures regarding Hillary with Donald Trump before, during or after the election.

[EDITOR: The author of The Atlantic article was Natasha Bertrand. On Feb. 28, 2018, Roger Stone's colleague at Infowars, Alex Jones, was served on Monday with EEOC complaints from two former employees who were in a relationship while employed at Infowars. Since the election, Jones has been served with something like eight such harassment lawsuits. Like the current lawsuit against Donald Trump and Roger Stone, these cases all appear to have their origins in Obama-Clinton-Soros animis.

The Atlantic's "Natasha" is a notoriously Russian name. Is Natasha Bertrand a Russian operative for The Atlantic? After all, the EEOC complaint against Alex Jones (written by Hillary Clinton's lawyer) identified an Infowars female employee as "Daria the Russian operative in the office." Almost humorously, Daria Russkaya (@roarmittens) is said to be one of the most decorated female former elite special forces soldiers in the U.S. Army whose parents emmigrated to America to escape communism in the Soviet Union. These identity politics emanating from the UniParty* are juvenile, laughable, immoral, historically ignorant and sad. Here is Alex Jones's response to these EEOC complaints. Jones said yesterday that his staff had suspected this complaining couple was preparing for such backstabbing before the couple quit Infowars, so Infowars had captured ample evidence to refute this conspiracy to defame.

SLEVIN: What is your reaction to the report in The Atlantic that you were communicating with Wikileaks via direct message on Twitter?

STONE: If anything, the exchanges cited by The Atlantic prove conclusively that I had no advance knowledge of the content or source of Wikileaks disclosures regarding Hillary Clinton. I had merely confirmed Julian Assange’s public claim that he had information on Hillary Clinton and he would publish it.

A true copy of this DM exchange was provided many months ago to the House Intelligence Committee clearly demonstrating I had no ‘collaboration” with Wikileaks. Assange himself said in an interview with Amy Goodman that I never tweeted anything he or WikiLeaks hadn’t said or written publicly. I have never claimed otherwise.

STONE: I have no idea what the President knew about the Wikileaks disclosures, when he learned it and who he learned about them from. This entire discussion is designed to distract attention from the devastating content of the material released by Wikileaks. Hillary is shown to be corrupt, greedy, vain and unhealthy. Her teaming up with Deborah Wasserman Schulz to cheat Bernie Sanders was exposed. The efforts to handle the allegations of sexual assault by Bill Clinton was exposed. Is it surprising that the Democrats, and their handmaidens in the media, want to talk endlessly about where these emails came from rather than what it is.

Roger Stone’s full Twitter private message conversation with WikiLeaks shows no further engaged conversation beyond October 16, 2016, a full record of the conversation obtained by The Daily Caller reveals.

Kaczynski told The Daily Caller the direct messages were in reference to a March 2017 story, but that he did not directly quote the emails.

“The true copy of this exchange provided many months ago to the House Intelligence Committee demonstrates I had no ‘collaboration’ with WikiLeaks,” Stone said in a statement to TheDC. His statement follows a partial publishing Tuesday of his exchanges with WikiLeaks by The Atlantic.

Stone has long been at the center of controversy over allegations that he worked with WikiLeaks founder Julian Assange to coordinate the release of hacked DNC emails during the 2016 presidential election.

“The content of the exchange with WikiLeaks shows neither any claim by me to have any information beyond what Assange himself had said publicly and reiterates the statement by WikiLeaks that I had not communicated with them prior to the release of the DNC emails that were both accurate and so damaging to Hillary,” he explained. “My frustration that whoever is manning the WikiLeaks Twitter direct messages is unaware that I had confirmed Assange’s claim to have Clinton material is also reflected. That was what I meant when I said WikiLeaks ‘leaks.’”

“Stone comes off as an aging diva trying to get on the Fame Train with a bunch of people in way over their heads with the Russians,” Intelligence expert and Naval War College professor Tom Nichols told TheDC after reviewing the full exchange. Nichols took care to note to clarify that following The Atlantic’s Tuesday story, the evidence was still currently lacking of any collaboration between Stone and WikiLeaks.

ROGER STONE: SWAMP STINK SPECIAL: A RUBIN SANDWICH, COVERED IN SCHIFF—THE WASHINGTON POST IS FAKE NEWS

(Roger Stone)

Well, another Trump-Russia collusion hoax-peddler from another leftist media rag is out with another specious, conclusory attempt to reinforce yet another bunch of Schiff floated downstream by House Intelligence Committee Democrats in the form of a 10-page “rebuttal” memo replete with all kinds of clever stories and, as expected, absolutely ZERO evidence to support anything in the Democrats’ ceaseless carousel of phony allegations against the president and his 2016 campaign.

This time the designated Trump-Russia collusion conspiracy theorist is an actual creature of the Beltway Swamp, where democracy goes to be thwarted by “Democrats.” But to call the duplicitous Trump-deranged neo-liberal Washington Post warmungress-in-chief Jennifer Rubin a “conspiracy theorist” would be a terrible insult to that moniker, even as a CIA-invented pejorative.

Former CIA director in legal jeopardy for his ruthless political jihad against American voters

“DOJ statement and indictments reveal the extent and motivations of Russian interference in 2016 election. Claims of a “hoax” in tatters. My take: Implausible that Russian actions did not influence the views and votes of at least some Americans.”

- February 16, 2018 Tweet by Embittered Obama Spy Chief John O. Brennan

There can be no doubt that panic is rapidly setting in amongst the principal players of the neo-leftist Obama-Clinton-Democrat crime cabal that has largely been consigned to watching impotently from the sidelines as the central pillar of their plot to frame and take down President Donald J. Trump — the Trump-Russia collusion hoax - has now begun to crash down on top of them.

At the heart of this Obama-Clinton-Democrat FBI-DOJ-CIA-FISA Court cabal is the originator of the Trump-Russia collusion hoax himself, the deepest deep state denizen of the bunch, former CIA Director John O. Brennan.

As our country’s Russian Collusion Hoaxmaster General John Brennan has good reason to be worried.

Best known for indulging Obama’s most evil compulsions as Obama’s 2nd-term CIA chief, Brennan was just freshly-minted as an NBC “News” shill (shocking) under the title “senior national security and intelligence analyst.”

Over the past few weeks, the world has learned that the basis for the FISA warrant to surveil members of the Trump campaign was based on a political opposition research document, crafted by a dirty spy.

The infamous “Steele Dossier” was rife with lies and political posturing based on unverifiable and blatantly false statements and allowed the jackboot thugs in the Obama era intelligence community commit disgusting acts of sedition in an effort to tilt the election for Hillary Clinton.

The Obama-Clinton partisans infecting the FBI and DOJ used evidence they knew was fabricated, as the legal basis for warrants to spy on the Republican candidate for president.

To prop up their false narrative, the FBI fed the phony dossier to Yahoo reporter Mike Isikoff, and then used the article he wrote as further evidence before the court. Thus Isikoff exposed himself for what he is; not a journalist... but a stooge for the Deep State.

OP-ED ROGIER STONE: HEY, NICHOLAS KRISTOF: IF YOU’RE SMART, WHY DO YOU ACT SO OBTUSE?

(BY ROGIER STONE) If you ever find yourself in need of a cheap cheat sheet of ever-cited-but-never-substantiated “Trump colluded with Russia” allegations, look no further than a smorgasbord of hyperbolic conclusion-leaping disinformation recently regurgitated in (where else?) The New York Times by a predictably-disingenuous leftist media parrot named Nicholas Kristof.

Not one to hide his remarkable banality beneath the grey lady’s moldy corset, this over-exercised Russia conspiracy theorist moonlights as an occasional blathering head from the bustling stable of Trump-deranged zealots regularly rotated into guest appearances on (where else?) MSNBC.

Just last week Comrade Kristof treated all five MSNBC viewers to a taste of his eminent journalistic credibility by viciously slandering House Intelligence Committee Chairman Devin Nunes, calling Nunes a ‘stooge,’ not just of the White House but of Vladimir Putin himself.

ROGER STONE: MUELLER INDICTED A HAM SANDWICH! NOTHING RELATED TO TRUMP.

ROGER STONE: With his indictment of 16 Russians including a caterer- Robert Mueller has literally indicted a ham sandwich! No connection, co-ordination or collusion with anybody related to Trump!

OP-ED: ROGER STONE: FREE JULIAN ASSANGE, MR. PRESIDENT

While in London this past week, visiting the United Kingdom to address the Oxford, Durham and Cambridge Unions about Donald Trump’s improbable 2016 victory and the outlook for his presidency, I visited the tiny Ecuadoran Embassy where journalist Julian Assange has been effectively imprisoned for nearly SIX years, under siege from vindictive state intelligence forces.

Knowing any actual contact with Assange would instantly become needless fodder back home for rabid partisans desperately clinging to their fast-sinking Trump-Russia collusion fantasy, I chose only to drop off my business card.

My inchoate courtesy call was, in part, to “punk” some in British media who persist in the falsehood that Assange is a Russian agent and WikiLeaks a Russian front, rather than a legitimate news organization.

DONALD Trump’s oldest political adviser has called on him to “free Julian Assange”, the founder of the controversial Wikileaks website. Writing for the Daily Express, Roger Stone, has claimed Mr Assange is a victim of the same conspiracy theory that has linked the U.S. President to Russia and Vladimir Putin.

HOME RUN! ROGER STONE BATS AWAY STUPID BIASED BBC QUESTIONS ABOUT DONALD TRUMP

Source: https://youtu.be/NFXfgklrjtc

(Guest: Roger Stone, Interviewer: Stephen Sackur, HARDtalk)
BBC interviewer Stephen Sackur, host of HARDtalk, very evidently attempted to score points with his globalist handlers in this BBC interview (RobinHoodUKIP: “British Brainwashing Corporation”). Sackur pulled out the stops on current globalist talking points. For example, his disingenuous lament “this is dangerous territory” that has been a well-used propaganda narrative for weeks in the U.S. … and apparently in anti-Trump British propaganda also.

Enjoy watching Roger knock it out of the park! Good job Roger!

MEET THE MAN WHO MADE TRUMP

(By Todd Gillespie)

... Stone had strong words for one former Cambridge Union president, Christopher Steele, the [ex-Varsity writer] and M16 agent responsible for the salacious ‘dirty dossier’. The collection of memos, funded by the Democratic Party, included graphic allegations about Trump’s private life and linked his allies, including Stone, to Russian officials. This “phony narrative”, Stone says, facilitated a scandal “much bigger than Watergate” by giving the FBI an excuse to launch surveillance on Trump and his advisers during the campaign which, Stone claims, violated their constitutional rights in the process.

Clever-by-half hucksters. Schiff said the FISA Memo should not be released because the public is not sophisticated enough, “Americans wouldn’t understand it.” Swalwell tweeted that the FISA Memo “seeks to torch every floor of the FBI building to protect the President” as if the FBI is now a delicate Spring flower that must be protected by empty-suit Democrats and RINOs.

Aside from a brief interlude for the president’s State of the Union speech, the last two weeks have seen American political discourse consumed almost entirely by a cacophonous spectacle (but not so spectacular cacophony) of brazenly-disingenuous FISA memo spincraft, perpetrated by whirling Democrat dervishes of deception and obeisantly parroted by their corporate media propaganda amen choir.

Out in front of the cameras, leading the Democrats’ FISA memo freakout, pimping for their rat’s nest of political whores and swindlers, peddling their garbage with punchably-smug phony grins, we have the static duo of congressional pygmies, the “glimmer twins” of the looney left Eric Swalwell and Adam Schiff.

ROGER STONE ON THE STATE OF THE UNION SPEECH: WHAT I SAW WAS DIFFERENT THAN WHAT CNN SAW

President Trump said “Americans are Dreamers too.” Democrats grimaced.

(By Roger Stone)

President Trump enters the floor to cheers. He takes his time to savor the moment, as well as shake hands with well-wishers. The Democrats sit with their arms crossed, looking like a bunch of sour-pusses.

Speaker of the House Paul Ryan announces President Trump, with a slight flub.
President Trump is acknowledged with a standing ovation.

Trump begins by reflecting on his speech a year ago, and how he took swift action on the promises he made, with clear vision and a righteous mission to make America great again for all Americans.

The past year brought many trials, from floods, fires, and terrible storms, Americans came through with their beautiful soul and a steel spine.

The President then recounted several tales of heroism from Hurricanes Irma and Harvey and states that We will always pull through together, always.

He then thanked the Capitol Police for their swift action at the Congressional baseball game shooting and called out Louisiana Congressman Steve Scalise, who got a standing ovation.

President Trump called on everyone to set aside their differences and work together for the good of the people who elected them into office. Nancy Pelosi visibly grimaced.

ROGER STONE: POPULARITY NOT POLICY (HAS HIJACKED PUBLIC DISCOURSE)

Roger Stone addressed the Durham University Student Union on Feb. 02, 2018. Photo: Helen Paton via the Durham Union / Palatinate.

(By Julia Atherley)

Roger Stone is currently one of the most powerful men in the Republican Party. He has worked on campaigns for Reagan, Nixon, and most recently was fundamental for the election of Trump. The words ‘Roger Stone’ are usually followed by ‘dirty trickster’ as he is infamous for his unorthodox political tactics. It is not unfair to say that Donald Trump would not currently be in the White House were it not for Roger Stone.

He’s an outspoken figure; CNN and MSNBC have both previously banned him from their shows and most famously he has been suspended from Twitter. Uproar broke out this week as the BBC hosted him on the Today programme. In an interview with Palatinate, Stone speaks of his views on Brexit, Steve Bannon, censorship, and his involvement in the Trump campaign.

Speaking to Stone before his address at the Union, I am aware that this is a man at the centre of American politics. Despite leaving the Trump campaign in 2015, he continued to speak publicly in support of his bid. A recent Netflix documentary entitled Get Me Roger Stone charts his rise to political fame, culminating in Trump’s election.

(By David Maddox, Express.co.uk) Roger Stone, who was previously a key adviser to Presidents Richard Nixon and Ronald Reagan, also confirmed the President has not visited the UK yet because “he has not had a heartfelt invitation.”

Speaking at a Tory Bow Group event in central London he also told the Daily Express that Britain will need a Trump like political figure with charisma who can stand up to the political elites to make a success of Brexit.

Mr Stone, who came to public prominence revealing allegations about John Kennedy’s assassination, has known the US President since 1980 when he persuaded the property magnate to raise funds for Ronald Reagan’s election campaign.

He then went on to try to persuade Mr Trump to run as President eventually succeeding on third attempt in 2016. He described a trade deal between the UK and USA as the “single most important thing” for the two countries.

(By Contributing UK AFI Writers) Roger Stone is having a tour de force of English legends including Cambridge, Oxford and Durham universities.

He is also being interviewed by some of England's most left-leaning media, including the BBC and Guardian. (Remember: Investigator Glenn Greenwald at The Guardian broke the Edward Snowden story in 2013 about the illegal NSA surveillance programs.)

Reading between the lines, one can see how even these bastions of globalist propaganda in the UK are having to grudgingly admit that maybe they are wrong about President Donald Trump and his ability to do good in this world.

AFI's British investigators were blown away this morning by this Guardian coverage. They said that Jonathan Freedland is normally vicious about all things Trump.

The Guardian

by Jonathan Freedland, Jan. 31, 2018

Trump likes to pretend he operates within the usual boundaries, which is why a henchman with a record of racism and misogyny should have been challenged on Radio 4

Call it the teleprompter delusion: the tendency of the US political class to seize gratefully on any occasion when Donald Trump manages to stand in front of an Autocue and read the words written for him without frothing at the mouth. The pundits then hail the achievement as a turning point and the birth of a kinder, gentler, more presidential Trump.

It happened 11 months ago, when Trump addressed a joint session of both houses of congress. At one point, he paid tribute to the widow of a US serviceman killed in a botched operation in Yemen, who was present in the chamber and who the cameras showed sobbing. “He became president of the United States in that moment, period,” gushed the previously hostile CNN commentator and former Obama administration official Van Jones.
Predictably, the teleprompter delusion has resurfaced following Trump’s first State of the Union address on Tuesday night. The often Trump-sceptical Republican pollster Frank Luntz produced a textbook case of the syndrome when he tweeted: “Tonight I owe Donald Trump an apology. Tonight, I was moved and inspired ... tonight America is great again.”

This malady matters because it’s a symptom of normalisation, the urge to pretend Trump operates within the usual democratic boundaries when in fact he represents an alarming break from the norms that make liberal democracy possible.

Until now, these tendencies have been mostly confined to the US. But there is some troubling evidence that they are spreading beyond America’s shores. Witness the respectful reception the global 0.1% gave Trump at Davos last week and the chummy TV encounter between the president and Piers Morgan on Sunday. But an even more striking example came on Wednesday morning in the BBC’s most coveted interview slot, at 8.10am on Radio 4’s Today programme.

John Humphrys’s guest was Roger Stone, introduced only as a “political strategist”. The unsuspecting listener would not have known that Stone is in fact a notorious figure, one who cut his teeth as a bit player in the Nixon dirty tricks operation, and who was the youngest person called before the Watergate grand jury.

They would not have known that Stone was banned from Twitter last October after a litany of racist and abusive tweets directed at reporters. He was banned from CNN and MSNBC in 2016 (though he’s still welcome on Fox). Stone tweeted that CNN pundit Roland Martin was a “stupid negro” and a “fat negro”. To Jill Abramson, former editor of the New York Times and now a Guardian contributor, he tweeted in caps: “DIE BITCH!” He called the columnist Gail Collins an “elitist cunt”. In 2015, Stone dedicated a book on the Clintons he had co-written to one Victor Thorn, the author of “The Holocaust Hoax Exposed”, who blames 9/11 on a “Jewish plot”.

There’s more in that vein, but you get the idea. Which is not to say the BBC should necessarily have refused to put Stone on the air, but rather that if he was going to appear he needed to be challenged, and challenged hard. This is surely not a point lost on Humphrys, who revels in his reputation as a rottweiler interrogator.

Yet to Stone he was gentleness itself. First came the teleprompter delusion. “Is he a new Donald Trump?” Humphrys asked, marvelling that the “tone was so different” on Tuesday night. Stone was allowed to muse, uninterrupted, that Trump had “learned how to make the microphone come to him”, and that his tone was indeed warmer. “And less bellicose,” agreed Humphrys.

There followed a brief discussion about what Stone called the “Russian collusion delusion” - but, incredibly, no mention of Stone’s involvement in that affair. You’d not have known that Stone was one of several in Trump’s circle to have come under FBI investigation for alleged contacts with Russian officials, or that he was threatened last autumn with a subpoena by a congressional intelligence committee over his contacts with Julian Assange and WikiLeaks (Stone had an uncanny knack of predicting when WikiLeaks would drop damaging information about Hillary Clinton and her campaign). US investigators have also probed Stone’s contacts during the 2016 campaign with the Russian hacker Guccifer 2.0, widely thought to be behind the spreading of emails stolen from the Democratic party.

None of this was so much as mentioned on the Today programme. Instead, the usually ferocious Humphrys asked if the constant attacks on Trump “get to” the president. The result was that a man with a track record of racism and misogyny, with serious questions to answer about a scandal much graver than Watergate, was allowed unimpeded access to the BBC’s most prestigious slot. Which is how the abnormal is slowly made normal.

NFL CORRUPTION REDUX?

(By Roger Stone) As the Super Bowl approaches, and the mainstream media is flooded with promotional spots put out by the NFL, we can’t but help feel that this year is different. It is obvious that the sport is in a declining state, using viewership and attendance numbers alone to tell the tale. What hasn’t been so obvious is the reason why the NFL and their chairman Roger Goodell, are letting this happen.

I say letting this happen, because the wounds upon the NFL are surely self-inflicted. What was supposed to be an a-political popular sport has turned into a partisan slugfest with all the trappings of an orchestrated operation designed to create political divisions. Normally, when viewing such activity, it would be prudent to assume dirty tricks being played to distract from an unfolding narrative that ran counter to the orchestrator’s best interests. Here at Stone Cold Truth, that’s what we first thought was going on, put into play by the Left to distract from the trove of scandals being uncovered today in Washington, D.C. After our research, we’ve amended our position. Full Story.

THE TWISTED TRUTH ABOUT MUELLER’S COURRUPTED PROBE

(By Roger Stone) You know the old saying, “give someone enough rope and they’ll hang themselves?” Well that time has surely come for Mueller, the FBI (Fake, Biased Investigations) and the whole damn bunch of Trump hating, sore loser Clintonistas. With this week’s astounding revelations of premeditated, utterly biased and criminal behavior by top members of Mueller’s hit squad, this is more than a smoking gun.
There is so much evidence of a well planned, Obama backed, multi intelligence agency “conspiracy” to bury President Trump in a smear campaign under the pretext of “keeping our elections safe from the Russians!” With top members from Mueller’s team texting their hatred of Trump, referring to “an insurance policy” in case he was elected and then admitting that they knew from day one that “there’s no big there, there.”

PRESIDENT TRUMP SHOULD KEEP HIS PROMISE ON VACCINE SAFETY

(By Roger Stone) Donald J. Trump cares about people and especially for the citizens of the United States of America. He sacrificed more than most can ever know in order to do his utmost to make America great again. He and his family are to this day suffering the slings and arrows of an out-of-control political class that seeks nothing less than their total destruction. As his first year draws to a close, however, his list of achievements impresses even his harshest critics. Cutting red tape, rebuilding our military, and restoring respect for America worldwide are but a few of his dozens of monumental achievements, but there is still much more work to do.

President Trump also stands against corruption and seeks to shine truth wherever he can in his desire to drain The Swamp. The Swamp is not only the embedded political class and the federal bureaucracies but also corrupted special interests that seek their own gain at everyone else’s expense. Big Medicine and Big Pharma are two such special interest that have shielded their own from scrutiny by gaming the system and gaslighting their victims. Full story.

THE COMING 25TH AMENDMENT PLAY TO TAKE DOWN TRUMP

(By Roger Stone) The Establishment is in an uproar. Dirty trick after dirty trick has failed them. They were so sure Hillary would win! They were so sure they could control the narrative! They were absolutely positive that they would pull the levers of the Deep State and unseat Donald Trump with a relentless campaign of lawfare (warfare by lawyers).

President Trump has been a step ahead of them every time, so their Plan A - a recount followed by an attempted hijacking of the Electoral College failed, and their Plan B - “Deep State Soft Coup” is failing spectacularly. The failure to find any evidence whatsoever of Russian collusion means that Plan B has been a major dud. While special counsel Robert Mueller is still on course to bring some process oriented charge against the President such as perjury or obstruction of justice, the exposure of his entire inquiry as a partisan witch-hunt makes his success in reversing the results of the last presidential election unlikely. As Pat Buchanan has pointed out, unlike Richard Nixon, Donald Trump will not go quietly. Full story.

DEEP STATE PLANS A: RUSSIAN COLLUSION, B: HE'S CRAZY, C: KILL HIM

Political experts such as longtime Trump advisor Roger Stone expect the plot to declare Trump crazy and remove him under the 25th Amendment to fail. And when it does, rather than abandon the effort to destroy Trump, that would potentially put the president at risk of “Plan C” — assassination — Stone said in an interview. First, though, the swamp will try Plan A, which is the Mueller probe, and Plan B, which is the 25th Amendment, according to Stone. Full story.

ASSANGE COMMUNICATION CLARIFIED MONTHS AGO, UNDER OATH

(Oct. 30, 2018)—I have long said Shelby Holliday of the Wall Street Journal is the most dishonest fake news reporter in America- and that's with heavy competition. Her latest recycle of old news heralding my saying I had communicated with Julian Assange has long since been clarified as having been thru a third party. Once again she systematically ignores my responses to her questions. I testified as to this under oath before the House Intelligence committee. My testimony to the House Intelligence Committee was 100% accurate and truthful despite claims by hyper partisans who enjoy congressional immunity from lawsuit.

I had no advance knowledge about the acquisition and publication of John Podesta’s e-mail.
I had no advance notice of the source content or exact release date of the WikiLeaks DNC disclosures. I received nothing including hacked e-mails from Guccifer 2.0, the Russians, WikiLeaks or anyone else and therefore passed on nothing to Donald Trump and the Trump campaign or anyone else. My testimony in front of the House Committee was accurate and truthful.

IN MUELLER'S CROSSHAIRS — ROGER STONE — THE INTERVIEW

(Sep. 24, 2018)—Patrick Slevin: Most people who follow politics know that you have a 40-year relationship with Donald Trump and the media is certainly focused on the fact that you appear to be in Special Counsel Robert Mueller’s crosshairs. You told the Palm Beach Post last week that “you would never roll on Trump”. What did you mean by that?

Roger Stone: At this point, Mr. Mueller and the FBI have interrogated at least 14 current or former associates of mine, at least 8 of whom have been dragged before the Grand Jury. CNN has reported that Mueller has obtained all of my financial records and presumably my tax returns. At least two people I am currently working with are informants for Mr. Mueller. Yet with all of this, I am absolutely certain that the Special Counsel has no evidence of Russian collusion, collaboration with Wikileaks, or any evidence that I knew in advance of the acquisition or publication of John Podesta’s emails. I think it is fair to say that Mr. Mueller is conducting an inquisition.

Patrick Slevin: But what did you mean when you wouldn’t roll on Trump?

https://americans4innovation.blogspot.com/p/roger-stone-speaks.html

May 20, 2018—With news that more of Roger Stone associates have been subpoenaed, it is beginning to look as if Special Counsel Robert Mueller is desperate.

The Mueller probe was supposed to be about Trump-Russian collusion during the last presidential election. Yet a CBS News poll this month found 53% believed the case is politically motivated.

Mueller now needs a legitimizing target, since his last big target, Paul Manafort’s alleged criminal activity did not demonstrate a Trump-Russia nexus. The alleged crimes of Manafort are based on acts dating back to 2005, and not relevant to the Trump campaign whatsoever.

In addition to Manafort, Mueller managed to scoop up a few run-of-the-mill process crimes when he was otherwise empty-handed with General Flynn and Rick Gates.

Process crimes [like lying to the FBI] are fish in a barrel for even mediocre federal prosecutors, and scarcely satisfy an interested public. You don’t need a special prosecutor for this. So now we turn to Stone. For Mueller’s urgent need for legitimization, Stone is his best last hope.
STONE: TRUMP SHOULD DISMISS SESSIONS

Roger Stone: Trump should dismiss Sessions. CNN.

Apr. 06, 2018—In an exclusive interview with CNN’s Anderson Cooper, former Trump campaign adviser Roger Stone shares his advice for President Donald Trump and denies communication with WikiLeaks founder Julian Assange.
May 07, 2018—CNBC claims their “anonymous sources” say that Muller is focusing in on Roger Stone as a top subject for the investigation into Russian collusion.

“Stone, a longtime advisor to Trump, is apparently one of the top subjects of the Mueller investigation into potential collusion between the Kremlin and the Trump campaign, sources told CNBC on condition of anonymity.” — CNBC

We reached out to Stone to get his take on this story; is this another example of CNBC fake news or is it legitimate?

“The story in CNBC yesterday suggesting extensive ties between myself and Rick Gates is categorically incorrect.

That being said, the story did refresh my memory of one dinner I had with Mr. Gates and others in the weeks following the NY Republican primary where we discussed the delegates that would be going to the convention from New York. New York has a system where the delegates were selected after the primary and we were working on a strategy to make sure that those appointed were loyal to the person who won the primary, Donald Trump. There were forces at work to try and appoint delegates that were hostile to the winner . . .”

ROGER STONE: WIKILEAKS, JULIAN ASSANGE AND ME; THE ANATOMY OF A FAKE NEWS AVALANCHE

https://americans4innovation.blogspot.com/p/roger-stone-speaks.html
MSM Fake News has gone berzerk using totally unverified reporting

(By Roger Stone)

The fake news media is in overdrive. The constant torrent of disinformation and manipulative ‘reporting’ from fake news outlets like the Daily Beast, Salon, Slate, and Talking Points Memo is as predictable as it is hysterical.

One would expect higher standards from The Wall Street Journal but, sadly, the Journal has now joined the perpetually-obtuse fake news lynch mob nipping at my heels with constant recycling of repeatedly-discredited claims of collaboration between me, Wikileaks, Julian Assange and the Russians.

On April 2, 2018, the Journal breathlessly reported about an August 3, 2016 email I sent to Sam Nunberg, in which I joked that I had dined with Julian Assange in London the night before.

This email, with its purely tongue-in-cheek comment about dinner with Assange, was simply a continuation of the same joke I had sarcastically made to Nunberg as I ended a prior phone call with him, after it had dragged on for far too long. This call, with my original jest about ‘meeting with Assange’, was first reported by The Washington Post.

RANDY & ME: TRUTH ABOUT WIKILEAKS
The Deep State, Mainstream Media, and Established Order will stop at nothing to prove the unprovable.

(BY ROGER STONE)

When I spoke of a back channel to WikiLeaks in a rousing Tea Party rally in 2016, I was probably over dramatizing the role of progressive talk show host, comic, impressionist, and activist Randy Credico.

I first met Credico when I was advising billionaire Tom Golisano in his 75-million-dollar independent bid for Governor of New York against Governor George Pataki, who governed conservatively in his first term but mortgaged controlled of state finances to the municipal unions in return for their endorsement in his re-election and Carl McCall the elected African-American State Comptroller.

Golisano, a maverick billionaire from Rochester, had proposed the legalization of medicinal marijuana as the candidate of New York’s Reform Party affiliate, the New York Independence Party who backed his message with millions from the fortune he made as the founder and CEO of PAYCHEX. It shows how far ahead of his time the billionaire philanthropist entrepreneur Tom Golisano was.

ROGER STONE PUSHES BACK ON WIKILEAKS SMEAR

Roger Stone and Sean Hannity cut to the quick on Special Counsel Robert Mueller’s illegalities and Mueller’s continuing criminal smears of American patriots to save his own skin. https://youtu.be/Zx0W4VaaAT4

Mainstream media turn their attention to long-time Republican strategist and former Trump adviser Roger Stone.

Background:

It appears that former FBI Director Robert S. Mueller, III will stop at nothing to hide his treasonous conspiracy with the then newly-appointed Secretary of State Hillary Clinton on Apr. 27, 2009.

Mueller became Bill & Hillary's Uranium One freelance uranium trafficker by delivering a 10 gram sample of highly-enriched uranium (HEU) to the Russian government in clear violation of Article 106a(a)(1). ESPIONAGE of the U.S. Code of Military Justice.

Why? To verify to the Russians the quality of America’s yellow cake uranium enrichment capabilities in Eunice, New Mexico from which the Russians planned to smuggle through Canada with the help of Clinton Foundation mega-donor, Canadian Frank Giustra.

Just fifty-seven (57) days later, the Russian atomic energy commission ROSATOM purchased Uranium One and acquired 20% of America’s uranium reserves. Hillary approved the transaction. The Clinton Foundation had already received a $145 million donation from Frank Giustra—the original Uranium One bag man.

Pay attention to the military justice penalty for espionage.

ROGER STONE SPEAKS OUT IN EXCLUSIVE INFLUENTIAL INTERVIEW ABOUT WIKILEAKS !! RUSSIA!! DEAD DONKEY

Roger Stone with Patrick Slevin. Roger Stone spoke out against a recent Atlantic article, Roger Stone’s Secret Messages with Wikileaks. The Atlantic story has caused a stir in political circles claiming Mr. Stone had prior knowledge of the Hillary Clinton emails that would eventually be disclosed by Wikileaks. More importantly, Stone said he never discussed the Wikileaks disclosures regarding Hillary with Donald Trump before, during or after the election.

[EDITOR: The author of The Atlantic article was Natasha Bertrand. On Feb. 28, 2018, Roger Stone’s colleague at Infowars, Alex Jones, was served on Monday with EEOC complaints from two former employees who were in a relationship while employed at Infowars. Since the election, Jones has been served with something like eight such harassment lawsuits. Like the current lawsuit against Donald Trump and Roger Stone, these cases all appear to have their origins in Obama-Clinton-Soros animis.

The Atlantic’s "Natasha" is a notoriously Russian name. Is Natasha Bertrand a Russian operative for The Atlantic? After all, the EEOC complaint against Alex Jones (written by Hillary Clinton’s lawyer) identified an Infowars female employee as "Daria the Russian operative in the office." Almost humorously, Daria Russkaya (@roarmittens) is said to be one of the most decorated female former elite special forces soldiers in the U.S. Army whose parents emmigrated to America to escape communism in the Soviet Union.

These identity politics emanating from the UniParty* are juvenile, laughable, immoral, historically ignorant and sad. Here is Alex Jones’s response to these EEOC complaints. Jones said yesterday that his staff had suspected this complaining couple was preparing for such backstabbing before the couple quit Infowars, so Infowars had captured ample evidence to refute this conspiracy to defame.]

[Uniparty = DNC and RINOs (Republicans in name only)
SLEVIN: What is your reaction to the report in The Atlantic that you were communicating with Wikileaks via direct message on Twitter?

STONE: If anything, the exchanges cited by The Atlantic prove conclusively that I had no advance knowledge of the content or source of WikiLeaks disclosures regarding Hillary Clinton. I had merely confirmed Julian Assange’s public claim that he had information on Hillary Clinton and he would publish it.

A true copy of this DM exchange was provided many months ago to the House Intelligence Committee clearly demonstrating I had no ‘collaboration’ with WikiLeaks. Assange himself said in an interview with Amy Goodman that I never tweeted anything he or WikiLeaks hadn’t said or written publicly. I have never claimed otherwise.

STONE: I have no idea what the President knew about the Wikileaks disclosures, when he learned it and who he learned about them from. This entire discussion is designed to distract attention from the devastating content of the material released by Wikileaks. Hillary is shown to be corrupt, greedy, vain and unhealthy. Her teaming up with Deborah Wasserman Schulz to cheat Bernie Sanders was exposed. The efforts to handle the allegations of sexual assault by Bill Clinton was exposed. Is it surprising that the Democrats, and their handmaidens in the media, want to talk endlessly about where these emails came from rather than what it is.

ROGER STONE’S FULL WIKILEAKS CONVERSATION AND PASSPORT PHOTOS

Roger Stone with Laura Ingraham. Roger Stone reiterated that he had no advanced knowledge of the Podesta email leaks, calling suspicions by the left and by the press as "an attempt to re-inflate a false narrative." Laura Ingraham [Fox News Interview].

Roger Stone’s full Twitter private message conversation with WikiLeaks shows no further engaged conversation beyond October 16, 2016, a full record of the conversation obtained by The Daily Caller reveals.

Kaczynski told The Daily Caller the direct messages were in reference to a March 2017 story, but that he did not directly quote the emails.

“The true copy of this exchange provided many months ago to the House Intelligence Committee demonstrates I had no ‘collaboration’ with WikiLeaks,” Stone said in a statement to TheDC. His statement follows a partial publishing Tuesday of his exchanges with WikiLeaks by The Atlantic.

Stone has long been at the center of controversy over allegations that he worked with WikiLeaks founder Julian Assange to coordinate the release of hacked DNC emails during the 2016 presidential election.

“The content of the exchange with WikiLeaks shows neither any claim by me to have any information beyond what Assange himself had said publicly and reiterates the statement by WikiLeaks that I had not communicated with them prior to the release of the DNC emails that were both accurate and so damaging to Hillary," he explained. “My frustration that whoever is manning the WikiLeaks Twitter direct messages is unaware that I had confirmed Assange’s claim to have Clinton material is also reflected. That was what I meant when I said WikiLeaks ‘leaks.’”

“Stone comes off as an aging diva trying to get on the Fame Train with a bunch of people in way over their heads with the Russians,” Intelligence expert and Naval War College professor Tom Nichols told TheDC after reviewing the full exchange. Nichols took care to note to clarify that following The Atlantic’s Tuesday story, the evidence was still currently lacking of any collaboration between Stone and WikiLeaks.

Well, another Trump-Russia collusion hoax-peddler from another leftist media rag is out with another specious, conclusory attempt to reinforce yet another bunch of Schiff floated downstream by House Intelligence Committee Democrats in the form of a 10-page “rebuttal” memo replete with all kinds of clever stories and, as expected, absolutely ZERO evidence to support anything in the Democrats’ ceaseless carousel of phony allegations against the president and his 2016 campaign.

This time the designated Trump-Russia collusion conspiracy theorist is an actual creature of the Beltway Swamp, where democracy goes to be thwarted by “Democrats.” But to call the duplicitous Trump-deranged neo-liberal Washington Post warmongress-in-chief Jennifer Rubin a ‘conspiracy theorist’ would be a terrible insult to that moniker, even as a CIA-invented pejorative.

Former CIA director in legal jeopardy for his ruthless political jihad against American voters

“DOJ statement and indictments reveal the extent and motivations of Russian interference in 2016 election. Claims of a “hoax” in tatters. My take: Implausible that Russian actions did not influence the views and votes of at least some Americans.”

- February 16, 2018 Tweet by Embittered Obama Spy Chief John O. Brennan

There can be no doubt that panic is rapidly setting in amongst the principal players of the neo-leftist Obama-Clinton-Democrat crime cabal that has largely been consigned to watching impotently from the sidelines as the central pillar of their plot to frame and take down President Donald J. Trump — the Trump-Russia collusion hoax - has now begun to crash down on top of them.

At the heart of this Obama-Clinton-Democrat FBI-DOJ-CIA-FISA Court cabal is the originator of the Trump-Russia collusion hoax himself, the deepest deep state denizen of the bunch, former CIA Director John O. Brennan.

As our country’s Russian Collusion Hoaxmaster General John Brennan has good reason to be worried.

Best known for indulging Obama’s most evil compulsions as Obama’s 2nd-term CIA chief, Brennan was just freshly-minted as an NBC “News” shill (shocking) under the title “senior national security and intelligence analyst.”

Over the past few weeks, the world has learned that the basis for the FISA warrant to surveil members of the Trump campaign was based on a political opposition research document, crafted by a dirty spy.

The infamous “Steele Dossier” was rife with lies and political posturing based on unverifiable and blatantly false statements and allowed the jackboot thugs in the Obama era intelligence community commit disgusting acts of sedition in an effort to tilt the election for Hillary Clinton.

The Obama-Clinton partisans infecting the FBI and DOJ used evidence they knew was fabricated, as the legal basis for warrants to spy on the Republican candidate for president.

To prop up their false narrative, the FBI fed the phony dossier to Yahoo reporter Mike Isikoff, and then used the article he wrote as further evidence before the court. Thus Isikoff exposed himself for what he is; not a journalist… but a stooge for the Deep State.

Not one to hide his remarkable banality beneath the grey lady’s moldy corset, this over-exercised Russia conspiracy theorist moonlights as an occasional blathering head from the bustling stable of Trump-deranged zealots regularly rotated into guest appearances on (where else?) MSNBC.

Just last week Comrade Kristof treated all five MSNBC viewers to a taste of his eminent journalistic credibility by viciously slandering House Intelligence Committee Chairman Devin Nunes, calling Nunes a ‘stooge,’ not just of the White House but of Vladimir Putin himself.

Pictured is Julian Assange on the balcony of the Ecuadorian Embassy in London where he took asylum six years ago. The Aug. 2010 sexual assault charges against him in Sweden were dropped on May 19, 2017. The UK courts continue to support a silly breach of bail process charge. These actions reveal the lock-step coordination among the C.I.A, British (GCHQ) and Swedish (RPS/Säk) illegal rogue Intelligence operations that WikiLeaks has been bravely exposing. Assange suspects there is a secret U.S. indictment against him, and that the U.S. authorities will seek his extradition unless President Trump takes the moral and legal high ground. Go Mr. President! Assange Justin Tallin/Getty Images.

While in London this past week, visiting the United Kingdom to address the Oxford, Durham and Cambridge Unions about Donald Trump’s improbable 2016 victory and the outlook for his presidency, I visited the tiny Ecuadorian Embassy where journalist Julian Assange has been effectively imprisoned for nearly SIX years, under siege from vindictive state intelligence forces.

Knowing any actual contact with Assange would instantly become needless fodder back home for rabid partisans desperately clinging to their fast-sinking Trump-Russia collusion fantasy, I chose only to drop off my business card.

My inchoate courtesy call was, in part, to “punk” some in British media who persist in the falsehood that Assange is a Russian agent and WikiLeaks a Russian front, rather than a legitimate news organization.

President Trump is acknowledged with a standing ovation.

Trump begins by reflecting on his speech a year ago, and how he took swift action on the promises he made, with clear vision and a righteous mission to make America great again for all Americans.

The past year brought many trials, from floods, fires, and terrible storms, Americans came through with their beautiful soul and a steel spine.

The President then recounted several tales of heroism from Hurricanes Irma and Harvey and states that We will always pull through together, always.

He then thanked the Capitol Police for their swift action at the Congressional baseball game shooting and called out Louisiana Congressman Steve Scalise, who got a standing ovation.

President Trump called on everyone to set aside their differences and work together for the good of the people who elected them into office. Nancy Pelosi visibly grimaced.

(By Julia Atherley)

Roger Stone is currently one of the most powerful men in the Republican Party. He has worked on campaigns for Reagan, Nixon, and most recently was fundamental for the election of Trump. The words 'Roger Stone' are usually followed by 'dirty trickster' as he is infamous for his unorthodox political tactics. It is not unfair to say that Donald Trump would not currently be in the White House were it not for Roger Stone.

He’s an outspoken figure; CNN and MSNBC have both previously banned him from their shows and most famously he has been suspended from Twitter. Uproar broke out this week as the BBC hosted him on the Today programme. In an interview with Palatinate, Stone speaks of his views on Brexit, Steve Bannon, censorship, and his involvement in the Trump campaign.

Speaking to Stone before his address at the Union, I am aware that this is a man at the centre of American politics. Despite leaving the Trump campaign in 2015, he continued to speak publicly in support of his bid. A recent Netflix documentary entitled Get Me Roger Stone charts his rise to political fame, culminating in Trump’s election.

ROGER STONE TELLS BRITS U.S. READY FOR BETTER TRADE DEAL

Roger Stone (R) has said that Donald Trump is ready to strike a trade deal with the UK now.

(By David Maddox, Express.co.uk) Roger Stone, who was previously a key adviser to Presidents Richard Nixon and Ronald Reagan, also confirmed the President has not visited the UK yet because “he has not had a heartfelt invitation.”

Speaking at a Tory Bow Group event in central London he also told the Daily Express that Britain will need a Trump like political figure with charisma who can stand up to the political elites to make a success of Brexit.

Mr Stone, who came to public prominence revealing allegations about John Kennedy’s assassination, has known the US President since 1980 when he persuaded the property magnate to raise funds for Ronald Reagan’s election campaign.

He then went on to try to persuade Mr Trump to run as President eventually succeeding on third attempt in 2016. He described a trade deal between the UK and USA as the “single most important thing” for the two countries.

ROGER STONE IS HAVING A TOUR DE FORCE OF ENGLISH LEGENDS OXFORD, CAMBRIDGE & DURHAM UNIVERSITIES

(By Contributing UK AFI Writers) Roger Stone is having a tour de force of English legends including Cambridge, Oxford and Durham universities.

He is also being interviewed by some of England's most left-leaning media, including the BBC and Guardian. (Remember: Investigator Glenn Greenwald at The Guardian broke the Edward Snowden story in 2013 about the illegal NSA surveillance programs.)

Reading between the lines, one can see how even these bastions of globalist propaganda in the UK are having to grudgingly admit that maybe they are wrong about President Donald Trump and his ability to do good in this world.

AFI's British investigators were blown away this morning by this Guardian coverage. They said that Jonathan Freedland is normally vicious about all things Trump.

The following Guardian article is reproduced for educational purposes only. Fair Use.

The Guardian

by Jonathan Freedland, Jan. 31, 2018

Trump likes to pretend he operates within the usual boundaries, which is why a henchman with a record of racism and misogyny should have been challenged on Radio 4.

Call it the teleprompter delusion: the tendency of the US political class to seize gratefully on any occasion when Donald Trump manages to stand in front of an Autocue and read the words written for him without frothing at the mouth. The pundits then hail the achievement as a turning point and the birth of a kinder, gentler, more presidential Trump.

It happened 11 months ago, when Trump addressed a joint session of both houses of congress. At one point, he paid tribute to the widow of a US serviceman killed in a botched operation in Yemen, who was present in the chamber and who the cameras showed sobbing. “He became president of the United States in that moment, period,” gushed the previously hostile CNN commentator and former Obama administration official Van Jones.
Predictably, the teleprompter delusion has resurfaced following Trump’s first State of the Union address on Tuesday night. The often Trump-sceptical Republican pollster Frank Luntz produced a textbook case of the syndrome when he tweeted: “Tonight I owe Donald Trump an apology. Tonight, I was moved and inspired ... tonight America is great again.”

This malady matters because it’s a symptom of normalisation, the urge to pretend Trump operates within the usual democratic boundaries when in fact he represents an alarming break from the norms that make liberal democracy possible.

Until now, these tendencies have been mostly confined to the US. But there is some troubling evidence that they are spreading beyond America’s shores. Witness the respectful reception the global 0.1% gave Trump at Davos last week and the chummy TV encounter between the president and Piers Morgan on Sunday. But an even more striking example came on Wednesday morning in the BBC’s most coveted interview slot, at 8.10am on Radio 4’s Today programme.

John Humphrys’s guest was Roger Stone, introduced only as a “political strategist”. The unsuspecting listener would not have known that Stone is in fact a notorious figure, one who cut his teeth as a bit player in the Nixon dirty tricks operation, and who was the youngest person called before the Watergate grand jury.

They would not have known that Stone was banned from Twitter last October after a litany of racist and abusive tweets directed at reporters. He was banned from CNN and MSNBC in 2016 (though he’s still welcome on Fox). Stone tweeted that CNN pundit Roland Martin was a “stupid negro” and a “fat negro”. To Jill Abramson, former editor of the New York Times and now a Guardian contributor, he tweeted in caps: “DIE BITCH!” He called the columnist Gail Collins an “elitist cunt”. In 2015, Stone dedicated a book on the Clintons he had co-written to one Victor Thorn, the author of “The Holocaust Hoax Exposed”, who blames 9/11 on a “Jewish plot”.

There’s more in that vein, but you get the idea. Which is not to say the BBC should necessarily have refused to put Stone on the air, but rather that if he was going to appear he needed to be challenged, and challenged hard. This is surely not a point lost on Humphrys, who revels in his reputation as a rottweiler interrogator.

Yet to Stone he was gentleness itself. First came the teleprompter delusion. “Is he a new Donald Trump?” Humphrys asked, marvelling that the “tone was so different” on Tuesday night. Stone was allowed to muse, uninterrupted, that Trump had “learned how to make the microphone come to him”, and that his tone was indeed warmer. “And less bellicose,” agreed Humphrys.

There followed a brief discussion about what Stone called the “Russian collusion delusion” - but, incredibly, no mention of Stone’s involvement in that affair. You’d not have known that Stone was one of several in Trump’s circle to have come under FBI investigation for alleged contacts with Russian officials, or that he was threatened last autumn with a subpoena by a congressional intelligence committee over his contacts with Julian Assange and WikiLeaks (Stone had an uncanny knack of predicting when WikiLeaks would drop damaging information about Hillary Clinton and her campaign). US investigators have also probed Stone’s contacts during the 2016 campaign with the Russian hacker Guccifer 2.0, widely thought to be behind the spreading of emails stolen from the Democratic party.

None of this was so much as mentioned on the Today programme. Instead, the usually ferocious Humphrys asked if the constant attacks on Trump “get to” the president. The result was that a man with a track record of racism and misogyny, with serious questions to answer about a scandal much graver than Watergate, was allowed unimpeded access to the BBC’s most prestigious slot. Which is how the abnormal is slowly made normal.

NFL CORRUPTION REDUX?

(By Roger Stone) As the Super Bowl approaches, and the mainstream media is flooded with promotional spots put out by the NFL, we can’t but help feel that this year is different. It is obvious that the sport is in a declining state, using viewership and attendance numbers alone to tell the tale. What hasn’t been so obvious is the reason why the NFL and their chairman Roger Goodell, are letting this happen.

I say letting this happen, because the wounds upon the NFL are surely self-inflicted. What was supposed to be an a-political popular sport has turned into a partisan slugfest with all the trappings of an orchestrated operation designed to create political divisions. Normally, when viewing such activity, it would be prudent to assume dirty tricks being played to distract from an unfolding narrative that ran counter to the orchestrator’s best interests.

Here at Stone Cold Truth, that’s what we first thought was going on, put into play by the Left to distract from the trove of scandals being uncovered today in Washington, D.C. After our research, we’ve amended our position.

With this week’s astounding revelations of premeditated, utterly biased and criminal behavior by top members of Mueller’s hit squad, this is more than a smoking gun.

PRESIDENT TRUMP SHOULD KEEP HIS PROMISE ON VACCINE SAFETY

(By Roger Stone) Donald J. Trump cares about people and especially for the citizens of the United States of America. He sacrificed more than most can ever know in order to do his utmost to make America great again. He and his family are to this day suffering the slings and arrows of an out-of-control political class that seeks nothing less than their total destruction. As his first year draws to a close, however, his list of achievements impresses even his harshest critics. Cutting red tape, rebuilding our military, and restoring respect for America worldwide are but a few of his dozens of monumental achievements, but there is still much more work to do.

President Trump also stands against corruption and seeks to shine truth wherever he can in his desire to drain The Swamp. The Swamp is not only the embedded political class and the federal bureaucracies but also corrupted special interests that seek their own gain at everyone else’s expense. Big Medicine and Big Pharma are two such special interest that have shielded their own from scrutiny by gaming the system and gaslighting their victims. Full story.

THE COMING 25TH AMENDMENT PLAY TO TAKE DOWN TRUMP

(By Roger Stone) The Establishment is in an uproar. Dirty trick after dirty trick has failed them. They were so sure Hillary would win! They were so sure they could control the narrative! They were absolutely positive that they would pull the levers of the Deep State and unseat Donald Trump with a relentless campaign of lawfare (warfare by lawyers).

President Trump has been a step ahead of them every time, so their Plan A - a recount followed by an attempted hijacking of the Electoral College failed, and their Plan B - “Deep State Soft Coup” is failing spectacularly. The failure to find any evidence whatsoever of Russian collusion means that Plan B has been a major dud. While special counsel Robert Mueller is still on course to bring some process oriented charge against the President such as perjury or obstruction of justice, the exposure of his entire inquiry as a partisan witch-hunt makes his success in reversing the results of the last presidential election unlikely. As Pat Buchanan has pointed out, unlike Richard Nixon, Donald Trump will not go quietly. Full story.

DEEP STATE PLANS A: RUSSIAN COLLUSION, B: HE'S CRAZY, C: KILL HIM

Political experts such as longtime Trump advisor Roger Stone expect the plot to declare Trump crazy and remove him under the 25th Amendment to fail. And when it does, rather than abandon the effort to destroy Trump, that would potentially put the president at risk of “Plan C” — assassination — Stone said in an interview. First, though, the swamp will try Plan A, which is the Mueller probe, and Plan B, which is the 25th Amendment, according to Stone. Full story.
