Complaint made to the House by Lord Randolph Churchill, Member for South Paddington, of a Letter written by Mr. Conybeare, Member for the Camborne Division of Cornwall, and published in the "Star" Newspaper of this evening, reflecting on the conduct of the Speaker of this House in the Chair.

The said Paper was delivered in, and the Letter complained of read, as followeth:—

Mr. Conybeare and The Speaker.

To the Editor of the "Star."

Sir,

I hope that every true Liberal will realise the scandalous proceedings which to-night marked the Second Reading of the Bann Drainage Bill. This is one of three Bills of a purely local character, proposing to grant for the benefit of a number of Irish landlords a sum of nearly half a million sterling out of the pockets of the already over-taxed poor of this Country. Upon the Second Reading I moved a Resolution noting the above facts, and declaring that such works should be undertaken by an Irish Home Rule Parliament, and not at the expense of English, Scotch, and Welsh taxpayers, who are already overburdened with the cost of coercing Ireland. I had spoken but a quarter of an hour when one of the Tory rank and file moved the Closure, and the Speaker, who is supposed to exercise his discretion impartially for the protection of the minority, at once put the Question. Such a proceeding I stated later on was nothing short of a public scandal, and although, in obedience to the rules of Parliamentary decorum (which require that a Member should not by passing a reflection on the Speaker reflect upon the whole House), I withdrew the expression when called upon to do so, I have not the slightest doubt but that every Radical outside the House (as are most of those within it) is of the same opinion. For here is a Bill deliberately handing over vast sums of English money as a gift to Irish landlords, and we, English, Scotch, and Welsh representatives, are not to be allowed even half an hour's debate as to whether it is a justifiable proceeding or not. The Government says you shall not debate the matter, and Mr. Speaker backs them up. I hope every elector in the Speaker's constituency will be careful to mark his conduct.

As I may be blamed for withdrawing my description of this proceeding, I may add that I did it deliberately for the following reasons:—

1. The withdrawal of an unparliamentary expression does not do away with the effect produced by using it. Nor does it imply any alteration of a deliberately expressed opinion. It remains on record.

"He gloss' homomoch', he dè phrèa anomotós."

2. Suspension from the House would do no good to anyone except by pleasing the Tory Government, who would be delighted to be rid of a very uncomfortable thorn in their side.

3. My desire and my duty being to prevent the passing of these objectionable Bills, I should simply have forwarded the plans of the Government, and defaulted on my duty to my constituency, had I caused myself to be suspended for a week.

The only effect of the blundering stupidity of the Government to-night has been to arouse (as I hope) the vigilant opposition of every true Radical and Liberal against these mischievous and objectionable Bills. I intend to oppose them to the utmost at every point, and I rely on every true representative of the British taxpayer to do the same.

Yours, &c.

Privilege.

Complaint made to the House by Mr. Labouchere, Member for the Borough of Northampton, of certain passages in a leading article of the "Times" newspaper of this morning, reflecting on the Speeches of several Members made in the Committee on the Members of Parliament (Charges and Allegations) Bill. The said Paper was delivered in, and the passages complained of read, as followeth:—

"The endeavour to convict the Government of a change of front because Mr. W. H. Smith, in offering Mr. Parnell the alternative of the Special Commission, omitted the words 'and other persons,' though ever since the notice of the introduction of the Bill was placed on the Paper those words have been before the House, and the Opposition allowed the Second Reading to pass unchallenged with full knowledge of them, conspicuously failed; but this and other groundless accusations have afforded Mr. Parnell, Mr. T. Healy, Mr. Sexton, Mr. T. P. O'Connor, and the rest the opportunity to pour out a flood of blackguardism—we can call it by no other name—on the 'Times' and the persons responsible for its conduct, which we venture to say is absolutely without parallel in Parliamentary history. We are completely indifferent to abuse, calumny, and mendacious charges from that quarter, and we are quite sure that public opinion will take the just measure of the men who resort to these weapons. But, for the honour of public life in England, it is to be deplored that Mr. Gladstone as well as Sir William Harcourt entered into a competition with the foul-mouthed oratory of their present allies below the gangway. Still more scandalous is it that Mr. Morley should dare to accuse this journal of the 'deepest infamy' on the unsupported testimony, which he has taken no pains to sift, of one of his reckless Irish allies. The stuff which is held to be good enough to furnish forth the speeches of these statesmen with their facts, their arguments, their taunts, and their calumnies would not be listened to by any decent people if it were bawled about the streets by the sort of people who obtain a hearing because they are Members of the House of Commons."

A Motion was made, and the Question being proposed, That the "Times" newspaper, in its issue of this morning, has been guilty of a breach of the privileges of this House;

An Amendment was proposed to be made to the Question, by leaving out from the word "That," to the end of the Question, in order to add the words "this House do pass to the Public Business of the Day," instead thereof;

And the Question being proposed, That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question:—The said proposed Amendment and Motion were severally, with leave of the House, withdrawn.

An Amendment was proposed to be made to the Question, by inserting after the first word "That," the words "if the Chairman so think fit."

And the Question being proposed, that those words be there inserted:—The said proposed Amendment was, with leave of the House, withdrawn.

And the Main Question being again proposed:

Mr. Aird rose in his place, and claimed to move. "That the Question be now put"; but Mr. Speaker withheld his assent, and declined then to put that Question.

Another Amendment was proposed to be made to the Question, in l. 5, by leaving out the words "Questions, That any Clause then under consideration, and each remaining Clause of the Bill, stand part of the Bill," and insert the words "several Amendments and new Clauses now printed on the Notice Paper and not then disposed of."

Privilege (Service of a Summons on Mr. Sheehy in the Outer Lobby.) No. 411.

Mr. Secretary Matthews reported from the Select Committee on Privilege (Service of a Summons on Mr. Sheehy in the Outer Lobby); That they had considered the matters to them referred, and directed him to make a Report thereof to the House, together with the Minutes of the Evidence taken before them, and an Appendix; and the said Report was read, as follows:—

Your Committee have taken the Evidence of Mr. Sheehy, M.P., Serjeant Jeremiah Sullivan, Mr. John Lowndes, Mr. Ignatius R. B. Jennings, Mr. Andrew Reed, Mr. A. F. Williamson, Mr. Horsley, and Mr. Reginald F. D. Pulgrave, C.B., and report the Evidence so taken to the House. Your Committee are of opinion, upon such Evidence, that the action of Serjeant Sullivan was a breach of the Privileges of the House, inasmuch as it was an attempt to serve a summons upon a Member, within the precincts of the House, whilst the House was sitting, without the leave of the House first obtained. Under all the circumstances detailed in the Evidence, your Committee do not recommend the interposition of the House, by any proceedings against Serjeant Sullivan, inasmuch as your Committee are satisfied that he did not intend any violation of the Privileges of the House, and he had not received any special instructions with regard to the service he was directed to effect. Being directed to inquire into the circumstances attendant upon Sullivan's conduct, your Committee deem it right to report that in their opinion proper general instructions should have been issued to the Irish police as to the observance of due care and respect for your House in serving or executing process against Members within the precincts of the House. Your Committee have considered the letters from Mr. Leahy to Mr. Finucane and Mr. Sheehy referred to them, and are of opinion that it is unnecessary for them to inquire into the subject.

A Motion was made, and the Question was proposed, That the Report be taken into consideration upon Tuesday next:—And the said Motion was, with leave of the House, withdrawn.

Ordered, That the Report do lie upon the Table; and be printed.

The House was moved, That the Report might be again read; and the same was read, as followeth:—

Your Committee have taken the evidence of Mr. Sheehy, M.P., Serjeant Jeremiah Sullivan, Mr. John Lowndes, Mr. Ignatius R. B. Jennings, Mr. Andrew Reed, Mr. A. F. Williamson, Mr. Horsley, and Mr. Reginald F. D. Palgrave, C.B., and report the evidence so taken to the House. Your Committee are of opinion, upon such evidence, that the action of Serjeant Sullivan was a breach of the Privileges of the House, inasmuch as it was an attempt to serve serve a summons upon a Member, within the precincts of the House, whilst the House was sitting, without the leave of the House first obtained. Under all the circumstances detailed in the evidence, your Committee do not recommend the interposition of the House, by any proceedings against Serjeant Sullivan, inasmuch as your Committee are satisfied that he did not intend any violation of the Privileges of the House, and he had not received any special instructions with regard to the service he was directed to effect. Being directed to inquire into the circumstances attendant upon Sullivan's conduct, your Committee deem it right to report that in their opinion proper general instructions should have been issued to the Irish police as to the observance of due care and respect for your House in serving or executing process against Members within the precincts of the House. Your Committee have considered the letters from Mr. Leahy to Mr. Finucane and Mr. Sheehy referred to them, and are of opinion that it is unnecessary for them to inquire into the subject.

A Motion was made, and the Question being proposed, That this House doth concur in the Report of the Committee appointed to consider the attempted Service (together with attendant circumstances) of a Summons upon Mr. Sheehy, Member for South Galway, made in the Outer Lobby of the House;

An Amendment was proposed to be made to the Question, by leaving out from the first word "House," to the end of the Question, in order to add the words "do now proceed to the Orders of the Day," instead thereof.

And the Question being proposed, That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question:—And a Debate arising thereupon;

A Motion was made, and the Question was proposed, That the Debate be now adjourned:—And the said Motion was, with leave of the House, withdrawn.

And the Question being put, That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question;

Accordingly Mr. Speaker, with the House, went up to the House of Peers, where a Commission under the Great Seal was read, giving, declaring and notifying the Royal Assent to the several Acts therein mentioned; and the Lords, thereby authorised, declared the Royal Assent to the said Acts, as follow:

1. Appropriation Act, 1888.

21. Preferential Payments in Bankruptcy Act, 1888.
22. Law of Libel Amendment Act, 1888.
23. Friendly Societies, Act, 1888.

And afterwards, Her Majesty's Most Gracious Queen's Speech was delivered to both Houses of Parliament by the Lord High Chancellor in pursuance of Her Majesty's Commands, as followeth:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have great satisfaction in being able to release you from your protracted labours.

My relations with all Foreign Powers continue to be friendly.

I regret that the Convention which was concluded between Myself and the President of the United States for the adjustment of the questions which had arisen in reference to the Fisheries in North American Waters has not commended itself to the judgment of the Senate of the United States, in whom, according to the Constitution of that Country, the power of ratification is vested. The temporary arrangements, however, which have been adopted will, I trust, prevent any immediate inconvenience arising from this decision.

The Conference which has been held on the subject of Bounties upon the exportation of Sugar has been brought to a satisfactory issue by the conclusion of a Convention for their abolition, which has been signed by the Representatives representatives of most of the sugar-producing Countries.

The restoration of Egypt to a condition of Political and Financial Security has been for the time interrupted by an attempt on the part of the Soudanese to possess themselves of the Port of Suakin. The dispersion of the besieging forces has been effected by a brilliant Military operation on the part of the Egyptian Troops, supported by a British Contingent. In other respects, the administrative and economical progress of Egypt has been satisfactory.

An insurrection has broken out upon the Continental portion of the Dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar, which has brought with it considerable destruction of life and property in the German Settlements on that Coast. It is evident that the renewed vigour of the Slave Trade, of which symptoms have unhappily shown themselves in several parts of Africa, has largely contributed to the production of these disturbances. I have joined with the Emperor of Germany in establishing a Naval blockade of that part of the Coast which is in insurrection, in order to prevent not only the exportation of slaves, but also the importation of munitions of war.

My Indian Dominions have enjoyed general tranquillity and prosperity during the past year. Disturbances, however, have occurred in the neighbouring region of the Black Mountain, and on the extreme frontier of Sikkim; but they have been terminated without difficulty. A rebellion which broke out in Afghanistan under Ishak Khan, and which at one time threatened to assume formidable proportions, has been entirely subdued by the Military Forces of the Ameer.

A rising on the part of some Zulu Chiefs, which does not seem to have met with any sympathy on the part of the population, has been suppressed by My Troops and the Native Levies; and the Chiefs concerned in it are awaiting their trial before a Special Commission.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the liberal provision which you have made for the service of the State. I trust that the financial measures which you have sanctioned will materially increase the public resources of the Country, without adding to its fiscal burdens.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The measures which you have passed for extending the functions and improving the machinery of Local Government in England are calculated to increase the loyal attachment of My people to their institutions. I trust that you may be able now to promote the successful working of these changes in your several localities; and that in this and all other fields of duty the blessing of Almighty God may be with you.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read. Parliament
Prorogued.

After which the Lord Chancellor said;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's Name, and in obedience to Her Commands, prorogue this Parliament to Thursday the Thirty-first day of January next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday the 31st day of January next.

HOUSE :

Attends the Lords Commissioners in the House of Peers,—at the opening of the Session, 3.—On other occasions (Royal Assent to Bills), 232, &c.—At the close of the Session, 533.

RESOLUTIONS of the,—

That this House regrets that an indignity should have been offered to the honourable Member for North Monaghan, but, considering it to have been a mistake on the part of the Police Officer, does not think it necessary to proceed further with the matter, 30.

That this House will meet To-morrow, at Two of the clock (Ash Wednesday); on Division, 40.

For an Address to Her Majesty, relative to the Metropolitan Board of Works, 46.

Resolutions of the House, relative to Business of the House, see HOUSE (Business of the) (Rules of Procedure).

That no Bill providing for a composition of Arrears of Rent in Ireland will be satisfactory to this House, and effectual for the Relief of the Tenants, which does not, at the same time, deal with their Debts to other Creditors besides the Landlords, 114.

That a Member serving on a Select Committee shall be entitled, without being present at Prayers, on any day on which such Committee shall sit, to retain a seat in the House by affixing thereto a card, distinguished by colour and marked "Committee," which shall be delivered to such Member on his application, 121.

That, in the opinion of this House, steps should be forthwith taken to determine the Hereditary Pensions and Allowances, with due regard to the just claims of the respective recipients and to economy in the public service, and that, considering the large and increasing annual charge upon the Country for general Pensions and non-effective Services, it is desirable to adopt measures for the thorough revision of the entire Pension System, 121.

That it is inexpedient that the privilege of exemption from the Mortmain Act, enjoyed by the Colleges in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, should be extended by a Private Bill to any College which, though situate at Oxford, is not incorporated with the University, and which is restricted to the members of a particular Church, 166.

That

That this House, having regard to the disastrous physical and moral effects of the Liquor Traffic among uncivilised races, as well as the injury it inflicts on legitimate commerce, will cordially support the Imperial and Colonial Governments in their endeavours to suppress the traffic in Spirituous Liquors with Natives in all Native Territories under their influence and control, 176.

That this House, while prepared at the proper time to take into consideration any well-matured scheme for reform of Local Government in Ireland, is of opinion that at present it is not expedient to introduce large constitutional changes in that Country, 179.

That this House deprecates the rapid spread of demoralising Literature in this Country, and is of opinion that the Law against obscene publications and indecent pictures and prints should be vigorously enforced and, if necessary, strengthened, 208.

That in the opinion of this House, any mere suspension of measures for the compulsory examination of women, and for licensing and regulating Prostitution in India, is insufficient, and the legislation which enjoins, authorises, or permits such measures ought to be repealed, 255.

That the re-organisations in the Accountant General's and Secretary's Departments of the Admiralty have been injurious to the public interests, by resulting in increased charges for those Departments, and by needlessly adding to extravagant pensions and bonuses: and that in any further re-organisations, officials who are still able and willing to render service for the public money shall be provided with employment in other Departments, instead of being forced to become useless burdens upon the Country, 278.

Relative to the Death of the German Emperor, 293. Vide ADDRESSES. MESSAGES.

That as the Ecclesiastical Assessments have been a burden upon land from time immemorial for the erection and repair of church buildings in the old parishes of Scotland, this House, in the absence of any grievance connected therewith, except in the case of feuars, for whose relief a Bill is now before Parliament, declines to entertain a proposal to alienate these assessments to secular uses, 301.

That, inasmuch as the Ulster Canal and Tyrone Navigation Bill has been fully considered by a Select Committee, this House declines to entertain Amendments which ought to have been brought before the Committee, and that the Bill be ordered to be read a third time, 330.

That the Consolidated Three Pounds per Centum Annuities and the Reduced Three Pounds per Centum Annuities shall be redeemable at any time after the expiration of one year from the date at which a Copy of this Resolution, having been inserted in the "London Gazette," is affixed on the Royal Exchange in London, by payments of not less than Five hundred thousand pounds at any one time, in manner directed by any Act to be passed, 345.

That, in the opinion of this House, the Letter in the "Star" Newspaper of this evening's date, entitled, "Mr. Conybeare and the Speaker," and signed by the honourable Member for the Camborne Division of Cornwall, is a gross libel upon the Speaker of the House of Commons, and deserves the severest condemnation of the House, 386.

That Mr. Conybeare, Member for the Camborne Division of Cornwall, be suspended from the service of the House for the remainder of the Session, or for one calendar month, whichever shall first terminate, 386.

That the Statement of the Estimated Income and Expenditure of Greenwich Hospital for the year 1888-9, presented to Parliament pursuant to Act 48 and 49 Vic. c. 42, be approved, 470.

That this House do now proceed to the Orders of the Day, 511.

That this House will sit Tomorrow (Saturday), 512.

That this House is of opinion that it would be more conducive to the interests of temperance, and to the principle of local self-government, that the Question of Sunday Closing should be relegated to the decision of the inhabitants of the localities in which the public-houses are situated, 513.

That the Standing Orders of this House relating to Wednesday Sittings be suspended this day, 525. Vide HOUSE, BUSINESS of the.

— In Committee, 528.

PREVIOUS:

— Moved, Mr. Speaker, on rising to propose that Question, addressed the House, as followeth: The Right honourable Gentleman proposes to move the Previous Question. If I were to propose that Question in the customary form, the terms of the Motion would be "That the Question be now put," words which are almost identical with the words of the Motion for the Closure of a Debate. Moreover, hitherto, when a Member moves the Previous Question, he votes against his own Motion. I therefore think that the present occasion affords a good opportunity for establishing a precedent. I therefore propose, if I should obtain the full sanction of the House to my suggestion, to adopt instead of the present form of the Previous Question, the words "That the Question be now put"; and, the general assent of the House being signified; Question proposed, "That the Question be now put"; Motion for Previous Question and original Motion severally, with leave of the House, Withdrawn, 112.

— resumes the Chair at a quarter before Four o'clock, having returned from the House of Peers, 3.

— reports Her Majesty's Speech at the opening of the Session, 9. That the House had been at the House of Lords (Royal Assent to Acts), 128.

— Resumes the Chair, having been sent for, the Proceedings of a Committee of the whole House having been interrupted by a Member,

— The Chairman of a Committee of the whole House having left the Chair to report Progress after Ten minutes to Seven; Morning Sitting, 90.

— adjourns the House, without putting the Question,—at Six o'clock on Wednesday, 59. — At One of the clock, 90, 105, 162, 183, 269, 279, &c. — At Twenty-five minutes after Six o'clock on Wednesday, part of the Standing Order, "Sittings of the House," having been suspended, 114. — At Twenty-five minutes after Six o'clock in the Afternoon, 114. — Forty Members not being present in the House, 122, 191, 528, &c.

— Libel upon him in a Letter to a Newspaper, signed by Mr. Conybeare, and Member suspended, 385, 386.

— his Nomination of Temporary Chairmen of Committees, 84.

— unavoidably absent on account of Indisposition, 195. Continued Indisposition, 198, 210, 213, 219, 225, 230, 233, 237. On another occasion, 364.

— the House proceeded to a Division, and Mr. Speaker stated that he thought the Ayes had it. But his decision was challenged; and it appearing to Mr. Speaker that the Division was frivolously claimed, he directed the Noes to stand up in their places, and no Member having stood up, Mr. Speaker declared that the Ayes had it, 255.

— acquaints the House, That he had received Letters relating to the Imprisonment or Arrest of certain Members of the House, 4, 29, 70, 124, 149, 164, 166, 172, 179, 183, 240, 310, 370, 398, 457, 474. — Attachment of a Member, 488. — Remand of Member, 50.

— acquaints the House, That he had received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a communication from the Chancellor of the German Empire, which he read to the House as followeth:—The Imperial German Parliament passed a Resolution unanimously at their sitting of the 19th instant, to the effect that the expressions of veneration for our deceased Monarch, and of participation in the grief of the German People manifested by the House of Commons, have called forth the deepest sympathy and the liveliest gratitude throughout Germany, and constitute a signal proof of the friendly relations existing between the two Peoples, 142. — That he had received, through Her Majesty's Secretary of State, the following Letter from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Berlin:—I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your Letter of the 19th inst. transmitting to me the Message of Condolence, moved and carried, "Nemine Contradicente," in the House of Commons on the 18th instant, and I have the honour to inform you that the Empress Victoria was graciously pleased to receive me in audience yesterday for the purpose of presenting the Address. Her Imperial Majesty desired me to convey through you, Sir, to the House, Her deep gratitude for this mark of sympathy with Her deep distress, and to express the hope that the Memory of the Emperor Frederick, Her dearly beloved Husband, may ever be preserved, 349.

— acquaints the House, That he had issued his Warrants for New Writs during the Recess, 3, 457.

— addresses the House, as followeth:—The Right honourable Gentleman proposes to move the Previous Question. If I were to propose that Question in the customary form, the terms of the Motion would be "That the Question be now put," words which are almost identical with the words of the Motion for the Closure of a Debate. Moreover, hitherto, when a Member moves the Previous Question, he votes against his own Motion. I therefore think that the present occasion affords a good opportunity for establishing a precedent. I therefore propose, if I should obtain the full sanction of the House to my suggestion, to adopt instead of the present form of the Previous Question, the words "That the Question be not now put"; and the general assent of the House was signified, 112.

— calls on Mr. T. P. O'Connor to explain his conduct, complaint having been made to the House by Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, Member for West Birmingham, of an opprobrious expression applied to him by Mr. T. P. O'Connor, Member for the Scotland Division of Liverpool; and the honourable Member acknowledged that he had made use of the expression complained of, and asked leave to withdraw it, and tendered his apology to the House, 410.

— calls on Mr. Brookfield for an explanation, who stated that as he was leaving the House Dr. Tanner had, without provocation, addressed offensive expressions to him, complaint having been made to the House by Dr. Tanner, Member for Mid Cork, of offensive words addressed to him by Mr. Brookfield, Member for the Rye Division of Sussex, Mr. Speaker interposes, and says, he trusts both honourable Members would maintain a courteous bearing to each other, and he was sure the House would not think it necessary to pursue the matter any further, 421.

— calls upon Members who support Motions for adjournment, to rise in their places, the pleasure of the House not having been signified, 142, 150, 176, 191, 263, 347, 370.

— in pursuance of Standing Order 27, relating to disorderly conduct, orders Mr. Cuninghame Graham to withdraw immediately from the House and its precincts during the remainder of this day's Sitting, 493.

— directs Members to withdraw, 385, 531.
