

WILL OF MR. GEORGE SAMUEL.—Leaving personality of the value of £470,722 12s. 6d., Mr. George Samuel, late of 29, Park-crescent, who died on the 12th of September last, aged 88 years, bequeathed to his sisters, Lady Salomons and the Countess of Orkney, £20,000 each; to his nephew, Baron George de Worms, and Mr. Phillip Salomons, £10,000 each; to his niece, Madame Amy Ernest de Saisset, £10,000; to his godson, Paul George de Saisset, £5,000; to Madame Anna de Herzig, of Vienna, a life annuity of £200, in addition to £400 a year secured to her by his bond; to his niece, Adèle Solari, his leasehold house in Park-crescent and its furniture, his horses and carriages; to his clerk and secretary, Alfred Smith, £500; to his valet and friend, John Smith, £3,000; to each other servant who was also in the service of the testator's father, £500; to each other servant of at least five year's service, £500; to each other servant, one year's wages; to Queen Charlotte's Lying-in Hospital, £1,000; to the rector of East Hampstead, Berks, £250, and to the rector and churchwardens of East Hampstead, £1,000, to apply the income in keeping up the enclosure where his daughter Georgina was buried, and in decorating it with flowers. Mr. Samuel desired to be buried in the same enclosure. He bequeathed £200 to Mr. Peter Williams, of 5, Bank-buildings, solicitor, one of the executors of his will, and he left all the residue of his property to his nephew, Baron Henry de Worms, M.P., the other executor of his will.

Editor. (Oct. 20, 1893). Will of George Samuel, Baron Henry de Worms approx. 350,000 UKP. The Morning Post.