

Sir A. M. Mond.

Sir Alfred Moritz Mond, who is a son of the late Dr. Ludwig Mond, is a well-known business man. He is managing director of Brunner, Mond and Co. Ltd., chairman of the Mond Nickel Co. Ltd.; director of the South Staffordshire (Mond Power and Heating) Gas Co., and chairman of the Power Gas Corporation Ltd. After unsuccessfully contesting South Salford in 1900, he first entered Parliament as the member for Chester in 1906, representing that constituency till 1910, when he was elected for Swansea Town. He is also a barrister, and was amongst other things chairman of the chemical industries section of the Franco-British Exhibition in 1908, and president of the Mansion House Association on railway and canal traffic. He is a member of the Privy Council. Sir Alfred Mond, who has written numerous articles and essays on political and economic subjects, is a Liberal.

Sir Alfred Moritz Mond, biography from The Age, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia, 12 Dec 1916