TRANSCRIPT:

WRITES ON 'DEATH' AND DROPS DEAD

After preparing a sermon on the subject of "Death" to be delivered before the congregation of the Psycho Science Church, of which he was pastor, Hugh Robert Sinclair, leader of the organization, went east to Dayton, O., dropped dead from heart failure, according to word Just received here. Instead of occupying the pulpit of his church, which meets in Lincoln Hall, a telegram came to the congregation members yesterday, bringing the news of the pastor's death. The sermon which he wrote will be read at memorial services to be held next Sunday. Sinclair was hurrying east to reach the bedside of a daughter stricken with paralysis when his death occurred. Hot weather Is believed to have precipitated a heart affection of long standing.

MILITARY MASS AND SONGS AT ST. MARY'S

At the seven o'clock mass on Sunday at St. Mary's church, Father and Mother, St. Mary's church, will be held at 7 o'clock in the morning. The service will be held at 7 o'clock in the morning. The service will be held at 7 o'clock in the morning.

LIBERTY is one of those words which becomes more comprehensive and beautiful every time it is spoken, for it carries with it a meaning much more sublime than appears on the surface.

LIBERTY means more than physical freedom, for "corrupted freemen are the worst of slaves." At this supreme moment in America's history her hands must be free to serve, her mind to think and her heart to love. LIBERTY, in its meaning to Americans, has suddenly broken national boundaries. In the past, when we have spoken of our flag floating over "the land of the free," we have thought of America only, but now it is carried by our soldiers, with its message of freedom, into half the civilized world. We now understand Franklin's meaning when he says, "where liberty dwells, there is my country."

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Written For Liberty Day For The Tribune
By EVELYN BUCHNER
Infinite One, our King, in this great hour,
Surround us with thy majesty and power.
On this great day we lift our souls to Thee.
In one supreme appeal for victory.
We pray for those who brave, so young to die,
So far from home, beneath an alien sky;
Bless thou the mother hearts so filled with pain,
And grant them strength to live and smile again.
