A MESSAGE OF LIBERTY

By REV. H. A. VAN WINKLE Pastor First Christian Church

MARINE BAPTIST LEADS SERVICE IN CITY CHURCH

Monday will be "Liberty Day" at the First Congregational church. In the morning in connection with the regular service, special services will be held in honor of the Marine Corps...

MILITARY MASS AND SONGS AT ST. MARY'S

At the seven o'clock mass on Sunday at St. Mary's church, military and patriotic songs will be sung...

First Lutheran. Sunday will be the first observed as an anniversary of the church...

LIBERTY is one of those words which becomes more comprehensive and beautiful every time it is spoken, for it carries with it a meaning much more sublime than appears on the surface.

LIBERTY means more than physical freedom, for "corrupted freemen are the worst of slaves." At this supreme moment in America's history her hands must be free to serve, her mind to think and her heart to love.

LIBERTY, in its meaning to Americans, has suddenly broken national boundaries. In the past, when we have spoken of our flag floating over "the land of the free," we have thought of America only, but now it is carried by our soldiers, with its message of freedom, into half the civilized world.

Liberty that is of the highest standard must be based on reverence for God and love of the right, for not until right is founded upon reverence will it be secured; not until duty is based upon love will it be complete; not until LIBERTY is based on eternal principles will it be full, equal, lofty and universal.

As that great day which stands as a monument to our national Liberty draws near, flooding our hearts with national pride and patriotism, may God help us to appreciate every phase of its true significance, and to be loyal, in the deepest sense of that word, to our country as it defends those principles which have surrounded the Fourth of July with memories sacred to every American.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Written For Liberty Day For The Tribune

By EVELYN BUECHNER

Infinite One, our King, in this great hour, Protect our sons upon the rolling sea, Surround us with thy majesty and power, On this great day we lift our souls to Thee. Watch o'er the lands 'somewhere in France' today, A wall of steel, armed, ready for the fray.

We pray for those so brave, so young to die, So far from home, beneath an alien sky; Bless that the mother hearts so filled with pain, And grant them strength to live and smile again.
