

THE ENGLISH DEPORT AMERICAN WOMAN FOR ACTIVITY IN IRELAND

United Press]

LONDON, April 15.—Miss Lillian Scott Troy, 37, of San Francisco, has been deported to the United States for "activities detrimental to the British and allied cause," the home office announced today.

Miss Troy, who was under surveillance throughout the war, was said to have been a friend of the notorious Baron von Horst. Her activities are said to have included fomentation of Irish disturbances. She was escorted to Liverpool by a Scotland yard detective and placed aboard a liner.

LLOYD-GEORGE HAS REACHED ENGLAND

United Press.]

LONDON, April 15. — Premier Lloyd-George, who arrived from Paris last night, was expected to lay the case of the British peace delegates before the conservative House of Commons today.

The unionist majority in commons recently directed a memorandum to the premier, demanding that Germany be made to pay the full cost of the war and virtually asking why Lloyd-George was evading his pre-election pledges. His speech will be a reply to this memorandum.

Some newspapers professed to see a cabinet crisis resulting from the present situation.

Lloyd-George on his arrival here, gave out a brief statement in which he said "all is going well."
