

MAYOR TO ATTEND DINNER.

Town's Chief Executive Will Be Guest at Annual Y. M. C. A. Fall Banquet.

Mayor Henry A. Lardner has accepted an invitation to be a guest of honor at the annual dinner of the senior department of the local Y. M. C. A. on the evening of October 3. Philip Whitwell Wilson, well-known lecturer and author and a member of the editorial staff of the New York Times, will deliver the principal address.

It was announced yesterday by C. Henry Klaubert, senior social and membership secretary, that already many acceptances have been received for the dinner. The dinner will be limited to 150 persons.

Mr. Wilson was born in Kendal, England in 1875. His mother was Anne Bagster, of the family of Bible publishers. At Clare College, Cambridge, he graduated with mathematical honors. He was president of the Cambridge Union Debating Society and editor of the Grantz, the journal of the University.

P. WHITWELL WILSON.

[Editor. (Sep. 28, 1927). P. WHITWELL WILSON to speak, MAYOR TO ATTEND DINNER, Town's Chief Executive Will be Guest at Annual Y.M.C.A. Fall Banquet, p.5. The Monclair Times (New Jersey). Reproduced for educational purposes only. Fair Use relied upon. Source: <https://www.newspapers.com/newspage/515355671/>]

[Name variants:
P. Whitwell Wilson,
P. W. Wilson,
Philip Whitwell Wilson,
P. W. W.,
Philip W. Wilson,
Whitwell Wilson]

For twenty-one years, Mr. Wilson was on the editorial staff of the London Daily News, the newspaper founded by Charles Dickens and John Bright. He was a colleague of A. G. Gardiner, H. W. Massingham, H. W. Nevinson, G. K. Chesterton and other writers. At the age of thirty he entered the House of Commons as member of South St. Pancras and served there under Prime Ministers Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and Lord Oxford and Asquith. For twelve years he was in daily attendance at Parliamentary debates and in 1917 he was asked to represent the New York Times in the United States, where he has since been President of the Association of Foreign Correspondents.

On his deathbed, Theodore Roosevelt sent for Mr. Wilson and thanked him for his services to the cause of international friendship. He has been received by Presidents Wilson, Harding and Coolidge. He is now special contributor to the New York Times and his articles frequently appear in leading journals on both sides of the Atlantic.

Mr. Wilson's three books, "The Christ We Forget," "The Vision We Forget," "The Church We Forget" have had a large sale and the first of them has been translated into Dutch. Mr. Wilson is the editor of the first complete edition of the Greville Diary, published by Doubleday Page & Co., a work which may be regarded as a permanent addition to literature. He is also the biographer of John Wanamaker's partner, Robert C. Ogden, and of the explorer and evangelist, William Edgar Geil.

He has been elected an honorary life member of the American Bible Society. He recently returned from Europe where he was personally received and entertained by David Lloyd George, J. Ramsay MacDonald, Philip Snowden, Arthur Henderson, Lord Oxford and Asquith and other statesmen.

The Montclair Times WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 28, 1927

Received an account of the death of the late Mrs. M. C. ...

8300

THREE NEW SCHOOLS. Among the important fall features in Montclair will be the dedication of three new public school buildings...

CHANGE OF FRONT. Chief Justice Sumner's refusal to grant a writ of certiorari in the case of a Montclair school which had been refused a building permit...

DOES IT MEAN PEACE? The British army still which after the opening of the World War substituted machine guns for the machine rifle...

Local Will Prohibit. Among the bills filed for probate in the Essex County surrogate's office...

MAYOR TO ATTEND DINNER. Town's Chief Executive Will Be Guest at Annual Y. M. C. A. Fall Banquet

Mayor Henry A. Lardner has accepted an invitation to be a guest of honor at the annual dinner of the Y. M. C. A. on the evening of October 2...

It was announced yesterday by Henry Klugman, mayor social and membership secretary that already many acknowledgments have been received for the dinner...

P. WHITEHEAD WILSON. The gubernatorial campaign in New Jersey began to take form...

On his despatch, Theodore Roosevelt will visit for Mr. Wilson and thank him for his services to the cause of international friendship...

Chairman of Curriculum. Faculty Committee Says They Are Reserving Thanks of Public. To the Editor of the Times: Sir: The curriculum on Saturday or the day of the curriculum of the school...

Just New Year Observed. Until sundown today the Jews will observe the advent of their New Year, 5688, which was ushered in Monday night as usual...

Spirit of the New Jersey Press

HAIGUS' LATEST VICTORY. The defeat of all the proposed amendments in the special election except the one permitting the Legislature to elect judges...

It is in the nature of a regular check-up in the membership of the Republican "dark horse" and "stables" given the one-over and one-under...

There will be no occasion for the candidate to follow this plan. The candidate has already been selected by the party...

Let's of public interest and de-centralized Republican leadership apparently combined to defeat all of the proposed amendments...

It is unfortunate that partisan opposition toward the normal resolution amendment resulted in the defeat of three other proposals which would have been of decided benefit to the state...

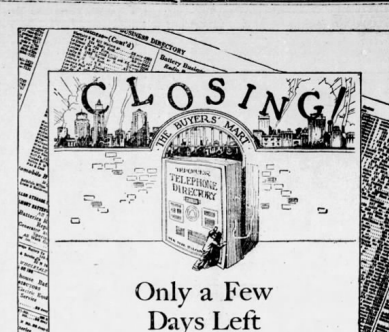

the days of the fall, they go searching for better, brighter days. With a number of the migrating birds, the arrival date in the South is always the same year after year...

Business Restricted by Y. M. C. A. In the absence of a regular speaker at yesterday's meeting of the Montclair Y. M. C. A....

Move Into New Home. Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, of No. 21 Overlook road, Caldwell, moved yesterday to their new home at No. 115 Weston road.

TOWN OF MONTCLAIR. A notice published in the Montclair Times on September 27, 1927, concerning the election of a town engineer...

When Charles J. Deane, a town engineer, was elected to the office of town engineer of the town of Montclair...

Only a Few Days Left. EVERYTHING FORMS for the Classified Section of the Telephone Directory will close within the next few days. ARRANGE NOW to have your business message reach the thousands of telephone users in this district.

Advertisement for the Telephone Directory, including a map of Montclair and contact information for the New York Telephone Company.

Advertisement for Baby's Colds, featuring Vicks VapoRub.

OCR TRANSCRIPTION

MAYOR TO ATTEND DINNER.

Town's Chief Executive Will Be Guest at Annual Y. M. C. A. Fall Banquet.

Mayor Heury A. Lordner has accepted an invitation to be a guest of honor at the annual dinner of the senior department of the local Y. M. C. A. on the evening of October 3 Philip Whitwell Wilson, well-known lecturer and author and a member of the editorial staff of the New York Times, will deliver the principal address.

[Name variants: P. Whitwell Wilson, P.W. Wilson, Philip Whitwell Wilson, P.W.W., Philip W. Wilson, Whitwell Wilson]

It was announced yesterday by C. Henry Klaubert, senior social and membership secretary, that already many acceptances have been received for the dinner. The dinner will be limited to 150 persons.

Mr. Wilson was born in Kendal, England in 1875. His mother was Anne Hagster, of the family of Bible publishers. At Clare College, Cambridge, he graduated with mathematical honors. He was president of the Cambridge Union Debating Society and editor of the Grantz, the journal of the University.

For twenty-one years, Mr. Wilson was on the editorial staff of the London Daily News, the newspaper founded by Charles Dickens and John Bright. He was a colleague of A. G. Gardiner. H. W. Massingham, H. W. Xevinson. G. K. Chesterton and other writers. At the age of thirty he entered the House of Commons as, member of South St. Pancras and served there under Prime Ministers Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and Lord Oxford and Asquith. For twelve years he was in daily attendance at Parliamentary debates and in 1917 he was asked to represent the New York Times in the United States, where he has since been President of the Association of Foreign Correspondents.

On his deathbed, Theodore Roosevelt sent for Mr. Wilson and thanked him for his services to the cause of international friendship. He has been received by Presidents Wilson, Harding and Coolidge. He is now special contributor to the New York Times and his articles frequently appear in leading journals on both sides of the Atlantic.

Mr. Wilson's three books. "The Christ We Forget," "The Vision We Forget." "The Church We Forget" have had a large sale and the first of them has been translated into Dutch. Mr. Wilson is the editor of the first complete edition of the Greville Diary, published by Doubleday Page & Co., a work which may be regarded as a permanent addition to literature. He is also the biographer of John Wanamaker's partner, Robert C. Ogden, and of the explorer and evangelist, William Edgar Geil.

He has been elected an honorary; life member of the American Bible Society. He recently returned from Europe where he was personally received and entertained by David Lloyd George, J. Ramsay MacDonald, Philip Snowden. Arthur Henderson, Lord Oxford and Asquith and other statesmen.