Bill Passed 52/47

House Republicans attempted to use the budget reconciliation process to repeal the Affordable Care Act (aka Obamacare) and end federal funding for Planned Parenthood. Budget reconciliation is the one chance each year that the majority party gets to bypass the Senate filibuster to get a bill to the President's desk without needing a single vote from the minority party.

The House passed this bill \(https://www.govtrack.us/congress/votes/114-2015/h568\), the yearly budget reconciliation bill, sending it to the Senate. Because this special bill cannot be filibustered, Senate Republicans likely have the votes to pass it.

The bill would:

- Repeal the Affordable Care Act's mandates that individuals have health insurance and that employers provide it. (text)
- Repeal the "Cadillac" tax on premium health care ...

Congress \(/congress\) / Votes \(/congress/votes\) / House Vote #324 in 1996

H.R. 3166 (104th): False Statements Accountability Act of 1996

This was a vote to pass H.R. 3166 \(104th\) \(/congress/bills/104/hr3166\) in the House. This vote was taken under a House procedure called “suspension of the rules” which is typically used to pass non-controversial bills. Votes under suspension require a 2/3rds majority. A failed vote under suspension can be taken again.
