

COUNCIL on
FOREIGN RELATIONS

2010–2011 Donor Listing

Gifts to the Annual Fund
Operating Grants
Endowment and Other Special Gifts

Each year, the Council on Foreign Relations receives charitable gifts from a variety of sources, including its members, corporations, and foundations. As the premier foreign policy organization in the United States, CFR plays a leading role in contributing to the intellectual momentum that is needed to address a broad spectrum of urgent problems, and unrestricted gifts to the Annual Fund help ensure the organization's independence and nonpartisanship. Gifts to CFR are tax deductible to the full extent allowed by U.S. law and, in the case of individual members, are contributed over and above annual membership dues.

ANNUAL FUND

Gifts to the Annual Fund account for more than 10 percent of the organization's operating budget each year and support the Council's meetings, research, website, and related activities. The Annual Fund surpassed $6.77 million this year, with more than 35 percent of the membership participating. Our leadership group of Annual Fund benefactors, the Harold Pratt Associates (gifts from $15,000 to $34,999), had 152 members, and 84 members were recognized as members of the Chairman's Circle ($35,000 or greater). Many Council members leveraged their gifts by participating in corporate- or foundation-sponsored matching gift programs. CFR is honored to acknowledge all members who supported the 2010–2011 Annual Fund in the list that follows.

OPERATING GRANTS AND ENDOWMENT, RESTRICTED AND SPECIAL GIFTS

The Council on Foreign Relations is grateful to a number of foundations, corporations, individuals, and other sources that have provided program support for specific projects and initiatives over this past year. The David Rockefeller Studies Program; the Council's award-winning website, CFR.org; the Meetings Program; and the National Program were just some beneficiaries of these generous gifts. Endowment gifts for fellowships, special lectures, symposia, and various named events provide a steady stream of income to ensure such programs remain part of the Council's agenda in perpetuity. The Council is pleased to recognize those that provided these special gifts.
