2 My name is Susan
3 Lindauer. I was one of the 4 very few U.S. Intelligence
5 Assets covering Iraq and 6 Libya at the United Nations
7 in New York from 1995 to 8 2003. As a back channel, I
9 started talks for the 10 Lockerbie Trial with Libya's
11 senior diplomats. I also

12 conducted preliminary talks to resume weapons inspections with 13 Iraq's Ambassador Dr. Saeed Hasan, as part of a larger, 14 comprehensive peace framework.

15 I submit this sworn affidavit as evidence of criminal 16 actions by President George Bush, Vice President Richard Cheney, 17 Attorney General John Ashcroft, Attorney General Alberto 18 Gonzales; Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld and National 19 Security Adviser, Condoleeza Rice.

20 This affidavit will prove beyond any shadow of doubt that 21 those officials in the Bush Administration knowingly and 22 deliberately practiced "command failure" to thwart the 9/11
23 attack. It will prove that those officials hyped a War with Iraq 24 as a probable outcome of the attack, exciting motive and 25 opportunity for an orphan intelligence team to lay explosives
26 through the Towers to maximize damage and guarantee the outcome.

27 After the attack, White House officials compounded the 28 crime of mass murder with perjury and obstruction of justice in 29 the Federal Courts and the 9/11 Commission to a degree that 30 would be punishable offenses for ordinary citizens.

31 I also accuse Larry Silverstein of profiteering from 32 government lies about 9/11 to a degree that qualified as

1 insurance fraud. Together with government officials, Silverstein
2 committed multiple acts of perjury in the Federal Court of Chief
3 Justice Michael B. Mukasey, the Southern District of New York – 4 and obstruction of justice to protect the financial profits of 5 his insurance scam.

6 This was done with full knowledge of the consequence – that 7 a fellow American was subjected to false arrest, false 8 imprisonment on a military base without trial or hearing, and 9 threats of forcible drugging in prison, as a judicial effort to 10 destroy knowledge of the CIA's advance knowledge of 9/11 – thus 11 safeguarding Silverstein's profits. I know, because I was that 12 American.

13 Any ordinary citizen would face prison for Silverstein's 14 crimes – and their attorneys would face disbarment –whereas 15 Silverstein and White House officials got off scott free.

16 Above all, to understand why 9/11 was an "inside job," it's 17 critical to understand that its completion resulted from 18 opposing forces colliding against each other – one side working 19 aggressively to stop the attack, and the other undercutting 20 every proactive move.

21 This affidavit exposes their legacy.

22 I, Susan Lindauer, hereby swear under oath that I first 23 learned of the 9/11 Conspiracy from my CIA handler, Dr. Richard 24 Fuisz, in mid-April, 2001.

25 In April, I received a summons to visit Dr. Fuisz at his 26 office in Great Falls, Virginia. We met weekly anyway. On this 27 occasion, he rang my home and asked me to come straight away. He 28 inquired when I planned my next trip to the Iraqi Embassy at the 29 United Nations in New York. He wanted to talk before I left, and 30 he wanted me to go soon.

31 This does not strike me as unusual. My back channel to Iraq 32 and Libya existed to communicate messages back and forth from

1 Washington, because those countries had no official ties with 2 the United States. Most significantly, my team kept a special
3 line open for intelligence on terrorist activities that Tripoli 4 or Baghdad might need to share with the West. Even under 5 sanctions and global isolation, the importance of intelligence 6 to block terrorism was recognized as a necessary exemption to 7 U.S. foreign policy isolating Iraq.

8 And so I visited Dr. Fuisz immediately. He instructed me to 9 demand that Libya and Iraq must hand over any intelligence 10 regarding conspiracies involving airplane hijackings and/or 11 airplane bombings. He insisted that I must warn Iraqi diplomats 12 Baghdad would suffer a major military offensive— worse than 13 anything Iraq had suffered before— if the U.S. discovered
14 Saddam's government had possessed such intelligence on airplane 15 hijackings and failed to notify us through my back channel.

16 Admittedly, I was reluctant to deliver such a harsh 17 message. I have always been an anti-war activist. So on my next 18 trip to New York, I soft pedaled Dr. Fuisz's message. I asked 19 diplomats to send cables to Baghdad and Tripoli, watching for 20 possible airplane conspiracies. But I made no threats of violent 21 reprisal against Iraq or Libya.

22 When I got home to Washington, I met with Dr. Fuisz, who 23 demanded to know how Iraqi diplomats (only) had responded to his 24 threat. I admitted that I stopped short of delivering his full 25 message. But I assured him that I had requested Iraq's 26 cooperation.

27 At that point, Dr. Fuisz became enraged. In all of our 28 years together, I recall no other time that he lost his temper
29 and shouted at me. He stormed up and down the conference room, 30 letting loose a tirade punctuated with colorful obscenities. Dr.
31 Fuisz demanded that I must return to New York immediately. I

1 must not be polite. I must tell Iraqi diplomats exactly what he 2 said.

3 "The United States would bomb Baghdad back into the 4 Stone Age, worse than they've ever been bombed before, if 5 they discovered a terrorist conspiracy involving airplane
6 hijackings or airplane bombings and failed to notify us.
7 They would lose everything. We would destroy them."

8
9 There was one more point that Dr. Fuisz was adamant I must 10 communicate: "Those threats originated at the highest levels of 11 government," and I quote, "above the CIA Director and the 12 Secretary of State."

13 Those were his exact words. And it was not ambiguous. It 14 could only mean President George Bush, Vice President Richard 15 Cheney or Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld.

16 As of that conversation, there was no doubt in my mind that 17 the President's Office and the CIA were fully cognizant of the 18 existence of the conspiracy. Dr. Fuisz claimed the CIA lacked 19 "actionable intelligence" to stop the attack. (That's nuts and 20 bolts—who, day, flight #, airport hub). But the conspiracy 21 itself was known.

22 Dr. Fuisz was not pacified until I promised to deliver his 23 message with all the force that he communicated. He expressed 24 tremendous satisfaction that I would make sure

25 Iraqi diplomats understood the warning came from above the 26 CIA itself—not from him or me— but from the highest levels of 27 government "above the CIA Director and Secretary of State."

28 In early May, 2001, I returned to New York and delivered 29 that message exactly as he dictated.

30 Tension built throughout the summer of 2001. Practically 31 every week, we discussed the 9/11 strike. By June, our focus 32 turned to the World Trade Center. Our belief in that target was

1 very precise. We believed the attack would finish the cycle
2 started by Ramzi Youssef in the 1993 World Trade Center attack.
3 And we fully expected that airplanes would be seized by 4 hijackers and used as trajectory weapons to strike the Towers.
5 No other target was ever discussed – not the Pentagon or the 6 White House, only the World Trade Center.

7 We also discussed the possibility that a miniature thermo-
8 nuclear device might raze the buildings. Throughout the summer
9 of 2001, we were convinced the Twin Towers would be demolished, 10 using a combination of explosives with the airplanes. That's why 11 Dr. Fuisz warned me to stay out of New York in August. Nobody 12 worried that I might get hurt if the Towers collapsed. The CIA 13 worried about exposure to military grade contaminants in the 14 dust or air, including possible radiation.

15 Throughout June and July of 2001, Dr. Fuisz continued to 16 push hard for any fragment of actionable intelligence from Iraq.
17 After our first conversation in April, he never asked about 18 Libya at all. Over and over again, Dr. Fuisz demanded that I 19 threaten Baghdad – not Libya – if the strike occurred.

20 Every police officer will tell you a crime requires motive
21 and opportunity. I know from direct conversations with Dr. Fuisz 22 that six (6) months before 9/11, a cabal of pro-War neo-23 Conservatives at the top of the government was already prepping 24 the Intelligence Community to accept War with Iraq as the 25 inevitable consequence of the strike. That created "motive" and 26 plenty of advance opportunity for any pro-War intelligence team 27 to do the unthinkable – wire the Towers with explosives, to 28 guarantee maximum destruction and secure the desired outcome of 29 War. That's what I'm convinced happened. The evidence certainly 30 supports that conclusion.

31 As of May, 2001, Iraqi diplomats proposed an immediate 32 solution to the 9/11 conspiracy. As of February, 2001, Baghdad

1 agreed to allow an FBI Task Force into Iraq – to monitor radical 2 Jihadis who might attempt to exploit Baghdad's weakened central 3 authority to launch terrorist strikes on its neighbors. The CIA
4 made this demand through my back channel following the bombing
5 of the U.S.S. Cole in Yemen, in October, 2000. From the opening 6 days of the Bush Administration, Iraq agreed to show good will 7 towards Saudi Arabia and the Gulf States.

8 When confronted with the 9/11 scenario, Iraq placated the 9 U.S. masterfully: "Perhaps this would be the appropriate moment 10 for the FBI to start its work –" the diplomat suggested. "If the 11 United States is very worried, the FBI should come right away."

12 The world knows that never happened. Over the summer, Iraq
13 continued to invite the FBI, as U.S. warnings about 9/11
14 persisted. And I expressed frustration for the slow learning 15 curve of the Bush Administration, which felt unnatural after 16 eight years of rapid and decisive policy-making by the Clinton 17 White House.

18 The 1990s have been called the Halycon Years of U.S 19 Intelligence. From my perspective as an Asset, the arrival of 20 George Bush felt like driving a high performance Maserati after 21 some fool pours lower grade oil into the engine– and it starts 22 clunking and sputtering and seizing up. You don't know if the 23 car will keep running until the mechanic's ready to work on the 24 problem– or if the car will die on the street.

25 That was Republican Policy on anti-terrorism before 9/11.
26 Our problem was the CIA had to keep driving that car no matter
27 what. And we had to block terrorist threats against the U.S., 28 regardless of whether the White House was responsive to warnings 29 about those threats– or not.

30 Before 9/11, the answer was "not." I was not alone in 31 feeling frustrated. Throughout June and July, Dr. Fuisz 32 beseeched me not to filter intelligence on the impending aerial

1 strike on the World Trade Center. During our meetings, he would 2 painstakingly explain how urgently he needed to collect even 3 fragments of actionable intelligence on these airplane 4 hijackings, whether it made sense to me or not. He begged me to 5 hold nothing back. He appeared to be frantically searching for 6 anything to pre-empt the strike. In fairness, a significant 7 faction of CIA and Defense Intelligence urgently tried to stop 8 9/11.

9 Tensions accelerated to a head on August 2nd, the day of 10 the Senate hearings on Robert Mueller's nomination to head the 11 FBI.

12 My heated conversation with Dr. Fuisz about Mueller's 13 confirmation accounts for why I recall the timing of events so 14 precisely in the weeks before 9/11. I can pinpoint my actions to 15 the day of the week because of this hearing.

16 In our opinion, Robert Mueller was such a political animal 17 that we argued he would throw the FBI investigation into this 18 future attack on airplane hijackings used to strike the World
19 Trade Center! He'd do whatever was most helpful to politicians!

20
21 "You want me to crash the nomination hearings this 22 afternoon? Lay a little truth on Congress?" I said to Dr.
23 Fuisz.

24 "No. No, it's too late for that."

25 "Too late for the hearings? Or too late to stop the 26 Attack?"

27 "Both, I think."

28 "You think it's that soon???"

29 "I think it could be."

30 I was aghast. The phone got quiet for a moment.

31 "We can't do nothing, Richard."

32 "Of course not."

1 "I'm going to New York," I said. "I'll ask the Iraqis 2 again. I'll push them hard."

3 "What? When are you going?" I recall vividly the alarm 4 saturating his words.

5 "I'm going this weekend."

6 "No, no. This weekend? Don't go to New York, Susan.
7 Don't go. It's too dangerous."

8 "It's just the weekend. The day after tomorrow. I'll 9 be up and back. I'll stop by your office on Monday. I 10 understand what you guys want. I've been pushing Iraqi 11 diplomats all summer for any fragment of intelligence on 12 this attack. They know what's up. I will check if 13 something's come in from Baghdad."

14

15 August 4th would be my last trip to the Iraqi Embassy and 16 the Libya House before that fateful September morning. That's 17 something I deeply regretted for many years.

18 As it happens, there were extraordinary reasons for Dr.
19 Fuisz's concern. The "chatter" between terrorist cells monitored 20 by the National Security Agency reached unprecedented levels by 21 May 2001, which accelerated until September 11, 2001.

22 The U.S. Intelligence Community buzzed with warnings. On 23 July 10, 2001, CIA Director, George Tenet, was so alarmed by a 24 classified debriefing on the threat from Al Qaeda that he 25 marched straight to the White House.

26 A top CIA analyst suggested a major attack was coming in 27 the next few weeks. Apparently Tenet wasted no time alerting 28 Condoleezza Rice in writing. He also brought along one of the 29 CIA officers tracking Bin Laden, who gave Rice an oral 30 debriefing. Former Anti-Terrorism Czar, Richard Clarke strongly 31 endorsed the importance of the report. The CIA officer who gave 32 the briefing said the nation had to "go on a war footing now."

1 On Friday, Sept. 7, the State Department issued a worldwide
2 alert- "American citizens may be the target of a terrorist
3 threat from extremist groups with links to [Osama bin Laden's] 4 Al Qaeda organization." That report cited intelligence from May, 5 2001 as suggesting an attack was imminent. The State Department 6 bulletin warned "Al Qaeda does not distinguish between official 7 and civilian targets."

8 As one of the participants in those discussions, I am ready 9 to swear under oath that U.S. Intelligence anticipated the 10 attack in all of its precise detail. Intelligence predicted 11 airplane hijackings and a strike on the World Trade Center-not 12 the Pentagon or the White House.

13 What was missing was actionable intelligence to stop the 14 conspiracy - who were the terrorists, how many, which airport, 15 what airlines, what flight numbers. I was looking for a name. A 16 number. A fragment. All summer Dr. Fuisz pleaded with me
17 exhaustively to bring him anything at all. He swore that if I
18 could get it, the NSA and CIA would bust overtime to flesh it 19 out, and make sense of it, so that we could stop the attack.

20 I will prove now why action in August, 2001 (to maximize or 21 stall the attack) was so much bigger than ever reported.

22

23 PROOF OF A SECOND TEAM

24

25 By August, our hunt was becoming frenetic. I have physical 26 proof that a second intelligence team was also ferreting for 27 intelligence on the 9/11 conspiracy the weekend of August 4-5.
28 During a speaking tour through Japan before the release of my 29 book, "Extreme Prejudice," I spoke extensively about our team's 30 aggressive actions in the critical week after Robert Mueller's 31 Senate nomination hearing.

1 Low and behold, when I returned from Japan, I discovered a 2 copy of the original newsprint edition of The Wall Street
3 Journal dated July 30, 2001- pinned by a rose quartz paper 4 weight on my desk next to my computer, so that it would not get 5 thrown away. The faded 10 year old newspaper was addressed to my 6 boss at the street address of my consulting job in Silver 7 Spring, Maryland during the summer of 2001.

8 That's where I was working on August 2nd when I phoned Dr.
9 Fuisz on the day of Robert Mueller's nomination hearing. The 10 Wall Street Journal proves that several weeks before 11 9/11 somebody had gone to the trouble of tracking down where my 12 phone call to Dr. Fuisz originated.

13 That individual "visited" my office, no doubt seeking any 14 scribbles or papers that I might have left around my desk, which 15 might provide clues of what our team had discovered about the 16 conspiracy so far. It's standard practice to grab a newspaper 17 off a desk in situations like that, as an accurate snapshot with 18 the company's name, address and date, etc. It's a "proof of 19 life."

20 The July 30, 2001 edition of The Wall Street Journal would 21 have been tossed in the trash weeks before the official 9/11
22 investigation kicked off. Ergo, it could only have been grabbed 23 the week of Robert Mueller's nomination hearing.

24 Yes, it indicates another intelligence team picked the 25 locks to get into the office - (and tapped our phones). There's 26 a time when that sort of thing is necessary. And this would be 27 it! I'm grateful for it. Our team urgently desired as much help 28 as we could get.

29 This was a race to stop massive violence against the United 30 States - not a competition. All of us gravely worried over 31 what we all knew was coming. Intelligence teams are structured

1 to function independently and overlap, but (most of the time)
2 we're on the same side, with the same shared goals.

3 On that note, I take umbrage at the lies that were invented
4 by The 9/11 Commission over our so-called intelligence failures.
5 Prior to 9/11, the Intelligence Community was accustomed to 6 functioning on a superior and pro-active footing. U.S.
7 Intelligence had rapid fire reflexes, and a reputation for 8 attracting brilliant case officers. These were creative 9 strategists and problem solvers. They were the best and the 10 brightest.

11 The Intelligence Community was at the top of its game. It's 12 just not monolithic, like most civilians imagine. Teams are 13 separate and joined to different factions, with different 14 objectives and motivations.

15 That's where 9/11 went to hell.

16 9/11 was not the result of mistakes. It was a deliberate
17 execution. Though 90 percent of U.S. Intelligence tried to stop 18 the attack, the compartmentalized structure of the intelligence 19 community made it possible for a minority 10 percent to undercut 20 all the good work and proactive planning of the others.

21 That's what I believe happened on 9/11.

22 9/11 was an Inside Job that played a magician's trick on 23 the American people. All eyes were on the left hand - that would 24 be airplanes crashing into the Towers - But the real action was 25 done by the right hand. The controlled demolition of the Towers 26 using a combination of military grade explosives.

27 There, I bow to explosives experts on the type of explosive 28 devices and materials. There has been some excellent research on 29 thermatic bombs, which produce such heat intensity as to melt 30 steel, and create dust from a sulfur compound. [More recent 31 research, however, especially by T. Mark Hightower, suggests 32 that thermite / thermate / nanothermite could not have been the

1 principal cause of the destruction of the Twin Towers.]
2 Throughout the summer, we discussed the use of a miniature
3 thermo-nuclear device. It could have been a combination.

4 The point I must underscore is that our discussions from 5 June, July and August always presumed explosives would be used 6 in combination with the airplane hijackings to destroy the 7 Towers. I recall conversations where and how somebody could 8 locate the necessary explosives inside the United States—even a 9 nuke. How those explosives could be stolen from a military base
10 in driving range to New York City. We always forecast the total 11 destruction of the Towers in the attack, and predicted “mass 12 human casualties.”

13 9/11 fit our scenario in all detail. And so, I insist, 9/11
14 was not an intelligence failure. There was active concern.
15 Despite those efforts, it succeeded because a minority decided 16 to smash any progress by the majority to thwart the attack. They 17 were incited to act by wild leadership pronouncements that 18 maximum destruction would provoke War with Iraq. Threats of war 19 created motive for a second team to do the unthinkable.

20 The leadership egged them on. There are so many fail-safes
21 and trip wires in place to trigger pre-emptive responses that it 22 required a leadership decision to subvert the process.

23

24 DELIBERATE COMMAND FAILURES IN AUGUST

25

26 On my last trip to New York on August 4, 2001, Iraqi 27 diplomats threw up their hands. They’d been warned of the 28 consequences for months if something awful happened. Retribution 29 would be swift and severe. Nevertheless, even with his ear to 30 the ground, Saddam and his vast network of Iraqi Mukhabarat 31 could locate no actionable intelligence to give us. Saddam could 32 not find it!

1 Instead, diplomats insisted the U.S. was the only source 2 chattering about this airplane hijacking conspiracy. All
3 intelligence reports originated from us, they claimed! Diplomats 4 protested that Washington was demanding cooperation from 5 Baghdad, yet took no action to send the FBI. If the CIA believed 6 the conspiracy was real, we had options. Baghdad locked on to 7 Washington's failure to act as undercutting our sincerity.

8 My next face meeting with Dr. Fuisz took place on August 6, 9 2001. At the same hour of the same day, down at Crawford Ranch
10 in Texas, President Bush was handed a memo from the CIA
11 outlining the severe threat of a terrorist attack by Osama bin
12 Laden's network on the United States. I'm told President Bush 13 tossed aside the CIA's Presidential Briefing Memo: "Now you've 14 covered your ass. Let's go shoot some golf balls."

15 Unaware that President Bush had just blown off the CIA's 16 explicit warnings about the airplane hijackings and the planned 17 aerial strike on the World Trade Center, Dr. Fuisz and I decided 18 to request emergency assistance from the Justice Department.

19 At the instructions of Dr. Fuisz, I telephoned the private 20 office of U.S. Attorney General John Ashcroft, consisting of 21 about 20 senior staff. (Having worked in anti-terrorism for 22 almost a decade, our team had all the correct phone numbers to 23 raise the alarms in any terrorist crisis.)

24 Quickly I identified myself as the chief U.S. Asset 25 covering Libya and Iraq at the United Nations. That way I could 26 make sure the bureaucrat on the other end of the phone 27 recognized my special access to high level intelligence on 28 terrorism as a primary source, which should be weighed before 29 disregarding my call.

30 Once I had the staffer's attention, I made a formal request 31 for Attorney General Ashcroft's office to "broadcast an 32 emergency alert through all agencies, seeking any fragment of

1 intelligence pertaining to possible airplane hijackings or 2 airplane bombings.”

3 I explained that we believed “a major attack on the United 4 States was imminent, with a high probability of mass 5 casualties.” I expressly stated that we believed “the target was 6 the World Trade Center, which would suffer some sort of aerial 7 strike, using hijacked airplanes.” I provided as many specific 8 details as possible to help focus the investigation.

9 Given the dangers and timing of the attack, I asked that 10 “our request for emergency cooperation should be given the 11 highest priority.”

12 Immediately Attorney General Ashcroft’s private staff gave 13 me a phone number at the Office of Counter-Terrorism at the 14 Justice Department, and urged me to repeat my message. I did so 15 without delay. I repeated the warning in full detail, and 16 requested that any possible information should be submitted 17 immediately to all agencies.

18 With those phone calls to the Attorney General’s private 19 staff and the Office of Counter-Terrorism, the U.S. government 20 lost its cover of deniability. If I testified before the 9/11
21 Commission or any congressional inquiry—the Justice Department 22 would have been forced to admit that some of its very own top 23 staff received formal warning about the conspiracy by early 24 August, when there was still time to coordinate a response, and 25 thwart the demolition of the Towers.

26 I didn’t stop there. Most Americans would be stunned to 27 know that in mid-August, our team was so convinced a 9/11 style
28 attack was “imminent,” that I visited my second cousin, Andy 29 Card, Chief of Staff to President Bush, requesting his 30 intervention at the Justice Department, too.

31 I parked on the street outside his house in Arlington,
32 Virginia, chain smoking for almost two hours. (I quit in 2005!)

1 Occasionally, I could see neighbors peering out of their windows 2 and frowning at me.

3 In my head, I rehearsed what I would tell Virginia State
4 Police or the Secret Service, if they showed up to investigate
5 this strange car parked outside the home of the Chief of Staff
6 to the President of the United States.

7 Unhappily, Andy did not return that afternoon. I finally 8 left without sharing our fears. Driving away, I distinctly 9 recall asking myself if I might be making the greatest mistake
10 of my life. Throughout all these years, it is one of my few 11 regrets.

12 What I could not know, is that another intelligence faction 13 was working aggressively opposite us—anticipating all of the 14 protocols to stop the strike, and sabotaging our best efforts to 15 activate the warning system.

16 Like the copy of The Wall Street Journal that appeared on 17 my desk after my Japanese book tour, a trustworthy source 18 revealed this to me after the first edition of my book, Extreme 19 Prejudice had gone to galleys. The new second edition includes 20 this information.

22 SECURITY CAMERAS CAPTURE MYSTERIOUS VANS

23

24 Late on the night of August 23, 2001, at about 3 a.m.
25 security cameras in the parking garage of the World Trade Center 26 captured the arrival of three or four truck vans. Visual 27 examination determined the vans were separate and unique from 28 trucks used by janitorial services, including different colors 29 and markings. More curious, all the janitorial trucks had pulled 30 out of the Towers by about 2:30 a.m — half an hour before the 31 second set of vans arrived.

1 According to my source, who saw the tapes, no vans matching 2 that description entered the parking garage at that 3 extraordinary hour in any of the weeks or months prior to August 4 23. It was a unique event.

5 Security cameras caught the vans leaving the Towers at 6 approximately 5 a.m – before the first wave of Wall Street
7 tycoons arrived to track the Asian markets.

8 For the next 10 to 12 nights, the same mysterious vans
9 arrived at the World Trade Center at the same mysterious hour – 10 after the janitorial crews had left the building and before the 11 robber barons on Wall Street started their work day. The vans
12 clocked into the parking garage from approximately August 23, 13 2001 until September 2 or 3, 2001.

14 After that last night, they never appeared at the Towers
15 again. The vans were never heard of again, either. The 9/11
16 Commission was never informed of their surprising presence on 10 17 consecutive nights up to the week before the 9/11 strike.

18 Were the vans transporting explosives into the Towers – or 19 transporting gold reserves out? Or possible some combination of 20 the two? We cannot be certain.

21 Video from those security cameras in the parking garage
22 could be the most significant missing evidence of the 9/11
23 puzzle. My source was convinced those mysterious trucks 24 transported explosives into the Towers, so that this 25 unidentified orphan team could finish wiring the World Trade 26 Center for a controlled demolition.

27 My source has stayed quiet to protect his government job,
28 his retirement pension and his reputation – knowing that others 29 who spoke up have gotten fired or thrown in prison.

30 Like me.

1 CONFIRMATION BY A CIVILIAN WITNESS

2

3 Unlike others who could be bullied into silence (or bought 4 off), I was adamant that I wanted to talk. I made one fatal
5 mistake. I requested to testify through proper channels. I
6 declared my intention to show how 9/11 intersected with Pre-War 7 Intelligence. My testimony before a blue ribbon Presidential 8 Commission on Pre-War Intelligence would have disclosed the 9 existence of a comprehensive peace framework – and Baghdad's 10 eager efforts to cooperate with the 9/11 investigation.

11 My testimony would have put 9/11 into a larger global 12 perspective – which most Americans still don't understand to 13 this very day.

14 It's greater insight as to why the Pro-War Cabal urgently 15 required a Pearl Harbor Day, in order to overcome international 16 loathing of another War in Iraq.

17 I should have known better than to trust Congress. Thirty 18 days after I phoned the Offices of Senator John McCain and 19 Senator Trent Lott, I woke to find the FBI pounding on my front 20 door. At that point, I gained a new distinction as the second 21 non-Arab American arrested on the Patriot Act, facing secret 22 charges, secret evidence and secret grand jury testimony. I was 23 held under indictment for five years without a Trial-and thrown 24 in prison on Carswell Air Force Base in Texas for a year, 25 without a hearing.

26 To Washington's greatest shame, the Patriot Act, which 27 Congress proclaimed a key judicial weapon to break up terrorism
28 in the United States, was first used to stop a whistle blower
29 from telling the truth about 9/11 and Iraqi Pre-War 30 Intelligence.

31 Over my fiercest objections, on Carswell Air Force Base, I 32 was declared "incompetent to stand trial" – and threatened with

1 forcible injections of Haldol, a zombie drug that imitates the 2 stone-like effects of Parkinson's Disease.

3 That's an old intelligence tactic from the Cold War, 4 designed to scare into Assets into silence. Believe me, the 5 threat can be very effective.

6 All the while, the Justice Department aggressively lied to 7 the Court about my team's 9/11 warnings.

8 That subterfuge was no accident (as the corporate media 9 would like the public to believe). Chief Justice Michael Mukasey 10 was also hearing the financial lawsuit brought by Larry 11 Silverstein, owner of the World Trade Center, and his insurance 12 claims for 9/11.

13 I recall distinctly Silverstein's high-priced New York
14 attorneys strutting into Court, while I got shackled and marched 15 off to my cell, and my public attorney chatted.

16 Silverstein's attorneys could not have been ignorant of the 17 ferocity of our debate. The Courtroom was abuzz with my outrage 18 and urgent pleas that my Intelligence team had full knowledge of 19 the 9/11 Conspiracy, and tried to warn the Bush Administration 20 officials about the dangers of the impending attack.

21 Silverstein's attorneys heard it all - including my frantic 22 appeals not to be forcibly drugged without a hearing to prove 23 that I had warned about 9/11.

24 It was a tangled web of deceit from start to finish.

25 Even the bailiffs looked at me with eyes filled with 26 horror.

27 The pretense of my "incompetence" was an outrage to protect 28 White House and Congressional leaders.

29 Unhappily for Silverstein's attorneys and the Bush
30 Administration, they quickly discovered that I warned civilian 31 friends about the 9/11 style of attack, too - particularly 32 friends with family or professional ties to New York City.

1 That's where the Feds got crossed up.

2 Four years almost to the day before my sworn testimony at 3 the Vancouver Tribunal on 9/11 – on June 17, 2008, a Canadian 4 Resident named Parke Godfrey, who lives in Toronto, was sworn in 5 to testify at the Federal Courthouse of Manhattan. The 6 Courthouse stands 1,000 feet from Ground Zero, where the World
7 Trade Center once graced the New York skyline.

8 Godfrey's testimony was a watershed moment for the 9/11
9 community. For 4 1/2 years prior to that day, the U.S.

10 Justice Department had fought savagely to stop his 11 testimony from reaching public ears.

12 Despite the public's ignorance, Godfrey's revelations were 13 already notorious to the U.S. Attorney General's office, the 14 Office of Counter-Terrorism, the FBI, the Royal Canadian Mounted 15 Police, and the U.S. Bureau of Prisons – not to mention top
16 officials at the White House, CIA and Defense Intelligence 17 Agency.

18 Parke Godfrey was one of my closest friends in Maryland, 19 working on his Ph.D. in computer science at the University of 20 Maryland in College Park.

21 His family lived in the Connecticut suburbs of New York 22 City. We spoke frequently by phone, socializing a couple of 23 times a week, and shared much of the same political outlook.

24 Godfrey has a distinguished career as a tenured Professor 25 of Computer Science and Technology at York University in 26 Toronto, Canada. He presents a calm, studied demeanor. He speaks 27 precisely and methodically, choosing his words carefully – what 28 some friends have teasingly compared to Dr. Spock of Star Trek.
29 During difficult courtroom questioning, he would frequently 30 pause and take his time to give an accurate, thoughtful 31 response. He proved a superior witness by any measure.

1 In shattering testimony, Godfrey told the Court how several 2 times in the spring and summer of 2001 I warned him that we 3 expected a major terrorist strike that would encompass the World
4 Trade Center.

5 BRIAN SHAUGHNESSY, Attorney for My Defense: "Did there 6 come a time when she was concerned about a possible attack
7 on the United States?"

8 GODFREY: "She had described that."

9 SHAUGHNESSY: "What did she describe?"

10 GODFREY: "In particular, she warned me when I was job 11 hunting and considering potential work in New York— because 12 I liked New York City— that New York City was dangerous. In 13 particular she was predicting that there was going to be a 14 massive attack here. In southern Manhattan. This was before 15 9/11."

16 "So when I was looking for the job at William and 17 Mary, which was late 2000 - I was at York University, but 18 looking at other universities [for a sabbatical] - she 19 warned [me] not to consider New York because she thought an 20 attack was imminent here."

21 SHAUGHNESSY: "Continue, please."

22 GODFREY: "I asked her about the nature of it. She said 23 that she thought it would be something very, very big. I 24 asked her, "Well, what do you mean?" She said that it would 25 involve airplanes and possibly a nuclear weapon. She said 26 that what was started in '93, she thought was going to come 27 back."

28 SHAUGHNESSY: "What was that she referenced as having 29 started in '93?"

30 GODFREY: "Well, the attempt on the World Trade Center 31 at the time."

1 SHAUGHNESSY: "Did she believe, or was she telling you 2 that very shortly there was likely to be another attack of 3 that nature?"

4 GODFREY: "She did. She said that it would complete the 5 cycle of the 1993 attack. And she said that there would be 6 an attack in late summer, early fall."

7 "In August, she told me that she thought it was some 8 time imminent."

9 SHAUGHNESSY: "Now, did you know any of the things that 10 she was doing that might have given her access to 11 information, that might lead to a prediction of that 12 nature?"

13 GODFREY: "Well, I had known that she was active in 14 trying to prevent escalation with what turned out to be the 15 war in Iraq."

16 At another point, Godfrey detailed the Justice
17 Department's knowledge of my 9/11 warnings.

18 GODFREY: "In September, 2004- I was interviewed by 19 the FBI in Mississauga [adjacent to Toronto], in the 20 presence of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The RCMP 21 insisted on this, as the interview was in Canada, and I was 22 a Canadian resident. I spoke with FBI special agent Suzan 23 LeTourneau."

24 "While the interview focused on mundane details of Ms.
25 Lindauer's life, I told {Special Agent} LeTourneau that Ms.
26 Lindauer had predicted the 9/11 attack throughout the 27 spring and summer of 2001, and that her prediction was very 28 specific. It involved airplane hijackings and a strike on 29 the World Trade Center."

30
31 Parke Godfrey's testimony sworn under oath in the Federal 32 Courthouse in Manhattan provides irrefutable proof that the FBI

1 received confirmations of my 9/11 warnings by September, 2004 –
2 a few months after my arrest and before the 9/11 Commission
3 issued its report. In truth, the FBI and the U.S. Attorney's 4 Office in Manhattan had time to alert the 9/11 Commissioners 5 about this shattering revelation.

6 Instead, they made a decision to withhold exculpatory
7 knowledge from the Court of Chief of Justice Michael B. Mukasey
8 – who was hearing arguments from Larry Silverstein's attorneys 9 seeking a massive insurance settlement. Twelve months later, I
10 got shipped off to Carswell Prison, while the Justice Department 11 vigorously denied all knowledge of my 9/11 warnings. Once I was 12 in prison on Carswell Air Force Base, the Justice Department
13 argued vigorously that I should be forcibly drugged with Haldol, 14 Ativan and Prozac until I stopped claiming to have warned about 15 the attack.

16 Godfrey's testimony proves the Cover-Up Conspiracy was 17 widespread throughout the Justice Department.

18 GODFREY: "In early December 2005, a few months after 19 Ms. Lindauer had been sent to Carswell Prison, I spoke with 20 the psychologist handling her competence evaluation for the 21 Court. I attempted to confirm that Ms. Lindauer had made 22 predictions of a terrorist attack in Manhattan to me and 23 others prior to the 9/11 attack. He seemed to have no
24 interest in hearing this. Our conversation was brief."

25 "While she was still detained in prison, I offered to 26 travel from Toronto and testify at any hearing on her 27 mental competence, on what I knew of her political 28 activities before her indictment, about warnings of 29 terrorist attacks, and other aspects which might interest
30 the Court."

31 "I attended the hearing on forcible drugging in May, 32 2006. In fact, I arrived at Court, assuming that I was to

1 testify. Her attorney, Sam Talkin, did not call me. In 2 conversation that day, I told him that she made warnings of 3 a terrorist attack to me and others, in advance of 9/11. I 4 told him that I was mortified by what the Court seemed to 5 be doing."

6 He expressed concern for the legal competence of my 7 attorney, Mr. Talkin as well.

8 GODFREY: "I made myself available to speak with the 9 investigator working for her defense attorney. I was 10 prepared for a lengthy conversation, including a discussion 11 of Ms. Lindauer's 9/11 warning. I was surprised when the 12 investigator cut short the conversation after only five to 13 ten minutes. His questions seemed far inadequate for the 14 scope of the indictment against Ms. Lindauer, and for what 15 I felt I had to share with her Defense Attorney."

16 GODFREY: "Several months later, I contacted Ms.
17 Lindauer's uncle, Ted Lindauer, and spoke with him at 18 greater length about several issues in her case, including 19 her 9/11 warnings. I can verify that Ms. Lindauer felt 20 compelled to seek her uncle's assistance interviewing
21 witnesses for her case, before she got sent to Carswell."

22 Godfrey's cross-examination with the Prosecutor on 23 9/11 was aimed at sowing confusion. The Prosecutor tried to 24 dismiss my 9/11 warning as "a premonition."

25 Godfrey adamantly corrected him that it was "a 26 prediction- not a premonition."

27 And he stuck by it, never deviating from the word.

28 For the sake of further clarity, he submitted an 29 affidavit on my team's 9/11 warnings, which cuts through 30 the Prosecutor's attempts to deflect the impact of my 31 warning.

1 GODFREY: "Ms. Lindauer's original warning to me in 2 2000 was somewhat vague, describing her opinion that a
3 terrorist attack would occur in New York City. I recall 4 that by the spring and summer of 2001, her warning became 5 much more emphatic and explicit. She got much more agitated 6 about the likelihood of the attack."

7 "Ms. Lindauer confided on several occasions that the 8 next terrorist attack would involve airplane hijackings
9 and/or airplane bombings."

10 "In the spring and summer of 2001, she claimed it 11 would reprise the 1993 attack on the World Trade Center.
12 She described it as completing the cycle started in that 13 first attack."

14 "She definitely tied the threat of airplane hijackings
15 to some sort of strike on the World Trade Center—and the 16 possible use of a miniature nuclear bomb. That's what she 17 was predicting."

18 "In August, 2001, Ms. Lindauer told me the attack was 19 "imminent. She warned me to stay out of New York City. She 20 told me the situation was very dangerous, and that a lot of 21 people would get killed in this attack. She expected heavy 22 casualties."

23 Godfrey disputed the notion of my incompetence whole 24 heartedly, and roundly castigated the Justice Department.

25 GODFREY: "In my opinion, contrary to the Justice 26 Department lawyers, Ms. Lindauer is now, and always was, 27 competent to stand trial. The decision to accuse her of 28 incompetence was baffling to myself and many others. I was 29 forced to conclude that it was likely politically motivated 30 to block her request for a trial."

31 "Throughout this entire ordeal, Susan Lindauer 32 suffered harassment. She faced inexcusable delays in

1 setting a trial date, (or dropping the charges). She was 2 repeatedly questioned in court over the reliability of her 3 terrorist warnings, despite that her warnings had been 4 corroborated by me and by many others in affidavits, and 5 under oath in spoken testimony. She was incarcerated in a 6 mental facility, within a federal prison for 7 months, 7 1,600 miles from her home for supposed observation.
8 And then held in confinement for months afterwards."

9 "The FBI and the US Attorneys Office's behavior in Ms.
10 Lindauer's case were abhorrent. It is quite clear that much 11 more was going on."

12
13 At the defendant's table, I recall a grim satisfaction of 14 triumph. My mind flashed back to those terrified nights at 15 Carswell Air Force Base and the Metropolitan Correctional Center
16 in Manhattan, writing frantic, tearful letters to Judge Mukasey 17 at 2 in the morning.

18 Everything I said was truthful always. Within a few months
19 of my arrest, the FBI, the US Attorneys Office in Manhattan -
20 even the Royal Canadian Mounted Police - were fully aware that a 21 private citizen outside the Intelligence Community stood ready 22 to authenticate my 9/11 warning in a Court of Law.

23 Notably, Godfrey's testimony could not be suppressed by 24 secrecy laws. His revelations would have created serious
25 blowback for Congress. Politicians, pundits and the 9/11 26 Commission strongly denounced "conspiracy theorists" who 27 believed action should have been possible to prevent the strike, 28 or substantially cripple its impact.

29 The 9/11 Commission Report would have been exposed as an 30 egregious public fraud on so many levels. The truth would be out 31 in the open. That provided a strong motivation for the Justice 32 Department to fight my demands for a trial, or even a hearing.

1 This affidavit proves that 9/11 was an Inside Job. There
2 were countless ways to stop the attack, which were defeated
3 systematically. Afterwards, the 9/11 investigation was crafted
4 to hide shocking decisions by White House leaders and Attorney 5 General John Ashcroft, which enabled the attack to go forward as 6 planned. And profits were shoveled out to Larry Silverstein, at 7 the expense of freedom, and the lives of our fellow Americans.

8 Shame on the White House and Congress! Shame on the Justice 9 Department! Shame on the greed of Larry Silverstein! Shame on 10 the CIA for saving the politicians! They don't deserve praise 11 for their national security policy!

12 If you want to know who committed 9/11, turn on the 13 television or look in the mirror!

14

15 The enemy is Us. It was always Us.
