Duy Lam: Union of Form and Color

ArtSpace Herndon - July 16, 2013 - In Union of Form and Color ArtSpace Herndon presents the paintings of Vietnamese painter Duy Lam. The exhibit opens Tuesday August 6 and runs through Sunday September 1, 2013. An artist reception will be held on Saturday August 10, 2013 from 6 to 8 p.m. Duy Lam has lived a rich and adventurous life as a painter, poet, soldier, former POW, yoga master, teacher, and philosopher. Duy Lam's painting represents an infinite form of expression: his remembrance of a poignant past and his inexhaustible quest for a timeless beauty and an immortal peace.

Duy Lam was born in Hanoi, 1932. He was a Lt. Colonel of the Army of the Republic of Vietnam and was imprisoned in the communist concentration camps for 12 years. In 1990, Duy Lam immigrated to the United States with his family. His creative energies reflect the history of his past.

He was also the Vietnamese who received the best prize in poetry. He grew up under the tutelage of the renowned Tu Luc Van Doan and was a published writer (My Family (Gia Đình Tôi in Vietnamese) in Vietnam's literary world. Military duties during the Vietnam War put his artistic career on the backburner. He was a Lieutenant Colonel of the Army of the Republic of Vietnam. After the war was over, he was imprisoned in various concentration camps for 12 years. He became an honorary member of PEN International Congress in 1958. He also happens to be a relative of one of our fellow members.

Come meet him at the reception being held at the Art Space Herndon Gallery
Saturday, August 10th, from 6 PM to 8 PM
Light Refreshments will be served

Capool

If you would like to meet him on campus at 5:30 PM, and capool over to the gallery, email me and let me know if you are willing to drive, or would like a ride.

Best, Samir K. Khatib
