

Anne Rockhold joined Accel in 2010 and currently serves as the firm’s Chief Financial Officer. Anne has over twenty-five years of finance and administrative experience, with venture experience as Chief Financial Officer at both SVB Capital and Vanguard Ventures. Anne is the past Chairman and a past Board Member of VCBC, an association of over 350 venture capital CFOs, and is currently on the board of the NVCA and a member of the NVCA’s CFO task force. Previously, Anne served as Chief Financial Officer for Pacific Specialty Insurance Company and the American Basketball League. She also held senior financial positions at Ross Systems and Interlink Computer Sciences where she was actively involved in their initial public offerings, as well as several private financings and acquisitions. Anne taught graduate accounting courses at the University of California, Berkeley Extension program and she earned her Certified Public Accountant (CPA) designation (currently inactive) while at Ernst & Young where she worked in both the audit and tax departments. Anne graduated cum laude from the University of California at Los Angeles where she earned a Bachelor’s Degree in Economics.

URL: <http://www.accel.com/#people/anne-rockhold>

Accessed Nov. 19, 2013 02:47 EST