14 BRODY: Steve Bannon, one of your top advisors just the 15 other day, to the New York Times, called the media the 16 'opposition party.' Do you believe that?

17 TRUMP: I think to a large extent they're much more capable 18 than the other side.

19 BRODY: Other side, meaning?

20 TRUMP: Yeah, I think the media is the opposition party in 21 many ways. And, I think that, and I'm not talking about all of 22 them. I know people like yourself, but I know people in the 23 media that I have tremendous respect for. Respect them as much
24 as anybody, so I'm not talking about everybody, but a big 25 portion of the media, the dishonesty, the total deceit and 26 deception makes them certainly partially the opposition party, 27 absolutely. I think they're much more capable than the 28 opposition party. The opposition party is losing badly.

29 Now, the media is on the opposition party's side. And, I
30 actually said to myself, I say, they treat me so unfairly it's 31 hard to believe that I won. But, the fortunate thing about me
32 is I have a big voice. I have a voice that people understand.
33 And, you see it now. We're bringing back jobs.

34 Ford is making a massive investment now in Michigan,
35 General Motors is going to be making just magnificent 36 investments, so many other companies are coming back in. But, 37 yeah, the media is a disgrace, and they've called me wrong from 38 the beginning. The New York Times has called me wrong from the 39 beginning.

40 BRODY: They underestimated you?

41 TRUMP: They actually apologized to their readers. They 42 lost a lot of subscriptions not because their readers even like 43 me. They said, how inaccurate could you be? Because, if you
44 read The New York Times, there was no chance that Trump was 45 going to win.

46 And yet, we'd go out there, and I'd feel that I was going 47 to win based on the crowds. You saw the crowds better than 48 anybody. So, it's a very interesting fact.
