much more. Last week Mr. Paz decided he just could not hold back any longer and he made this video. (VIDEO BELOW)

"I'm a retired agent from the Federal Bureau of Investigation, not the the Federal Bureau of Matter, or Matters."

Cesar Paz, retired special agent with the FBI

[There are many SHOCKING Revelations in this video. It appears that former FBI director James Comey, who President Trump just fired, enriched himself greatly using his government, and Clinton connections. This is HUGE! The Crooked Liberal Media will hide this. Please SHARE with everyone you know as soon as you read the questions below the video. (VIDEO BELOW)

Here is a list of some of Agent Paz's questions for Comey:]

Isn't it true that you were an assistant U.S. attorney for a prosecutor between 1996 and 2003?

In your official capacity at the Department of Justice, did you investigate and did you clear Bill Clinton of any wrongdoing for extending a presidential pardon to Marc Rich, a fugitive from justice, a fugitive of the United States?

Isn't it true that between 2003 and 2005, you held a position with the office of the Attorney General?

Isn't it true that in 2005, you resigned from the Department of Justice and accepted a job as the senior vice-president with the office of general counsel at Lockheed Martin, a company that is a major, major military contractor?

Isn't it true that in 2010, when you were employed with Lockheed Martin, Lockheed won 17 approvals for private contracts with the Department of State while Hillary Clinton was the Secretary of State?

Isn't it true that in 2010, while you were employed with Lockheed Martin, Lockheed became a major contributor to the Clinton Foundation and non-profit organizations?

Assigned to the FBI San Juan Division, in 1991. Handled a plurality of Fugitive, Bank Robbery violations as well as the coverage of Presidential Appointees' background investigations in the U.S. Virgin Islands. Participated in Domestic Terrorism investigations targeting upper echelon members of the clandestine terrorist organization "Los Macheteros" {The Machete Wielders}.

Transferred to the Miami Division, in 1992. Investigated International Drug Trafficking, Money Laundering, International and Domestic Terrorism, White Slavery/Mann Act violations.

Investigated the overseas homicide of U.S. Army Corporal Zak Hernandez who was brutally murdered in retaliation for President George H. W. Bush's visit to Panama subsequent to "Operation Just Cause". Dealt with all aspects of the handling of three extraterritorial eye witnesses who testified during trial in the Republic of Panama, on behalf of the U.S., in October 1997. Coordinated and effected the in country security and safe housing for the witnesses and 21 family members pre, during and post trial. Liaised with U.S. Army South (USARSO) and intelligence community officials, and developed contingency emergency plans for the evacuation of the witnesses and their relatives in the event of retaliation on the part of the subject terrorists.

Investigated the bombing of a Panamanian commuter Alas Chiricanas aircraft in which twenty one (21) people died including three U.S. citizens.

Assigned to the FBI, High Intensity Drug Trafficking Areas (HIDTA) Task Force, in May 1998. Initiated a case targeting a Miami based criminal enterprise composed of individuals who migrated to the U.S. during the "Mariel" boat lift and others from Central and South America. The members of this organization utilized police paraphernalia, operated from 1984 through 1999, and were responsible for multiple robberies, at least six homicides, drug and money rip-offs, home invasions, kidnappings, torture, extortion, drug trafficking, money laundering, a DEA Residence Agency bombing attempt, etc. This criminal enterprise was dismantled in 1999. A total of over forty subjects (40) were arrested, indicted, thirty five (35) convicted, and sentenced. The sentences ranged between five (5) and thirty six (36) years in prison.

Involved as the Case Agent targeting the North Coast and Cali Cartels' maritime freighter cocaine smuggling, distribution, and money laundering operations. As a direct result of his efforts, numerous multi-ton loads of cocaine were seized, dozens of subjects were arrested, indicted, convicted, and several freighters forfeited. Demonstrated superb leadership and coordinating abilities as approximately 4,840 lbs. (2,200 kilograms) of cocaine were loaded and transported via Hercules C-130 aircraft from the U.S. Virgin Islands to Miami after seizure from the North Coast Cartel's Motor Vessel (M/V) Adriatik as hurricane Lenny was pounding upon the islands.

Through investigative efforts, caused the disruption of numerous smuggling operations directed by Colombian narco-terrorist cells, North Coast, and Cali Cartels. Due to the multiple disruptions and seizures, twenty three North Coast and Cali Cartels' members, and associates were assassinated by the Cartels.

Developed and handled domestic as well as extraterritorial sources. In a creatively and in an extremely effective and risky but calculated manner, actively recruited two "Upper Echelon" Colombian sources who were highly trusted by the North Coast Cartel. Exhibited considerable resourcefulness, and humanitarian support during the recovery of another extraterritorial source that was critically shot in the chest in Colombia in retaliation for the seizure of two loads (11,000 lbs., 5000 kgs.) of cocaine. Directed and assisted the source in his/her efforts to re-establish himself/herself within the Cartel. This source successfully continued participation for several years.

Investigative success in the international arena has been repeatedly demonstrated throughout deployments to North, Central, South America, the Caribbean, and the Middle East in support of FBI international investigations.
