According to USAspending.gov, Serco Inc. has been awarded 15,769 prime U.S. federal contracts, not counting secondary contracts where they are a supplier to a prime, between Oct. 01, 2007 and May 4, 2018, totaling $5,518,502,991, including management of the U.S. Patent Office.

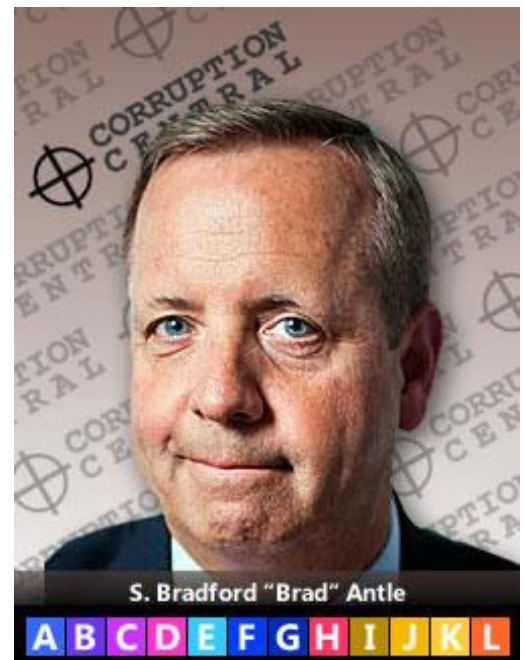

This means that Serco Inc.—a wholly British-owned company led by Sir Roy Gardner and Rupert Soames OBE who have pledged oaths of fealty to the British Crown—has been awarded $43,452,779 in new contracts every month since Serco Group Plc (UK) purchased the CACI, Inc. and Lockheed Martin-conceived SI International, Inc. \(8-K\), Serco Inc.’s predecessor U.S. company started by S. Bradford Antle, Lockheed Martin’s Director of Washington D.C. Technical Operations, a post he continued to hold after joining SI International, Inc. in 1999. See S. Bradford Antle’s bio.

Lockheed Martin UK Holdings Limited controls, and is Serco Group Plc’s and British Nuclear Fuels Limited partner, in AWE Management Limited (UK) in which the Crown holds a “Golden Share.” The Crown also holds a Golden Share in the global uranium and aluminum mining giant Rio Tinto Plc. These Golden Shares give the Crown effective control of Lockheed Martin and Serco operations globally.
