We have more information on election rigger Joseph Sullivan and are posting here for white hats and media creators to pick up and use as they think best. Keep educating and enlightening your circle of influence.

Joey Sullivan is Robert Mueller's man for the crypto keys for the world.

Well now, that would be a conflict of interest for the FBI, DOJ and Mueller himself since Joey controls all the crypto keys for the Boards of Elections in Florida, Ohio, Arizona and probably all of them via secretive Certificate Authority "chaining"

The timing of Mueller's recruiting of Joseph E. Sullivan and the FBI's "high tech team" (late 1990's) further confirms James P. Chandler, III's central organizing role in rogue intelligence's "IBM Internet of Things." At that same time, Chandler was advising the DOJ on the first criminal prosecutions under the newly-minted Economic Espionage and Federal Trade Secrets Act of 1996 (August 28, 1998, USA v. Hsu). He has been riding the Internet crime wave since 1997, when he moved to Las Vegas as a federal prosecutor. When the DOJ started a computer crime program, recruiting one prosecutor in every office to work on cybercrime cases, he volunteered and began working on early eBay fraud and software piracy cases. After Bob Mueller, now director of the FBI, started recruiting a high-tech team to work in the DOJ's Silicon Valley office in 1999, Sullivan jumped at the chance, putting him at the center of cybercrime during the Internet boom. In 2002 he went to eBay, where his security detail included the units PayPal and Skype. That's when he had to make a fundamental shift in his thinking—not just how best to prosecute criminals but also how much information to hold back from authorities to protect the rights of customers.

Joseph E. Sullivan freely provides information to FBI and spies – "no need for a court order" at Haaretz.com, the Israeli news site. Sullivan claimed that eBay's privacy policy was "flexible," allowing it to freely provide information to investigators—"no need for a court order," Sullivan said. Haaretz wrote an outraged report about eBay's collusion with Big Brother.

Like mother, like son.

THE OLDEST OF SEVEN CHILDREN, Sullivan grew up in Cambridge, Mass. He describes his father as a painter and sculptor, and his mother as a schoolteacher who wrote mystery stories about a nun who was a private eye. "So I rebelled and went to law school," he says. (A Google search revealed that the apple did not fall so very far from the tree, though. Sullivan's mother was a CIA analyst in Russia in the 1960s before she settled down to start a family.)

Joey Sullivan, the confidence trickster. His mother is C.I.A.! (Freudian Slip? Once CIA, always CIA).

Is he now passing the vote tally for Florida, Ohio, Arizona, etc. directly to the rogue his mentor Bob Mueller/C.I.A./SES as chief security officer at Cloudflare? Is the sun hot?

WikiLeaks' Julian Assange has called Facebook the world's perfect spying machine, with access to 40% of the world's two billion Internet users. A 24-year-old Austrian law student recently took advantage of Europe's "right to access" law—which forces companies to provide all information they have on a citizen upon request—to get his Facebook file. After three years on the site it ran to an incredible 1,222 pages long.

Sullivan scoffs at the spying machine characterization. "We don't have a data pipeline to the CIA," he says. "If people had horrible experiences, they would stop using Facebook."
