

Arvinder Sambei

Arvinder Sambei is a lawyer of over 30 years' experience and has previously held the posts of Head of Criminal Law at the Commonwealth Secretariat, Senior Crown Prosecutor (Crown Prosecution Service of England & Wales), and Legal Adviser to the Permanent Joint Headquarters (PJHQ) at the UK's Ministry of Defence.

Arvinder has advised states, corporates and individuals on extradition law and international co-operation, public international law (international human rights law, international humanitarian law, immunities and state responsibility), international criminal law, counter-terrorism/terrorism financing and anti-corruption. As a senior prosecutor, she has also had conduct of many of the UK's high profile extradition, counter-terrorism, transnational and war crimes cases.

She acts as an expert for many international and regional organisations (including Council of Europe, EU, IMF and UN agencies (UNDP, UNODC etc.) on treaty and legislative drafting, state and project evaluation and capacity building/technical assistance programmes. In addition, Arvinder has written practitioner manuals for law enforcement, lawyers and the judiciary on each of her topic areas in order to enhance state institutional capability.

Arvinder is an experienced trainer and facilitator, and has been engaged in running immersive exercises at both the strategic and operational level since the early 2000s. She is acknowledged as a leading practitioner in crisis prevention and response, notably in the field of counter-terrorism.

She has written and spoken widely on public international law, international human rights law, international criminal law, counter terrorism, asset recovery, anti-corruption/governance, and international co-operation, and is a published author with Oxford University Press and others.

Arvinder holds a degree in law from the University of Kent and is a member of the Bar of England and Wales. She also holds an LLM in Public International Law from the London School of Economics (LSE) and a Certificate in US Constitutional Law from Yale University, USA.

Reproduced for educational purposes only. Fair Use relied upon.

Areas of expertise: Extradition law and international co-operation, public international law (including immunities, international human rights law, international humanitarian law), international sanctions, counter-terrorism, conflict and security law, AML/CFT, international criminal law and economic & financial crimes (including anti-corruption/bribery).

Related

Counter-Terrorism Law and Practice

PIL Advisory Group experts Martin Polaine and Arvinder Sambei have co-authored with Anton Du Plessis the leading handbook Counter-Terrorism Law and Practice (Oxford University Press, 2009). The book provides in ...
Continue reading

Public International Law Advisory Group

Our International Arbitration Expert Team

See more

About PIL Advisory Group

The Public International Law Advisory Group is an independent team of outstanding academics and practitioners, providing assistance, policy advice and capacity-building to governments and businesses on virtually all aspects of public international law.

International law events

Contact info

Phone: +33672505201

Email: contact@piladvisorygroup.org

European Federation for Investment Law and Arbitration

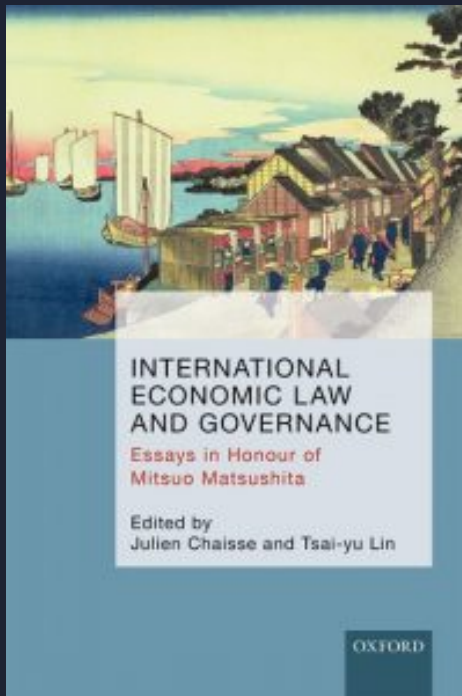

4th EFILA Annual Conference

31 January 2019

The EU and the future of international investment law and arbitration

Our experts' publications

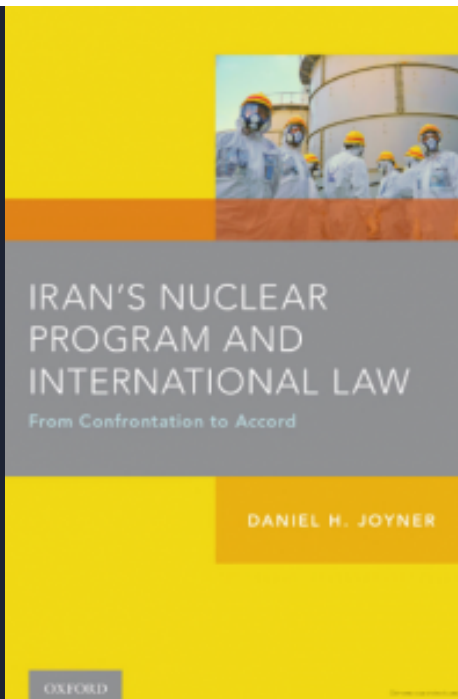

Latest issue of the Gazette

Latest news

- High level event in The Hague and book launch: 'The Participation of the EU in International Dispute Settlement'
- The EU and the future of international investment law and arbitration
- London International Boundary Conference 2019
- Hearing scheduled in the 'Enrica Lexie' PCA Arbitration
- Dealing with conflicting sanctions compliance obligations in financial transactions

- Stress Testing the Law of the Sea

© 2016 - 2017 PUBLIC INTERNATIONAL LAW ADVISORY GROUP