Dear The British Library

Could you please confirm if the British Museum holds in it's possession/archives a letter from General Albert Pike to Italian politician Giuseppe Mazzini dated 15th August 1871 and if so, has it ever been on display at the British Library?

Yours faithfully,

Alexander Maurizio

Dear Alexander

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 – REQUEST 2042

Thank you for your request for information, which we received on 03 June 2020. You asked us;

Could you please confirm if the British Museum holds in it's possession/archives a letter from General Albert Pike to Italian politician Giuseppe Mazzini dated 15th August 1871 and if so, has it ever been on display at the British Library?

We have considered your request, and the British Library, and prior to that the British Museum, has never owned or seen the document in question, and therefore it has never been on display with either organisation.

If you are unhappy with our response to your request and wish to make a complaint or request a review of our decision, you should write to:
The Chief Executive
The British Library
96 Euston Road
London
NW1 2DB

Please note, complaints and requests for internal review received more than two months after the initial decision will not be handled.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you may appeal directly to the Information Commissioner at the address given below. You should do this within two months of our final decision. There is no charge for making an appeal.

Further information on the Freedom of Information Act 2000 is available from the Information Commissioner's Office:
