

LifeMap

Larry Ellison

76 Milestones in 100 characters or less

DATA AMERICA

Larry Ellison

Co-founder & CEO, Oracle Corporation

Last Edit: September 3, 2016

Age c. 1

Age c. 22

Age c. 35

Age c. 41

Age c. 46

Family & Relationships

Education

Athletic

Social

Health & Wellness

Career

Home & Living

Awards and Honors

Political

Philanthropy

Across History: Larry Ellison

1940s

8/17/1944

#1

Lawrence Joseph is born in NYC to an unwed Jewish woman; his father was a US Army Air Corps pilot.

Click here...

1945

#2

At 9 months, Larry contracts pneumonia and is adopted by his aunt and uncle in Chicago.

Click here...

LifeMap

Larry Ellison

76 Milestones in 100 characters or less

DATA AMERICA

1960s

1962 Age: 17

#3

After graduating from South Shore HS, Larry is named Science Student of the Year at U. of Illinois.

1965 Age: 20

#4

Larry's adoptive mother dies of cancer, leading him to drop out of school after his sophomore year.

1966 Age: 21

#6

After one semester, Larry drops out of University of Chicago and moves to Berkeley, California.

1965 Age: 20

#5

He enrolls at the University of Chicago after spending the summer in northern California.

1966 Age: 21

#7

Without any specific long term goals, Larry begins working at an employment agency in Berkeley, CA.

1967 Age: 22

#8

Adda Quinn, Larry's 1st wife, marries him after they meet at a Berkeley employment agency.

1970s

1970 Age: 25

#9

Larry and Adda buy a house in Oakland on modest incomes; he also begins buying boats.

1973 Age: 28

#10

While working at Ampex, Larry meets fellow programmer Ed Oates and supervisor Bob Miner.

1976 Age: 31

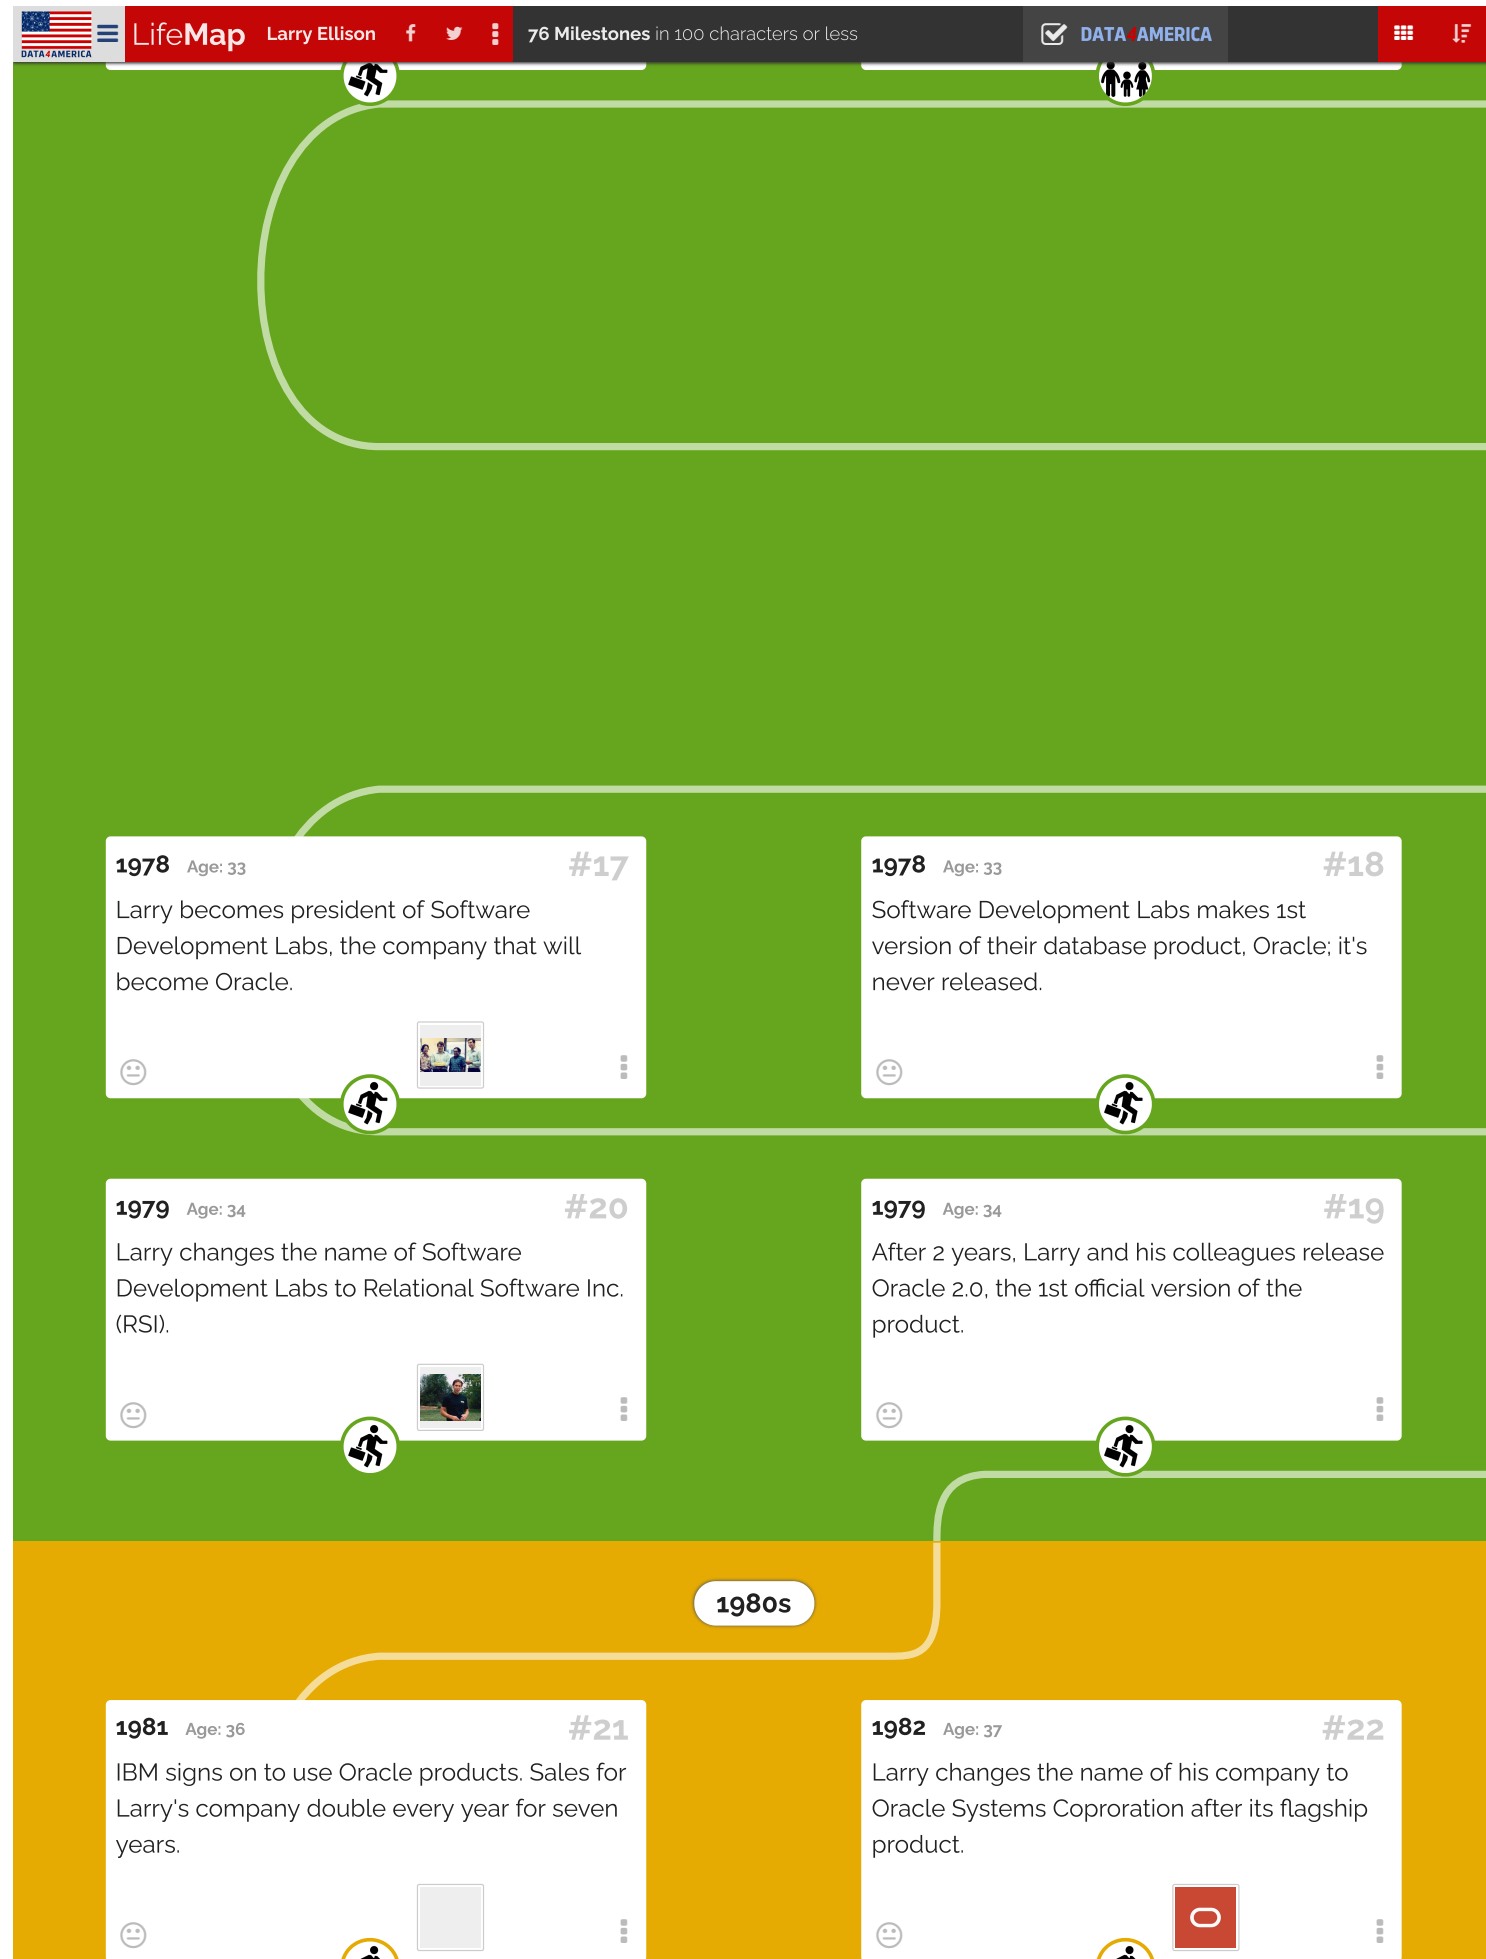

#12

Ellison becomes VP of Research & Development at Precision Instruments which eventually becomes Omex.

1974 Age: 29

#11

Larry's first marriage with Adda Quinn ends in divorce when she tires of his aimlessness and debts.

LifeMap

Larry Ellison

76 Milestones in 100 characters or less

DATA AMERICA

1983 Age: 38

#24

Barbara marries Larry, becoming his third wife.

1983 Age: 38

#23

Barbara Boothe, a former receptionist from RSI, gives birth to Larry's first child, David Ellison.

1983 Age: 38

#25

Oracle 3.0 is the 1st database product able to work on mainframes, PCs, and minicomputers.

1985 Age: 40

#26

Oracle 5.0 is the 1st database program to exist in a client/server environment.

1986 Age: 41

#28

Oracle goes public. Its IPO produces $31.5 in revenue for Ellison's company.

1986 Age: 41

#27

Barbara and Larry welcome their second child into the world, a daughter named Margaret.

1986 Age: 41

#29

Larry and Barbara divorce after three years of marriage and two children.

1987 Age: 42

#30

Established as the largest database company, Larry expands Oracle's focus to add enterprise apps.

1989 Age: 44

#32

Larry moves Oracle's headquarters to a campus in Redwood Shores, California.

1988 Age: 43

#31

Oracle 6 is released with several new features, bringing further growth to Larry's company.

1989 Age: 44

#33

Long before the competition, Larry readies Oracle for an Internet boom that's still a decade away.

LifeMap

Larry Ellison

76 Milestones in 100 characters or less

DATA AMERICA

Share your email to read the full Larry Ellison LifeMap

LifeMap

Yes, I want access!

You'll never miss a Data4America LifeMap again.

Donate to support Lifemap

LifeMap Larry Ellison

76 Milestones in 100 characters or less

 DATA AMERICA

 Share

 Follow

 Like

Give Feedback

About LifeMap

LifeMap captures history in 100 characters or less.

All milestones are verified and approved by the Editorial Board at Data4America.

Help Data4America publish Editorial Board-approved and non-partisan data visualization about politics. Make a donation.