CEO and Founder, Public Consulting Group Inc.

William Mosakowski

Bill Mosakowski is Founder, President, and Chief Executive Officer of Public Consulting Group, Inc. (PCG), a management consulting firm serving clients in the health & human services and K-12 education sectors. In his current role, he oversees day-to-day operations and strategic initiatives for PCG which operates in all 50 states and in five countries.

Bill's career has centered on serving the fiscal and operational needs of the public sector. Upon graduating from Clark University in 1976, he first worked as Assistant Revenue Director for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. In 1981, he left public service to become Director of Reimbursement for Harvard Community Health Plan's Parker Hill facility, a small hospital located in Boston's Mission Hill neighborhood. Prior to forming PCG, Bill was a senior consultant with Touche Ross & Company now Deloitte & Touche, where he worked on comprehensive strategic planning projects for health and human services organizations across the country.

Bill founded PCG in 1986, combining his entrepreneurial business interests with a growing expertise in public sector fiscal and operational management. The firm quickly grew from a three-person operation to a highly successful, international company with roughly 2,000 employees, fifty-two offices, and nearly $400 million in gross annual sales. Today, PCG focuses on three major market areas: 1) enhancing operational and financial performance for state and local health and human services agencies; 2) providing consulting and technology applications to the K-12 education sector; and 3) developing and serving the national market for Third Party Administrator (TPA) services to support self-determination and consumer-directed care for chronically ill, frail and elderly, developmentally disabled, and other at-risk populations, through PCG's subsidiary company – Public Partnerships, Ltd.

Bill served as chairman of the Clark University Board of Trustees in Worcester, MA (2007-2011), where he and wife Jane also founded the Mosakowski Institute for Public Enterprise. Additionally, Bill serves as Board Chair for St. Mary's High School in Lynn, MA and as a member of the Board for the Massachusetts Association of Mental Health (MAMH). In 2015, he was named Chair of the Catholic Schools Foundation of Boston, which is the largest institution for granting aid to low income students in Catholic elementary and high schools in the Archdiocese of Boston. He joined CARE's Board in 2019.

Since July 2015, Michelle Nunn has been president and CEO of CARE USA, a leading humanitarian organization that fights global poverty and provides lifesaving assistance in emergencies. In the last fiscal year, CARE worked in 100 countries and directly reached nearly 70 million people.

Nunn took the helm of CARE in 2015 and is spearheading an ambitious strategy to support 200 million of the world's most vulnerable people to overcome poverty and social injustice by 2030. Under Nunn's leadership, CARE has invested in innovative new programs and partnerships with private corporations and other nonprofits to increase its impact. Since assuming leadership of CARE, Nunn has set a goal of increasing CARE's micro-savings program from 7 million participants to 60 million participants by 2028.

Before joining CARE, Nunn had built an illustrious career of civic and public service as a social entrepreneur, a nonprofit CEO, and a candidate for the U.S. Senate. She co-founded the volunteer-mobilization organization Hands On Atlanta, and expanded it from a single entity to a national network of more than 50 affiliates. Nunn oversaw that group's merger with Points of Light, creating the world's largest organization dedicated to volunteer service, with affiliates across the globe engaging more than 70,000 corporations and nonprofit organizations. Nunn served as Points of Light CEO from 2007 to 2013.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate of the University of Virginia, Nunn majored in history with a minor in religion and earned her Master's Degree in Public Administration from the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University. #### Horacio Rozanski

Horacio Rozanski is president and chief executive officer of Booz Allen Hamilton, Inc., a global technology and consulting company that serves government clients and Fortune 500 corporations. Booz Allen partners with clients to drive transformation and advance critical missions through a unique combination of technology, innovation, and consulting expertise.

Since 2012, Horacio has led a strategic transformation of the firm, investing in innovation, advanced technology, and highly skilled talent, and reshaping its portfolio toward mission-critical, high margin solutions. The company is now positioned in the defense, intelligence, civil, and global commercial markets as a leader in technology integration and adoption, a differentiation that has driven significant revenue and earnings growth in recent years.

For more than a decade, Horacio has played a central role in major strategic initiatives, including the 2008 separation of the firm's core government and commercial businesses into two distinct companies, Booz Allen Hamilton's 2010 initial public offering, and its 2011 expansion into international and commercial markets. In 2016, he led an initiative that refreshed the firm's values and defined its purpose statement—empower people to change the world.

A respected authority and leader in the consulting industry, Horacio has expertise in business strategy, technology and operations, talent and diversity, and the future of consulting. He joined Booz Allen in 1992 as a consultant to commercial clients, was elected vice president in 1999, and served as chief personnel officer, chief strategy and talent officer, and president and chief operating officer before becoming CEO. He also is a member of the firm's board of directors.

Born and raised in Argentina, Horacio originally came to the United States to attend college. He holds a B.B.A. from the University of Wisconsin Eau Claire and an M.B.A. degree from the University of Chicago. He is a member of the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum's Committee on Conscience, the Kennedy Center Corporate Fund Board, the Children's National Medical Center Board of Directors, and the Aerospace Industries Association Finance Committee. He is a recipient of the 2020 Horatio Alger Award.

Booz Allen Hamilton employs 27,200 people and had revenue of $7.5 billion in the year ending March 31, 2020.
