LORD ROSEBERY: THE MOST DESTRUCTIVE ROTHSCHILD WE HAVE NEVER KNOWN

Fig. 1—Lord Rosebery (1847-1920). The only Rothschild to become Prime Minister of the Great Britain.

Rosebery was the primary political sponsor of Cecil Rhodes, along with another Rothschild, Henry de Worms, 1st Baron Pirbright. Upon inheriting her father's N.M. Rothschild & Sons fortune, Hannah de Rothschild, Rosebery's wife, became the richest woman in England. Her more than $500 million fortune passed to Rosebery in 1890 at her untimely death from typhoid fever at age 39.

Coincidentally (?), J.P. Morgan's father died in a carriage crash in the French Riviera also in 1890. J.P. Morgan then took over George Peabody's Riggs Bank whose name he changed to J.P. Morgan & Company.

In 1891, Lord Rosebery, J.P. Morgan, Cecil Rhodes, Baron Henry de Worms, Lord Rothschild and Lord Alfred Milner founded the Round Table to use Jesuit discipline and Masonic secrecy to promote the reorganization of the British Empire into an Imperial Federation that they insisted include America coming back under the British Crown.

These men were the prime movers in the creation of the British South Africa Company, founding of De Beers Consolidated Mines and the Wellcome vaccine experimentation on over 60,000 Boers and blacks in their 2nd Boer War concentration camps. In 1902, these perpetrators of the war, abruptly stopped the 2nd Boer War, and changed the name of the Round Table to the Pilgrims Society in the months after Cecil Rhodes' untimely death at 49 years old.

Indicted Harvard nano-scientist Charles M. Lieber investigations have taken an unexpected turn into Pilgrims Society pathogen biotechnology bankrolled by the Rothschilds

David Sarnoff hired Charles' father, Robert I. Lieber, to engineer radar, satellite and missile systems that could deliver microbe payloads according to Sarnoff's well-publicized 1926 dystopian vision of the "devastating consequences of new miracles in science"

IMPORTANT READER NOTICE:

PART I focused on David Sarnoff, the former RCA/NBC boss of Robert I. Lieber, the father of indicted Harvard nanoscience chemist/biologist Charles M. Lieber for his conspiracy with the People's Republic of China.

In this PART II, we investigate the history of the funding of modern biotechnology. It started in the UK with [The \[Victor\] Rothschild Report \(1971\)](#) that proposed sweeping reforms of research and development. By 1981, the ultimate Privy Council insider Victor Rothschild had created Biotechnology Investments Limited \(BIL\). He used the London Financial Times to advertise his new fund, essentially the first major biotechnology venture capital company in the world.

More than 97% of Victor Rothschild's first BIL investments were in American companies. He engaged Nobel chemist/biologist Sydney Brenner to advise him. Brenner was hot on the trail of DNA manipulation, but it would be another 15 years before the sheep Dolly was cloned at the Roslin Institute in Scotland—a sister to the Pirbright Institute, both run by the Biotechnology and Biological Sciences Research Council (BBSRC) created following the Victor Rothschild Report recommendations.

When we also discovered that indicted Harvard nano-science professor Charles M. Lieber is a director of the Weizmann Institute in Israel, and both Lord Rothschild and David Sarnoff, both members of the Pilgrims Society and Zionists, were also fellows in the Israeli bioscience Weizmann Institute, we felt compelled to pause and figure out what the founder of RCA and NBC had in common with Rothschild and Lieber biotechnology activities. We show below that the Rothschilds are practically the only common thread in this story of the British Empire's drive for permanent global control through a new corporatist-controlled Imperial British federalism with America inside the tent.

American Intelligence Media "Gabriel & McKibben" Show Audio Interview, Jun. 11, 2020. Listen to powerful investigative journalism about the historical role of the Rothschild families in the establishment of modern banking and their control of the British Empire's current plan for a corporate federalism new world order driven from London while subsuming America.

(May 29, 2020)—The arrest of Harvard nano-scientist Charles M. Lieber for conspiring with the People's Republic of China (PRC) raised alarm since it occurred just weeks before the Coronavirus outbreak in Wuhan, China. Lieber researched and lectured often under contract to the Wuhan University of Technology.

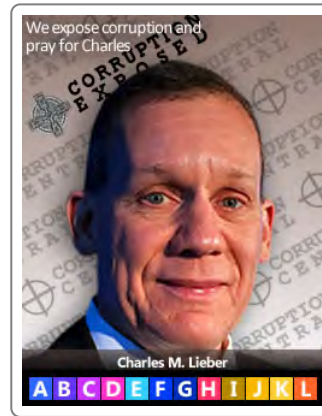

Fig. 2—Charles M. Lieber.

In fact, Lieber is an honorary professor in at least seven Chinese universities in nanotubes, nanowires and nanopores. Lieber holds 65 U.S. patents on the subject, all owned by Harvard, and all funded by the U.S. government, namely NIH, NSF, C.I.A., US Army, US Navy, US Air Force, MITRE Corp, and DARPA.

Even though Lieber's nano-biography is so ubiquitous it papers the halls of nano-bio-science labs worldwide, Charles never once mentions his father, Robert Israel Lieber (1926-2008) (18.9 MB).

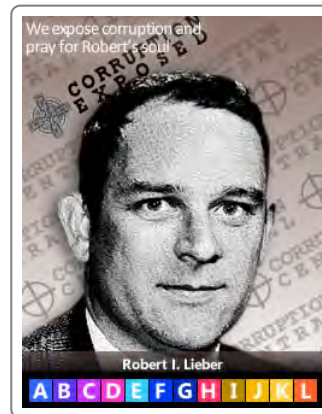

Fig. 3—Robert Israel Lieber

AFI researchers were stymied for over a week before finding his father Robert's obituary in the Philadelphia Inquirer. The Lieber family emigrated to Philadelphia from Botoșani, Romania in 1902. Curiously, Charles' grandfather Leo Lieber's 1930 and 1940 census records were changed. In the 1910 census, Leo's country of origin was identified as "Roumania Yiddish." Whereas, in the 1930 census, Leo's origin was crossed out and re-written as "Russia Jewish." The motivation is uncertain, but we suspect it is related to his son Robert's top secret security classification at RCA. Since Robert's boss David Sarnoff was Russian Jewish, someone apparently thought that the Liebers should be too. The fact is, someone tampered with the Lieber census records. Charles' grandparents Leo & Fannie Lieber (Leo remarried Sophia on Jul. 20, 1923 after Fannie had died—Sophie was Robert's mother) were most certainly from "Roumania Yiddish," not Russian, although Sophia had Jewish Russian parents.

Charles' great grandfather, Israel Lieber, was born in Austria in 1849. Israel emigrated to Botoșani, Romania and married Goldie Frokler in 1873. They had 8 children in 18 years, including their third child, Leo Lieber, born Apr. 08, 1879 (11.5 MB). Leo is Robert's father, Charles' grandfather. Leo emigrated with Goldie and their 8 children to Philadelphia in Aug. 20, 1902 where he became the proprietor of Leo Lieber Confectioners ("Originator of Crimped Chocolates"), a candy manufacturer, for 50 years.

Pandora's box was opened by Robert Lieber's obituary

One paragraph in Robert I. Lieber's obituary opened Pandora's box on this conspiracy. This information will explain much that we did not know about the forces shaping the modern world. It is almost unfathomable that almost every historian has missed this, or worse... intentionally ignored it in exchange for handsome endowments.

Robert I. Lieber was an award-winning RCA engineer (1951-ca. 1996). He worked for David Sarnoff, founder and president RCA and NBC. Robert worked in the satellite, radar and missile division at RCA's research facility in Moorestown, N.J. He also holds a seemingly unrelated ITT-owned patent for an early post-WWII computer terminal that, oddly, was patented in Europe, but not America.

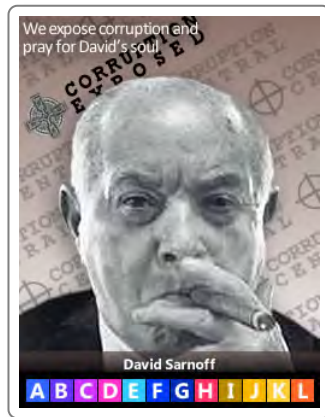

Fig. 5—David Sarnoff

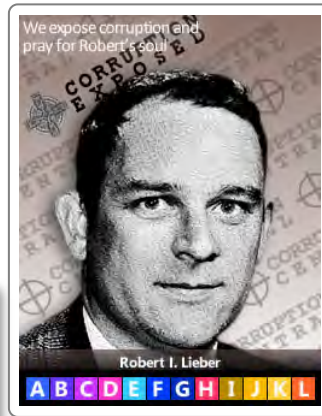

Fig. 3.1—Robert Israel Lieber

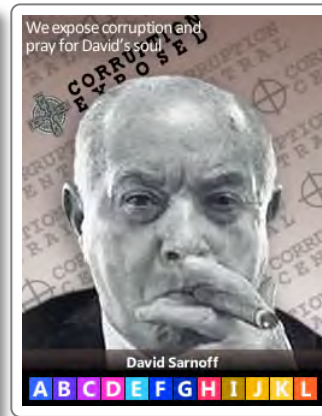

Fig. 4—David Sarnoff

Robert's position meant he was a C.I.A. spy. This is probably why son Charles never mentions him. As we have seen from other spies like Peter Strzok (3rd generation spy), spying is in the Lieber blood too, at least back to the turn of the last century when spying, biology, wireless and media propaganda fused.

Robert began his engineering work at RCA in 1951 and would have had top secret security clearance to collaborate closely with British MI6, GCHQ, BBC, NBC, GE, AT&T, RCA, Daily Telegraph, Daily Mail, London Times, Financial Times—all organizations exploiting the propaganda and intelligence Sarnoff's satellites were producing.

From the late 19th century, through the 20th and into our own, the British government is well-known to have engaged in hideous biological warfare. Why is so little of this widely known? Think about it, if you are the mad scientist who controls communications and media, are you going to tell the public what you are doing? No, of course not. That is why history has been silent on this immorality. That said, these criminals inadvertently left clues which our determined researchers are now finding once they picked up the scent.

For example, the British Army used Burroughs Wellcome & Co. medicine chests (produced by American drug pitchman Sir Henry Wellcome) were specially made for them to inject hideous experimental vaccines in the Boer and black populations of South Africa in the 2nd Boer War, as well on indigenous populations in Australia, Canada, New Zealand and other parts of Africa. Over 60,000 souls, including 16,000 children were lost to their war concentration camp experiments with its outbreaks of measles, cholera and typhoid fever —this cruelty was the prototype cited by Adolf Hitler 40 years later as his concentration camp model.

ROTHSCHILD BROS. BECOMES N.M. ROTHSCILD & SONS (1811)

In 1769, Mayer Amschel Rothschild began providing banking services to Crown Prince Wilhelm (later became Wilhelm IX on Oct. 31, 1785). Wilhelm used the Rothschilds to hide his wealth from Napoleon. These funds went to N.M. Rothschild & Sons in London. These funds provided the British Army with war funds in America, Spain and Portugal.

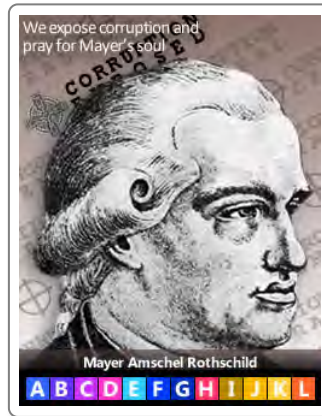

Fig. 7—Mayer Amschel Rothschild

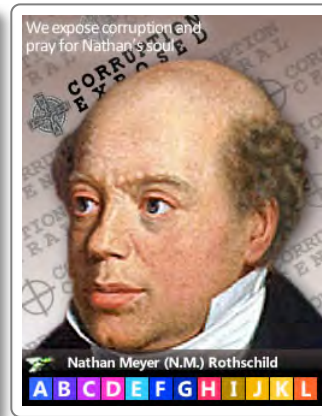

Fig. 8—Nathan Meyer Rothschild

On Jun. 25, 1811, N.M. Rothschild (& Sons), No. 2, New Court, Swithin's Lane, London was incorporated (where it operates today). The predecessor firm that Nathan Mayer Rothschild disbanded at that time was Rothschild Brothers, Manchester. The London Gazette, 1811.

From 1813-1815, N.M. Rothschild & Sons in London provided large loans for the British to fight the Americans in the War of 1812 (Jun. 18, 1812 to Feb. 18, 1815).

One £9.8 million loan in 1815 alone garnered the Rothschilds a 40% profit. See The Encyclopedia of the War of 1812, p. 40. ABC-CLIO, LLC (Santa Barbara, Denver, Oxford UK, 2012).

£9.8 million in 1812 is today £878 million (UK) or $1,107 billion (US).

In other words, N.M. Rothschild & Sons pocketed $443 million in profit from just one of their loans during the War of 1812 against America.

The British war effort was substantially financed by Nathan Meyer Rothschild and his N.M. Rothschild & Sons bank in London which he formed in London the year before in 1911. Rothschild made billions of dollars profit from financing the British Army in the War of 1812 alone.

N.M. Rothschild & Sons

On Jul. 05, 1835,

John Masterman, Jr., Masterman, Esq.'s son, married Emily Lucy Rhodes (1808-1878), mother of Cecil J. Rhodes.

Rhodes went on to partner with Nathan Mayer Rothschild, 1st Baron Rothschild, and his bank N.M. Rothschild & Sons to found De Beers Consolidated Mining in South Africa, which was later substantially controlled through a ~$500 million inheritance by Lord Rosebery. More below.

N.M. Rothschild & Sons

On Jul. 30, 1847, Lionel Nathan Rothschild, Baron Lionel Nathan de Rothschild (1808-1879), son of Nathan Mayer Rothschild, founder of N.M. Rothschild & Sons (1911), and John Masterman, Esq. became members of Parliament for TheCityofLondonUK (the Financial District).

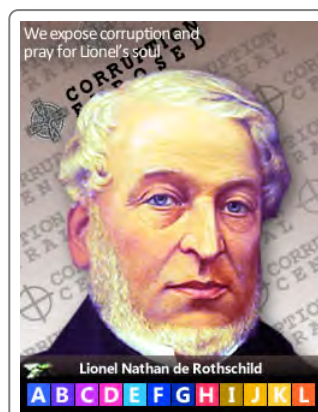

Fig. 12—Lionel Nathan Rothschild

N.M. Rothschild & Sons

On Jul. 05, 1853,

Cecil Rhodes was born to John Masterman, Jr. and Emily Lucy Rhodes. John's cousin, Charles Frederick Gurney (F.G.)

Masterman took the lead in Parliament in the 1880s to nationalize Marconi Wireless and negotiated all the Marconi contracts, mostly secret, until 1914.

F.G. Masterman also founded "Wellington House" in 1914 called the British War Propaganda Bureau, and two years later, the Ministry of Information, a formal cabinet position under prime minister David Lloyd George. Evidently, the Masterman clan had been doing the bidding of Rhodes and N.M. Rothschild for almost 100 years.

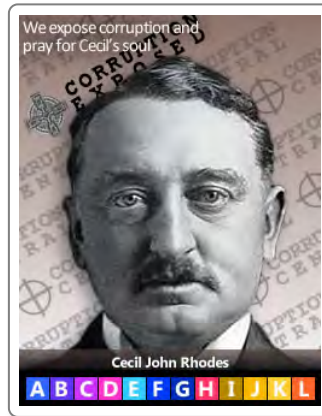

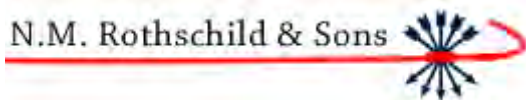

Fig. 33—Cecil John Rhodes

Fig. 14—Charles Frederick Gurney (F.G.) Masterman

Three Rothschilds were directly involved in the 2nd Boer War atrocities in South Africa, two we knew about, the other, Lord Rosebery, is new, and it is especially shocking that, given his central role, historians have remained silent about him and his heinous impact on our modern world.

N.M. Rothschild & Sons

1. Baron Henry de Worms, 1st Baron Pirbright, great grandson of Mayer Amschel Rothschild (1744-1812). De Worms was the ministers of trade and colonies in the 1880s. He was a Parliamentary mentor to Cecil Rhodes and Alfred Milner.

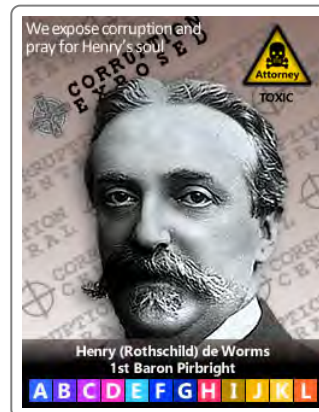

Fig. 15—Henry de Worms (Rothschild), 1st Baron Pirbright

He likely participated in Rhodes' Round Table that formerly hatched the plan to replace the British monarchy with an Imperial federalism run from Fleet Street (Privy Council), led by the British aristocracy that benevolently oversaw the subjects who would be forced to follow communism in order to limit resource consumption and aberrant ideologies.

In parallel, Andrew Carnegie was promoting a similar concept whereby America would reunite with the British motherland. Although Carnegie said he disliked the haughtiness, licentiousness and lack of creativity of British aristocrats, he loved their parties and the adulation he received as he doled out grants.

By 1902 when the Pilgrims Society was founded, Carnegie had resigned himself to the inevitability of an aristocratic class ruling the masses.

N.M. Rothschild & Sons

On Oct. 20, 1893, DeWorms' mother, Schönche Jeannette Rothschild, died and he inherited his great grandmother's Ceylon Rothschild Estate property—about $56M in today's dollars.

2. NEW ENTRY ON THE ROTHSCHILD STAGE: Archibald Primrose, 5th Earl of Rosebery (“Lord Rosebery”)

(1847-1929) was married to Hannah de Rothschild (1851-1890), sole heir to her father's substantial holding in the N.M. Rothschild & Sons banking fortune of Baron Mayer Amschel de Rothschild (1818-1874). She inherited priceless art, Mentmore, London mansions, innumerable investments and over $477 million in today's dollars, making her the wealthiest woman in England. Rosebery married Hannah on Mar. 20, 1878—four years later.

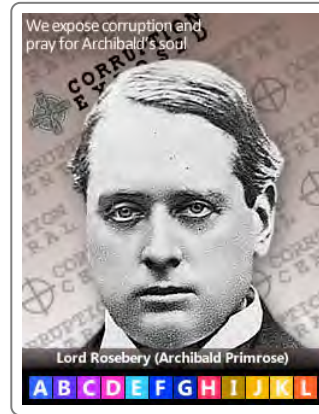

Fig. 16—Lord Rosebery (Rothschild)

Fig. 17—The Earl and Countess (Hannah Rothschild) of Rosebery, and their son, Lord Dalmeny c. 1890 (about the time of her death). Source: Royal Collection Trust, Reproduced for educational purposes only. Fair Use relied upon.

The Bank of England, of course, was synonymous with the name of Baron Nathan Mayer Rothschild (N.M. Rothschild & Sons).

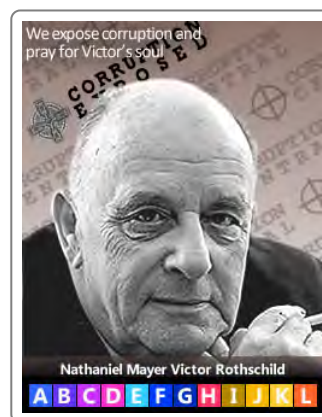

Twelve years later, on Nov. 18, 1990, Hannah died of a combination of typhoid fever and liver disease, leaving Rosebery all the stock holdings and cash, including N.M. Rothschild & Sons.

The evidence is strong that Rosebery was bisexual. This gains significance when one considers that the man he pushed forward in the Privy Council to lead the British South Africa Company (chartered by Queen Victoria on December 19, 1889)—Cecil Rhodes was a well-known homosexual, as were most of the men in his inner circle, with the exception of W.T. Stead.

Any reader of British history knows well that the homosexual undercurrent at Oxford, Cambridge and Fleet Street figures prominently in numerous secret political alliances.

Guy Burgess and Anthony Blunt, two of the "Cambridge Five" Soviet spies, were notoriously gay as the other three may also have been. Notably, Victor Rothschild, 3rd Baron Rothschild was exposed as the likely sixth Soviet spy, although Margaret Thatcher exonerated him.

Indeed, a recent Oxford professor we interviewed for this post confirmed that certain colleges at Oxford are notorious for homosexual grooming as a recruiting tool into the propaganda and spy business of the Pilgrims Society.

Fig. 18—Nathan Mayer
Victor Rothschild

Rosebery was a prolific, yet ineffective politician, but gave great speeches apparently.

Rosebery's roles included: Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State for the Home Department (1881-1883), First Commissioner of Works (1885), Lord Keeper of the Privy Seal (1885), Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs (1892-1894), Lord President of the [Privy] Council (1894-1895), Liberal Opposition Leader (1895-1896), Prime Minister (1894-1895), co-founder Pilgrims Society (1902), co-organizer First Imperial Press Conference (1909), co-founder Empire Press Union (1909), co-founder MI6, MI5, GC&CS (now GCHQ)(1909), House of Lords (1868-1929).

Four years after receiving his $477 million Rothschild inheritance, he was appointed Lord President of the [Privy Council]. He presided over the Privy Council when Cecil Rhodes became a member on Feb. 02, 1885. On Dec. 29, 1895, while Rosebery was still running the Privy Council, and without approval of his British South Africa Company board of directors, Rhodes organized the failed Jameson Raid.

3. Nathan Rothschild, 1st Baron Rothschild, banker, influential stockholder in N.M. Rothschild & Sons. Nathan (and now we know Lord Rosebery also) funded Cecil Rhodes to start DeBeers Consolidated Mines, Limited on Mar. 12, 1888. J.P. Morgan and Ernest Oppenheimer had partnered in Anglo American mining and Oppenheimer was appointed to DeBeers' board.

In 1890, Lord Rosebery inherited his wife Hannah's substantial N.M. Rothschild & Sons holdings, and thus effective control of the company, especially following his elevation to British prime minister (1894-1895).

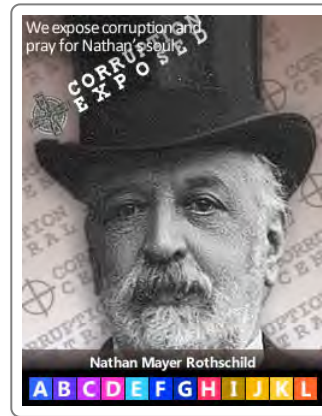

Fig. 19—Nathan Mayer Rothschild

HISTORY SHOCKER ALERT:

In short, Nathan Rothschild, 1st Baron Rothschild, took his N.M. Rothschild & Sons orders from their real owner—the bisexual Lord Rosebery, former British Prime Minister and President of the Privy Council (1894-1895), who was a British Christian who exploited Rothschild money.

In short, without Rosebery's Rothschild-inherited money and influence (more than $500M), DeBeers may never have existed, the Rhodes Scholarships may not have been funded to groom gay Oxford 'soldiers' for the Pilgrims Society, and the 60,000 souls who perished in the Roberts- Milner-Buchan-Rothschild 2nd Boer War concentration camps may have lived full lives.

THE MARCH OF THE ROTHSCILDS

In 1792, James Rothschild of Paris (1792-1868), part of the parallel French Rothschilds, had promised to financially back Alexander Hamilton's scheme for the First Bank of the United States.

Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson opposed a central bank.

Undeterred, Hamilton later proposed the Second Bank of the United States. This time, Nicholas Biddle acted as the agent for James Rothschild. The subsequent banking panics in 1873, 1893, and 1907 have all been traced to London where House of Rothschild-controlled banks had artificially triggered various credit and stock crises to instill fear and panic in America (the original false flags?)

When it became evident that America would stubbornly resist their central bank ideas, they wised up, stopped calling their plans a "Central Bank," and came up with the "Federal Reserve System" name instead.

In 1886, Andrew Carnegie first published The Gospel of Wealth. It illustrates the fantastical arrogance of the

Pilgrims Society. He wrote on p. 40:

“...the man of wealth thus becoming the sole agent and trustee for his poorer brethren, bringing to their service his superior wisdom, experience, and ability to administer—doing for them better than they would or could do for themselves.”

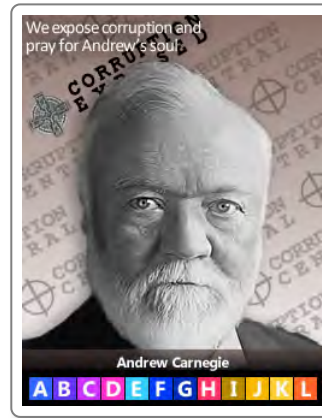

Fig. 22—Andrew Carnegie

Carnegie's chapter titled "The Reunion of Britain and America" was removed from reprints in 1889, 1898, 1899, 1896, 1900 and 1901. However, AFI researchers identified a university reprint of just that chapter, available in the link above.

THE PILGRIMS SOCIETY'S OWN SECRET, SECULAR ORDER OF CHIVALRY—THE PRIORY OF ENGLAND, KNIGHTS OF MALTA, ORDER OF ST. JOHN, CONCEIVED BY ROTHSCHILD MPs

John, Roman Catholic order.

Malta had been ruled by the Order of St. John since 1530. After a two-year occupation by Napoleon (1798-1802), the Maltese requested British protection in 1802, the Order of St. John returned and then the Treaty of Paris (May 30, 1814) formally recognized Malta as a British colony—three months before the British Army burned down the White House in the War of 1812 (Aug. 24, 1814).

As a British colony under a Protestant British monarch, the Order of Malta was under the ecclesiastical rule of Roman Catholic popes while British monarchs were their civil rulers. Technically, in the governing of the Knights of Malta, Order of St. John, this placed the Protestant British monarch under the spiritual authority of the pope of Rome.

To further muddle this circumstance, Queen Victoria recognized six Grand Priorities within the Knights of Malta. The Grand Priory of England would be different from all the others under the Pope's rule. The Queen established "The Grand Priory of the Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England" not by State Order, but as an Order of the Crown.

Their website today states: "The Venerable Order [Grand Priory of England] has priories and associations in some 40 countries, mostly English-speaking, including America and including "the Order of Malta, Federal Association, U.S.A."

The Grand Priorities are in Rome, Lombardy and Venice, Naples and Sicily, Bohemia, Austria and England. The Grand Priory of England is unique among the priories because it is controlled by the British Monarch (not by the Pope, but subservient to the Pope) and allows invitation-only members from any faith and no faith—which is nonsensical, but true.

In other words, the Christian Queen of Britain can invite a jihadi to be a Knight of Malta, under the Order of the English Priory of St. John, and waive all historic protocols to Christian fidelity. Has she done this? No one knows for sure, the chivalry awards are not published by the British Crown, except where someone's picture may appear in a press photo.

Grand Priory of England, Knights of Malta, Order of St. John (formed by Queen Victoria Royal Order, 1888), facilitated by Baron Henry de Worms (Rothschild) as Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies.

The Grand Priory of England is unique among the priories because it is open to religious and irreligious alike. The fusion of Maltese Cross and British Lion and Unicorn shows the British Crown's subservience to the Pope, or vice versa?

The vagueries appear to be politically useful when flattering Americans with honors and titles per the 24-point takeover of America strategy of the Pilgrims Society, exposed by American suffragette and Andrew Carnegie critic Lillian Scott Troy (1912).

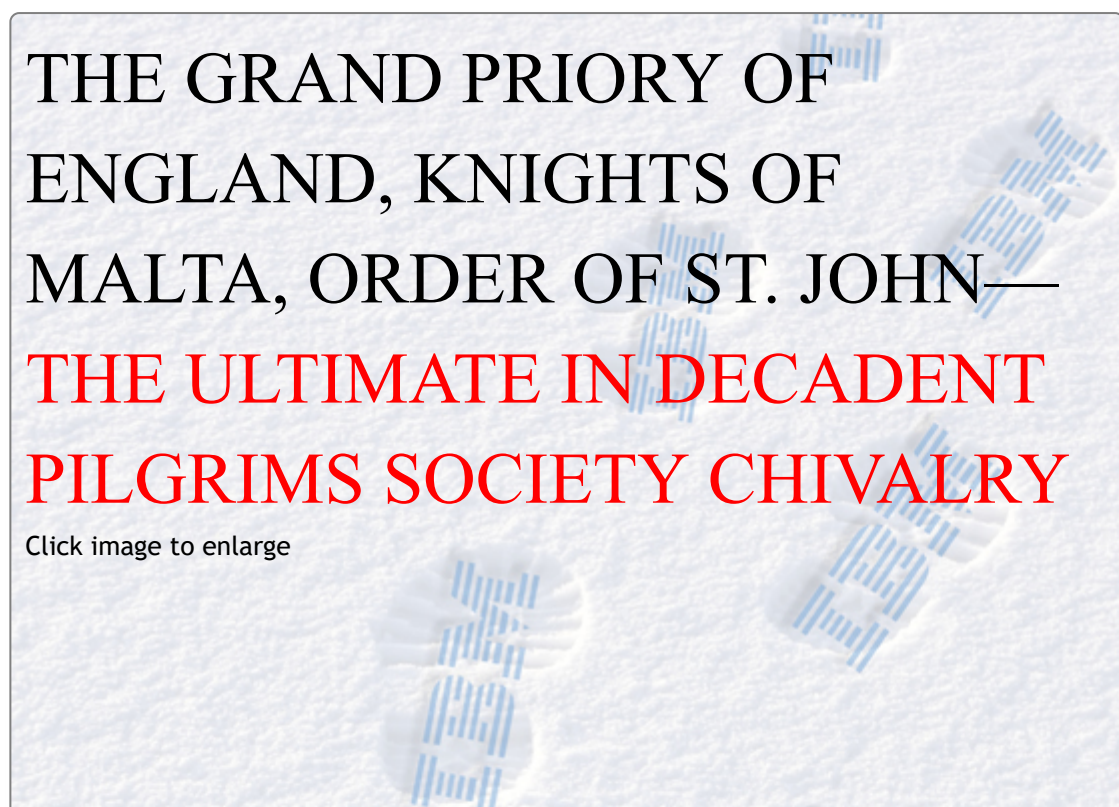

Many of these groups are, in fact, international money laundering, spy rings and human trafficking operations for British offshore banks, the European Union, United Nations, Governments, NGOs and C.I.A. disguised as charities.

For example, Link Campus University in Rome (Link Campus—University of Malta) invites lecturers on intelligence from the C.I.A. and FBI. It trains NATO intelligence officers. Link is where the infamous Joseph Mifsud attempted unsuccessfully to seduce and recruit low-level Trump campaign advisor George Papadopoulos

It is likely not coincidental that this organization parallels the emerging "English-speaking race" visions of Cecil Rhodes, the Round Table, The Pilgrims Society and the English-Speaking Union. As we shall see, two of Rhodes' disciples, Baron Henry de Worms (Rothschild) and Lord Rothschild helped Queen Victoria organize this mangled Maltese governance scheme.

Among all the Orders of St. John within the Knights of Malta, the Priory of England is the only one that has no religious restrictions on admissions." In other words, it is a secular order that admits Christians of all jurisdictions, Jews, Muslims, Buddhists, Muslims, Communists, Fascists, Nihilists, non-believers and devils, by invitation only.

Lord N.M. Rothschild participated in this Knights of Malta reorganization led by Henry de Worms (Rothschild), as the Parliamentary Record from 1888 shows below. Note: Lord Rosebery (Rothschild) was negotiating treaties with America for Queen Victoria at this time.

On May 14, 1999, Queen Victoria decreed formation of "The Grand Priory of the Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England" in Malta. Baron Henry De Worms (Rothschild) managed, and Baron De Rothschild (Nathan Mayer) assisted in the reorganization, not by State Order, but as an Order of the Crown, and as a unique secular order where believers and non-believers were invited to join. In other words, it would be a special order where the British monarch could dispense honors and titles without involving Parliament, including to Americans. It is believed that the American Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, John G. Roberts, Jr., is a member of this order. It is also believed that Andrew Carnegie was one of the first, if not the first to be knighted to this Grand Priory of England order by the new King Edward VII in the King's surprise visit to Carnegie's Skibo Castle on Oct. 25, 1902.

the many "trusts" being offered to the world. Andrew

N.M. Rothschild & Sons

On Jan. 02, 1889, Baron Henry de Worms (Rothschild), 1st Lord Pirbright, was appointed to the Privy Council by Queen Victoria.

On Dec. 19, 1889,

Cecil Rhodes, chairman of De Beers Mining, bankrolled by N.M. Rothschild & Sons, was granted the British South Africa Company charter by Queen Victoria's Privy Council.

This set off a series of events that were certainly not coincidental in the consolidation of banking power that rapidly commenced. Lord Rothschild and N.M. Rothschild & Sons, along with Lord Rosebery's N.M.

Rothschild inheritance, funded South Africa's slide into total chaos that became the 2nd Boer War (1899-1902).

On Apr. 08, 1890,

Junius S. Morgan (1813-1890), who had been secretly bankrolled by Nathan Mayer Rothschild, died in a carriage accident while traveling along the French Riviera.

His son John Pierpont (J.P.) Morgan took charge of his bank named J.S. Morgan & Co. and renamed it J.P. Morgan & Company.

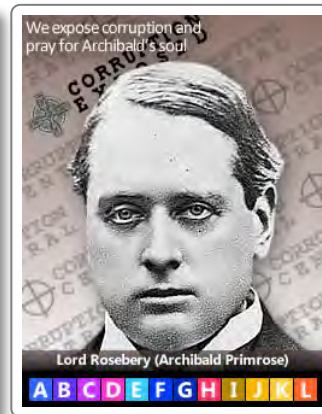

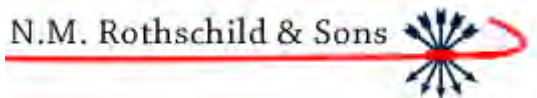

Fig. 40—Lord Rosebery
(Rothschild)

Were the death of Rosebery's and J.P. Morgan's Rothschild sugar mommies and daddies in the same year —1890 just coincidence? Murdering your father is patricide. Murdering your wife is uxoricide.

On Nov. 19, 1890,

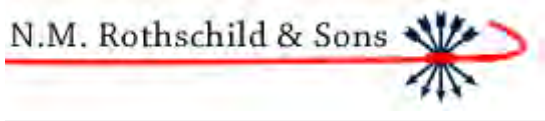

Lady Hannah Rosebery (née Rothschild) died of typhoid fever at age 39, leaving her $500 million fortune in cash plus valuable properties, art and her N.M. Rothschild & Sons stock to Lord Rosebery. When she received this inheritance from her father, Baron Mayer Amschel de Rothschild (1818-1874), as his sole heir, she was called "the richest woman in England." Lord Rosebery inherited it all, making him one of the richest men in England.

Fig. 41—Lord Rosebery (Rothschild)

With the deaths of Hannah Rosebery (née Rothschild) and Junius Morgan, the entire global banking structure fell into the hands of Lord Rosebery (Rothschild), J.P. Morgan, Lord Rothschild, N.M. Rothschild & Sons and the Bank of England—run by Rothschilds.

In February, 1891, just three months after Hannah's untimely death, well within his customary six-month mourning period, the widower Lord Rosebery held a meeting at "Lord Rothschild's country house."

Prof. Quigley wrote in The Secret Society of Cecil Rhodes (pp. 38-39):

"The secret society, after so much preliminary talk, took form in 1891, the same year in which Rhodes drew up his fourth will and made [W.T. Stead] as well as Lord [Nathan Mayer]

Rothschild the trustee of his fortune. It is perfectly clear from the evidence that he expected Rothschild to handle the financial investments associated with the trust, while Stead was to have full charge of the methods by which the funds were used ... They discussed the organization of the secret society and divided it into two circles: an inner circle, 'The Society of the Elect', and an outer circle to include 'The Association of Helpers.'"

The first meetings to promote British Imperial federalism named "The Round Table Group" included Cecil Rhodes, W.T. Stead, Lord N.M. Rothschild, a Rothschild in-law, Lord Esher, Lord Alfred Milner, Alfred Beit, Sir Harry Johnston, Lord Grey, Lord Curzon, Lord Balfour, Professor J.R. Seeley, Rosebery's banker and very possibly Henry de Worms, 1st Baron Pirbright (Rothschild)'s chemical, drug and vaccine pitchman protégé Henry Wellcome.

Notably, Roman Catholic Cardinal Manning, an Oxford graduate, was among The Round Table "Circle of Initiates," as was Arthur Balfour, the Zionist author of the Balfour Declaration to Lord Rothschild on Nov. 02, 1917. General Booth, founder of the Salvation Army, was also an initiate.

ROUND TABLE FAKE HISTORY PROPAGANDA ALERT!

Both Cambridge University and Wikipedia say the Round Table was founded in 1909-1910—19 years later. These are false histories.

They were probably written to legitimize Rhodes Scholarships as something noble—as something other than a crass recruiting arm for the Pilgrims Society secret society. Viscount Alfred Milner and not Cecil Rhodes is the prime mover in their fake histories. The fact is, Cecil Rhodes was working out his Round Table ideas before the 1890.

BLOOD MONEY

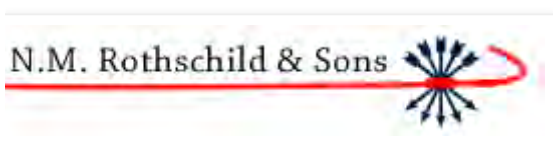

In the Cambridge University and Wikipedia fake histories of the Round Table movement, Cecil Rhodes only participates in death through his Rhodes Trust money, administered by Alfred Milner and Lord Rothschild. This false story was evidently created to keep the Rhodes Scholarships unsullied, which they clearly are not. The scholarships are evidently funded with Pilgrims Society blood money—the money that killed 60,000 Boers and black, including 14,000 mainly white children during the 2nd Boer War, the money that funded the blood of World Wars I and II, Korean War, Vietnam War, Iraq, Afghanistan, etc.

Lord Rosebery's central role in the Round Table movement has not been known until now, especially considering the timing on the heels of his vast Rothschild inheritance.

It appears that British historians have very intentionally concealed these facts because Rosebery became prime minister three years later (Mar. 5, 1894 - Jun. 22, 1895), not to mention his role in the establishment of the British South Africa Company, funding of DeBeers, and his influence over the South African 2nd Boer War concentration camp atrocities. The carefully crafted narrative that he was an ineffective politician and a gay blade covers the fact that he was a ruthless murderer.

In 1893, Henry de Worms (Rothschild), 1st Baron Pirbright, received his mother Schönche Jeannette Rothschild's (née de Worms) (1771-1859) $500 million Rothschild inheritance. He used some of the proceeds to purchase over 2000 acres of agricultural land in Surrey County around Pirbright. He built his estate at Henley Park, on this acreage which now houses The Pirbright Institute, Army Training Centre at Pirbright, British National Rifle Association, Welsh Guards, Boehringer Ingelheim Animal Health Institute (former name: Merial Animal Health Institute—moved to China in 2009 after 2007 foot and mouth outbreak at Pirbright Boehringer just took over the Merial facility at Pirbright and carried on) and Cobbett Hill Earthstation.

We strongly suspect that Baron Henry de Worms (Rothschild) was a secret member of the Round Table. But, at that time he was Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies, so likely he had to lay low politically.

De Worms would use his Rothschild inheritance to fund: (1) The Pirbright Institute, (2) Burroughs Wellcome's vaccine experiments, (3) (Sir) Henry M. Stanley's exploits in the Congo to find poisons, cures and pathogens for Henry S. Wellcome, and (4) (Sir) Henry Wellcome's pharmaceutical exploits—now the largest grant trust on the planet (Wellcome Trust).

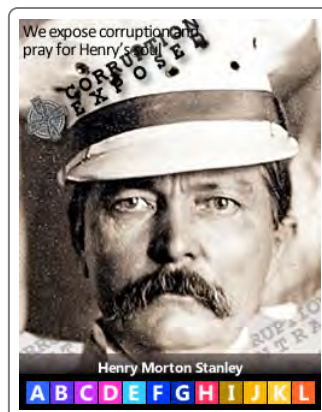

Fig. 52—Henry M. Stanley

Fig. 50—Henry de Worms (Rothschild)

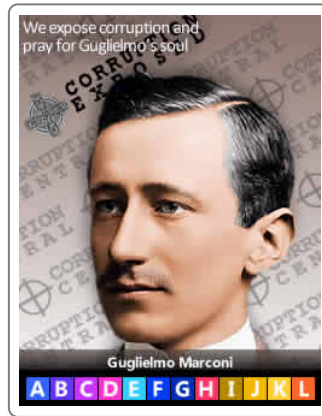

Fig. 54—Guglielmo Marconi

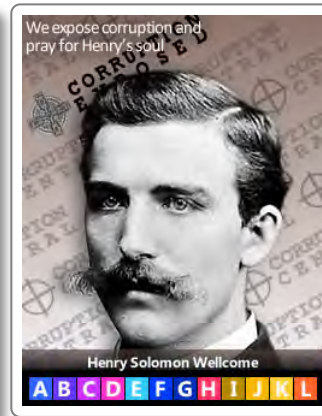

Fig. 55—Henry Solomon Wellcome

De Worms was also busy working with (5) the British Post Office and Admiralty stealing Nikola Tesla's wireless patents and setting up Guglielmo Marconi as the front man for the Marconi Wireless monopoly over wireless technology worldwide.

Further, J.P. Morgan's father J.S. Morgan was bankrolled by Lord Rothschild, alongside Lord Rosebery, and it is virtually certain that J.P. Morgan would have been at least a Round Table initiate.

In 1893, Andrew Carnegie published a 571-page book titled "Triumphant Democracy" in which he called for reunion of America with Britain into an "Imperial Federation" in the strongest terms.

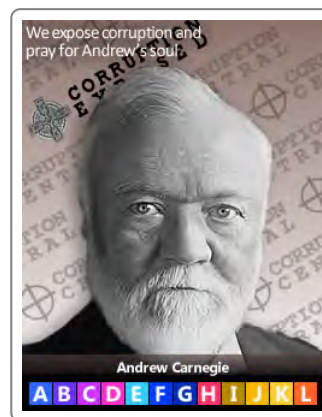

Fig. 56—Andrew Carnegie

On Feb. 02, 1895, Prime Minister Lord Rosebery (1894-1895) also presided as Lord President of the Privy Council (1894-1895) at Cecil Rhodes' installment as a member of the Privy Council—his N.M. Rothschild & Sons business partner in DeBeers!

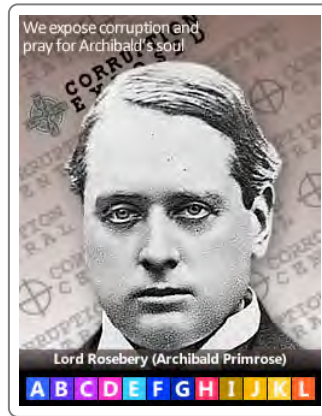

Fig. 57—Lord Rosebery (Rothschild)

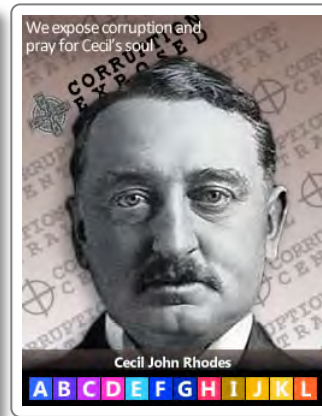

Fig. 58—Cecil John Rhodes

This effectively put two Rothschilds on the Privy Council and one Rothschild as the leader of Britain.

On Dec. 29, 1895, Cecil Rhodes ordered a botched raid against the South African Republic carried out by the British South Africa Company police led by Rhodes as prime minister of Cape Colony and chairman of the Company that came to be called the "Jameson Raid" after its organizer, (Sir) Dr. Leander Starr Jameson.

In 1898, (Sir) Andrew Carnegie published a book in New York titled "The Reunion of Britain and American - A Look Ahead." It was a chapter that was removed in subsequent printings of his book The Gospel of Wealth in 1886, reprinted in 1889, 1898, 1899, 1896, 1900 and 1901.

On Jul. 06, 1899, Cecil Rhodes revised his last will and testament for the sixth time, further refining his plans to fund and carry out his 200-year Round Table plan for a new Imperial corporatist British federalism that would recruit Oxford students in Britan and America to carry out his dream through his Rhodes Scholarships in which multiple Rothschilds would become trustees.

Rhodes original will named executors and trustees as Earl of Rosebery (Lord Rosebery, former British prime minister and sole heir to his wife's over $500 million Rothschild fortune), Earl Grey (later governor general of Canada), Alfred Beit (life governor of De Beers), W.T. Stead (Rhodes biographer), Lewis Lloyd Michell (London and South African Bank) and Bouchier Francis Hawksley (Rhodes' lawyer since early 1880's).

In Rhodes' Jan. 1901 codicil he removed W. T. Stead. Stead had long published Rhodes' Imperialist corporate propaganda in the Pall Mall Gazette and Review of Reviews.

Numerous writers agree that Stead may have been the only heterosexual in Rhodes' inner circle. Stead says he was removed not because he would not support the Jameson Raid (he supported the Boer cause), but for other reasons known to the two of them only. In his Oct. 1901 codicil Rhodes added Lord Milner(British Imperial War Cabinet, 1914-1919; Rhodes Scholarship trustee) to the list of joint tenants, executors and trustees. In a third Codicil, dated March, 1902, Rhodes appointed (Sir) Dr. Leander Starr Jameson as a trustee, organizer of the Jameson Raid.

"GOVERNMENT BY JOURNALISM"

W.T. Stead, Cecil Rhodes' chief strategist, also coached William Randolph Hearst in "Government by Journalism" during the Spanish American War (1898), so he proves to be another strong organizer of the Pilgrims Society British corporate imperialists in Britain and America—and perhaps even the first chief strategist of mainstream media hegemony over world culture.

On Oct. 11, 1899, Viscount Alfred Milner and Gen. Lord Roberts commenced the 2nd Boer War to crush the Dutch, German and French resistance to British control of South Africa.

On Mar. 26, 1902, Cecil Rhodes died of a heart aneurism at Muizenberg, a small cottage on the sea-coast near Cape Town.

On May 01, 1902, the soon-to-be announced Pilgrims Society first hosted Vladimir I. Lenin in London. They would host Lenin a total of at least five times: 1902-03, 1905, 1908 and 1911. Lenin's most notable host was MP Philip Whitwell Wilson, one of the "prime movers" of the First Imperial Press Conference, 1909, and chief British spy to America who was an editor for the New York Times as cover for 36 years from 1917 to 1953—spanning two Pilgrims-inspired world wars to establish British imperial corporatism and crush all economic competition to British and American Robber barons from Germany, Russia, Italy and Japan.

GET SOUTH AFRICA'S GOLD & DIAMONDS TO PAY FOR RHODES SCHOLARSHIP RECRUITS FOR THE PILGRIMS SECRET SOCIETY

From Oct. 11, 1899 to May 31, 1902, (Sir) Viscount Alfred Milner as governor of Cape Colony persuaded British prime minister Salisbury to send troops, and the war with the Dutch and German Boers began under the British command of (Earl) General Lord Roberts, said to be the King's favorite general from the British East India Company army.

Edward VII, Nathan Mayer Rothschild, 1st Baron Rothschild, along with his N.M. Rothschild & Sons partner Lord Rosebery, Lloyd George, Lord Milner, Lord Curzon, Lord Balfour, Lord Cromer (Evelyn Baring, Barings Bank), Bonar Law, Sir Edward Carson, Arthur Henderson, (Sir) Harry Brittain, W.T. Stead, Baron Burnham (Daily Telegraph), Lord Northcliffe (Daily Mail), Winston Churchill (Morning Post), Viscount Alfred Milner, an ailing Henry de Worms (Rothschild), 1st Lord Pirbright, Joseph Choate (American Ambassador to Britain) and U.S. Senator Chauncy Depew (1899-1911) (Cornelius Vanderbilt's railroad lawyer). Field Marshal Lord ("British concentration camp") Roberts was made the first president.

On Oct. 25, 1902, newly-minted Pilgrim Andrew Carnegie was offered "a dukedom" from fellow-newly-minted Pilgrim and newly-enthroned King Edward VII (Aug. 09, 1902).

The Oct. 25, 1902 date for the Skibo Castle visit is confirmed by the Dundee Evening Telegraph, "The King at Skibo," Sat. Oct. 25, 1902.) Since dukedoms are reserved for a member of the British royal family, this may refer to a knighthood in the in the Knights of Malta over which the new King Edward VII had just become the sovereign on Aug. 09, 1902, ten weeks earlier.

Note that the Edinburgh and London Gazettes are silent about such an honour, which is quite likely given Carnegie because he was throwing his donations around lavishly, hence the King came to him.

At Skibo Castle, Carnegie was flying a flag with the Union Jack on one side and the Stars and Stripes on the other. Curiously, the Dundee Evening Telegraph has a "LATEST NEWS. The censors may have missed the article below that we found. This "dukedom" (most likely a Knights of Malta title) was disclosed to the U.S. Congress in the date link above.

On Oct. 23, 1902, Andrew Carnegie was installed as (honorary) Rector of St. Andrew's and delivered a long speech about British and American unity, much to the disgust of many journalists in Scotland. Carnegie gave "Mr. Carnegie's Rectorial Address" at St. Andrews. In attendance was Joseph H. Choate, American Ambassador and founder of the Pilgrims Society just three months earlier on Jul. 16, 1902.

Wellcome distributed a large medicine chest of "cures" with a request for the 650 delegates to send him new poisons, pathogens, cures and viruses they discover. The chest included numerous experimental vaccines—even multiple alleged cures for acne (that do not exist to this day)—that likely caused numerous outbreaks of deadly viruses throughout the Commonwealth.

Henry de Worms (Rothschild), starting in the 1880's, helped establish the Marconi Wireless monopoly in Britain and worked as patent, commerce, trade and colonies minister to fuse Marconi wireless technology (stolen from Nikola Tesla) and Wellcome biological research into using radio transmissions to trigger viral outbreaks.

The delegates voted to organize an Empire Press Union to use cable and wireless communications to unify British imperial propaganda to “create public opinion” in the name of world peace which they thought was the domain of newspapermen. Reminder: W.T. Stead coached William Randolph Hearst on "Government by Journalism" in 1898.

The great hidden agenda of the 1909 Conference was the recruitment of newspapermen from around the Commonwealth by Pilgrim Prime Minister Herbert H. Asquith to create what we today know as British MI6, MI5 and GC&CS, renamed GCHQ in 1946.

Sir Stewart

Menzies eventually became director of MI6 and led the British delegation in 1946, directed by Brig. Gen. David Sarnoff in the creation of the "Five Eyes" American intelligence treason conspiracy with the British.

America's NSA (1946) and C.I.A. (1947) and the FBI take their orders to this day from the group controlled by the British Privy Council.

The Pilgrims/BBC-controlled American mainstream media ignores these hard facts.

This is not an exaggeration: Out of the Imperial Press Conference, 1909, the British Empire's Marconi Wireless global monopoly split and morphed and reorganized into the media and communications networks we know today as BBC, New York Times, Daily Telegraph, Washington Post, AT&T, British Telecom, Westinghouse, GEC, RCA, NBC, CBS, Orange, Verizon, Nokia, Lucent, Alcatel-Lucent, Bell Labs, Western Electric, Vodafone, Deutsche Telecom, AEGIS system, SERCO, QinetiQ, and now “The Internet of Things.”

DAVID SARNOFF,
RCA/NBC/FIVE EYES

GROOMED BY THE PILGRIMS SOCIETY

The group of Pilgrims Society members (generically called the "Deep State" to avoid directly fingering of the Pilgrims) are all run by the "Five Eyes" agreement that Brig. Gen. David Sarnoff, Gen. Marshall, and Gen. Eisenhower created in Feb. and Mar. 1946.

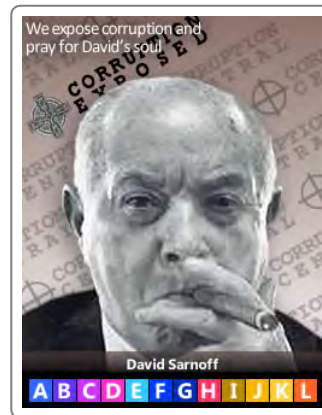

Fig. 98—David Sarnoff

From 1902 to 1914, the Pilgrims Society dominated British politics and pressed their reorganization of the British Empire into an Imperial federalist state, part of the Rhodes vision was that America had to be in it, even if that meant moving its headquarters out of London to Washington, D.C. They used the global dominance of the British press to propagandize the world into favoring the overthrow of Czar Nicholas Romanov in Russia and Kaiser Wilhelm in Germany. They continued to fear trade competition from Germany's industrial might and Russia's vast untapped resources.

In 1910, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace was established with an Andrew Carnegie funding of $10 million. Fierce suffragette and Carnegie critic Lillian Scott Troy dubbed it "The Benedict Arnold Peace Society" for the way Carnegie was encouraging treason among Americans. It resolved "To hasten the abolition of international war, the foulest blot upon our civilization ... and when war is discarded ... the Trustees will pleas [sic] then consider what is the next most degrading evil or evils whos [sic] banishment ... would most advance the progress, elevation and happiness of man."

On Feb. 17, 1912, American patriot, suffragette and Andrew Carnegie critic Lillian Scott Troy exposed the Pilgrims Society's 24-step strategy that included dispensing honors judiciously to influential Americans who can help achieve their new world order:

"11. Honors must be conferred on the husbands of women thus given preference in the social circles of America, and a rank or position determined by judiciously distributed decorations."

Remarkably, the Pilgrims Society priorities for an Imperial corporatist federation to dominate the planet were set in the late 1800s and have not changed:

1. Propaganda / mind control / brainwashing
2. "Create public opinion" via media

A censored pamphlet from 1967 just fell into the hands of AFI researchers titled "Sir Andrew Carnegie & Cecil J. Rhodes - Planners of Internationalism"

(George Mason University, 1967). Its contents have been virtually wiped clean from the Internet. It should be read in tandem with the Congressional Record of Hon. J. Thorkelson MN, "Steps Toward British Union, a World State, and International Strife," Aug. 6-Sep. 27, 1940.

The Thorkelson Congressional submissions describe the discoveries of a spunky early 20th-century journalist named Lillian Scott Troy. She was hot on the heels of this Rothschild-Carnegie-Rhodes treachery to reincorporate America back into the British empire by stealth, deception and treachery.

Ms. Troy discovered their seditious 24-step plan and published it in two parts on Feb. 17 and 24, 1912 in a Hearst newspaper, San Francisco Leader, that later buried it. We will not reprint it here, but we have bookmarked the Congressional Record above so you can jump to that list.

"THE BENEDICT ARNOLD PEACE SOCIETY"

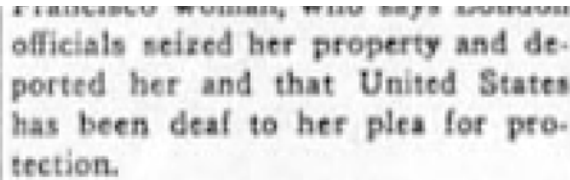

Fig. 100—Lillian Scot Troy, intrepid San Francisco journalist, suffragette and vocal critic of the Pilgrims Society's treasonous efforts to destroy the American Constitution and Bill of Rights and reunite America with the British Empire. Her work was so irritating to the British government that she was deported under false pretences on Nov. 13, 1919.

See The 24-step Pilgrims Society Corporatist Imperial Federation Strategy to Return America to British Rule that come from Ms. Troy's investigations.

Take special note of the plan to increase the Presidents power, corrupt the courts and law making, attack recalcitrant Senators, enter treaty entanglements, exchange British and America naval officers, send American troops hither and yon, send royals to Canada to probe America, recruit wealthy and influential Americans, flatter Americans who visit British courts, lavish honors on Americans who favor Britian, dangle British titles in front of American mens' wives, discourage American Independece celebrations as unsafe, discourage and dumb down public education, discourage emigration of disloyal former colonolialists, use "peace" as the cover for all covert activity, divide the states so that occupation can be regionalized, team with trusts and fabricate excuses for wars.

Lillian Scott Troy was an American journalist and suffragette who regularly exposed the Rothschild, Rhodes, Pilgrims Society, Lord Rosebery, Henry de Worms, Elihu Root (CFR) and Andrew Carnegie plot to undermine the American Constitution and return America to British rule. She labeled Carnegie's new "Peace Fund" the "Benedict Arnold Peace Society."

In mid-1912 (when David Sarnoff was already a Marconi station inspector and Marconi Institute instructor) David Lloyd George, the future WWI War Prime Minister, almost ruined his political career by engaging in insider trading of Marconi America stock without disclosing it to Parliament ("The Marconi Scandal").

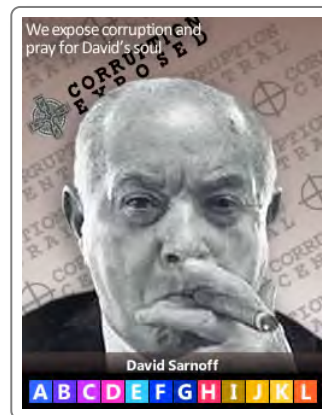

Fig. 101—David Sarnoff

N.M. Rothschild & Sons

Lloyd George and Sir Rufus Isaacs—close colleagues of Natham Mayer Rothschild, Henry De Worms (Rothschild) and Lord Rosebery (Rothschild)—Chancellor of the Exchequer, along with Attorney General Herbert Samuel, the Postmaster General, and the Parliamentary Treasury Secretary Alexander Murray (all Pilgrims), used their inside knowledge of the secret, long term Marconi Wireless deals with the British Post Office and Admiralty to buy

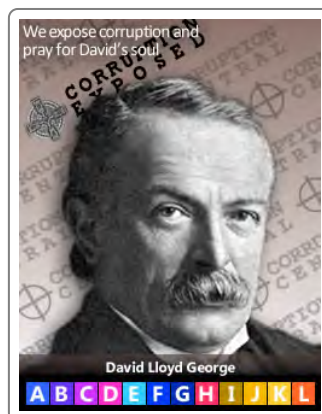

Fig. 102—David Lloyd George

stock in Marconi America before the Marconi Britain stock first went on sale. The resulting scandal, sort-of-apologies and libel suits that followed almost sank these criminals.

Sir Rufus' brother Godfrey Isaacs was Marconi Great Britain's managing director and would most certainly have worked daily with David Sarnoff. Sarnoff would have very likely handled the UK-U.S. arrangement for the secret stock transactions himself.

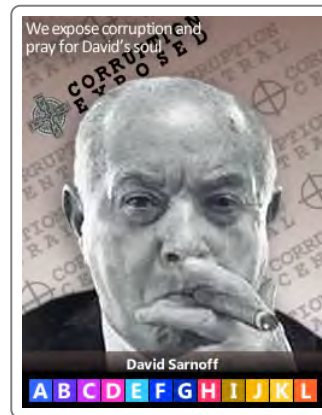

Fig. 104—David Sarnoff

Indeed, many of the Pilgrims Society Robber barons of the age on both sides of the Atlantic were eager to get their piece of the Marconi monopoly on wireless telegraphy — technology stolen from the inventor Nikola Tesla. Tesla was double-crossed by J.P. Morgan who left him perpetually underfunded in his financings. This is a classic technique to bleed entrepreneurs and inventors dry before swooping in for the kill. This was certainly a controlled-opposition technique that J.P. Morgan learned from his father J.S. Morgan and Morgan's bankroller, N.M. Rothschild.

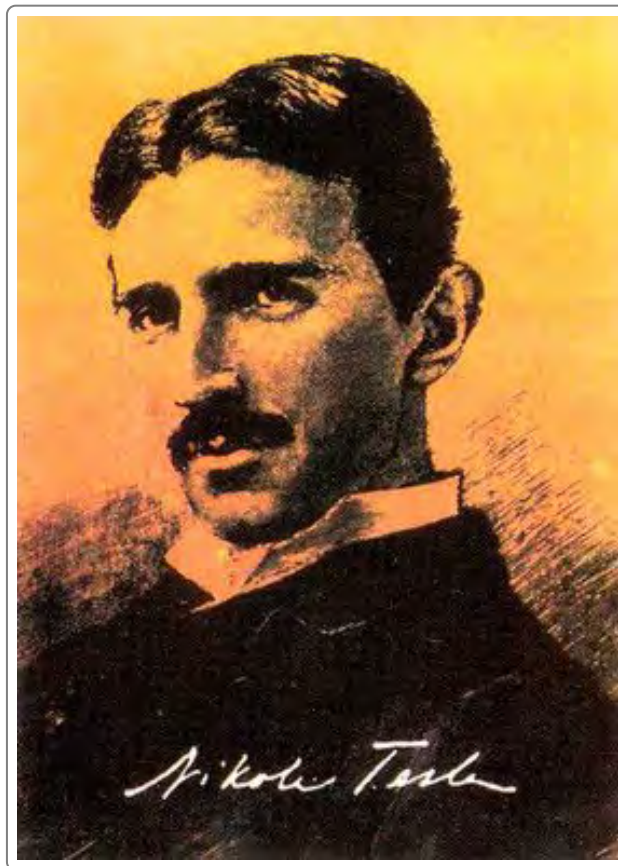

Fig. 105—Nikola Tesla

On Sep. 23, 1913, Ms. Lillian Scott Troy, courageous suffragette and Andrew Carnegie critic, sent a scathing exposé of the Pilgrims Society's treachery—that they were taunting Germany into war with Britain and reincorporate America into Britain—to every United States senator.

MS. TROY ASKED THE SENATORS: "ARE WE ENGLISH-RULED AND ENGLISH-LED?"

Pay attention in the Sep. 23, 1913 link above to the sickly pro-British, sycophantic editorial comment that followed the long Arizona Daily Star article. Evidently Carnegie Pilgrims reeducation money was working, at least with the major newspapermen. Remember, the Pilgrims Society's First Imperial Press Conference, 1909 to "create public opinion," was only four years earlier.

She singled out Carnegie and Elihu Root. Ironically, Root was born in Clinton, NY on Feb. 15, 1845, d. Feb. 7, 1937. Root is a criminal Pilgrims that every American patriot should get to know. Root was the former U.S. Secretary of War (under Teddy Roosevelt, 1899-1904), Secretary of State (under McKinley, 1905-1909) and then Senator from New York (1909-1913).

While a Senator, Root was the first president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace (1910). Root received the Nobel Peace Price in 1912, then proceeded to push America into war with Germany for Britain in 1914—a tragic irony that the Ms. Troy highlights. Root co-founder the American Law Institute. He was vice president of the American Peace Society and published World Affairs. Root was the founding chairman of the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR, 1918).

No wonder Root and the Pilgrims Society wanted American Ms. Troy deported from Britain where she worked!

In Sep. 1917, Pilgrim Society leader Elihu Root was the founding chairman of the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR), first called "The Inquiry."

On Nov. 13, 1919, American Ms. Lillian Scott Troy was so irritating to British authorities in her criticisms of Andrew Carnegie that they finally trumped up charges and permanently deported her from Britain, probably so she would not turn her investigations to the equally seditious Pilgrims' League of Nations.

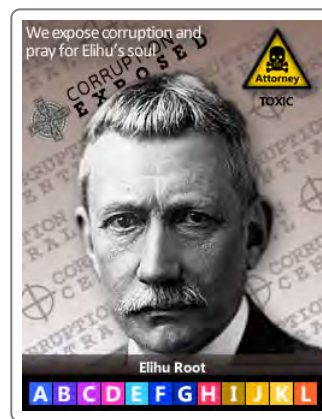

Fig. 106—Elihu Root

The newspaper stories about her deportation were evidently fabricated. Some talk about a secret business deal, others said she was suspected of being a spy, others said she "stirred industrial unrest" (Detroit Free Press, Apr. 22, 1919, p. 16, col. 3). The way we read it, Ms. Troy was simply an American patriot with a brain who wielded a mighty pen and her good looks.

Between Nov. 20-30, 1920, world bankers met secretly at Jekyll Island, Georgia. We do know that numerous members of the Pilgrims Society were there. Some of these men were Rosebery-Rothschild surrogates including J.P. Morgan, George Fisher Baker, and possibly Alfred L. Aiken and Marshall Field.

J.P. Morgan Company began life as George Peabody and Company in Georgetown-Baltimore. In 1814, it became Peabody, Riggs and Company (1815-1835). Peabody decided to move to London since he was doing so much international business. There he formed George Peabody and Company of London. Peabody had a close alliance in Liverpool with Brown, Shipley and Company of England (Brown Brother Harriman in New York) .

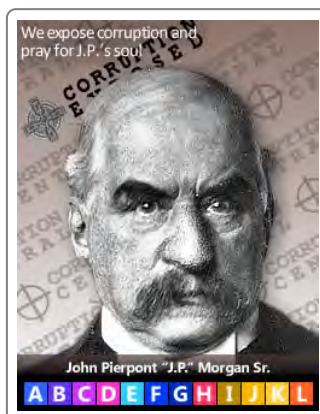

Fig. 107—John Pierpont J.P. Morgan, Sr.

Fig. 108—Lord Rosebery (Rothschild)

The Brown, Shipley firm boasted Sir Montagu Norman, Governor of the Bank of England, as a partner. At the time Sir Norman was considered the single most influential banker in the world.

As case in point, Sir Norman was the organizer of "informal talks" between heads of central banks in 1927, which led directly to the Great Stock Market Crash of 1929 that devastated American small businesses (including the thriving business of grandparents of one of the contributing writers to this post), enabled banks to consolidate their property holdings, and drove 24.9% of Americans into unemployment.

Sir Norman's brother, Ronald Collet Norman, was later head of the BBC, thus in full control of British and American propaganda.

Peabody's American agent was Junius S. Morgan, father of John Pierpont ("J.P.") Morgan (1837-1913) the recipient of considerable N.M. Rothschild patronage.

What this research has revealed is that the House of Rothschild bankrolled J.P. Morgan from the start of his career working for his father J.S. Morgan at Peabody Riggs bank where Baron Nathan Mayer Rothschild was pulling the strings behind the scenes. This allowed him to control British banking without bringing attention to himself among a skeptical British aristocracy.

The Bank of England is notoriously associated with Baron Nathan Mayer Rothschild (N.M. Rothschild & Sons). Junius Morgan succeeded Peabody upon his death. Junius agreed the firm's name could be changed to Junius S. Morgan Company and continued the secret relationship with N.M Rothschild. Together the two men greatly expanded the business in mining, steel, shipping and railroads.

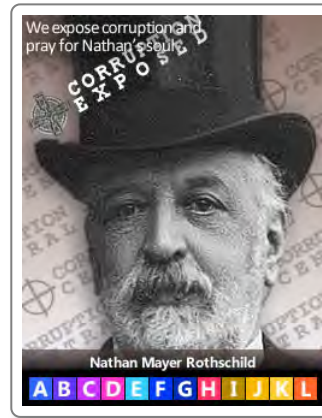

Fig. 109—Natham Mayer Rothschild

1890 WAS A GOOD YEAR FOR J.S. MORGAN AND H. ROTHSCILD BANKING HEIRS: ROUND TABLE PILGRIMS SOCIETY — FOUNDED ON MURDER, AVARICE, PATRICIDE, UXORICIDE, POISONING, DEADLY VIRUSES AND TREACHERY

J.P. Morgan became the head of the firm after his father died in a carriage accident in 1890. This was the same year Hannah Rothschild Rosebery died from typhoid at age 39 while vacationing in the Riviera. Lord Rosebery inherited an almost half a billion dollar fortune, not counting taking over N.M. Rothschild & Sons bank.

These two deaths of Junius Morgan and Hannah Rothschild paved the way for a consolidation of wealth and power in the world that consolidated London banking into the hands of the coming Pilgrims Society (1902). Today we would call Hannah's and Junius' deaths being "Arkancided" like Bill and Hillary Clinton's enemies.

On Dec. 23, 1913, Pilgrims' President Wilson signed the Federal Reserve Act. The Rothschild role in the American Federal Reserve money supply is deluged in propaganda from all sides, and yet, there can be no question that their role was central through surrogate banks and through Pilgrims who are known to have attended the Jekyll Island, GA meetings and planned it.

The timing based on subsequent world events cannot be coincidental. The Fed was created just before the “outbreak” of World War I against Germany (1914) and the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia (1917). These “outbreaks” just so happened to have decimated two main trading competitors for the British Empire and its American Robber barons and their partners.

These Pilgrims used cable and wireless mass communications and propaganda to dupe the public into the wars.

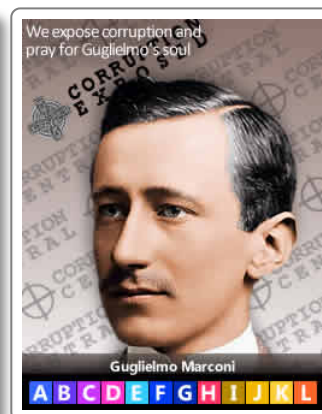

Fig. 112—Guglielmo Marconi

They used Marconi cable and wireless systems run in the U.S. by David Sarnoff to make their plans. They deceived parents to send their young men and women into harm's way for nothing more than the avarice and powermonger of these demons. Concurrently they promoted eugenics and population control (murdering tens of millions of souls) whereby wars killed people, which they considered necessary.

By 1914, and the start of World War I, David Sarnoff was contracts manager for Marconi America. This meant that Sarnoff had regular, intimate contact with senior

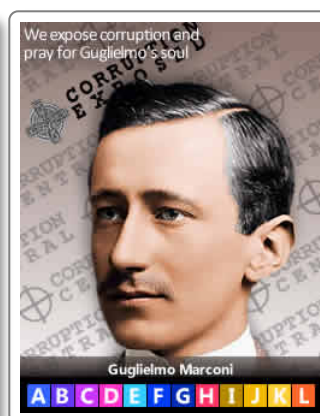

Fig. 114—Guglielmo Marconi

British MPs and, the Imperial War Cabinet—all Pilgrims Society. These were the very knights, barons and lords who had earlier orchestrated the Marconi Wireless monopoly with Baron Henry DeWorms (Rothschild) 1st Lord Pirbright, and with the full approval of Queen Victoria, and then a malleable King Edward VII.

On Jan. 20, 1914, Pilgrim Sydney Buxton ("S.B."), President of the Board of Trade proposed compulsory Marconi wireless telegraphy on all British steamships (later approved). David Sarnoff at age 23 was Marconi Contracts Manager at this time. This action would have affected his duties greatly. Rhodes' relative and Rothschild's business partner, Charles F.G. Masterman, MP, was handling all the day-to-day activities in developing the monopoly.

On Aug. 05, 1914,

in the early hours, British submarines cut the undersea telegraphy cable between the United States and Germany. This act essentially started World War I.

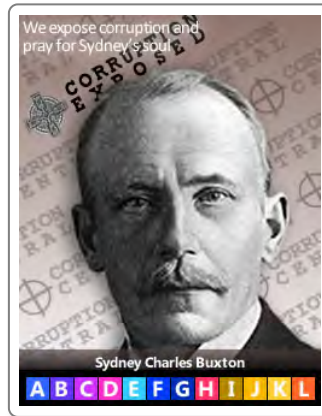

Fig. 115—Sydney C. Buxton

coordinating British war communications between Britain, Germany and America: Sarnoff certainly played a pivotal role in the British propaganda campaign against America prior to, during and in the aftermath of WWI.

On Aug. 05, 1914, Britain declared war on Germany after cutting the U.S.-Germany trans-Atlantic cable (once the Marconi Wireless stations around the world were fully operational). The uniformly pro-British propaganda supported by many well-known British fiction writers that was published in American newspapers, in hindsight, is all too perfect and all too obviously backed by American and British war profiteer banks and Robber baron industrialists.

On Sep. 05, 1914,

Prime Minister Lloyd George ordered Charles F.G. Masterman (Privy Counselor) to form the British War Propaganda Bureau (WPB), known as "Wellington House."

Masterman enlisted well-known fiction writers including John Buchan, Arthur Conan Doyle, H.G.mWells, as well as artists like Francis Dodd, Paul Nash, William Orpen, and C.R.W. Nevinson. Wellington House was replaced by the Propaganda Ministry of Information on May 18, 1917. Writer John Buchan, one of Masterman's chief propagandists, would take charge. See examples of their propaganda works.

On Sep. 20, 1916,

Charles Masterman and the British War Propaganda Bureau (WPB), known as "Wellington House," presented a 125-page report (some pages describing American propaganda activity were missing until replaced by a lowly archivist recently) that they had published 300 books and pamphlets in 21 languages, distributed over 4,000 propaganda photographs every week and circulated maps, cartoons and lantern slides to the media. This activity was absorbed exactly five months later as one of four departments within the newly-formed Propaganda Ministry of Information directed by John Buchan.

On Oct. 18, 1914, The New York Times carried a full-throated defense by English writers of the English provocation of Germany after the British navy cut the German undersea communications with America. David Sarnoff was 23 and Marconi Contracts Manager.

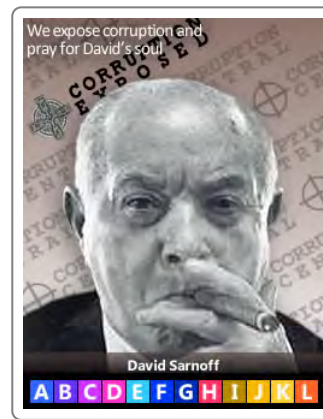

Fig. 124—David Sarnoff

Readers should be reminded that Sarnoff would have been thoroughly vetted by British intelligence before being allowed to keep this job in the U.S.

Considering both British and American intelligence were both controlled by the Pilgrims Society, it explains how the anti-German effort was so unified. The Imperial corporatists of the Pilgrims Society in London and New York were waging "War by Journalism" (W.T. Stead's creation).

Sir Gilbert Parker organized fifty-three "Famous British Authors" (many Pilgrims) included Rudyard Kipling, Arthur Conan Doyle, Thomas Hardy, G.K. Chesterton and

H.G. Wells to write the lies that fooled America into World War I.

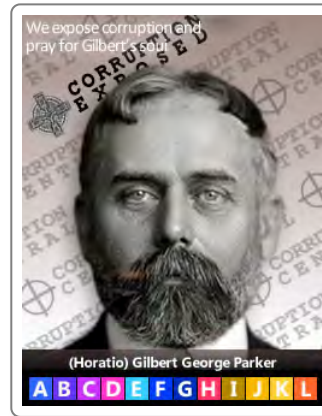

Fig. 125—Horatio Gilbert George Parker

Reuters "news" service was deeply involved in this propaganda effort. Reuters was controlled by the Rothschilds ever since the days the Rothschild's borrowed Reuter's carrier pigeons.

On Sep. 01, 1916, Pilgrim (Sir) Gilbert Parker wrote in Masterman's report to the War Cabinet that he had engaged in extensive propaganda activities for the British War

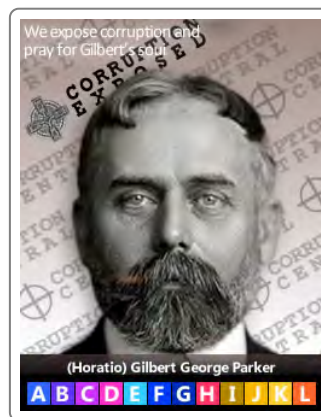

Fig. 126—Horatio Gilbert George Parker

Fig. 127—Charles Frederick Gurney F.G. Masterman

Propaganda Bureau to target America. Three months after this report, in Dec. 1916 the Imperial War Cabinet was formed under Prime Minister Lloyd George with Earl Curzon, Alfred Milner, Arthur Henderson and Bonar Law—all Cecil Rhodes-Rothschild devotees and Pilgrims Society members. Milner was the lead trustee of the Rhodes Scholarship trust.

SUBORNING TREASON AMONG AMERICANS FOR THE PILGRIMS SOCIETY

David Sarnoff at age 25 was Marconi Assistant Traffic Manager and secretary of Institute of Radio Engineers (IEEE precursor).

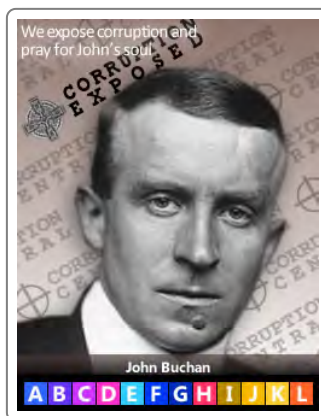

Fig. 128—John Buchan

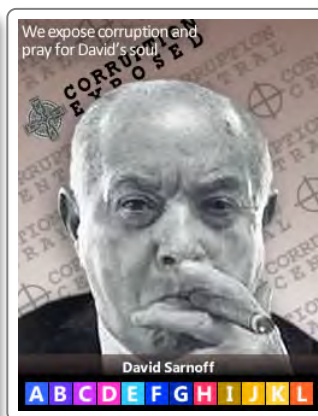

Fig. 129—David Sarnoff

Minister of Propaganda, John Buchan reported to the War Cabinet:

“SECRET: ... selected visits to America of Englishmen known in the United States, and arrangement by which they are able to exercise their influence quietly to the best advantage... without any appearance of Government propaganda... assisting the people of America to form right judgment...” (emphasis added).

Sir Gilbert highlighted many American Pilgrims who were assisting him. (Editor: The American propaganda pages from this 1916 report had been deleted in the British National Archives, until a helpful clerk supplied them recently). Parker's list includes many newspapermen in conspiracy with Rothschild's Reuters News Agency.

Parker said Kenneth Durant and H.J. Whigham were "particularly productive... have done us great service by their reports and comments."

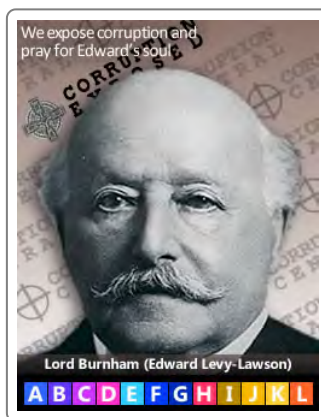

Fig. 130—Lord Burnham
(Daily Telegraph owner)

Fig. 131—Cyril Arthur Pearson

Whigham was:

- Chicago Tribune correspondent,
- an amateur Scottish golf champion (1896-1897),
- The London Standard editor (owned by Pilgrim C. Arthur Pearson, executive committeeman of the First Imperial Press Conference, 1909; co-founder of the Empire Press Union, MI6, MI5 and GC&CS, renamed GCHQ in 1946),
- The Brooklyn Daily Eagle, The Tribune, Scribner's Magazine, The Morning Post, Town & Countryspecial correspondent,
- Metropolitan Magazine editor, owned by The Daily Telegraph where Lord Burnham was a founding member of the Pilgrims Society, chief organizer of the First Imperial Press Conference, 1909, founder of the Empire Press Union and co-founder of MI6, MI5 and GC&CS, renamed GCHQ in 1946. Former

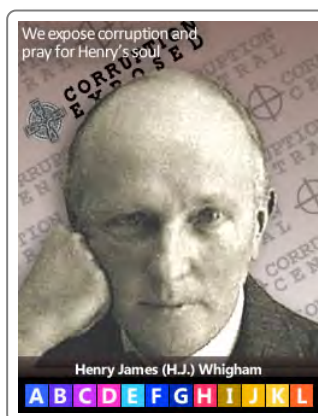

Fig. 132—H.J. Whigham

President Teddy Roosevelt was also an editor of the Metropolitan.

Whigham was a pro-British 2nd Boer War correspondent contemporary of Winston Churchill at the Morning Post.

Kenneth Durant had received a bachelor of science degree from Harvard (1907-1911) and befriended communist journalist John Jack Reed.

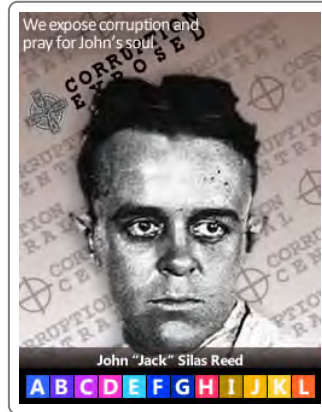

Fig. 133—John Jack Reed

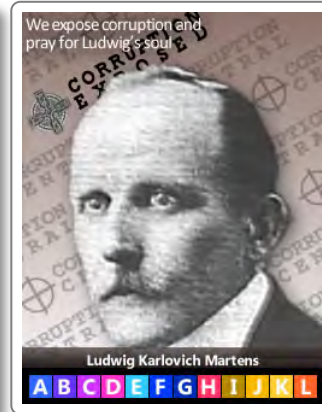

Fig. 134—Ludwig Karlovich Martens

Durant “acted as Soviet courier in the transfer of funds and was treasurer for the Soviet Bureau and press secretary and publisher of Soviet Russia, the official organ of the Soviet Bureau. Durant's Soviet handler Ludwig Martens worked directly with Vladimir Lenin to establish an American propaganda beachhead. He also established many business deals with J.P. Morgan and more than one thousand firms before being deported from America in Mar. 1919.

Durant (who may have been deported for a year himself) opened and managed the American desk of the Soviet News Agency the Telegraph Agency of the Soviet Union (TASS) (1923-1944).

This means Durant was most assuredly being handled as a British agent by British Pilgrim Philip Whitwell Wilson who was Vladimir Lenin’s Pilgrims' handler (1902-1911), where Wilson fronted as a New York Times editor, as stated above. This also overlaps the time when the British spy "Intrepid" had his office at David Sarnoff's building at 30 Rockefeller Center.

As if the treason above was not sufficient, we're just getting started. Sir Gilbert Parker praised many other Americans engaged in seditious British propaganda to steer American public opinion to war and Pilgrims profits:

- Paul D. Cravath, a Pilgrims Society member financier-lawyer (his law firm is now

- Financier Otto S. Bannard(Yale Fusionist candidate for NY mayor in 1909; proponent of social Darwinism); ally of William Randolph Hearst, a Pilgrim.
- Frederic [René] Coudert [Jr.],

- The “striking and admirable work” of Joseph H. Choate (Pres. American Pilgrims 1912-1917).

Parker lavished praise on The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace whose first president, Elihu Root (1912-1925), later became vice president of the American Pilgrims and co-president of the Council on Foreign Relations.

The Carnegie Endowment's president Nicholas Murray

Butler (1925-1945) was also president of the American Pilgrims Society (1928-1946).

PILGRIMS CARNEGIE AND ELIHU ROOT: "GREAT

EMINENCE" IN THEIR BRITISH PROPAGANDA ASSISTANCE TARGETING AMERICANS

The Carnegie Endowment and Root were singled out for their "great eminence" having "distributed great quantities of non-controversial literature... a very considerable number of our documents, and undoubtedly has had a powerful effect... to about 11,000 individuals, 621 public libraries, 214 historical societies, 106 clubs, 555 newspapers, 833 YMCA societies, 339 Universities and colleges, many members of the Royal Society of Arts and associates of the American Institute of Architects."

AMERICAN PILGRIMS ON WALL STREET PAID FOR BRITISH PROPAGANDA MOVIES

Parker said notably:

"One of our most striking successes in the United States has been the floating of our cinema pictures" and secured from Wall Street "big capital" for propaganda films that "have played to overflow houses, with many turned away."

On Dec. 09, 1916, new British Prime Minister David Lloyd George formed a five-person War Cabinet.

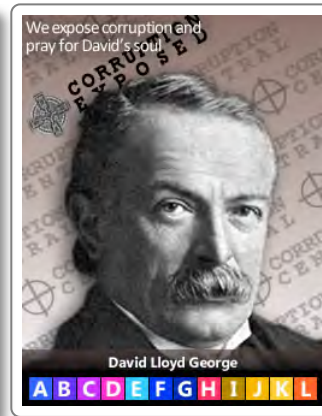

Fig. 150—David Lloyd George

On Jan. 01, 1917, Wellington House closed and its propaganda work was transferred to a formal War Cabinet department: The Ministry of Information, John Buchan, Viscount Milner's 2nd Boer War concentration camp chief of staff, became the Minister Minister of Information (Propaganda)—All Pilgrims.

Jan. 04, 1917, War Cabinet member Lord Alfred Milner met with Czar Nicholas II supposedly to deliver military aid against the revolutionaries, but Milner refused to authorize the aid even though Parliament had already approved it (Note: Milner was never censored for this insubordination to Parliament. Milner was also a political ally, protégé and trustee of Anglophile Cecil John Rhodes.)

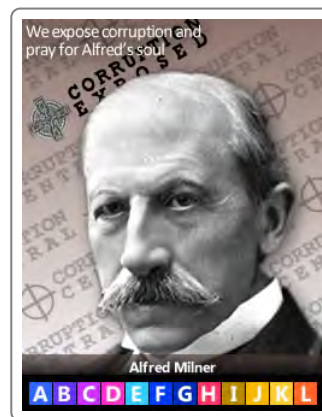

Fig. 151—Viscount Alfred Milner

During this entire period David Sarnoff was handling and monitoring telegraphy traffic between British and American Pilgrims.

On Feb. 20, 1917, the War Cabinet established the Propaganda Ministry of Information and appointed novelist John Buchan as its director. The ministry targeted all countries, except Britain.

Mar. 03, 1917, the War Cabinet member Lord Alfred Milner arrived back in London having promised Nicholas II nothing. No guns for Russia; three days later his formal report to the War Cabinet about the events that took place at the Allied Conference in Russia; tellingly, no minutes were taken, which was contrary to the newly-initiated Lloyd George scrivener policy on meeting minutes.

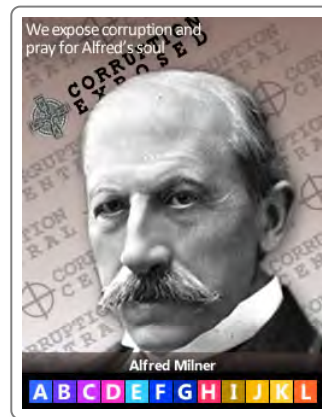

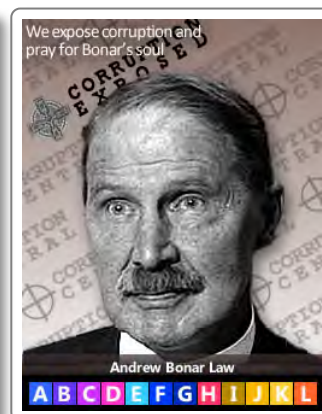

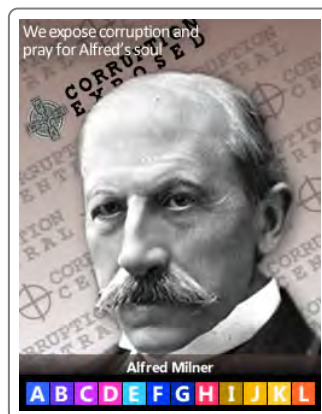

Fig. 153—Viscount Alfred Milner

On Mar. 17, 1917, Russian Czar Nicholas II abdicated. Remarkably, the British War Cabinet, including Lord Milner and Bonar Law, were providing carefully couched impressions as facts (e.g., the Russian people were revolting because the Czar was not prosecuting the war against Germany with enough efficiency!) to the American public, whose major newspapers, in lockstep, repeated Bonaar Law's speculations as facts, immediately; information that they could not possibly have known unless they had written about the abdication for the newspapers before it happened. The headlines and articles are worthy of the National Inquirer today. Czar Nicholas was King George V's cousin.

On Apr. 18, 1917, British and American newspapers around the world published sensational and totally fabricated tabloid "news" to

SELF-ANOINTED BRITISH PILGRIM ELITISTS STARTED SPYING ON BRITISH CITIZENS IN 1917—AS OFFICIAL POLICY

On Jul 14, 2013, Barack Obama quietly changed the rules prohibiting the U.S. government from pushing propaganda on American citizens. This occurred in a change of rules for the Bureau of Broadcasting Governors under revisions quietly enacted in the National Defense Authorization Act of 2013. Obama took this move right out of prime minister David Lloyd George's 1917 playbook on subjecting citizens to fake news from the government.

THE PILGRIMS SOCIETY WANTED PERMANENT BRITISH CONTROL OF PALESTINE VIA ZIONISM, HIDING BEHIND JEWISH ORGANIZATIONS CONTROLLED BY THE PILGRIMS SOCIETY

On Nov. 02, 1917,

Lionel Walter Rothschild, 2nd Baron Rothschild, was instrumental in the Zionist promotion of a Jewish State

following World War I.

Fig. 160—Arthur James Balfour

Fig. 161—Lionel Walter Rothschild

He was the recipient of the famous Balfour Declaration that became the basis for the establishment of a Jewish homeland in Palestine. From 1889-1908, Baron Walter worked at N.M. Rothschild & Sons under the direction of his father Baron Nathan Rothschild and Lord Rosebery (Rothschild).

Hindsight shows that a main reason for the tumult of WWI was a carefully concocted propaganda plan for the Pilgrims Society to establish a permanent British political and economic presence in the Middle East. Toward that end, the Pilgrims Society co opted Zionism as a useful political tool to achieve that British Empire foothold in Israel.

[CITATION: Arthur Balfour. (Nov. 02, 1917). Balfour Declaration; Letter from Balfour to Rothschild re. declaration of sympathy with Jewish Zionists. Lionel Walter Rothschild collection. Reproduced for educational purposes only. Fair Use relied upon.]

Foreign Office,

November 2nd, 1917.

Dear Lord Rothschild,

I have much pleasure in conveying to you, on behalf of His Majesty's Government, the following declaration of sympathy with Jewish Zionist aspirations which has been submitted to, and approved by, the Cabinet

"His Majesty's Government view with favour the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people, and will use their best endeavours to facilitate the achievement of this object, it being clearly understood that nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine, or the rights and political status enjoyed by Jews in any other country"

I should be grateful if you would bring this declaration to the knowledge of the Zionist Federation.

Arthur Balfour

Make no mistake: British Imperial Zionism and Jewish Zionism are different. The evidence is clear that British Imperial Zionism hijacked / exploited Jewish Zionism as the excuse to colonize Palestine for their emerging British Imperial English-speaking corporatist federalist Rhodes-ian plan of the British-American Pilgrims Society.

See Vladimir Lenin & Communism were created by newspaper intelligence globalists from the British-American Pilgrims Society.

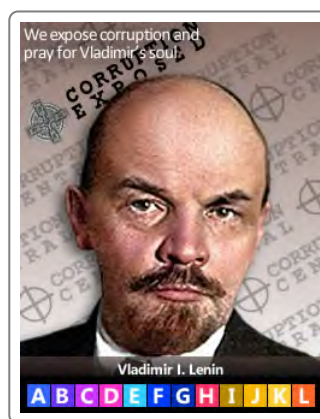

Fig. 163—Vladimir Ilyich Lenin

The Pilgrims Society was successful in demonizing then deposing Christian Czar Nicholas Romanov with relentless propaganda. The fact that he was Queen Victoria's nephew did not matter. In his place a well-groomed Pilgrims socialist named Vladimir Ilyich Lenin was installed. This was the Pilgrims first substantial attempt since the 2nd Boer War to remove the world of trade competitors to their newly hatching Imperial corporate federalism run from London and Washington, D.C.

On Dec. 17, 1917, John Buchan proposed a pro-League of Nations “Psychological Offensive - To be launched at a well selected psychological moment” in direct contradiction to his assertion to Parliament that his Ministry of Information did not engage in politics.

months after the Balfour Declaration letter to Baron Walter Rothschild on Nov. 02, 1917 (also a Pilgrim like his father Nathan Mayer Rothschild, 1st Baron Rothschild—a Pilgrims founder.

On Mar. 15, 1918, War Cabinet advisor Lord Jan Smuts (South African) (a Pilgrim), recommended approval of the Ministry of Information to receive all or most all secret intelligence in order to better target propaganda.

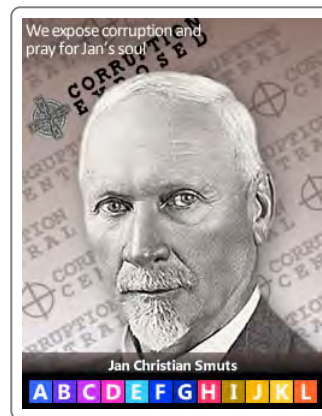

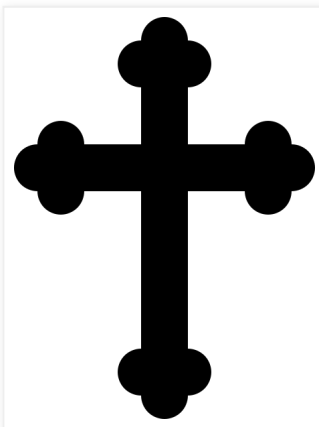

Fig. 169—Jan Christian Smuts

On Jul. 17, 1918, Tsar Nicholas II, his wife Alexandra, their five children, a doctor and three servants were shot and clubbed to death on Vladimir Lenin's orders in the basement of a merchant's mansion named Ipatiev House in Yekaterinburg. An official government commission in 1995 was convened to answer 10 questions by the Russian Orthodox Church. It was reopened in 2015 and reported through Bishop Tikhon on Nov. 28, 2017 that the evidence pointed to a ritual killing.

On Aug. 05, 1918, MP Leifchild Jones told Parliament about the Propaganda Ministry of Information run by John Buchan that by this time was targeting British propaganda against both America and British citizens: "we have been kept in the dark as to its constitution."

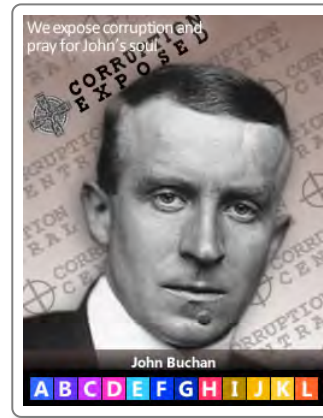

Fig. 170—John Buchan

On Aug. 05, 1918, MP Leifchild Jones (1905-1931) railed against the SECRECY and DUPLICITY of the Propaganda Department—Ministry of Information. He said to Parliament: “At present we know little about it [Ministry of Information], as it is not the creation of Parliament. It exists, and was announced to us through the Press, though up to the present we have been kept in the dark as to its constitution, its purposes, its methods, and its relation to other Departments of the State.”

“That is the Ministry of Information, and the House will observe that these gentlemen represent the most formidable combination at the Ministry of Information. The interests represented are banks, electric power companies, gas, railways, newspapers, rubber, insurance, iron, steel, Pullman cars, ships, and tobacco—a wholly formidable combination.” This list of commercial interests included mining, wireless and armaments.

On Dec. 20, 1918, John Buchan, a Pilgrims Society founder, wrote “Report on the Liquidation of the Ministry of Information Transfer to the Foreign Office War Cabinet” describing the post-war continuation of a “new” “Propaganda Department” divided up among the Foreign Office and private organizations, including propaganda intelligence housed in Spain under the “Federation of British Industries (FBI),” as well as cinematography, photos and art. (Note: Hambro family now owns Getty Images.) In short, all the juicy bits were shuffled off to private operations among commercial and political cronies—just as MP Liefland Jones had feared just months earlier.

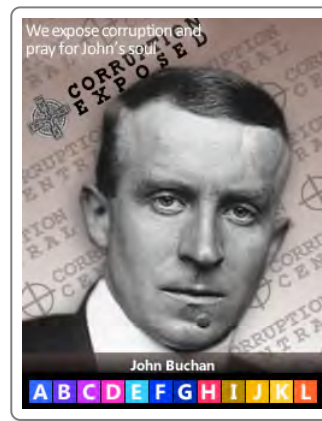

Fig. 171—John Buchan

Control of “Wireless and Cables” (today the “IBM Internet of Things”) went to the Foreign Office, as did American propaganda, under Sir William Tyrrell.

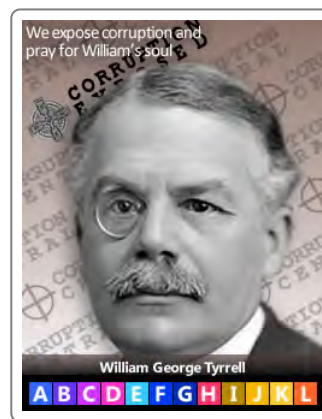

Fig. 172—William George Tyrrell

Tyrrell ran the political intelligence department at the Home Office (1916-1919), was British Ambassador to France (1928-1934), appointed to the Privy Council in 1928, made a baron (1929) and was appointed president of the British Board of Film Censors until he died in 1947. The ties between propaganda, censorship, intelligence and wireless technology are evident in Tyrrell alone.

In Feb. 1919, (Charles) Eric Hambro, a Pilgrim, was knighted for his work at the Ministry of Information—just a few months after leaving the Propaganda Ministry. He went on to become the chairman of Hambros Bank. He died on Dec. 28, 1947, just months after the C.I.A. was formed on Sep. 18, 1947.

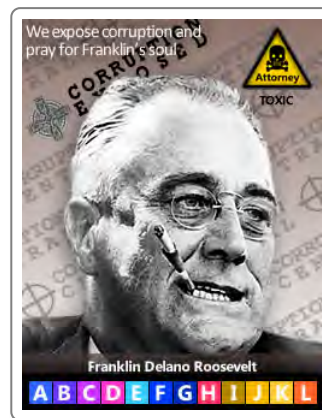

Fig. 174—Franklin Delano Roosevelt

On Oct. 17, 1919, at the recommendation of then Assistant Secretary of the U.S. Navy, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Radio Corporation of America (RCA) was formed out of Marconi Wireless America assets, combined in a bizarre, nakedly monopolistic assignment of hundreds of patent rights to Marconi Wireless U.S. from AT&T, Westinghouse, General Electric and the United Fruit Company. These companies each received stock in RCA (GE 30.1%, Westinghouse 20.6%, AT&T 10.3% and United Fruit 4.1%, individual shareholders 34.9%). Rothschild banking interests were threaded throughout these companies, as well as directly influencing RCA's Pilgrims Society leaders, being Pilgrims themselves.

For a detailed record of the RCA purchase of Marconi Wireless America patents and assets at the insistence of the U.S. Navy, where Franklin D. Roosevelt was secretary, see the 1,491-page Congressional Record (searchable) H.R. 4523, Part III. \(Beginning Feb. 11, 1935\). Pooling of Patents. RCA's first president was Pilgrim Society member Owen D. Young. We believe David Sarnoff, who became RCA's vice president and general manager, most likely became a member of the American Pilgrims Society before RCA was hatched.

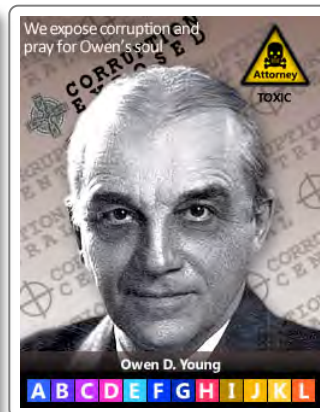

Fig. 176—Owen D. Young

On Jan. 10, 1920, the League of Nations was formed just 58 days after Ms. Troy's deportation, by the very same people that Ms. Troy was vociferously criticizing—like Pilgrim ‘Dukedom’ (newly discovered evidence suggests Knight of Malta) Andrew Carnegie and Elihu Root. In 1910, Root was simultaneously U.S. Senator from New York and first president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. In 1917, Root was the founding chairman of the Inquiry/Council on Foreign Relations.

Ms. Troy was a thorn in the side of the Anglophile Pilgrims Society. In doing real investigations (unlike much of the mockingbird media today). Ms. Troy had discovered that Andrew Carnegie was on the British voter roles in Scotland. When she publicized this fact, the British and American press marched in lockstep to protect Carnegie, their sugar daddy.

The truth is, Ms. Troy spoke the truth about the Pilgrims Society plot for the British Empire to reabsorb their American lost colony.

Ms. Troy was refreshingly irritating to the British-American Imperial federalist sycophants like J.P. Morgan, Andrew Carnegie and Lord Rosebery at the moment of their third big win: the formation of the League of Nations. Their first win was deposing Czar Nicholas Romanov and installing their London-groomed V.I. Lenin and the Bolsheviks. Their second win was the destruction of Kaiser Wilhelm and German industry in World War I. They couldn't have Ms. Troy telling the truth about their Pilgrims secret society treachery to the world.

In 1920, the British ostensibly created the Tavistock Clinic (renamed Institute in 1947) to assist shell-shocked soldiers. But, hindsight reveals that the true long term agenda was to study propaganda techniques for mass mind control and crafting of public messages to "create public opinion."

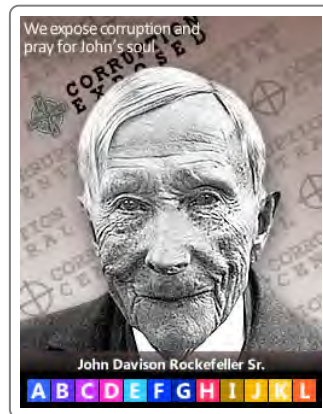

Fig. 177—John Davison Rockefeller Sr.

See Mar. 03, 1923, Viscount Burnham (Daily Telegraph proprietor; chairman of the Empire Press Union; co-organizer of the First Imperial Press Conference, 1909; co-founder of MI6, MI5 and GC&CS now GCHQ) speeches in New York on "governance by journalism."

When the Clinic became the Institute after WWII on Sep. 20, 1947, it received major funding from two Pilgrims Society mainstays, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace and the Rockefeller Foundation—both partners with N.M. Rothschild & Sons in many Pilgrims deals and plans.

On Feb. 11, 1920, the organizing council of the League of Nations held its second session in London at St. James's Palace. General Jan Smuts (Pilgrim) was among them—the man who approved director John Buchan (Pilgrim) and his Propaganda Ministry of Information to receive top secret military intelligence during the war (Tavistock psychiatry-driven propaganda and NSA-like mass social surveillance—"MSM")—an activity that was made a private operation run out of Spain during the "liquidation" of the ministry.

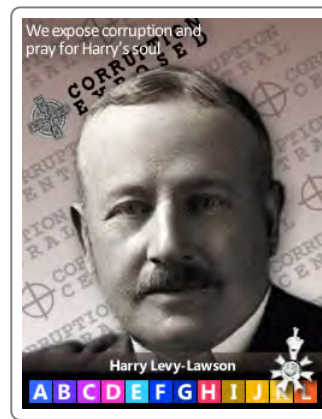

Fig. 179—Viscount Burnham, owner of the Daily Telegraph.

Remarkably, War Cabinet member Bonar Law (Pilgrim), Leader of the House of Commons, at first feigned ignorance about the proceedings of the League of Nations conference when MP Sir Donald MacLean questioned the ludicrous reparations being discussed to be levied against an utterly decimated Germany.

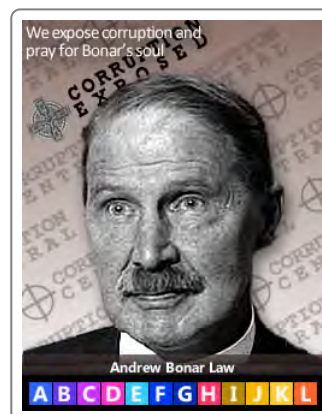

Fig. 181—Andrew Bonar Law

Laughably, Bonar Law—an architect of the League of Nations—answered "You know as much about it as I do."

This Bonar Law response to Sir Donald was a lie because after Sir Donald had eviscerated the suspicious secrecy of the League of Nations conference, Bonar Law launched a disingenuous soliloquy revealing his intimate knowledge of the inner workings of the conference, and the Reparations Commission work on war levies against Germany.

Law betrayed his underlying Anglophile political philosophy circa corporate socialists Cecil Rhodes / Alfred Milner / Fabian Society / Round Table, stating "I think all that has happened in the War has given us reason to feel that of all the constitutions in the world ours [Britain's] is probably the best ... the maximum amount [to charge Germany] even as it stands in the Treaty is fixed and the objects for which they can be called upon to pay are detailed... The arrangements which have already been made by the Reparation Commission show that they [Germany] are being reasonably dealt with."

Evidently, the Pilgrims Society Robber barons were determined to strip Germany of its assets for the profit with which they could wield additional power and wealth. This scenario sounds uncannily similar to the way these same Pilgrims raped and pillaged the American and world public in the "banking crisis" of 2008.

History shows that the German public's reaction to the debilitating reparations was a primary propaganda tool in Hitler's rise to power just eight years later. Evidently, the WWI War Cabinet that included Bonar Law was organizing someone's interests [bankers, robber baron international corporations, new world order fascists], but not the honest, peace-loving citizens of the world.

Sir (Charles) Eric Hambro's son, Sir Charles Jocelyn Hambro, had become head of the "Special Operations Executive (SOE)" which organized "stay-behind" networks that formed the basis of the modern day C.I.A. created under Allen W. Dulles. The C.I.A. managed all the "stay behinds."

Dulles is now widely believed to have ordered the assassination of President John F. Kennedy after President Kennedy said he wanted to "splinter [the C.I.A.] into a thousand pieces and scatter it to the winds" due its utter lawlessness. Dulles and Hambro were evidently in close cooperation. Hambro's possible role in the Kennedy assassination needs to be explored.

On May 01, 1926, David Sarnoff, then vice president of RCA, along with RCA's Pilgrim president Owen D. Young sent the first "radio photo" from London to New York.

The first photo "to be wirelessly" was a photograph of the speakers' table at the Pilgrim's society dinner in government could become (in his words) a customer for research contracted from the Research Councils and other sources. Rothschild's thinking implied that management of R&D by "customer" Departments would bring an understanding of research outputs. He proposed the transfer of applied science funds from Research Councils to Government Departments, providing each with a Chief Scientist as proxy customer for research to be commissioned on a "customer:contractor" basis (the British version of "public-private partnership." The Government largely adopted his proposals in 1972 and implemented them in 1974. The Rothschild framework still underpins important assumptions about Departmental relationships with the science community.

In 1934, 14 years before the formation of the State of Israel, Weizmann and Israel M. Sieff (later made a baron) founded the Daniel Sieff Research Institute named after Sieff's son who died at age 17. Curiously, the institute would pursue studies in mathematics, computer science, physics, chemistry, biochemistry, and biology—all sciences needed to pursue the Pilgrims dystopian fusion of eugenics and war-making bio weapons.

On Jul. 29, 1987, R.C.A. Limited changed its name to SERCO LIMITED. SERCO became the commercial extension (not really, the British Monarch holds a "Golden Share" giving her veto power over all SERCO operations) of the prior government computer and software R&D effort named S.E.R.C. (Science and Engineering Research Council) overseen by Sir Geoffrey E. Pattie, the Minister of State, Industry and Information Technology under Margaret Thatcher (1983-1981).

Fig. 210—Geoffrey Edwin Pattie.

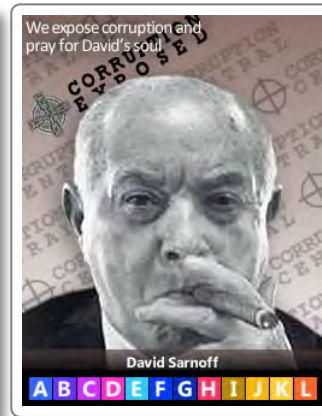

Fig. 211—David Sarnoff, RCA/NBC.

SERCO was the computer engineering British monopoly sister to Lord Victor Rothschild's Biotechnology monopoly Investments Limited (BIL). Both organizations emerged out of The Rothschild Report, 1971.

Shockingly, SERCO and QinetiQ today operate vast swaths of American military and civilian infrastructure, having been awarded those contracts by the seditious Senior Executive Service (SES), formed by Jimmy Carter in 1978. The SES takes its Pilgrims Society orders via the British Crown Agents and the British Privy Council.

THE BRITISH STEAL ALL OF AMERICA'S PATENTS & COMMUNICATIONS

Since 2006, SERCO was given the contract to process all patent applications for the United States Patent Office! America has transferred sovereignty of its most valuable asset—specifically protected by the U.S. Constitution, Article I, Section 8, Clause 8—inventions, into the hands of the British Crown. Why? Because the Pilgrims Society oligarchs learned in the late 1800's that a steady stream of patents was their guarantee of perpetual power and wealth.

SERCO began life in 1929 in the United Kingdom (UK) as R.C.A. Photophone Limited (David Sarnoff). In 1956, they changed their name to R.C.A. Great Britain Limited. In 1969, they changed names again to R.C.A. Limited. In 1987 their name changed again to SERCO Limited.

SERCO has become, in some cases, the single source provider of critical American infrastructure via 5,000 contracts totaling \$6.2 billion (not including secret offshore accounts) including 477 contracts worth $41.3 million at the Senior Executive Services' Office of Personnel Management (OPM), four contracts worth $172 million at the Department of State (DOS), and 4,644 contracts worth $4.22 billion at the Department of Defense (DoD).

Three astonishing SERCO contracts are: (1) a $95 million contract to run the U.S. Patent Office's processing of new patent applications, (2) a $1.2 billion contract to run the Obamacare website, and (3) $610 million to run FEMA Region 9 & 2: Arizona, California, Nevada, Hawaii and the Pacific Islands. Here's the actual Serco FEMA contract Solicitation No. HSFE80-R-004-DHS.

In addition, already mentioned, but bears repeating, Serco manages air traffic control at 63 U.S. airports!

Anyone who says that the Queen is just a figurehead is a brainwashed fool, or a propagandist.

On May 08, 1986, Rothschild's Biotechnology Investment Limited (BIL) also incorporated in Bermuda and ceased operation in 1999, presumably when BIL was absorbed back into the N.M. Rothschild Asset Management orbit. Source: Paradise Papers.

See Jan. 12,

and secretary is the same Rothschild Asset Management Limited and the bankers is the same N.M. Rothschild & Sons Limited. Lord Victor Rothschild had died in 1990, so the family was evidently absorbing Victor's businesses and wiping the record (except for Sydney Brenner's personal papers).

N.M. Rothschild & Sons

On Mar. 21, 1990, Lord Victor Rothschild, 3rd Baron Rothschild, died. Even the Rothschild-controlled Associated Press identified him as a British spy, although they sloppily identified him as the 4th instead of the 3rd Baron Rothschild. That title went to his son Jacob, also a Pilgrim and current "Life" patron of the Weizmann Institute. We have observed that these "mistakes" are generally intentional misdirection to keep the public away from the Rothschild's similar names and secret Pilgrims conspiracies.

On Aug. 20, 1990, Wellcome Fund (now GSK - GlaxoSmithKline) awarded Brenner the "Wellcome Visiting Professor in the Basic Medical Sciences for 1990/91 academic year." This illustrates the revolving door of relationships among British and Israeli biotechnology groups that were the beneficiaries of the Victor Rothschild Report, 1971, and the subsequent total reorganization of British R&D to be run by private commercial enterprises, including Rothschild's Biotechnology Investments Limited (BIL), which was the first and largest. Such "old boy" insider trading immorality is "legal" in the U.K. apparently.

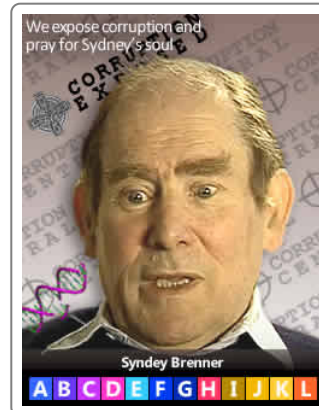

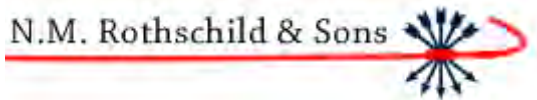

Fig. 218—Sydney Brenner

In 1997, Jacob Rothschild, 4th Baron Rothschild, Weizmann Institute Life Member, became an honorary fellow of the Weizmann Institute.

What we observe here about the Weizmann Institute is that it appears to be an Israel-based British clone of The Pirbright Institute, Surrey UK. Their research priorities and clientele are practically interchangeable. Both are heavily weighted down with Pilgrims Society British aristocracy.

Fig. 219—Nathan Charles Jacob Rothschild, 4th Baron Rothschild

Indeed, the current chairman of the Pirbright Institute is Sir Bertie Ross, a close confidante of Prince Charles, and Baroness Elizabeth Manningham-Buller, former MI5 chief (2002-2007).

At the Weizmann Institute, the Rothschilds are life members and their foundation is top heavy with titled British peers.

Both Weizmann and Pirbright are heavily funded by the Biotechnology and Biological Sciences Research Council (BBSRC) UK, Burroughs Wellcome & Co. (Wellcome Trust, Wellcome Foundation), Victor Rothschild's Biotechnology Investments Limited UK, now N.M. Rothschild Asset Management.

Now we must swing this story back to David Sarnoff, RCA/NBC president, member of the Pilgrims Society, fellow of the Weizmann Institute.

Now we are ready to be introduced to Robert I. Lieber.

Lieber was David Sarnoff's award winning engineer who specialized in satellites, radar and missiles.

Lieber is interesting because, besides being the father of indicted Harvard nano-scientist Charles M. Lieber, Robert Lieber worked on the actual wireless, satellite and missile technologies to make Sarnoff's dystopian 1926 predictions of wireless bio weapons actually work.

NEXT WAR OVER in few MINUTES!

By Charles G. Reinhart

WAR, that "mad game the world has been playing," has in recent years grown shorter in duration as it grows more efficient in destruction.

Once there were conflicts that lasted 700 years, and more, as the Middle Ages, which continued from 710 to 1450. Fifty years, too, a Hundred Years' War, and a Thirty Years' War.

The average duration of the fighting in the important wars of the past was forty-eight years, according to one statistician. The World War of 1914-1918, the shortest of its kind, lasted four years.

Yet even seven weeks may seem a long campaign when science holds the stopwatch in this mad game. For high officers of the American Army have recently been informed that the utilization of radio waves in the future may be fought and won in a few minutes.

"Thrilling as this statement may seem," they were told, "it is inevitable that a future great war may last five minutes rather than five years, and yet be infinitely more destructive and decisive than the last World War."

This rapid curtailment of the last argument of kings was presented by Lieutenant Colonel David Sarnoff, R. C. B. C., vice president and general manager of the Radio Corporation of America, and an outstanding authority on the possibilities of the latest miracle of science.

Among the men to whom he spoke were the leading military authorities of the United States, meeting at the Army Industrial College, in Washington. Naturally, it aroused wide comment.

MORE terrible than any army with banners are the destructive possibilities of the new science as foreseen by Sarnoff.

"Consider," he said, in amplifying his startling statement, "a few of the possibilities which exist in offensive warfare alone. It is now conceivable that heavy charges of high explosives may be carried under instant governmental buildings, docks, factories and other strategically important points, these charges being connected by radio-receiving equipment capable of detecting the explosives when a certain wave length is sent on a particular wave length. If a potential enemy were to prepare in this way for anticipated hostilities, on the morning he would be could readily send out the signal of destruction and so to a great extent paralyze his opponent."

"We know enough today about the X-rays and heat rays are extremely serious in sufficient concentration. An investigation of these and perhaps as yet unknown rays, as well as other incendiary or disintegrating agencies, may well lead to the development of extremely powerful methods of warfare."

SCIENCE, finding its aid in the nations, believe Sarnoff, is thus prepared to make them bring about the greatest radical change in methods in all the history of warfare.

"The fighting methods used by nations locked in the struggle of war," he pointed out, "have been radically changed only once during historic times. The general use of gunpowder did bring about a huge modification in military strategy and tactics. So long as man was restricted to the use of hand weapons, such as the sword, fighting methods were comparatively limited in their variety. After all, the military at the stage of T-rex fought in no very different manner from the British soldiers at Agincourt."

"Gunpowder made a big difference because it rendered the defensive armor of the Middle Ages obsolete and placed all men more or less on a par as fighting units. This was perhaps the first striking illustration of the influence of science on warfare. It has, in fact, led to a very real change in military procedure, and even has brought about conditions actually amounting to a deadlock over extended areas and long periods of time when equally equal forces of men were matched against each other."

"The opening lines of men in the trenches during the great war were immobilized because of the possibilities of the high-power rifle and the machine gun as well as artillery warfare. The development of this type of warfare is probably limited and we may now anticipate a real revolution in methods of fighting when the agencies of science are concentrated on the development of destructive instrumentalities."

"Without the slightest understatement, the value of the physical agencies which proved effective in the last war, is it not reasonable to visualize the possibility that future great wars may well be fought and won on the basis of human and scientific devices rather than numerical preponderance?"

DESTRUCTIVE chemicals and incendiary bombs, Sarnoff declared, are inevitable to be developed as agencies of war. In his opinion their potentialities are enormous and demand appropriate countermeasures.

George Washington's famous utterance, "To be prepared for war is one of the most essential means of preserving peace," can apply even to the scientific warfare of the future, it would seem. Sarnoff voiced much the same idea in modern terms when he declared: "If history is to be largely influenced by scientific knowledge as well as military and industrial organization, it is certainly follows that now is the time to study intensively scientific agencies of destruction and perhaps even more vigorously the countermeasures for combating them on a wholesale defensive scale. This work cannot be completely developed by civilian industrial companies. It is the first place, it is a highly specialized field and requires a detailed and confidential knowledge of military problems and methods. In the second place, it is considerably removed in its early stages from any commercial application, and the considerable expenditures of time, energy and money which are involved in such work would not be normally undertaken by industrial concerns without some direction by Government agencies."

"On the other hand, the personal necessity to every forward scientific worker to research must be drawn from the universities and the great industrial concerns of the United States. It may well be that the scientific and engineering methods of the military should be borrowed by the military department from time to time. Also, it is not unlikely that their military research apparatus of secret methods of communication, the study of all forms of offensive radiation, chemistry and other substances and the development of protective measures against each of these of defensive devices."

AN IMPORTANT problem which would demand solution is the extent of future war, Sarnoff believes, is the effective limitation of existing radio stations as well as of those to be developed. During the last war, he pointed out, radio reception by the public was prohibited. This, he is convinced, would be a mistake under conditions which might come about in the event of future hostilities.

"It is far better to utilize the capabilities of radio broadcasting than to discard them," he said. "Of course, radio broadcast transmissions would have to be strictly controlled by the Government under wartime conditions, but reception should be permitted. It would be possible for the Government to issue expeditiously and simultaneously reports and stimulating announcements to many millions of listeners and possibly the entire Nation."

"In case of airplane raids or other impending attacks, instantaneous warnings could be issued which would reach the entire population virtually instantly. Announcements dealing with mobilization and other military matters could be issued as a daily military bulletin service of high efficiency and universal scope."

"On the other hand, it is reasonable to assume that, with the advent of the international broadcasting and the further development in this field, which is sure to follow, the enemy may, in time of war, be able to have direct access to the homes of citizens and other residents in the country, with consequent possible dangers which should be carefully considered. Means can, no doubt, be developed and provided for dealing with radiation from enemy countries, but this will follow only after a clear recognition of the existence of this problem."

"It is certain that the existence of millions of receiving sets in the homes of the citizens of this country, together with the availability of great international networks of broadcasting stations, will place at the disposal of the Government during any possible future war a most powerful weapon for organization and the maintenance of national morale. And this very fact, also, makes the enemy's waves of sinister propaganda necessary to perform very vividly the enemy's waves of sinister propaganda under a cloud of darkness. The idea of a disastrous war, begun and ended in five minutes, may well stagger the imagination. Yet, one can expect, an earlier might might have been just as startled had our present engines of war been described to them. The men who fought at Thermopylae, at Tannenberg or at Jutland would undoubtedly have scoffed at prophecy which foretold huge mechanical birds dropping fiery death from the skies, or guns which shot their fatal projectiles miles where the arrows traveled only yards. Even the men who fell in Bagdad in 1914 probably never visualized the power of certain weapons which the war between Athens and Sparta. At great nations of the world hold in reserve today."

SIR SAMUEL HOARE, British Air Minister, brought this into sharp emphasis recently when he said: "In the whole of the last war some 200 tons of bombs were dropped by enemy aircraft on this country. Air forces today could drop almost the same weight in the first twenty-four hours of attack and could continue this scale of attack almost indefinitely."

There is wide evidence to support that statement. Today, it is said, the British, for example, have a torpedo plane with two pilots and twenty-three men. Another report mentions a silent plane with machine guns in the wings as well as the tail. The United States owns a plane with a regular engine of 1,000 horsepower. It has, too, a twenty-three-ton plane with a thirty-seven-horsepower engine and carrying a thirty-seven-horsepower gun and traveling at twelve miles an hour. Great Britain is said to have twelve-ton tanks which can make up to eighteen miles an hour and a one-ton tank which can be driven through water for landing operations. At sea there are some 25,000-ton dreadnaughts and enormous armored aircraft-carriers.

POISONOUS gas, one of the worst scourges of the World War, is not an entirely new development. Historians say the means of offense was used as far back as the fifth century B. C., when arsenic was burned to assist besieging forces in a war between Athens and Sparta. At sea quailines had been thrown into the sea in the hope that its fumes would incapacitate men on opposing vessels.

Yet the gas attack launched at Ypres in 1915 laid all the elements of novelty and, inspired by the resources of science, introduced almost a new element in warfare. According to experts, even that dangerous attack was mild compared to what science might do today with gas in a war between nations.

Certain students who view the future with pessimism visualize the possibility of nations driven to desperation resorting to all the horrors of poison gas, aerial, underwater submarine warfare, and even gun warfare, despite treaties, which prohibit them. In such an event the use of explosives detonated by wireless rays would appear as not an innovation but a step.

What would follow no one can tell. The possibilities seem endless.

Wars that dragged through years and which left the earth staggering between debt and the ravages of conflict will, if Colonel Sarnoff's prophecy is fulfilled, begin and end within the lapse of seconds or, at most, minutes

R. LIEBER received his BSME from the University of Miami and his MS from Drexel Institute of Technology. At the Army's Frankford Arsenal from 1950 to 1952, he was responsible for hydraulic circuit development. Joining RCA in 1952, Mr. Lieber contributed to development of the AN/APN-42 subminiaturized pulse radar altimeter and the "Black Cat" low-altitude penetration system. He then became responsible for the integration of the MIT-SPIRE System with the RCA-developed K-band terrain clearance radar. From 1956 to 1958 he undertook functional engineering of inertial navigation systems and self-stabilized missile-seeker systems. Since 1958, Mr. Lieber, as Leader of an Analysis group, is responsible for major portions of DAMP and advanced tracking and guidance systems.

BABY LIEBER'S NANO- TECHNOLOGY WAS THE MISSING PIECE IN SARNOFF'S DYSTOPIAN VISION FOR WIRELESS BIOWARFARE

The elements of Sarnoff's vision that Robert's son Charles was groomed to deliver to the Pilgrims Society was nanotube, nanowire and nanopore inventions.

Before Robert retired from RCA, the company carried this curiously long and exquisitely detailed article by Robert Lieber about his alleged interest in model airplanes.

In

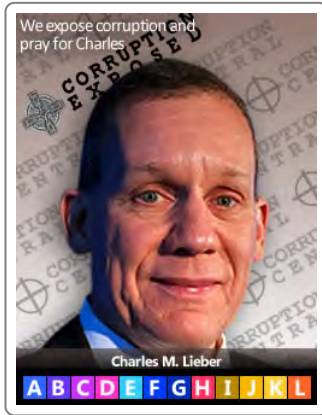

Fig. 233—Charles Michael Lieber

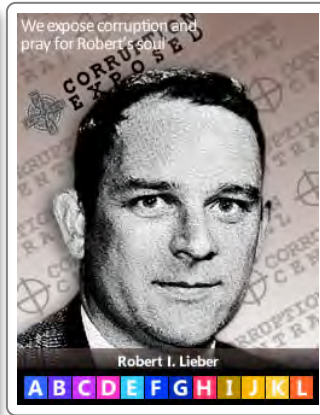

Fig. 234—Robert Israel Lieber

Fig. 232—Charles Michael Lieber

Aug. 1977, RCA Engineer carried a four-page spread about Robert's alleged model airplane hobby.

In Daddy Lieber's obituary (Jan. 06, 2008), Charles wrote that he and his father traveled across the US and Europe to pursue this hobby.

The article is too exquisitely detailed and out of place to be real. It appears to be a cover story so that Robert could take his son Charles to meet with his C.I.A., British MI6 and Pilgrims Society spy handlers in the U.S., Canada and Europe.

Cadre means “a small group of people specially trained for a particular purpose or profession.”

THE ROTHSCILDS: CENTURIES OF TREASON AGAINST AMERICA

We have now established—with hard facts—that the Rothschilds and their conspirators have been meddling in America's business and life since the American Revolution, in an unbroken chain of largely stealth dealings.

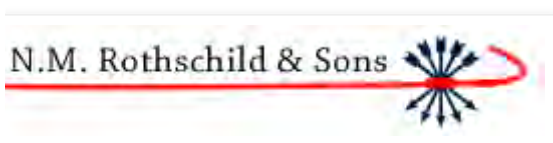

N.M. Rothschild & Sons was newly-formed when they began financing the British War of 1812 that burned down the White House in 1914.

We have discovered much new history in writing this story, not counting our previous dusty library warehouse find of the First Imperial Press Conference, 1909 that catapulted the Pilgrims Society ("Deep State") to where we are today. Lord Rosebery (Rothschild) was the keynote celebrity and Lord Rothschild was there too. This Conference spawned the Empire Press Union, MI6, MI5 and GCHQ. They want to disassemble the American Republic in order to establish their elitist+communist finally new-world order.

We discovered that in 1888 two Rothschilds, Baron Henry de Worms (Rothschild) and Lord N.M. Rothschild were responsible for the creation of the Grand Priory of England order within the Knights of Malta, Order of St. John. This gave the Rothschilds and other Court Jews of Europe a first-time foothold inside the papal Vatican Bank with whom the Rothschilds and other court bankers had been at war for centuries. It also set up a purely Crown-driven order of chivalry that the Pilgrims Society has used since 1888 (up to this current moment) to lavish chivalry orders, titles and awards in front of business and political leaders in exchange for their cooperation. We believe that Supreme Court Justice John G. Roberts, Jr. is a Knight of Malta, as was Andrew Carnegie's "dukedom."

We have discovered that when the future Lord Rosebery inherited his N.M. Rothschild billions of dollars in 1890, he was likely the stealth Rothschild who set in motion the British Imperial corporatist federation agenda, more than any other politician in history.

We have discovered a stealth Pilgrims organization that is suborning treasonous disciples into their one-world cause: The American Academy of Achievement.

WHO FACILITATED THIS ROTHSCHILD RISE TO WORLD DOMINATION? LORD ROSEBERY (ROTHSCHILD) WITH BARON HENRY DE WORMS (ROTHSCHILD) BEING A CLOSE SECOND

We have discovered that when Lord Rosebery inherited his N.M. Rothschild & Sons fortune in 1890, then later became Prime Minister, he (as a Rothschild surrogate in control of the British Empire) set in motion the events of the late 1800s that plague humankind to this very moment.

CAN THE ROTHSCHILD HEGEMONY BE UNWOUND?

The first step in fixing this mess is to understand the primary underpinnings that give this N.M. Rothschild & Sons agenda its staying power.

How did these people stay organized in this effort over centuries? We have discovered that they used dinners, parties, conferences, speeches, C.I.A. secrecy and MI6 Official Secrets Act agreements and awards.

This would include the annual banquets of the Pilgrims Society in Britain and America, Weizmann and Pirbright Institute dinners and awards, Masonic Lodge meetings, Fleet Street meetings, parties, events, lectures, consultations, courses, top secret intelligence briefings on subject that were only secret to protect the conspirators. Their secret dominance over telegraphy, telephony and now Internet gave them not only an ability to communicate secretly, but also control of mainstream media propaganda.

For example, if someone in St. Louis needed to meet with someone in London, the London host would simply cooked up an award and off to London they would go to receive their meaningless award, like: "Good Person of the Year."

Academics, politicians, artists, sportsmen and bankers are especially keen on such bloviating.

It is said that Pilgrim Andrew Carnegie was especially keen on rubbing shoulders with British peers, while paradoxically criticizing the aristocratic system (which appears to have been a smokescreen to hide his Knights of Malta honor from the newly-enthroned King Edward VII.

Evidently, no family in the world like the Rothschilds should be given this much power over the lives of his or her fellow human beings.

MESSAGE TO THE LIVING ROTHSCHILDS (CARNEGIES, ROCKEFELLERS, MORGANS ET AL) AND YOUR SURROGATES:

The living Rothschilds cannot be blamed for the sins of their ancestors. That said, many of them perpetuate these sins and have thereby assumed the penalty for these horrific historical sins against God.

We call upon the House of Rothschild and its feeder systems to repent, turn from your wicked ways, and find forgiveness with God.

Restitution will then be in order for the property stolen, murders committed, and the hardships caused.

Policy-makers, on the other hand, need to recognize the sources of this wealth: offshore accounts, hedge funds, media and intelligence to drive markets up and down. This system is constructed on lie upon lie in a never-ending procession.

Truth is, our markets have never been free. In the last four hundred years, the Rothschilds led these deceptions and found all too many willing supporters willing to turn a blind eye and enjoy the spoils.

Without the offshore accounts and hedge funds, this system would die.

It must die.

People should work for a living to define success, not cheat people, like the Rothschilds and their conspirators have done. Humanity can then move to a higher moral plane.

STOP ONEROUS DEBT.
DECLARE YEARS OF JUBILEE.

If "Years of Jubilee" were implemented every seven years, for example, that would be a natural check against the system of compound interest onerous debt that we have now that created the gross excesses of the House of Rothschild and others.

Morality must win the day.

"Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Matthew 4:17.

The bottom line is for the people to regain their original, moral principles, which have intentionally been watered out over the past generations by our press, TV, and other media owned by the Illuminati/Bilderberger Group, corrupting our morals by making misbehavior acceptable to our society. Only in this way shall we conquer this oncoming wave of evil.
